

CARPENTERS OF CITY GO ON STRIKE

Are Awaiting the Action of Contractors on Their Demands.

Will Hold Out for Scale of 50 Cents an Hour.

Contractors Said to Have Denied the Raise at Recent Meeting.

To all appearances the local carpenters are on strike.

At their headquarters at Rowley's hall on West First street, there were about 100 men this morning.

They stated that they did not know whether they were on strike or not. They stated that it would take a day or so to find out what the local contractors are going to do about the increase in pay which they asked for some time ago, and which was supposed to have gone into effect today.

They started in to find out what the contractors are going to do about the increase in pay which they asked for some time ago, and which was supposed to have gone into effect today.

They stated that there was absolutely nothing for publication until such time as they have interviewed each contractor. "We are not looking for trouble, but we are in earnest and mean to go to this thing in the right way and get our raise," said one member of the union.

E. R. Cobb of the builders' exchange stated that he didn't know whether the carpenters were on strike or not. He said that he didn't know whether the carpenters were on strike or not.

Recently the carpenters in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Superior have had an increase in their pay and the Duluth men think they are entitled to as much money as can be made across the bay or in the Twin Cities.

Omaha, Neb., June 14.—Tony Banderl and Florence Brooks are dead and Frank Banderl, a cousin of the dead man, is probably fatally wounded as the result of a quarrel between the two men in the woman's home here early today.

Frank Banderl, although too weak to give details, told the police that his cousin did all the shooting. Each man held a partially emptied revolver when found, however.

The men lived together and the woman kept house for them until recently.

GERMAN DEGREE FOR PROF. A. A. MICHELSON.

Goettingen, Germany, June 15.—The University of Goettingen today conferred the honorary degree of doctor of philosophy on Prof. Albert Michelson, head of the department of physics at the University of Chicago and exchange professor at Goettingen.

NO RIGHT TO GERMAN FLAG

Steamer Consul Grostuck Is Violating Ethics of Sea.

Berlin Refuses to Concern Itself With Castro.

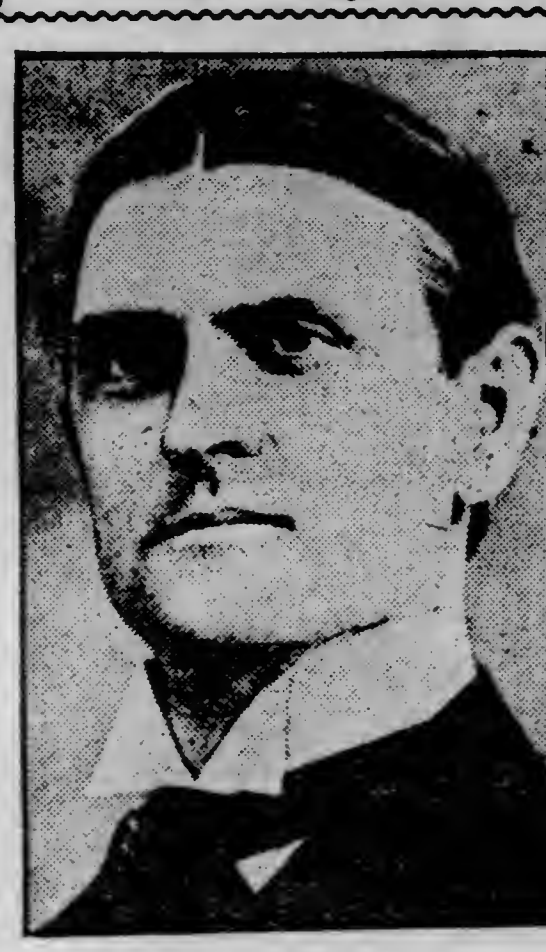

Berlin, June 15.—The German government disclaims all responsibility for the steamer Consul Grostuck, which is reported as flying the German flag, and announces that the blame for any complications that may result from the landing of Cipriano Castro, the exiled president of Venezuela, will rest upon the Halden government.

It is stated emphatically that the steamer has no right to display the German colors, and that the Italian cruiser Umbria and the Italian cruiser Italia, which were purchased from Italy by Haiti, which latter country is the one now properly concerned with the movement of the vessel.

Hill at Foreign Office.

American Ambassador Hill called at the foreign office today, presumably to discuss the situation brought about by the reported presence of Castro on the island.

OHIO LEGISLATOR WHO "SQUEALED"

O. J. EVANS.

Columbus, Ohio, June 15.—O. J. Evans, the bribe-taking legislator, has confessed, is expected to testify against the other members of the house now under indictment. Evans was a member of the steering committee whose duty it was to decide what bills should be considered each day.

LIQUOR MEN GIVEN BLOW

North Dakota Bank Indicted for Collecting Booze Accounts.

Anamoose Institution Pleads Guilty to Law Violation.

Fargo, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—A severe blow was struck the liquor interests today by an action in United States court, which the First National bank of Anamoose was indicted on a charge of violation of the interstate commerce laws in making liquor collections. A representative of the bank entered a plea of guilty on one of sixteen charges in the indictment and the rest were dismissed.

The United States district attorney, several months prior to assuming his official duties, had given the state bankers an adverse opinion on this line of business, holding it illegal. Some months ago the express companies were stopped from making C. O. D. collections, and liquor dealers then induced some bankers to handle their business by attaching bills of sale to drafts. The present action will completely stop that form of sales and make it necessary for dealers to sell either on state credit or on a strictly cash basis.

North Dakota prohibitionists are greatly elated, as they regard this another victory over the liquor movement inaugurated by North Dakota to exclude whisky sales in prohibition territory.

WIFE SPOILS WIDOW'S FACE

Chicago Woman Says Her Husband's Affections Were Stolen.

Chicago, June 15.—Mrs. Eleanor Moreholtz, it is charged, lured Mrs. Bradshaw Dujek, a young widow, to her front door today, and then dashed a bottle of vitriol in her face. Mrs. Dujek was so badly burned that even if she recovers, she will be blind and badly disfigured.

Mrs. Moreholtz was arrested and accused Mrs. Dujek of alienating the affections of her husband. A 5-year-old son of Mrs. Dujek stood with his mother when she was attacked.

UNITED LUTHERAN MEETING IS BEGUN

Norwegian Body Is Holding Its Convention in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The twenty-second national convention of the United Norwegian Lutheran Church of America opened in the Central Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock this morning and the opening service the liturgy of the Lutheran state church of Norway was read by Rev. R. A. Berg, who has just resigned the pastorate of the Bethlehem church, Minneapolis, preached the opening sermon.

During the eight days of the convention devotional exercises will be held every morning for one hour, from 8 to 9 o'clock, and business sessions will be held in the forenoon from 9 to 12 o'clock, and in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Special exercises and discussions will be conducted at the evening sessions.

Dr. Fisher Hestling Emory, Rochester, Minn., L. B. Fisher, president of Lombard college, Galesville, Ill., who underwent an operation for cancer here Wednesday, is resting easily and his condition is pronounced satisfactory.

CENSUS REPORT PROVES THAT DULUTH IS ONE OF THE FAST-GROWING CITIES

Washington, June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Duluth is one of the fast growing cities of the country, according to figures made public today by the census bureau. In the report of the investigators into manufacturing conditions in that city there is not a single item that shows a falling off in the five years from 1904 to 1909, and in the lowest percentage of increase given in any one item is 19 per cent.

What this means cannot be realized without remembering that in some other cities reported at different times by the census bureau, there have been fluctuations in the number of industrial establishments, the capital invested, the number city employees and the amount of output that have varied on both sides of the line.

In Duluth, however, the progress has been steady. In fact, the figures reveal a diminution either in the number of establishments or in the amount of their output, and in fact, the figures reveal a condition of healthy progress that is envied by any other city in the world.

The statistics given in the accompanying table are included in a preliminary statement of the general results of the Thirteenth United States census of manufactures issued today by Acting Census Director Falkner. It contains summary comparing the figures for 1904 and 1909, by city towns, prepared under the direction of William A. Stewart, chief statistician for manufactures, bureau of the census. The figures are subject to such revision as may be necessary after a further examination of the original reports.

The summary shows nothing but increases in the several items, as follows: 91 per cent in the cost of materials used; 88 per cent in the capital invested; 69 per cent in the value of products; 67 per cent in the salaries and wages; 53 per cent in the miscellaneous expenses; 53 per cent in the average number of wage earners; 51 per cent in the value added by manufacture; 35 per cent in the number of salaried officials and clerks; and 19 per cent in the number of establishments.

There were 194 establishments in 1909, as compared with 163 in 1904; an increase of 31, or 19 per cent.

The value of products in 1909 was $17,180,000 and $10,150,000 in 1904; an increase of $7,030,000, or 69 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $89,000 in 1909 and about $62,000 in 1904.

The value of products represents their selling value or price at the plants as actually turned out by the factories during the census year, and does not necessarily have any relation to the amount of sales for that year. The values under this head also include the amount received for work done on materials furnished by others.

The preliminary totals for steam laundries for Duluth, in 1909, are not yet set forth for the census year, but the thirteen census was the first at which they were canvassed, and therefore they are here given separately, as follows: Number of establishments, 10; capital, $50,000; cost of materials used, $60,000; salaries and wages, $168,000; miscellaneous expenses, $50,000; value of products, $122,000; number of salaried officials and clerks, 44; and average number of wage earners employed during the year, 315.

SCHIFF WANTS TO BUILD UNIVERSITY

Would Spend Several Million Marks in His Native City.

Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, June 15.—It is stated that Jacob H. Stockholm, June 15.—The congress of the International Woman's Suffrage alliance today adopted resolutions favoring the co-operation of the alliance with the Socialist women's organizations as well as with other women's unions.

STATE DITCHER DIGS UP PRIZE FISH YARN.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dredge crews working on ditch 63 in Roseau county say they are the most successful fishermen in Minnesota, and they don't know whether or not a net, nor does the dipper, every time it takes a load of water and dirt, carries a number of good sized pickered and pike.

That is the story of A. C. Stevens of D. C. Stevens & Co., contractors for the ditch, and as proof of it he shows a fisherman, some of the fish he says, weigh as much as seven pounds, while few weigh less than three pounds. They run in from a thick river and are picked up at a reduced cost.

BIG SUGAR MEN SOUGHT

House Committee Wants to Ask More Questions.

Charles R. Heike Is Once More Asked About Trust.

Washington, June 15.—Subpoenas were issued today for witnesses to appear next week before the sugar trust investigating committee of the house. They include Alfred Harrison and Charles K. Harrison of the Franklin Sugar Refining company, Philadelphia; Horace Havemeyer, New York; Charles R. Warren, Detroit; Chester S. Morey, Denver; John F. Hager, Cleveland; and Thomas R. Cutler, St. Louis.

Charles R. Heike, for years secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, was again a witness before the committee today.

In beginning the examination, Chairman Hardwick told Mr. Heike he wanted to know into the person, his position and not his official relation with the American Sugar Refining company.

"Didn't you have at the time any idea of the purpose of the merger of the sugar refineries?" Mr. Hardwick asked.

"I knew less than now," replied Mr. Heike.

"Well, from your present knowledge, what would you say was the purpose?"

"A large company can do business at a reduced cost."

"And there is less competition" suggested.

CHICAGO WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

Clothing Takes Fire While She Is Getting Meal.

Chicago, June 15.—Mrs. Mary Brackett, 63 years old, was burned to death, and her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Beachy, an artist and instructor at the Art Institute, was seriously burned last night when their home on East Forty-sixth street.

While preparing supper Mrs. Brackett's clothing became ignited, and when attempting to aid her mother, the lace gown Mrs. Beachy wore took fire. Mrs. Beachy will probably recover.

STOKES DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL.

New York, June 15.—W. E. D. Stokes, who was shot by Ethel Conrad and Lillian Graham in their apartments a week ago yesterday, was discharged from the Roosevelt hospital today, and immediately left for his cottage at Long Branch, N. J., in an automobile. Both the girls will lie in the Tombs in default of $1,000 bail each.

NEW EMBLEM FOR AMERICA

"Oil Barrel and Tobacco Tag" Suggested by Senator.

Pomerene of Ohio Urges Prosecution of Trust Magnates.

Washington, June 15.—Criminal prosecution of the officers of the Standard Oil company and the American Tobacco company was demanded today by Senator Pomerene, who addressed the senate on his resolution calling on the attorney general to undertake such legal action.

The Ohio senator declared at the outset that the Sherman anti-trust law was specific in its authority to press such a suit against conspirators who restrained trade. He contended that lawyers' doubts of the meaning of the statute were "in proportion to the size of the fees they receive from their clients," and that the interpretation of the law by the supreme court of the United States was given.

Asks for a Reason.

"Now with these plain findings of fact and conclusions by the court that this statute has been violated," he said, "what reason can be given by any sworn court official for not continuing his fight against them in order to bring them to the bar of justice? What excuse can any law-maker give for this?"

The people of this country for a failure to enforce this law, when they are every day exerting themselves to court the fractions of the law against other transgressors with less and less influence at their command? A decent sense of self-respect requires the government either to enforce this law or to repeal it."

SEEK HARMONY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Woodrow Wilson and Champ Clark Will Talk to Democrats.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 15.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, and Speaker Champ Clark will be the principal speakers at a big Democratic rally here tonight following the organization of a state federation of Democratic clubs. Both are expected to arrive here tonight.

Thirty-five clubs are expected to be represented in the meeting to form a state federation, and it is thought an effort will be made to bring about harmony in the party, which is now split.

POLK COUNTY WILL VOTE ON DIVISION

"Columbia" Petition Has Priority Over "Roosevelt" Petition.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney General Simpson has advised Governor Eberhart that the petition for a proclamation calling a special election to vote on the division of Polk county is valid. The governor, therefore, will issue the proclamation.

Two petitions have reached the office asking for division of the county. One faction, in event of a successful election, wants to have the new county called Columbia, and the other insists on Roosevelt. The Columbia petition has priority, as it reached the office first.

KAISER'S HEIR IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Berlin, June 15.—Crown Prince Frederick William was in an automobile accident today, but escaped injury. He was driving to the home of Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg to call upon the chancellor when his car struck the curb, smashing a wheel. The crown prince was thrown to the sidewalk, but not with great force. The chauffeur was thrown out, and striking against a lamp post, was slightly bruised. The crown prince continued his trip in an ordinary cab.

SHOULD NOT DABBLE IN RELIGION

President of Augustana Synod Views Public School Conditions With Alarm.

Scores Dean James for Talk on Religion to St. Paul Class.

Nearly 400 Pastors and Laymen Gather for Annual Conference.

A feeling of dissatisfaction with the stand that the public school takes toward matters religious was expressed in the annual message of Dr. E. Norelius of Vasa, Minn., president of the Augustana synod of Swedish Lutheran churches of North America, this morning at the opening business session of the fifty-first annual convention of the synod.

Nearly 400 pastors and laymen of the synod assembled this morning at Bethany church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street, where the business meetings of the convention are to be held. The synod will be in session for five days.

Rev. J. A. Johnston of St. Paul, vice-president of the synod, called the convention to order and after a short devotional service and a roll call, the meeting was turned over to the president, Dr. Norelius. His report was read. It contained many interesting features chief among which was what he considered was an alarming situation which had crept into the public school system.

Dr. Norelius in addressing the convention quoted a press clipping from a St. Paul paper, in which a speech made by Dean James of the university before a class of graduates, was printed. The discourse of Dean James dealt with the religious problem in the public school. The dean asserted that there should be a religious influence exerted over the

HURRICANE ON AUSTRIAN COAST

More Than Two Score Lives May Have Been Lost.

Trieste, Austria, June 15.—A storm of hurricane force raged during the night, causing many deaths and much damage to shipping. Early today the bodies of twenty victims had been recovered.

It is feared that fishing smacks with crews totalling forty men, which were at sea last night, were lost. The ships in the roads were severely damaged. A Greek vessel with its crew of twelve foundered.

Minor damages to craft are reported from other points on the Adriatic sea.

WARE STATE OLEO LAW!

New Statute Will Go Into Effect at End of Month.

Fine of Not Less Than $50 for First Infringement.

The new state oleomargarine law will go into effect July 1. The law not only prohibits the sale of colored oleomargarine in any form or manner, but permits the sale of uncolored oleomargarine only when the customer has full knowledge of what he is getting.

The bill was introduced by Senator H. N. Benson of St. Peter and had hard sledding. It prohibits the sale of any substitute for butter which is colored in any tint of yellow. It does not help if the manufacturer uses half or two-thirds cream—it is against the law to sell it if it looks like butter.

In Big Letters.

When uncolored oleomargarine is sold, the tub or package must have the word "oleomargarine" in a prominent place in big type. The retailer in turn must deliver the product to his customer in wrappers having stamped in plain type the word "oleomargarine," and also the name of the retailer and the manufacturer. The use of any descriptive matter intended to mislead the customer, such as "Jersey butterine," or "Country Rolls," or "Dairy Rolls," is specifically prohibited.

Another section prohibits the proprietor of any hotel, dining room, club, drinking place, cafe, bakery, boat, lumber camp, mining camp, railroad camp, boarding house, hospital or other place where guests boarders or patients are served with food for butter unless the words "oleomargarine used in place of butter" are on the bill fare or posted on the walls of the room.

Penalty is Provided.

The penalty for violation of the law is a fine of from $50 to $100 or a jail sentence of thirty days, with higher penalties for a second offense.

DULUTH, JUNE 15, 1911

The Electric Lighting business differs from all other lines of business in this: Electricity cannot be kept in storage. Any ordinary commodity can be held by the dealer until it is called for. Even such "public utilities" as water and gas can be stored up against the maximum demand of the community.

But the Electric Light and Power plant must at all times possess sufficient equipment and facilities to meet on the instant the greatest demand that can be made upon it.

If the heaviest demand for Electric current (which occurs only on the evening of the shortest day in the year) were constant every day the requisite investment and fixed expenses would be about the same as now.

A customer who uses 24 incandescent lamps one hour a day consumes the same quantity of Electricity as the customer who uses only one such lamp continuously for 24 hours a day. But the one-hour customer requires 24 TIMES AS MUCH PLANT CAPACITY as the all-day user.

Inasmuch as all the short-hour customers require their light at the hour of greatest demand, YOU can readily see that the time when the current is used is a most important factor in making the rate.

While in practically all other American cities the rate for operating electrical appliances in the home is the same as for light, the Duluth-Edison Electric Company has long given Duluth people the benefit of the LOWEST RATE IN THE WORLD for Electric washing, ironing, cleaning, sewing, cooking and heating. How this company's lighting rate compares with those of other cities YOU can see for yourself from the following officially certified figures:

Incandescent lighting.....8 cents
Household appliances.....3 cents

If this company gets a new street lighting contract (and we offer to do that lighting at a much lower price than would be possible with a Municipal plant) our incandescent lighting rate will be lowered to 7.6 cents by giving to EVERY LIGHTING CUSTOMER FREE renewals of all carbon and gem filament lamps (up to 32-c.p.).

The alphabetical list of cities and their rates will be continued in the next "Lighting Talk," in next Saturday's Herald. Don't miss it.

DULUTH-EDISON ELECTRIC CO.

SIX TRACTS SELECTED

Four Contracts Let By the State Reclamation Board.

Development Is Rapid in Western Part of the State.

W. R. Mackenzie, secretary of the Northern Minnesota Development association, and secretary of the state reclamation board, is in Duluth today after a trip through the northern part of the state with the other members of the reclamation board. The board has located six of the ten tracts of land on which it is to conduct demonstration work and expects to select the four other tracts within a short time. The six tracts selected are in Koochiching, Roseau, Marshall, Beltrami, Itasca and Cass counties, and contracts for clearing have been let for four tracts. Mr. Mackenzie is now engaged in closing the four other contracts. The Hubbard county location is still in doubt, and selections are still made in Itasca, St. Louis and Lake counties.

Even Mr. Mackenzie, who knows Northern Minnesota as most men know their back yards, was surprised by the development in the western part of the state.

"The hay is ready for the harvest in the Red River valley, and they were cutting it near Crookston when I was there yesterday," he said this morning. "There is greater acreage in that line than ever before. I saw fields of 300 acres of flax, where nothing but weeds and wild vegetation had grown before. Much new land is available for cultivation and it is being cultivated by hundreds of new settlers who are coming in to Northern Minnesota. The number of new settlers will be greater this year than in any previous year."

"The extent of the drainage work in Marshall and Beltrami counties was a revelation to me. The walking dredges are working steadily, fully fifty of them, and they are opening up hundreds of thousands of acres to settlement. In the two counties, $700,000 is being spent in opening up new land. Six or seven years ago, many settlers in that section of the state had come discouraged and left for other states. They are coming back since the drainage work started, and they are bringing new settlers with them. The Soo line is preparing to build from Thief River Falls to International Falls and that will be a big factor in the development of the country. Although the Red River valley is noted for its fine farms and much land is under cultivation, there is much more land in the northwestern part of the state that has not been settled, and it is awaiting the settlers."

Mr. Mackenzie says that the project for a road from East Grand Forks to Duluth, broached at the meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association here and placed in the hands of a highway commission, has been very favorably received throughout the northern part of the state.

"The main trunk road would pass through six counties, St. Louis, Itasca, Cass, Beltrami, Clearwater and Polk. I believe the people in those counties are anxious to have the project to influence the county commissioners of their respective counties to consider it. The road would be the artery of a system of roads that would reach into every county in the northern part of the state and that would be more of a factor in hastening development than anything else of the state."

"The sentiment for the trunk road is not confined to the six counties directly affected, but is wide-spread. The other counties would lend their support by building roads to the main road and if the plan is worked out in the right way, I believe there will be a net-work of good roads in Northern Minnesota within five years."

FORTY-THREE YEARS IN WOODS

Cruiser Who Found Hibbing
Girl Is a Minnesota
Pioneer.

Edmund McSweeney, the timber cruiser, who found Alice Graff, the Hibbing girl, who was lost in the woods for six days and nights, was in Duluth today on a business trip. He found time to visit Miss Graff at the hospital. She is steadily improving. McSweeney has been a timber cruiser for forty-three years. He has never done anything but a business trip. He is rather proud of having spent all his life in the woods and has many an entertaining story of his experiences.

He has been all over the state of Minnesota, the wildest parts of the state being familiar ground to him. At present he is engaged about Hibbing. He left for that place this afternoon.

IOWA BANKERS ARE IN SESSION AT MASON CITY.

Mason City, Iowa, June 15.—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Iowa Bankers' association opened here today. President John McHugh of Sioux City is presiding. Reports of officers and committees are the order of the afternoon. Tomorrow the convention will be addressed by Prof. Lawrence Laughlin of Chicago university, a member of the National Monetary commission.

Indiana; medical director, Dr. E. L. Wing, chaplain, Henry B. Barnes, Keokuk. Mason City was awarded the 1912 convention.

MRS. FORD UNDER FIRE

"Woman in the Case" in Big Four Scandal on Stand.

Tells of Cooke's Acts and of Warriner's Predecessor.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 15.—Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford was expected to conclude her testimony today in the trial of Edgar S. Cooke, who is charged with embezzling $24,000 from the Big Four Railway company.

Mrs. Ford concluded her direct testimony yesterday and the defense was ready to begin the cross examination. Her physician, however, objected to her being further questioned, saying she was testifying at the risk of her life. Court thereupon adjourned for the day.

Cooke's Neighbors Called. Fourteen witnesses have been subpoenaed by the defense to appear today. Most of them either live or have lived in the vicinity of Saylor Park, a suburb of this city, where Cooke resided while employed by the Big Four railroad.

A subpoena has also been issued for $1,500 of this amount for herself and then, when shown a check signed by her and endorsed by Cooke for $1,000, said Cooke had forced her to return that amount to him.

In all essential details her testimony fitted into and supplemented that of Warriner. Warriner had related that when he discovered that Cooke was returning some of the money and had subsequently visited Warriner's home and given him $2,000.

Mrs. Ford said she had accompanied Cooke to the Warriner residence one night, but had remained outside until the latter had finished his call; that Cooke then said, "It's all right; we'll both go to New York" and that they then opened the cache she had established in a Wall street vault and aided Cooke in counting bills to the total of $22,000.

According to the woman, Cooke's explanation of his methods in acquiring this money was that "he just looted himself."

The woman wore a heavy veil, and when she lifted it a murmur of pity ran through the room.

She gave her name as "Jeanette P. Ford," and her residence as a hospital.

Who is maintaining you there?" was the next question.

Mrs. Ford had not been paid, she replied, "but I have some furniture which I hope to sell."

"How many children have you?" "Two, a boy and a girl. They are now with the respondent. They are accompanied by facial twitchings that showed how closely this question had pressed home."

Warriner in his cross-examination, again heavily resisted attempts to lead him into an exposure of "men higher up." He denied there were any such men, that he had pleaded guilty and accepted a prison sentence at the behest of Big Four officials, or that he had ever, as an officer of the road, paid out money for illegal rebates.

DIRECTIONS FOR SHIPPING VEAL

Health Department Seeking to Protect Citizens From Bad Meat.

The health department has prepared a set of rules for the men who are shipping veal into the city, which, it is believed, will do much to prevent the condemnation of large quantities of meat.

In the last year the meat inspector has ordered over seven tons of veal to the incinerator. Practically all of it could have been saved had it been properly killed and prepared for shipment. The rules formulated are simple and easy of understanding. They call principally for cleanliness, proper cooling and shipment in cool cars, refrigerator cars if possible.

The Duluth health department during the last year has been compelled to condemn a great many hundredweights of veal. It has been a great loss to the public as well as to the vendor. In order to prevent this great waste of foodstuff, the department has compiled certain rules to govern the preparation of this meat.

"1. All veal must not be less than five weeks old, well fed and kept clean."

"2. During the hot weather and while the files are bad, veal should not be dressed until after sundown and for six hours previous to killing."

MRS. JEANNETTE STEWART FORD.

the manager of the safe deposit department of this city. He was ordered to appear with records showing Mrs. Ford's application for a safety deposit box on Aug. 8, 1901.

Almost at the outset of her cross-examination today, Charles W. Baker, for the defense, led Mrs. Ford back to her earlier career and the name of Frank Constock, who preceded Warriner as local treasurer of the Big Four was again brought into the trial.

This was when in reply to a question she said Cooke told her Constock was short, and when she admitted she and Constock were "a bit more than friendly."

Mrs. Ford denied that the safety deposit boxes in which she yesterday testified that packages of money, alleged to have been supplied by Cooke, were kept, had been used for storing her own securities and jewelry.

It was as a pathetic, pained invalid that she appeared today. With quivering voice, shaking hand holding a handkerchief unsteadily to her eyes, she admitted having hidden $22,000 for Cooke and then declared that Cooke had told her that it had been taken from the Big Four railway.

She said she had received $1,200 or should have nothing but water to drink and a cool place to rest.

"3. When bleeding, a veal should be hung up by the hind legs free from the floor. By this means the veal will be thoroughly bled and kept clean. This also applies to removing the entrails. Wash the interior well with clean water and dry thoroughly with a clean cloth."

"4. Next spread the veal so the animal heat will have an opportunity to escape. This requires a cool place, preferably in a draught. It should be allowed to hang in this way for at least twelve hours."

"5. Veal should not be burlapped or wrapped in a heavy cloth. A string tied around the carcass is sufficient."

"6. It is important to be posted on train schedules, as veal lying on a depot platform in warm weather will surely spoil."

"7. Always try to have your veal shipped in refrigerator cars or at least in cool cars."

BONILLA GIVES OFFICERS SLIP

Friend of Zelaya Supposed to Be After War Munitions Is Elusive.

Washington, June 15.—Senator Pollock Bonilla, once president of Honduras and acknowledged friend of Zelaya, the deposed leader of Nicaragua, came to Washington today on business he did not evidently care to explain, for he gave the "slip" to government agents who had been set to watch him, and appeared at none of the places where one may usually find a Central American bent on a political mission.

Soon after Bonilla arrived, the Central American colony heard that he had come as an agent of the Honduran party of Mexico to oppose the ratification of the Honduran loan treaty. Some members of the colony, however, among them Alberto Meneno, the Honduran minister, preferred to believe that Bonilla was on a mission not so easily explained, though it might be on behalf of the Cientificos.

From one of those apparently wireless messages by which confidential advisers travel, the word came that a heavy shipment of Mexican gold bullion had recently been presented at the United States essay office in New York and that gold certificates had been issued for it. Many of the diplomats averred that the gold certificates might soon be exchanged for rapid fire guns and steel coated bullets.

There is little that the agents of this government can do other than to discover revolutionary plans, if there are any, and see that no violations of the neutrality laws occur.

SUPERIOR

CLOUQUET BALL TEAM
COMING TO SUPERIOR.

The Clouquet baseball team will come to Superior Sunday to play a return game with the Turnbull-Cameron-Degler aggregation. It is understood that between 200 and 300 rooters will accompany the Clouquet team, which has not lost a game this season. In the game at Clouquet, the Turnbills were defeated 6 to 5, in a fast exhibition. The game has been scheduled for Hisslop park.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING IN METHODIST CHURCHES.

Rev. D. W. Howell, secretary of the old Chautauqua society of Chautauqua, N. Y., and a former pastor of a large Methodist church of New York, and Rev. M. Tremery of Milwaukee, Sunday school field secretary for Wisconsin, will be the principal out-of-town speakers at the Sunday School Institute and Field Day which will be held Saturday and Sunday in all of the Methodist churches of Superior. Dr. Howell is district organizer for this territory. There will be a morning, afternoon and evening session of the institute at the Cumming Avenue M. E. church on Saturday and on Sunday special field day services will be held in the various Methodist churches of the city.

Red Men Elect.

Okoboji tribe, No. 14, Improved Order of Red Men held its election of officers last evening in the Macabee hall, Billings park. Henry Phelps was chosen sachem, Walter Cooke, senior sagamore; Roger Western, junior sagamore, and Henry Schooner, prophet. Dr. Howell was chosen as a delegate to the sessions of the great council, which will be held in Superior in August. The tribe is organizing a baseball team, which will soon be out in uniform.

Many Applications Filed.

A total of 165 applications for liquor licenses, just four more than can legally be issued under the law, which provides that there can only be one saloon for each 250 residents, are on file at the office of City Clerk Norquist. The council license committee will meet June 22 to consider the applications.

Suit for Divorce.

Florence Vens, who has started suit in superior court for a divorce from her husband, Paul Vens, alleges in her bill of complaint that on one occasion her husband shot her with a rifle and another time used a hunting knife in an effort to wound her. She also charges that he is an habitual drunkard and has deserted her. They were married December 26, 1908.

Summer Uniforms.

The Superior police wore their summer headgear for the first time yesterday. This year the hat of the ordinary patrolman is of special summer weight and is blue. The officers of the department wear dark navy blue caps, with gold lettering and braid according to their stations.

ANOTHER MAN TELLS FACTS ABOUT BAKE OVENS

MR. MIKE WEINZIERL.

Here is another well known Minnesota man who has taken the Loughney bake oven treatments with splendid results, and like many other thankful patients who have been cured of different diseases by these remarkable men, writes the letter which follows the results of these treatments in his case:

"Loughney, 801 Christie Building, Duluth, Minn.

"Gentlemen: I am writing this to tell you that I am more than well pleased at the results obtained in my case by your remarkable method of treating rheumatism and kindred ailments. I wish to say that your treatment in the bake ovens have done me the world of good, also that I had been constipated; I wish to say my bowels are fine, as they move freely every day without aid. I regret that I did not hear of your method of treating sooner, but now that I am feeling fine I will gladly substantiate the above at any time. Respectfully, "Signed, MIKE WEINZIERL, "Ely, Minn."

The Bake Oven Institute is located in the Christie Bldg., Duluth, Minn., the hours are from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily; Sundays from 9 to 12 only.

Flour City Man Wants Duluth to Have Float in Parade.

Following an invitation from the Minneapolis 1911 Civic Celebration committee received by Mayor O'Connell, suggesting that the city of Duluth should be represented by a municipal float in the industrial parade to occur Friday, July 7, of celebration week, Smith B. Hall, chairman of the city department, arrived this morning to personally urge the acceptance of the invitation.

"Our celebration," he says, "is not a local affair, but its scope is intended to include the entire Northwest. Nor is it merely a week of festivity. Its various features have back of them some purpose for stimulating civic activities along lines that will bring results in the future. Already the city has been given the greatest cleaning up in its history. Flowers are being grown on vacant lots and public school grounds. The merchants of Nicollet avenue are to spend $20,000 for hanging flower gardens on all buildings, which will be some bouquet. The entire national guard of the state is to be mobilized for three days. There is to be a great safe and sane Fourth of July celebration. A historic pageant will tell of the development of the Northwest in a series of tableaux vivants in which 500 people will appear on a stage set with natural scenery, which will include miniature lakes and waterfalls with real water. There is to be an aquatic fête which will be a novelty. It is to include a pageant of the history of the state, such as Cleopatra's barge, Greek galley, Roman triumph, the ship Columbus, Henrik Hudson's Half Moon, the Mayflower, etc. These and many other things will be included in the parade. It is to be a parade of fraternal, uniformed bodies and a great school children's demonstration. The citizens of Minneapolis have a fund of $100,000 to pay for all this. We are urging the Duluth Boat club to send crews to compete in our water sports, and inviting the Duluth Automobile club to be represented in the auto parade. The Duluth companies of the National Guard and the Third Regiment are coming, and if the city itself will be represented by a float, I would suggest that it be a float that will advertise your water carnival here. It will be a great opportunity to be seen by several hundred thousand people, and you can take the opportunity of reciprocating by sending delegations and being represented in your mid-summer carnival, which is to come three weeks later."

Mr. Hall interviewed Albert Ames and Julius H. Barnes of the Duluth Boat club, T. F. McCarthy of the Auto club, and W. A. McGonagle, chairman of the Public Affairs committee, of the Commercial club, and some others this morning, as well as Mayor O'Connell, and says that he found them all rather responsive to the idea that Duluth should be represented by a municipal float, and the civic celebration committee's invitation will receive due consideration.

GRAND FORKS IS DOING THE HONORS

Many Organizations Are Holding Meetings in the City.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—This is a big day here. Five different state organizations are holding their annual sessions, with a total attendance of 1,000 delegates from all sections of the state. The jewelers' and opticians' associations are on the last day of their convention. The Grand Army of the Republic and the Women's Relief corps campment closes tonight, while the Dakota series of Eagles just opened its convention this morning.

A. R. on Parade.
In the G. A. R. and W. R. C. sessions the big feature was the parade that was held this afternoon. The morning session was given over to business, while the last night the annual camp fire was held.

The Jewelers' association closed its work at noon, while the Optical society will conclude its labors and adjourn this evening.

The Eagles are here in large numbers and held their first business session this afternoon. Tonight an elaborate entertainment has been provided for, and tomorrow the parade takes place. There are about 1,000 visitors here on account of this gathering.

TALK OF DRUNKENNESS.

Charities and Corrections Delegates End Sessions.
Boston, Mass., June 15.—"No case of drunkenness, no matter how far advanced, is incurable beyond recovery, and no case, however slight, is considered to be without harm," said Robert A. Woods, head president of the South End House of Boston, in addressing the delegates to the thirty-eighth annual conference of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, the subject of which was drunkenness. Mr. Woods advocated state institutions for non-criminal persons arrested for intoxication. John Graham Brooks spoke on "The Next Step in Liquor Legisla-

BUMPER CROP OF BERRIES EXPECTED

Yield of Luscious Fruit in Bayfield District to Be Large This Year.

Ashtland, Wis., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The strawberry growers of Bayfield, expect to receive fully $60,000 for their crop this summer. The estimate of some, is as high as $75,000 or even more. The strawberry crop ought to average 200 crates to the acre—and what is realized from this will depend upon the market price.

R. E. Holston reports the first short-crop from home-grown berries. Sunday, June 11, the pickers had to go on for a short-crop. This is a week earlier than the first ripe berries last year. The berries are more desirable than the early ones, for the value of the Northern Wisconsin fruit crop lies in the fact that it comes into the market when the Southern berries have been exhausted.

The size of the berries and the extraordinarily sweet flavor are already making the Bayfield berry famous. Two Associations Handle Crop.
The berry crop of Bayfield is handled by two separate associations. The first association represents 150 acres and the other one represents about fifty acres. Each association has a business manager or agent who looks after the market and attends to all details of shipping and getting the berries to the customers. Formerly when each dealer was independent, they had all kinds of trouble.

Berries shipped to the Twin Cities would reach them in a day or so, and would be delivered a day or so later than the early ones. The berries are sold and the shipper gets his money at such prices as the consumer is willing to pay. Now things are different. It is easy to juggle with one man, but it doesn't pay to fool with a body of men, and so the two associations get the very best of service all along the line now, and get the highest market prices.

There are about thirty acres of growing strawberries in the Washburn district in addition to the Bayfield and Madeline Island districts, and some have been taken to form an association at Washburn. As at Bayfield, the business will be chosen by the growers in touch with the market, and all members of the association will be in business through him. The growers will receive pay according to the grade and the individual berry pickers will have no difficulty in finding a market for their berries. The Bayfield berries, and the products of other places, find a market here.

ANDERSONVILLE CREAMERY IS STARTED THIS WEEK.

Ashtland, Wis., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Andersonville creamery, the new enterprise started by forty dairy farmers as the business manager, opened Tuesday. The first morning's receipts comprised about 4,000 pounds of milk, and the amount is expected to increase right along. The creamery will be exclusively cheese, but in time, it may run into butter making as well. It is intended to run the entire year. About 300 cows are now included in the creamery, and the number is increasing. The farmers realize from 30 to 40 cents more per hundred, than they would from butter making. If the farmers are loyal to their institution, it will be a great thing for them in the long run.

The Grand Old Flag.
Many people smile when they hear the American flag referred to as the grand old flag, because the country is so young. Nevertheless, it is one of the oldest flags in the world. It is not the oldest. Every other nation has changed its flag since the United States adopted the stars and stripes, and therefore the American people have the right to feel proud of the most ancient and honorable flag in the world. Just as proud are the friends of golden grain belt beers who have learned to depend upon its never failing quality. Your dealer or Duluth branch Minneapolis brewing company will supply you.

SUMMER SCHOOL SPECIALTY.

Agriculture and Domestic Science Being Considered at Wahpeton.

Wahpeton, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual Richland county summer school was opened at the state science school here, with Fred E. Smith, president of the institution, as conductor. Special stress will be laid by the training school on the question of agricultural education and on domestic science, both of which subjects are being stressed up extensively in the rural schools of this and adjoining counties. Miss Lillian F. Stevens of the science school has charge of the domestic science work, while Prof. G. W. Randlett of the agricultural college is in charge of the agricultural training department.

ARSON CASES TO BE PUSHED BY THE STATE.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—R. Duxbury, a St. Paul attorney, has been retained by the state fire marshal's department to help probe Granite Falls fire. It is said that indictment of persons well known will follow. A. S. Wallace, assistant fire marshal, will leave soon for Yellow Medicine county to assist in the investigations.

A general conference was held with the governor and the attorney general's office yesterday over the appointment of special attorneys to assist in the prosecution of arson cases. It was decided that where there is sufficient evidence, legal help shall be employed and arson cases pushed to conclusion.

STORY OF PORTUGUESE MUTINY IS DOUBTED.

Vigo, Spain, June 15.—Reports from Chaves of the mutiny of two regiments of Portuguese troops are being contradicted. The rumors are probably unfounded, since it is learned from other sources that the royalist plans on the Portuguese frontier did not develop as had been expected. It is supposed that the royalists at Chaves planned to mutiny upon the approach of Capt. Coutinho, the monarchist leader, who is said to be at the head of forces near Braga.

MEMORIAL SERVICES BY KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The annual memorial service of the Duluth Knights of Pythias will be held Sunday, July 2, at the Merritt Memorial M. E. church, Forty-sixth avenue west, which will be followed at the cemetery by the impressive rites of the order.

The address of the day will be delivered by Grand Chancellor Fred S. Atwood of Minneapolis, often referred to as "the blind optimist." He is well known in Duluth, having frequently visited and lectured here.

The Pythian quartet will give several selections and Louis Sworshak will render the Kitchi Gammul, will attend the services in a body. N. H. Colvin, past chancellor commander of the North Star lodge, has been appointed deputy grand chancellor of the order for this district.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S CROPS.

Wheat Acreage Decreases But Aggregate Yield Increases.

Washington, June 15.—According to a bulletin issued by the census bureau on the crops of South Dakota based on statistics gathered at the last census, the leading crops in 1909 ranked in the order of valuation, were: wheat, $2,851,000; corn, $2,335,000; oats, $1,838,000; hay and forage, $1,249,000; barley, $1,070,000; flaxseed, $642,000; clover and alfalfa, $552,000; potatoes $1,567,000.

From 3,954,559 acres in 1899 the wheat acreage fell in 1909 to 3,164,622 acres, a decrease of 22.1 per cent. The acreage of corn showed an increase; the acreage being in 1899, 2,259,846 acres. Although wheat decreased in acreage during the past decade, the aggregate yield increased for the period. The yield of wheat in 1909 was 1,458,229 bushels, the value per acre, $13.80.

Woman's Complexion Need Never Grow Old

(From English Magazine of Travel.)
"Travelers visiting Baltimore and other cities in the United States are struck with the youthful complexions of the women. It is the same delicate and lovely tint—free from blemish—that one finds in France and Japan."

"Whether in the Orient or along the Mediterranean—or in the bustling American city—it is evident that some women know the secret of mayonaise. For the time being, it is simple lotion any woman can preserve the dainty and delicate skin given her in her girlhood and halt the advance of Father Time."

"The treatment is harmless and will not injure a baby's skin. Dissolve small original package of mayonaise in eight ounces of witch hazel. Massage the face, arms and neck with this solution once a day and you need never use paint or powder. It does not show upon the skin, but it moves all sorts of blemishes and prevents the growth of hair. In hot weather mayonaise is doubly welcome, for it removes all scale from the skin at once, and keeps the complexion dainty and fair on the most trying days."

"THE BREAD BATTLE"—CHEAP BREAD OR LOYALTY TO UNION?

The bakery of M. M. Gasser, 209 West Superior street, did a rushing business today. It was on account of the following advertisement that appeared in The Herald:

"Cut in Bread.
"For the purpose of keeping our employees busy, we will sell for an unlimited time: Three 5c loaves of bread for 10c and 10c loaves of bread for 7c."

Mr. Gasser refused to sign a union agreement with his bakery employees who promptly quit their jobs recently and were assisted by the union to the extent that a boycott was declared on the Gasser bakery shop. Every other bakery in the city yielded to the demands of the union.

Mr. Gasser retaliated on the union by reducing prices and at the same time, to some extent, on the trade of some bakeries, which are passing on the wages and maintaining values which have been in existence in the past. Whether the loyalty of men and women to their unions will outweigh their desire to buy bread at less than 5c a loaf is a question that is being put to the test.

At Gasser's, business, they say, is good. The union says its boycott will be successful. And there you are.

TRAMP STEALS BATH IN HOUSE IN ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Walking into her home after a shopping trip, Mrs. E. H. Bassett, 715 Laurel avenue, discovered a tramp engaged in taking a bath. In police court, the tramp said his name was Fred Gentinger. He admitted not only taking a bath, but declared he scrubbed his underclothing in the wash basin. When searched at police station, two cucumbers and the string from a woman's corset, were found in his pockets. Forty days in the workhouse is what Judge Hanft imposed for carelessness in selecting a place for a bath.

A CONSTANT ITCHING AND BURNING

Night and Day. Cried All the Time. Used Most Everything. Cuticura Remedies Cured Itching in 3 Days. Healed in 8 Days.

"I was taken with the itch in April, 1904, and used most everything. I had a friend pay me a visit from Cumberland, and she advised me to use Cuticura Remedies which I did. The cure was certainly quick, and I use them to this day. I had it terribly under my lines. I only used one box of Pills, but two boxes of Ointment, and I use the Cuticura Soap all the time. I hope this will benefit others, as it has me, after 10 years, and others could do nothing for me." (Signed) Miss Lu Johnson, 1823 Ninth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., Aug. 3, 1910.

In a later letter Miss Johnson adds: "The trouble began with an eruption under my waist, until I was not able to sit down. I kept a constant itching and burning all the time, night and day. I went to a doctor but he could do me no good after I told him how many medicines he gave me, and then told me I would be compelled to go to a skin specialist, which I positively refused to do. I cried all the time. Finally I made up my mind to try Cuticura Remedies, and tried Cuticura Pills, Ointment and Soap, and was entirely cured of the itching three days after I started using them. The healing took about eight days. I consider Cuticura Remedies marvelous, and would recommend them everywhere. I hope everyone suffering from any skin disease will try Cuticura, for it is mine forevermore."

The Cuticura Remedies afford the speediest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp troubles. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 159 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. Mailed free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on skin treatment.

Steel Corporation Lawyer Clashes With House Committee.

New Witnesses in Hearing Will Be Suggested By "Trust."

Washington, June 15.—The United States Steel corporation intends to suggest to the Stanley Steel trust investigating committee the calling of witnesses whom the committee may overlook and who may throw light on matters in question, and also to suggest that questions be asked if the committee fails to bring out the facts possessed by such witnesses.

R. V. Lindabury, counsel for the Steel corporation, declared this intention after the examination of James Gayley, former vice president, in answer to an inquiry by Representative Young of Michigan.

"It is our intention," said Mr. Lindabury, "to suggest questions overlooked that we think pertinent, and witnesses who we think, in all fairness, should be called."

"The committee will exercise its discretion as to whom it will summon," said Mr. Stanley. "Of course I assume," Mr. Lindabury replied, "that the committee would not refuse to summon witnesses we suggest."

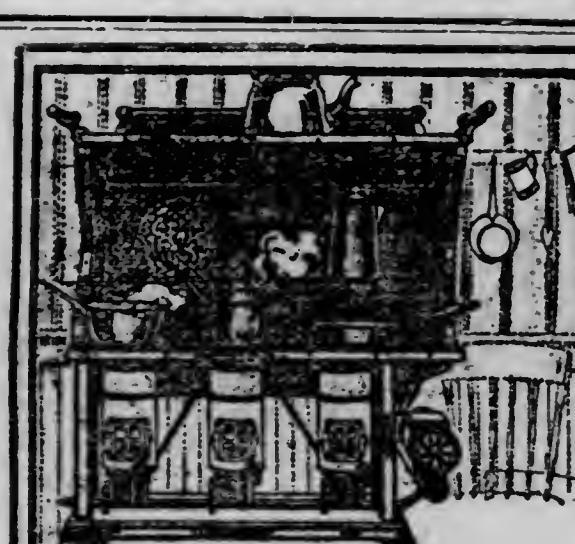

"That will be determined when the suggestions are made," Mr. Stanley replied.

Rates on Ore Roads.

The Steel corporation counsel and the chairman brushed again over the introduction of railroad rate figures relating to the Steel trust railroads in the Lake Superior ore region. The chairman had secured rates for ton ore hauled by the Duluth & Iron Range and the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Steel trust railroads, from the interstate commerce commission and had employed an engineer to compute from these figures the rate per ton per mile. The purpose was to show that the rates charged for hauling ore over the Steel trust railroads were exorbitant. The chairman, he said, were paid from one Steel trust pocket to the other, but resulted in injustice to independent owners and thus increased unfairly their cost of production.

Mr. Lindabury objected to the introduction of the figures without the identity of their source, and the chairman asked: "Who is authority for those figures?" he asked.

"An engineer and expert accountant whom I employed to make the mathe-

"What a Relief!"

Only the woman who has tried knows what comfort and relief a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove brings into the kitchen. It is not only that the New Perfection cooks so well. It saves so much work in other ways. There are no ashes to clean up before going to bed; no fire to bank for the night. Everything is ready for cooking in the morning at a touch of a match.

You are saved from an overheated kitchen; saved from soot and dirt; saved from chopping wood and carrying coal. In the kitchen or the laundry, for the lightest or the most elaborate meal, you will find the New Perfection stove with the New Perfection oven is the best and most convenient.

matical calculations," said Mr. Stanley. "Well, it should not appear in the record that these figures are authoritative, and I think the record should show the author," said Mr. Lindabury. "The man was an employee of mine," said Mr. Stanley. "I might say that he is thoroughly competent and was formerly in the service of the Carnegie Steel company and the United States Steel corporation."

"Might I ask if he is Mr. Tindell?" inquired Mr. Lindabury.

"Yes, you may ask," said Mr. Stanley, "but I assure you the name is not as if I had done it myself. I am responsible for false figures. If they are wrong they may be corrected."

The committee will not meet again for several days, probably not until next week after the passage of the wool bill in the house. The future course will be determined within a few days. Messmore the first witnesses to be called will be James A. Farrell, president of the Steel corporation.

Mr. Gayley explained many details about the ore holdings and shipping facilities of the Steel corporation, and was excused with the understanding that he might be later recalled.

WANTS TO DIVIDE MRS. EDDY'S MONEY

Adopted Son of Late Church Founder Files Affidavit in Suit.

Concord, N. H., June 15.—An affidavit filed in the United States circuit court here by Dr. Ebenezer J. Foster-Eddy, adopted son of the late Mary Baker Eddy, asks that the testimony of several persons be taken in connection with the suit brought by Dr. Foster-Eddy to have the residuary clause of Mrs. Eddy's will declared void and the residue of her estate divided between himself and George Glover of Lead, S. D., Mrs. Eddy's son.

The facts desired to be brought out by this testimony, relate to Mrs. Eddy's alleged discovery of the art of healing diseases, her relations with Mrs. Stetson, details of the organization and finances of the Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, and the manner in which the agreement was procured whereby Messrs. Glover and Foster-Eddy, in consideration of a money settlement, agreed not to contest Mrs. Eddy's will.

Chicago, June 15.—Fourteen indictments against nine men whom the police characterize as labor "sluggers" and "labor racketeers" were returned by the grand jury today. The men are: Maurice Enright, a business agent for the plumbers' union, who confessed to shooting and killing William Gentlemen, a union labor agent, who was returned by the grand jury. The men are: John McCabe, Walter Stevens, Peter Gentlemen, Harry Higgins, William Connors, Edward Storegaard, Joseph Kane and Arthur O'Connor.

DULUTH MAN SUBPOENAED

Fred N. Webber, Sr., special officer from Washington, D. C., was in Duluth yesterday for the purpose of serving a subpoena on W. H. Cook of this city to appear at the investigation of Senator Lorimer which takes place soon. Mr. Cook was out of the city but Mr. Webber left the subpoena at his residence, 317 Fourteenth avenue east. Mr. Cook said to the Chicago Herald-Examiner that he was not subpoenaed to appear.

A subpoena was served on William O'Brien of Duluth yesterday. William Burgess of Duluth was not subpoenaed to appear.

Mr. Webber left last night for Springfield, Ill., where he will serve a number of papers.

SAYS SHE SHOT HERSELF.

Pittsburg Woman Refuses to Prosecute and Denies Kissing.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 15.—Mrs. C. F. Hill, wife of a wealthy oil operator, who was shot in the thigh last Saturday morning at her home, and which resulted in the detention of O. R. Schaum, has informed the authorities that she will not prosecute, and the case was dismissed. Mrs. Hill's statement to the police and her reusal to prosecute caused surprise. Mr. Hill was not at home when the shooting occurred, having departed some time ago for Oklahoma to look after some oil property.

When the authorities learned of the shooting they arrested Schaum, William Daufen and Miss Emma Horner at the Hill residence. Later Daufen and Miss Horner were released, but Schaum was held pending the result of the woman's injury.

Mrs. Hill left the hospital yesterday. She informed the police that she accidentally shot herself; that the whole affair was a ridiculous mistake and that she alone was responsible through trying to play a joke. She denied that Daufen had kissed her or that Schaum had attempted to shoot Daufen, the bullet striking her, as alleged when the arrests were made.

Mrs. Hill says Schaum is her cousin by marriage and that she had written her husband in Oklahoma explaining the whole matter.

One day looking from her window down into her yard she saw the bull standing over the prostrate Llewellyn. She immediately rushed to the rescue of the bull, and at an exhibition two weeks later her Llewellyn secured three prizes, and she is now wondering if the bull had used a system of intimidation.

WHEAT CROP OF NORTH DAKOTA

Census Bureau Places Its Value in 1909 at $97,791,000.

Washington, June 15.—Statistics relative to the leading crops of the state of North Dakota collected at the thirteenth decennial census, April 15, 1910, are contained in an official statement issued by Acting Census Director Falkner. The leading crops in 1909, ranked in the order of valuation, were: Wheat, $97,791,000; oats, $21,802,000; flaxseed, $14,347,000; barley, $11,727,000; hay and forage, $11,123,000; corn, $2,595,000; potatoes, $1,566,000; and emmer and speltz, $1,041,000.

From 4,451,251 acres in 1899 the wheat acreage increased by 1909 to 8,179,344 acres, or 83.7 per cent. The wheat acreage, though practically doubling in the past decade, has steadily maintained its immense lead over oats, the second largest cereal acreage. The total wheat acreage in 1909, as in 1899, exceeds the acreage of all other cereals.

The yield of wheat per acre was reported as 14 bushels, the value per acre $18.

The cereals had an aggregate acreage of 13,868,771 acres in 1909, as against 6,026,424 acres in 1899, an increase of 6,256,422 acres, or 115 per cent. The total value of the wheat crop in 1909 was $97,791,000, an increase, gaining 3,727,083 acres. The average value of cereals per acre in 1909 was $14.40, over two and one-half times that of hay and forage. Corn showed the highest average value per acre of the cereals; rye the lowest. Of the hay and forage crops, alfalfa is well above the rest in average value per acre.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

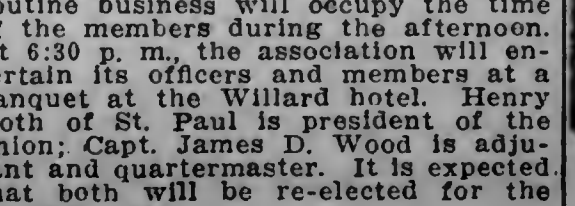

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:
"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."

Another from Newark, N. J.
"I have been using Danderine regularly. When first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine pleases by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

In short, Mr. Lindbergh's attack on the Democrats for adopting the caucus system, something every party has always used and always will use so long as there are parties, is exceedingly superficial and empty. If he had found occasion for criticizing the use the Democrats are making of the caucus, that would have been a different matter; but he made no such criticism. Because the Republicans under Cannonism abused the power created by teaching methods are used in the city of Duluth for such citizens not only in the schools but in the homes are contemplated. Lies and other methods are used in coaxing or scaring the children to do as they are told. It is a good thing to have the children get up for all kinds of improvements. The ignorant public are freely used in the schools and in the homes. The parents are, of course, a fine thing in their place, but, as with everything else, they are used in the wrong way. The work of the boy are now thought to be necessary, and are to be performed by servants of left alone. Again, the development of flat-life, the janitor system, and kindred metropolitan methods are used to keep the boy from the emancipation of the boy from useful labor. The result is that most of the boys are kept in the schools, which makes it easy to work, whether it be at manual labor or in the culture of the mind.

Such a case as this can scarcely go without further attention. "Boys will be boys," it is true; but this is carrying boyish mischief altogether too far. The boys who did this thing should be punished. Probably they should not be put in jail, but they should be brought before the juvenile court and left to its discretion. This should be done not only to teach them a much needed lesson, but to let other boys with similarly vicious instincts know that this sort of thing will not be tolerated in a community where there are hearts that feel for the afflicted and oppressed, whether they are brute or human.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY REV. J. S. KIRKLEY, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: JUNE 18.
II Kings, xviii, 1-18; The Downfall of Samaria.

THE CONNECTION.

The ruin, so long foretold by such prophets as Hosea, Amos and Isaiah, has come upon the northern kingdom. They had great opportunities, but they had not used them. They were not true to the ideals which were outlined at the beginning. They had shown great power in every direction except in morality. The prophet Amos had singled out four of their many vices as the chief causes of ruin—"greedy oppression of the poor; land-grabbing; licentious and idolatrous revelries; cruelty to poor debtors and rigging on the proceeds of unjust gain." The nation has lasted 250 years and it now falls 722 B. C.

THE LESSON.

The Overthrow, 1-6.
"In the twelfth year of Ahab king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, and reigned nine years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, yet not as the kings of Israel that were before him. Against him came up Shalmaneser, king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute. And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria; therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away unto Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes."

TOTTERING.—In the days of Manasseh, Tiglath-Pileser came down from the great city of Nineveh, the capital of that Assyrian power. Assyria put the yoke on Israel's neck, and forced them to pay an annual tribute as vassals. Hoshea, successor to Manasseh, found Shalmaneser, the new king of Nineveh, weaker and threw off the yoke; but Shalmaneser was strong enough to come down on him and put him in prison.
FALLING.—On his death, his successor, Sargon, finished the siege of Samaria and broke up the national life of the northern kingdom forever. Recent researches in Nineveh have discovered Sargon's account of his campaign, written on clay tablets. He says: "I besieged the city of Samaria, and took it. I carried off 27,250 of the citizens. I chose fifty chariots for myself from the whole number taken; all the other property of the people of the town I left for my servants to take. I appointed resident officers over them and imposed on them the same tribute as had formerly been paid. In the place of those taken into captivity I sent thither inhabitants of lands conquered by me and imposed the tribute on them which I require from Assyrians." The most eminent people were carried away, and they soon lost their identity in a strange land. Many of those who were left behind went down into Judah and were absorbed in the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. Most of them mixed with the five small nations whom Sargon planted in Samaria and that mongrel race became the Samaritans of Christ's day. There are no "lost tribes" living today, though there are "lost sheep of the house of Israel."

Steadfast Idolatry, 7-12.
"And it was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against Jehovah, their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom Jehovah cast out from before the children of Israel."

Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made. And the children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against Jehovah, their God; and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; and they set them up pillars and Asherim upon every high hill, and under every green tree; and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Jehovah carried away before them; and they wrought wicked things to provoke Jehovah to anger; and they served idols, whereof Jehovah had said unto them, "Ye shall not do this." We go back to the causes of their destruction.

1. UNREALITY.—They did things that were not right, literally "not so." They worshiped gods that had no existence, getting those gods from Egypt and from any other nation that had gods. That was not in harmony with their own rules of conduct. They did it secretly, as if it were not their own selves, and in enmity against God. They persisted in it.

2. ABNORMALLY.—That got their natures all awry, for they blinded themselves, like moles, and took the gods of all the nations. They even took in Jehovah as one of the gods. They had complete equipment for every form of worship, and it is all specified here. They did it defiantly, insultingly, thoroughly. There was no further hope for them as a nation, though the way was open for them to return to God. God's anger was provoked.

3. Stubborn Disobedience, 13-18.
"Yet Jehovah testified unto Israel, and unto Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep My commandments, and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants, the prophets. Notwithstanding, they would not hear, nor hardened their neck, like to the neck of their fathers, who believed not in Jehovah their God. And they rejected His statutes, and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified unto them, and they despised His word, and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Jehovah had charged them that they should not do like them. And they forsook all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke Him to anger. Therefore Jehovah was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight; there was none left but the tribe of Judah only."

4. ENTREATIES.—The lesson shows the complete effort God made to recover them, through the law with its commandments, statutes and warnings; through covenants in which He made great promises; through prophets who brought warnings and entreaties in the most personal and affecting way. No one could have seen before that when, with the prophetic encouragement of Ahijah, Jeroboam established his sovereignty over the greater, richer, and more flourishing part of the land assigned to the sons of Jacob, the new kingdom should fall into utter ruin.

ruin and destruction after only two and a half centuries of existence, and its tribes melt away amid the surrounding nations and sink into a semi-heathen race without any further nationality or distinctive history.—Farrar.
One of the most revolting sins charged against Israel was their following the heathen in "causing their sons and daughters to pass through the fire." When we read descriptions of the horrid image, made of iron, within which roared a furious fire and on whose white hot arms little children were laid by their zeal-frenzied parents, we are amazed that such things should have ever been done. But worse things are being done every day in this so-called Christian land. Children who are constantly given to understand that the great business of life is to dress, to dance, to be versed in the various accomplishments, what is termed "polite society," to make money and make a show of it, or else penuriously hoard it; such children are more cruelly sacrificed than those that of old were offered to Moloch. In the one case only the bodies were immolated—in the latter both soul and body for all eternity.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.
1. Why is secret sin the most deadly?
2. Why is sin more infectious than holiness?
3. Does God punish nations, as such, today?
4. Why does not God kill bad people?
5. How are bad people sometimes God's agents?
6. How much of goodness do we sin against?
7. How much consideration do we deserve at God's hands?

GREAT YEAR FOR BIRDS

Deer and Rabbits Also More Numerous This Year Than Ever.

Meadow Lark and Bobolink New Visitors to the North.

Besides being an ideal year for the growth of garden truck, wild and cultivated crops and berries, it has also been a first-class season for the breeding and rearing of wild animals and birds. The next hunting season, say woodsmen, should be more successful, from a standpoint of the presence of game, than in any season in the last several years.
Partridges in the woods and along country roads in this section have increased in number in the last ten years. The country that was burned over two years ago, when fires were numerous, now covered with growth. Very little territory was burned over last fall so the partridges have plenty of feeding ground and cover. The spring has been favorable for rapid growth of shrubbery and forest undergrowth and food has been plentiful.
Men versed in wood-lore, who have been fishing along the Aiger-Smith trapline in the deep woods, say that signs of deer with fawns are numerous. This is especially true of the country drained by the river to the north shore. Fishermen returning from the Gooseberry, Encampment, Baptism, Beaver and Split Rock rivers say that signs of both deer and moose, especially the former, are more numerous than at any time in several years.
The increase in these animals has been exceptionally large. The winter was colder than usual and deer had success in escaping the timber wolves on account of the crusty surface of the snow. This spring there has been abundance of all sorts of food and conditions have been especially favorable for a large increase in the little animals of the forest as well as the big ones. Rabbits, for instance, are more numerous than usual and an early morning stroll along any country road near Duluth can see many little rabbits along the roadside eating breakfast. A partridge is in a nearly limbo, perhaps, gazing unconcernedly at pedestrian and the whirr of starting birds is heard in the underbrush as a dove makes a rapid get-away.
The increase in fawns near Duluth is bringing new birds into this region. The advance agricultural development has brought the meadow lark and the bobolink. The latter has been seen at the county farm and the former has been observed near Arnold and the Jean Duluth farm.

KNOX STARTS NEW QUERIES

Fails to Throw Light on Mystery of Day Portrait Voucher.

Chairman Hamlin of House Committee Scents Something Wrong.

Washington, June 15.—The mystery that surrounds the sudden discovery in the state department of the Day portrait voucher, reported missing and found a week ago on the floor of the office of Disbursing Clerk Morrison, was not cleared up when Secretary of State Knox appeared before the Hamlin committee of the house yesterday.
The secretary explained the payment of $5,000 to Frederick Hale, son of Former Senator Charles Hale, of Maine, for services in connection with Canadian boundary negotiations. Mr. Knox produced the sections of the treaty in 1903, which authorized negotiations through Passamaquoddy bay. Mr. Hale was employed for this work.
As to the voucher signed by Albert Rosenthal, the portrait painter, called for by the committee, Rosenthal said that he got but $350. Mr. Knox could give no new facts. He only knew that he had started a search for it as soon as he heard about the case, and that the search failed to reveal any trace of the voucher or letters that were supposed to be with it.
A week ago, said Mr. Knox, Mr. Carr, chief of the consul bureau, brought the papers to him, saying that they had been found on the floor of Disbursing Clerk Morrison's office.
"You will be interested in another receipt from Mr. Rosenthal that is attached to the papers," he said to the committee. "It was signed Jan. 13, 1904, and is for $750 with a notation that $50 for the frame of Secretary Day's picture had been paid to a Washington picture dealer."
There did this second receipt come from? demanded Mr. Hamlin. "I found it in a pocket of papers that is all I know of it," said Secretary Knox.
The members of the committee, upon examination, found that it was not actually dated Jan. 13, 1904, but read: "Received Jan. 13, 1904, the sum of $750," with an explanation of the purpose.
Hamlin is suspicious.
Mr. Hamlin declared he believed there was something wrong about the receipt. He intimated that he believed it had been fixed up, at least as to the explanation written in across the bottom, after the present inquiry began.
"Do you mean that you suspect some one in the state department is guilty of committing perjury?" demanded Secretary Knox with heat.
"There is no intention to reflect on you personally," returned the chairman, "but I am strongly of the opinion that this was prepared after this inquiry began."
"Then you think that Mr. Rosenthal has written at least part of this receipt since the time indicated in it?" asked Mr. Knox.
Mr. Hamlin replied that he thought Mr. Rosenthal was making a rapid get-away, and intended to probe the circumstances to the bottom.
"I will welcome such an investigation," said Secretary Knox, "and if you can corroborate your theory and can show that anyone in the state department was cognizant of such an act, there will be some vacancies in the department."
Found the Voucher.
Howard Sangston, the messenger in Disbursing Clerk Morrison's office, was then put on the stand.
He said he found the envelope among a lot of crumpled papers by Mr. Morrison's waste basket, about four and one-half feet from the latter's desk. He said Mr. Morrison always threw the crumpled envelopes down on the floor, and that in picking them up at the close of the day he found the heavy envelope among them.

Secretary Knox introduced the letter Secretary Root had written to W. H. Michael, now consul general at Calcutta and former chief clerk, when the Rosenthal matter first came up in 1906, and the reply of Mr. Michael. These were all the explanations the state department has, said Secretary Knox.
The Root letter called Michael's attention to the fact that the voucher had been found without any bill or memorandum attached and that the amount was much in excess of the sum usually paid for portraits of former secretaries. Mr. Michael's reply, from Calcutta, said the payment had been agreed upon by Justice Day and Mr. Rosenthal.

WINONA SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

Growth of Manufactures Reported By the Census Bureau.

Washington, June 15.—A preliminary statement of the general results of the thirteenth United States census of manufactures of the city of Winona, Minn., was issued today by Acting census Director Falkner. It contains a summary of the figures for 1904 and 1903.
The summary shows nothing but increases, as follows: 50 per cent in the value added by manufacture; 48 per cent in the number of salaried officials and clerks; 45 per cent in the value of products; 35 per cent in the cost of materials used; 32 per cent in the miscellaneous expenses; 28 per cent in the capital invested; 25 per cent in the salaries and wages; 15 per cent in the number of establishments; and 10 per cent in the average number of wage earners employed during the year.
There were 99 establishments in 1903, as compared with 88 in 1904, an increase of 12, or 15 per cent.
The value of products in 1903 was $11,200,000 and $7,500,000 in 1904, an increase of $3,700,000, or 43 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $112,000 in 1903 and about $91,000 in 1904.

Woman's Happiness

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an only emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes.

Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Our Kitchen Is Your Kitchen

We offer you our two-million dollar sunlit kitchen in the cleanest, finest, most hygienic food factory in the world, in which we bake every day in the year, two million crisp, golden brown Shredded Wheat Biscuits. Our kitchen is your kitchen when you eat the food that contains all the strengthening, body-building material in the whole wheat grain made digestible by steam cooking, shredding and baking. It is the one cereal food that has survived the ups and downs of public fancy—always clean, always pure, always the same price.

SHREDED WHEAT BISCUIT

Always heat the biscuit in oven to restore its crispness; then pour hot milk over it, adding a little cream. Salt or sweeten to suit the taste. Being in Biscuit form it makes delicious and wholesome combinations with stewed prunes, apple sauce, sliced bananas or other stewed or fresh fruits. Try it for breakfast for ten days and see how much better you feel. Your grocer sells it.

FRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat wafer, a crisp, tasty, nourishing whole wheat wafer, delicious for any meal with butter, cheese or marmalades. Always toast it in the oven before serving.

TAYLORITES TAKE FINAL

Hard Fought Game Goes to Enemy By 3 to 1

Score.

Errors of Shortstop Altermott Figure in the Sad Result.

(BY BRUCE.)

Superior defeated us yesterday by the score of 3 to 1. Look in the box score and you will see one of the reasons—Altermott. If you go back into the past you will find that he has kicked innumerable games away. His playing this season has been a joke, and his presence on the team is one of the explanations as to why the Sox lose games.

There is another weak spot on the White Sox brigade. With two swell hitters in Johnson and Miller, boys who are covering all sorts of ground, who have a player in right who is so slow that a ball has to be hit right into his mitt before he can get it. If Holstrom doesn't cover enough territory either to left or right, or doesn't start quickly enough, to be of any particular value in that garden, and any kind of a sweat out there generally goes safe and for extra bases.

It isn't that we have a bad team; it is that there are two glaring weak spots, and that brings us to the old saying about the chain and the bum link. Back to yesterday.

Taylor's Red Legs got two less hits than we did. It wasn't Woodburn's turn to work, but that the Yankees wanted the game, and any man sent in. He went back from the start, went worse in the second, and was ranked at that garden, and any kind of a sweat out there generally goes safe and for extra bases.

In the eighth Michael Angelo Kramer hit the ball, and finished the game in the box. Both Blanche and Kramer held the count in check after the damage had been done and the boys from the suburbs had enough runs to win the contest.

The victory of yesterday gives the Superior team out of the series that was completed yesterday, and the most important fact is ready to admit that the way the team stands at the present time, the Red Legs have it on the White Sox.

In Superior's first day Bancroft drew a pass and was sacrificed to second by Bennett, Cy being safe on the play. With two on and no one dead, it looked bad. Woodburn struck out the next two men and made Landry do the dirt act out to Miller.

We went down in order in the first of the second the trouble started. Lissette singled, and then stole home. McCullach drew four, one of which looked like a strike, and Liz was scored and Mac sent to third when Lip-pold hit one to Holstrom's territory. Then Altermott executed a perfect error on Bancroft's offerings and the brick took second. Bancroft stole second and went to third when Altermott committed another error, letting the ball go through his fingers in check.

Woodburn made a wide throw on Bennett's offering and the third run of the inning, in the shape of Bancroft, was over the pan. Dahlgren having whiffed and Lip-pold being caught on third base. Errors were directly responsible for two of the three runs in this frame. We might have tied up and won out, and we might have won the game before. But comes under the catalog of what Jack Whittier said about those saddest words of tongue or Spencian.

The story of our effort is simple, like nursery rhymes. We threatened seriously in the second and then backed shyly away. Johnson singled and Miller doubled with no one down. When an auspicious opening in Athletic park gives Holstrom with a pitch and stole home and there were three men on bases and not a soul down. Altermott whiffed, new to Bancroft, then Hardgrove hit a dinky, spitting little offering to Dahlgren, who promptly threw to the pan, getting Johnson and back to first ahead of the slow-going receiver.

In the third, fourth and fifth we went out in order. In the sixth O'Brien singled, the other three men going out. In the seventh Johnson singled and the other three men went out. In the eighth we again went out in order. One in the ninth saved us from the humiliation of a shutout. O'Brien doubled, Meneloe flew out and then Johnson got his third hit of the matinee, sending Sackett, who ran for the Harp, over the plate. Miller was safe on Ford's error. Holstrom forced Johnson at third and Altermott wound up a glorious afternoon by fanning.

Superior really did nothing after the second. The Red Legs had one man on in the third, went out in order in the fourth, got a runner on in the sixth, only to have him caught attempting to pifer, and had Dahlgren on third in the seventh, when Bennett struck out. One was on in the eighth and the enemy went out in order in the ninth.

Outside of the sad second the contest was well played. Superior has one of the very best ball teams in the league. The players have that commendable quality in either man or beast, courage, and they are in the game from the first to the last inning. In two of the three games played here, they have outplayed the Sox and won on the merits of the game.

PIRATES ARE UNDER LIMIT, SAYS CONRAD

Winona, Minn., June 15.—A new out-fitter by the name of Nye, a brother of the shortstop of that same playing with the Rochester nine, has been secured by President Max Conrad of the Winona club to help out the Winona team in their present crippled condition.

Speaking concerning the Winona team in relation to the salary limits being overstepped in some of the clubs on the Minny circuit, President Conrad says:

It is not a question of the lack of money to secure the right kind of ball players at Red Wing. La Crosse or other clubs in the Minny league circuit. It is simply a question of the relative ability displayed by the different managers. We believed Manager John Killian has displayed the best of judgment in the selection of his players, several of whom he has drawn from the amateur ranks and whose salaries are away below those playing similar positions in other teams. Winona were not at the head of the procession on account of these facts, the question of the salary limit would never have been raised.

THE HERALD TEAM ACCEPTS CHALLENGE.

The Herald ball team accepts the recently published challenge of the News Tribune team.

After several days of practice The Herald team considers itself fit to meet the News Tribune team at Athletic park next Sunday morning.

The team representing this most respectable family journal is composed of the employees of the business and editorial offices. Printers are barred. The team from the morning rag stipulated in its challenge that the line be composed of pencil pushers and typewriters.

This is the fourth annual contest between the two teams. Of the three games played The Herald has won two and the News Tribune team one. How the Herald team will fare in the fourth game is still to be figured out.

Having nothing to conceal, and no "rings" to spring, The Herald here gives out the names of those who will play: Leggett, Getty, Rockwell, McCarthy, Armstrong, Grenner, McLennan, Olson, Strand and Mack.

PRINCETON WINS LAST GAME OF THE SERIES.

New York, June 15.—Princeton won the championship of the Yale-Princeton baseball series in the rubber game on the National league grounds in Brooklyn yesterday by the score of 1 to 0.

Steve White, who pitched the last and best game of his career for old Nassau, was the particular star. Princeton's one run came in the fourth, and Yale errors permitted it. Score: R. H. E. Princeton.....00010000-1 2 0

It is not a question of the lack of money to secure the right kind of ball players at Red Wing. La Crosse or other clubs in the Minny league circuit. It is simply a question of the relative ability displayed by the different managers. We believed Manager John Killian has displayed the best of judgment in the selection of his players, several of whom he has drawn from the amateur ranks and whose salaries are away below those playing similar positions in other teams. Winona were not at the head of the procession on account of these facts, the question of the salary limit would never have been raised.

THE HERALD TEAM ACCEPTS CHALLENGE.

The Herald ball team accepts the recently published challenge of the News Tribune team.

After several days of practice The Herald team considers itself fit to meet the News Tribune team at Athletic park next Sunday morning.

The team representing this most respectable family journal is composed of the employees of the business and editorial offices. Printers are barred. The team from the morning rag stipulated in its challenge that the line be composed of pencil pushers and typewriters.

This is the fourth annual contest between the two teams. Of the three games played The Herald has won two and the News Tribune team one. How the Herald team will fare in the fourth game is still to be figured out.

Having nothing to conceal, and no "rings" to spring, The Herald here gives out the names of those who will play: Leggett, Getty, Rockwell, McCarthy, Armstrong, Grenner, McLennan, Olson, Strand and Mack.

PRINCETON WINS LAST GAME OF THE SERIES.

New York, June 15.—Princeton won the championship of the Yale-Princeton baseball series in the rubber game on the National league grounds in Brooklyn yesterday by the score of 1 to 0.

Steve White, who pitched the last and best game of his career for old Nassau, was the particular star. Princeton's one run came in the fourth, and Yale errors permitted it. Score: R. H. E. Princeton.....00010000-1 2 0

VOLLEY BALL GAME ON FOR FRIDAY NIGHT.

There will be a volley ball contest at the club house Friday evening between teams under the leadership of the Herald and the News Tribune.

The contest will be played on the tennis courts, which are lighted with big electric lights, and it is expected that the game of the season will attract a large crowd.

Volley ball has been played at the big M. C. A. gymnasium all winter between teams composed of many of the business and professional men of the city. The teams that will play Friday evening will be made up of

EXHIBIT OF WORK DONE

Industrial High School Boys Have Made Good Progress.
Manual Training Department Turns Out First Class Furniture.

The manual training department of the West Duluth industrial high school will place an exhibit of the work done this year in the school in the windows of the Great Eastern store tomorrow morning, to be kept there until next Monday. West Duluthians and all others interested in the work of the students can there see what has been done by them.

This exhibit is now to be seen in the Irving school. Those who have seen it, marvel at the remarkable things the young boys have done. The exhibit, as described, is handsome and as strong as can be purchased from the leading furniture stores, has been made. Patterns for molding purposes, that equal any turned out by most experienced patternmakers of large factories, were manufactured by the pupils, and forged work of the best blacksmiths might well be proud, is also on exhibit.

Traveling men for manufacturing concerns who have visited the school and have seen the work done by the boys, have expressed their surprise that such work could really be done by them, and all have told principal S. A. Foster, that this work is far better than that which they have seen in similar schools in other parts of the country.

When one considers the little shops which the students have to work in, the impression is more forcible. The pattern shop and the forge shop are as good as could be expected, but that the machine shop is far too small and poorly equipped, is the belief not only from those in charge, but also of the West Duluth members of the board of education, and those familiar with the work of that kind.

The machine shop now consists of three machines, namely a 16-inch engine lathe, a 10-inch lathe, and a small speed drill press. Mr. Evers, one of the school directors, is interested particularly in this department, and he is doing his utmost to have this machine shop enlarged, or at least made equal to that of the high school. Efforts will probably be made by him and A. F. Lundholm, West Duluth director to have the board purchase for this school a rolling mill, one 24-inch lathe, and a milling machine. Besides these the department needs a shaper, a power saw, and a lathe. The needs of the industrial school were taken up at the last meeting of the board of education, but members deemed it unwise at this time to purchase more machinery, because the funds were not sufficient to do so. However, the West Duluth men interested in this school feel that this school, which has been showing such progress in the past few years should not be discouraged about their department, and given an equal consideration with the central high school in this department.

WORK FOR THE COMMISSIONER
Many Complaints Are Being Made as to Back Yard Conditions.

The health commissioner for West Duluth is having some arduous times in that section of the city, rounding up those who fail to comply with the city ordinance in respect to cleanliness about their homes. A large number of orders have already been given out, but in some instances, some of which have received no consideration. As a result, a few have been lined up before Justice Flaack and fines imposed.

The health commissioner claims that in some localities, especially about Raleigh street, the premises are very filthy. In one instance, the health states, many complaints have been made to him.

In one particular instance, it is claimed by the commissioner, a woman is very desirous of purchasing her neighbor's property, and she has made it almost unbearable for her by placing garbage and refuse about the premises. The health department was called upon for relief by the oppressed.

HICKORY CAMP GOES TO BUFFALO
Degree Team Will Attend Encampment of the Modern Woodmen.

The degree team of Old Hickory camp, No. 1555, M. W. A., composed of nineteen men under the captaincy of C. O. Salter, will leave tomorrow over the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic for Buffalo, where they will attend the annual encampment of the Modern Woodmen. The team from the Duluth camp, No. 2341, of the West end, will also go.

PUT POLES IN ALLEYS.
West Duluth People Pleased at Action of Telephone Company.

West Duluthians are interested in the proposed improvement to be made in this section of the city by the Zenith Telephone company. The telephone poles, which are now standing in nearly every street, are to be removed and placed in the alleys. This improvement, however, is in compliance with an order issued last November by the city council. Next Monday morning the board of public works will be holding a hearing, at which any property owner may make complaint against the setting of poles in the alleys, abutting his property.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Delegates Report Successful Meeting of Catholic Order of Foresters.

P. H. Martin, state chief ranger of the Catholic Order of Foresters, J. A. Bellmeur, state trustee of the same order, and Henry Sullivan, delegate from the St. James Court No. 614 of West Duluth, returned this morning from Mankato, where the annual convention of the order was held on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Martin, who for the past thirteen years has held the position of state chief ranger, returned to serve another year. Mr. Bellmeur was re-elected for the fourth time. The convention will be held in Winona next year.

The St. James Court No. 614 has been in existence for the past fourteen years and now has a membership of over 100. It has been a very active organization, and has been successful in many of its efforts, which now has six courts, all of which were represented.

WILL OPEN NEW TRACT OF FIVE-ACRE PLOTS.

T. W. Tilke, real estate dealer with offices in the Hotel Court building, will open a sale of five-acre tracts just beyond Bay View Heights, beginning on Saturday, June 17, at 2 o'clock. The lands are excellent for gardening, and compare favorably with any sold about the outskirts of the city. Mr. Tilke has been advertising this land extensively, and already he reports he has received many inquiries from all parts of the Northwest. He expects to receive many deals, for many have visited the place and expressed themselves well pleased with it. It is located within ten minutes' walk from the Bay View Heights, and is accessible by automobile and teams.

Will Give Cantata.

The church choir of the Swedish Lutheran Elm church will render the beautiful cantata "Light Out of Darkness" by Adam Gjelbel at the church, corner Fifty-sixth avenue, west and Elmo street, Friday evening. The choir will be assisted by Mrs. G. Nylander, soprano; Mrs. G. Nylander, alto; J. Ostrom of Superior, tenor; and Ray and Ray, piano. The cantata is a beautiful service, it affords opportunity occasionally for the choir to give a roundabout way. Several hundred persons are served by it, more or less.

DICKINSON TO ABANDON BAD RAILWAY CROSSINGS.

Dickinson, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is expected, will be taken soon by the Northern Pacific railroad and the city of Dickinson, acting jointly, to do away with the present system of railroad crossings within the city limits. It has been impossible for the city to come to an agreement with the railroad company to the present time on the question of expense, as there are several features for consideration that involve considerable of an outlay. The situation here is similar at Mandan, where extensive work of this kind will also be done.

At Beach, Billings county, the railroad will spend about $20,000 in the construction of a new depot. The structure is to be of brick and the plans have already been drawn. It being proposed that the building shall be completed and be ready for occupancy by the first of September. The freight and passenger depot, 163 feet long.

STANLEY RAILROAD MAN CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Stanley, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The railway master of the Great Northern here, is under arrest charged with grand larceny. Special Agent Louis Glasser charges that Foley is guilty of thefts of railroad property and that the property is at the Foley home, stand near Stanley. The accused has been in the employ of the railroad twelve years.

RAILROADS FIGHT TO SAVE LOGGING ROAD

Duluthians Strive to Prevent Minnesota & Northern Being Dismantled.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—A determined fight was made yesterday afternoon before the railroad and warehouse commission to prevent the tracks of the Minnesota & Northern Wisconsin railway from being torn up. Attorneys argued the case in all its phases.

A hearing on the question of abandoning the line recently was held in Duluth. Evidence was taken and arguments were made yesterday. No decision was reached, but the railroad forecast the probable decision and the service is problematical. While the road does not maintain regular service, it affords opportunity occasionally for the haul of lumber and other goods. Several hundred persons are served by it, more or less.

NEW RULER OF A GERMAN PRINCIPALITY

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new ruler of the German principality of Schaumburg Lippe has received a silver medal from Italy in recognition of its services in Italy during the war.

The case has been on for several days before Judge Dibel. Attorney Edward J. Conroy argued for the railroad, and Assistant County Attorney Warren E. Greene for the state.

PRINCE ADOLF Of Schaumburg Lippe.

Berlin, June 15.—Schaumburg Lippe is one of the smallest of the states of which the German empire is composed. There are four kingdoms, six grand duchies, five duchies, seven principalities, three free towns and Alsace-Lorraine. Schaumburg Lippe has its independent government. Its ruler, in this case it is a prince, and Prince Adolf has just succeeded to that position. The chief town of the principality, Bückeburg, has less than 6,000 inhabitants. The total debt of the principality is about $100,000.

OFFICIAL PENNANT FOR MIDSUMMER CARNIVAL

A pennant design for decorations during the water carnival July 20, 21 and 22, has been adopted by the carnival committee. The background will be in blue and red, with the Duluth Boat club design in blue on a white circular background. The pennants will be turned out in great numbers.

and will be conspicuous in the decorations for the carnival. The committee has issued a tentative program for the carnival. It is an artistic piece of work, illustrated with beautiful pictures of the bay and drawings of the proposed fest. The pennants will be distributed with other advertising matter.

FRED FILES JURY IS STILL OUT

The jury in the case of the state against Fred J. Files, charged by the May grand jury with forgery in the second degree, was still out at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Files was accused of having passed two notes on the City National bank of this city, each for $250, with the

AKELEY WINS PARADE PRIZE

Park Rapids Captures Association Horse Race at Firemen's Tournament.

Akeley, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Akeley won first prize for appearance in the big parade conducted by the Northern Minnesota Firemen's Tournament association here yesterday. Park Rapids, which had the most men in line having second. The association horse race yesterday was captured by Park Rapids, in 30 seconds flat. Grand Rapids second, 30 1/2 seconds. Akeley third, 31 seconds flat. The race was a close one, but the team of Akeley won by a margin of three and three-fifths seconds, the time being within one second of the world's record. Five teams made the run. Akeley, Coleraine, Cass Lake, Grand Rapids and Park Rapids. The other teams dropped out. The track was said to be the best that the association has had in its seventeen tournaments.

MAKES QUICK CATCH.
Oscar Hanson of Cass Lake made the best and quickest coupling in the history of the association. The association horse race consisted of a run by not less than fifteen men, of 300 feet to the end of the race, which ends tomorrow. Miss Laumann will leave for St. Peter, Minn., and Miss St. Peter will leave for their homes in North Dakota.

THEY FOOL THE SUN.

The Porter Tent & Awning company, incorporated, is one of the oldest firms in Duluth, having been established in 1883. The firm incorporated this year, and occupies a store which is exceptionally supplied with stock, at 100 East Superior street. The company is one of the growing home industries. It manufactures awnings, porch curtains, outdoor sleeping tents, lumbermen's packclothes, leggings, and in fact, everything which can be turned out of canvas. The camper, the hunter or the outdoors person can get almost anything in the line of equipment at the store of the Porter Tent & Awning company. The firm has learned from long experience and stands behind the reputation of its goods.

STILL SEARCHING FOR VIRGINIA KIDNAPER.
Virginia, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Up to 2 this afternoon the police had not run to earth the tramps who abducted 5-year-old Harold Model last night and looked him in a box car, from whence he escaped and was subsequently released. The parents, who were the abductors of the child sought to collect ransom or acted in mere viciousness has not developed. The parents of the child, who live in the southern part of the city, were naturally brought up over the affair and Chief of Police Walsh will leave no stone unturned to try and capture the child's abductors.

SARDINES AS PICKEREL BAIT.

Conesus Lake correspondence. Rochester, Union and Advertiser: Ralph Boothe of Grosbeak, Minn., claims the record for pickerel fishing at Conesus Lake last winter, landing nine fish in less than two hours' time. The most remarkable feature of the catch was the bait that Boothe used. He had nothing suitable to put on his hook when he reached the lake, so he bought a can of sardines at Sutton's hotel and tried the fish. The pickerel seemed to relish the sardines thoroughly and Boothe was the winner as a result.

Boothe caught nine fish, which he brought to Genesee and disposed of at the meat market here daily and not a few individuals from here are going over to the lake every few days and replenishing their own private larders. The pickerel is the best enjoyed so far this season.

GETS AWARD FROM PEKIN GOVERNMENT

Washington, June 15.—John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state and known the world over through his connection with the diplomatic corps of the United States, has come into the limelight through the publication of facts concerning the collection of a claim against the Chinese government. It was the claim of the heirs of Frederick T. Ward, an American soldier of fortune, who was killed in 1862 while in the military service of China. China paid to the United States more than $24,000,000 indemnity for outrages during the Boxer outbreak. Of this less than $11,000,000 was awarded to claimants by this government, and the remainder was returned to China with the exception of $2,000,000 reserved for belated claims. Through his influence with the state department and our minister to China, as well as with Chinese officials whom he had known when on a diplomatic mission to China in connection with the settlement of the war between China and Japan, Mr. Foster persuaded the Chinese government to consent to the payment of this claim out of the $2,000,000 reserve. The Chinese government has agreed to pay the claim of $180,000. It is said the matter will be taken up by the house at Washington for investigation. The amount paid the claimants was $368,237.

ANOTHER WOMAN IS WITNESS IN TRIAL OF COOKE IN CINCINNATI

Precedes Defendant Himself on the Witness Stand.

Echo of Old Tragedy and Tale of Revenge Are Involved.

Mrs. Ford Seriously Ill as Result of Severe Strain.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 16.—Edgar S. Cooke, accused of embezzling $24,000 from the Big Four railway, took the stand in his own behalf today to refute the accusations hurled at him by Charles L. Warriner, defaulting treasurer of the road, and Mrs. Jeannette Stewart Ford, the beginning of the defense marked the second stage in the sensational trial.

Previous to the appearance of Cooke, another woman had come forward in the case, Mrs. Mattie McElmormot of Morrow, Ohio, was this witness. She, it was who introduced through her efforts Frank M. Coulton of Warren county lost his position as cashier in the office of the collector of federal customs in Cincinnati.

Coulton, it was first informed the Big Four management of the Warriner shortage, having gained the information from a stenographer in the government office who was a close friend of Mrs. Ford.

Coulton, years ago, shot and killed Mrs. McElmormot's son. He was tried and acquitted on grounds of self-defense, but since then she has never lost an opportunity to avenge herself on Coulton. Asked the motive for her

BAN PUT ON POKER ON THE ISTHMUS

Canal Employees Lose So Much the Government Stops Game.

New Orleans, La., June 16.—According to advice received here, a decree against poker games issued by President Arcemena of Panama, is the direct result of demand made by Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, that gambling on the isthmus be suppressed. The gambling rooms in Panama and Colon have caused many of the employees of the canal to lose their savings, bringing about discontent.

INHALES FLAMES IN CELL AND DIES

Good Conduct Prisoner in Pennsylvania Victim of Fire.

Philadelphia, June 16.—As the result of a fire in the cell he occupied in the Eastern penitentiary in this city, James Dougherty died today from inhaling flames and James Crowley is in the prison hospital so badly burned that he is not expected to live.

At the penitentiary it was said that on Wednesday night the guards were aroused by cries coming from the cell occupied by the men, and when the small apartment was opened it was full of flames and smoke. The two men lay unconscious.

Good conduct prisoners at the penitentiary are permitted to smoke, and it is believed the bed clothing became ignited from a match or a spark from a pipe.

HAITI REBELS REPEL TROOPS

Foreigners Connected With Revolutionary Are Sent
From the Island.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, June 16.—Nine hundred soldiers taken to Port Liberté on the steamer Caledonia to reinforce the government troops in that vicinity, recently attacked the rebels and were repulsed.

Julius Devo, a citizen of France, and Max Hermann, a Belgian, both connected with the family of Gen. Leoncio, the leader of the last revolutionary movement, and who were recently expelled from the country, will be embarked on the French steamer Quebec for St. Thomas today.

Lisbon, N. D., MAN KILLED.
Riding Horse Without Saddle or Bridle Proves Fatal.

Fargo, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—While trying to ride a horse without a saddle or bridle, Merle Dewitt, a young man of Lisbon, N. D., was thrown and his spine was broken. He was rushed to a hospital in Fargo but died this morning of injuries.

ST. LOUIS HAS SERIOUS FIRE

Million Dollars Loss in Blaze in Factory District.

Five Plants Are Destroyed
By Flames Started By Spark.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—Losses conservatively estimated at more than $1,000,000 were sustained in a fire which raged for four hours last night in a manufacturing district bordering on four blocks the terminal railroad yards in the southwestern part of the city. The plants of the Huttig Sash & Door company, Fathman & Miller Planing Mill company, Missouri Sash company, Koken Iron Works, a subsidiary of the American Bridge company, and the Mound City Box company, were practically wiped out.

The fire is believed to have started in the Huttig plant from a spark emitted by a switching locomotive. Twenty-five engine companies and all available pipe lines owned by the city fire department were employed in battling the flames.

The tenants of more than fifty flats and dwellings left their dwellings, carrying all they could of their possessions, when it was thought that their homes were doomed. The exodus was found later to have been unnecessary, as vesting winds carried the flames in another direction.

AUTO SPEEDER LOSES HIS LIFE

Machine Going Sixty-Five Miles an Hour Jumps From Bridge.

Bloomington, Ill., June 16.—Louis Orr, a prominent young man of Dwight, was killed and Arthur Kern seriously injured when an automobile in which they were riding, going sixty-five miles an hour, jumped from a bridge and turned turtle in a creek.

FILING FEE FOR EXTRA CAPITAL

Construction Put on Iowa
Foreign Corporation Statue.

Des Moines, Iowa, June 16.—Any foreign corporation operating in Iowa, which increases its capital stock, must pay a filing fee in Iowa upon so much of the capital stock as is used in this state, according to a ruling by Secretary of State Hayward announced today. Secretary Hayward puts this construction upon the law recently enacted by the legislature.

OTTAWA FLOODED WITH PETITIONS

Canadian Department of Justice Asked to Save Soo Woman.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the departure from here today of the judge's report and the stenographer's notes for Ottawa, action of some sort is expected within the next two weeks on the case of Mrs. Angelina Neopolitana, who is under sentence to hang Aug. 9 for the murder of her husband. Word has reached the attorneys for the condemned woman that the offices of the department of justice at Ottawa have been flooded with petitions with communications asking for clemency from all points in Canada and from coast to coast in the United States.

The attorneys themselves have received well over 300 such communications.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING IN MASON CITY BURNS.

Mason City, Iowa, June 16.—Fire today destroyed the high school building here, causing a loss estimated at $100,000. Lightning is believed to have been the cause.

'WIZARD' GETS PRISON TERM

Charles D. Sheldon Convicted of Using Other People's Money.

"Blind Pool" Man Arrested in Pittsburg, Convicted in Canada.

Montreal, June 16.—"Gully" was the verdict today in the case of Charles D. Sheldon, charged with appropriating to his own use funds given him by various clients for investment. A sentence of five years in the penitentiary was imposed. The judgment was rendered by Judge Langellier, who had conducted the trial in the court of special sessions.

Charles D. Sheldon first appeared in Montreal in the fall of 1908 and at once began advertising what was familiarly known in the world of finance as a "blind pool." He claimed to be on the inside of the stock market, and that he could manipulate stocks and securities in such a manner as practically to guarantee from 20 to 30 per cent a month on his clients' investments.

Worked Up Big Business.
The first clients attracted in the venture were given large returns for their money and became themselves great advertising factors for the supposed "wizard of finance."

The amount of business turned over by Sheldon became so great that he had to vacate the rather unpretentious office he was occupying on a side street, and take up a large suite in St. James street. His advertisements, however, became so bold that newspapers, convinced that his methods were not what he represented them to be, challenged the "wizard" to throw open his books.

His departure on Oct. 11 created consternation among his depositors, the larger part of whom were widows and people in straitened circumstances. On March 27, he was arrested in Pittsburg, and shortly afterwards was brought here to stand trial.

CHINESE LOAN IS OVER-SUBSCRIBED

English and German Investors Quickly Cover
Their Share.

London, June 16.—Subscriptions to the British portion of the $30,000,000 Hukwang railway loan to China were opened today and immediately closed. The issue was quoted at a premium of 1 per cent.

Over-subscribed in Berlin.
Berlin, June 16.—Subscriptions to the Hukwang loan to China closed at once after being opened today, having been heavily over-subscribed.

The Hukwang loan of $30,000,000 for railway construction in central China was made by groups of financiers representing the United States, France, Great Britain and Germany. Provincial opposition to the loan delayed its conclusion for nearly a year, but it had been agreed upon between the government of China and the international bankers.

POOR OLD MAN'S LOSING HIS MEMORY.

NORTH WEST IS FLOATED

Steamer's Hull Not Seriously Damaged By the Fire.

Loss Will Not Exceed Quarter of Million Dollars.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 16.—The steamer North West of the Northern Steamship line, which burned and sank at her dock two weeks ago, has been refloated and will be surveyed today by representatives of marine insurance companies and officers of the line. A hurried inspection of the vessel indicated that the hull had not been seriously damaged, none of the plates having been sprung by the fire. Her engines and boilers are also in good condition. The loss, at first estimated at $500,000 probably will not exceed $250,000.

ASSAILANT OF OFFICER DYING

Found With Bullet Holes in Stomach and Head.

Dunkirk, N. Y., June 16.—A man giving his name as Harry Brown, 23 years old, of New York city, was found by the police in a field two miles east of Dunkirk early today with a bullet hole through his stomach and another through his head. He was brought to a hospital here, where he admitted to the police that he was the man who had fatally wounded Detective Martin Peters of the Lake Shore railroad last night. Peters was in the railroad yards looking for car thieves. Brown was stealing a ride on a freight train and Peters attempted to arrest him. Brown resisted and shots were exchanged. At the hospital it is said both men will die.

FAMILIES BLOWN FROM THEIR BEDS

Third Explosion Occurs in Edison Cable Conduit in Chicago.

Chicago, June 16.—For the third time within a month an explosion occurred today in a cable conduit of the Commonwealth Edison company under the subway of a railroad track. The blast shattered windows in buildings within a radius of a block and threw several families from their beds.

The police believe the explosion was caused by a bomb set off by labor agitators. The action came after affidavits charging Dickson with bias and perjury had been filed by the prosecutor, but the court held that this could not affect his ruling, as it was taken on a motion for a rehearing, filed before the affidavits.

In line with the decision of the circuit court judges of Ohio, in which he was conceded the right to elect upon which of the two perjury indictments against Cox he would proceed to trial, County Prosecutor Henry T. Hunt today filed two affidavits of bias and prejudice, directed respectably to the sitting of the criminal bench of the common pleas court, and Judge William B. Dickson, trial judge in the Cox case. Charges of bias favorable to Cox and prejudice against the prosecutor personally are made in both affidavits.

The Consul Grostuck arrived at Port Au Prince yesterday, flying the German flag, and the officers going ashore were received by President Simon. Later it was officially denied that Castro was on the steamer.

MINNESOTA G. A. R. SHIPPING STRIKE IS WAGE SQUABBLE

London Ship Owners Are Suffering But Little Inconvenience.

London, June 16.—The shipping strike has developed largely into a squabble over wages, and outside of a few mail steamers the ship owners generally are not suffering any great inconvenience. The number of the strikers is limited strictly to deck hands.

Despite the concession of $2.50 a month in wages made by the Canadian Pacific Railway company yesterday, when the time came for the signing of a crew for the Empress of Ireland today, the company was forced to concede an additional $1.25. The original demand of the men for an advance was $5 a month.

AMERICAN MISSIONARY IN MOROCCO IS SAFE.

London, June 16.—Advices from Fez, Morocco, dated June 12, state that George C. Reed of Weeping Water, Neb., the secretary of the Moroccan mission of the Gospel union, is safe, but still a prisoner of the rebellious tribesmen in the mountains near Sefro.

Cotton Mills Burned.
Charlotte, N. C., June 16.—The Avanton cotton mills at Mayodon were today destroyed by fire of unknown origin last night, entailing a loss of $250,000.

GOES TO THE GRAVE INSTEAD OF ALTAR.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Instead of a marriage between Mayne D. Joiner of St. Paul and F. H. Shoemaker of Duluth, which was to have been solemnized here June 21, the funeral of Miss Joiner will be held at Duluth, Saturday. She is dead at St. Joseph's hospital here of appendicitis. Before she died she asked her parents to arrange to have the funeral at the home of her father.

Miss Joiner met Mr. Shoemaker while she taught in the Duluth public schools during the last year. She formerly was a student at Central high school here and was a graduate of the summer normal course at the state university.

BEET SUGAR OFFICER TELLS OF FORTUNE MADE "OVER NIGHT"

FORMER PURSUER OF TRUST NOW AIDS IT

C. P. MONTGOMERY.

Washington, June 16.—C. P. Montgomery has "gone over to the enemy." But the enemy has been made a friend. Mr. Montgomery was head of the customs division of the treasury and recently was pursuing the sugar trust when it was under investigation. The sugar trust has employed him to conduct its affairs with the government.

COX FAVORED ONCE AGAIN

Revivified Perjury Indictment Quashed By Judge
Dickson.

Prosecutor Hunt Files Two Affidavits of Prejudice.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 16.—Judge William B. Dickson today quashed again the revived indictment against George B. Cox, charging him with perjury. The action came after affidavits charging Dickson with bias and perjury had been filed by the prosecutor, but the court held that this could not affect his ruling, as it was taken on a motion for a rehearing, filed before the affidavits.

CALLS CASTRO STORY A MYTH

Man Who Sold Steamer Consul Grostuck Talks of the Affair.

Berlin, June 16.—George Grostuck, Ecuadorian consul at Berlin, who sold the steamer to the Italian cruiser Umbria, which was to have been sent to the Haitian government, said today that the whole story to the effect that Cipriano Castro, the exiled president of Venezuela, was aboard the craft, which is now known as the Consul Grostuck, was a myth.

Grostuck received a cablegram today announcing the arrival of the vessel at Port au Prince. He said that she was to be delivered to Haiti. He added that Castro, while in a hospital here in 1905, had negotiated with him for the purchase of a ship of war. These negotiations were broken off when the Venezuelan president was deposed.

MINNESOTA G. A. R. RANKS THINNING

More Veterans in Soldiers' Home Than at the Encampment.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ranks of the G. A. R. in Minnesota are rapidly thinning. During the last year 274 members died, an increase of 55 over the death record of 1909. The total membership of the Grand Army in Minnesota is now about 4,500. Fewer than 200 old soldiers attended the annual encampment here in the last two days. There are more members in the old soldiers' home near Minnehaha Falls than were in attendance at the encampment. Not many of them were able to visit their comrades when they gathered here yesterday.

When Governor Eberhart appeared among them yesterday, he was greeted with a round of applause, and before he had been in the hall two minutes, was decorated with a badge of the Department of Minnesota, G. A. R. Mayor Keller likewise was given a badge. Governor Eberhart made a plea for international arbitration, disarmament of nations and perpetual peace.

Henry T. Oxnard Testifies
Before the House Committee.

Hundred Thousand Dollar
Plant Sold for Half Million.

He Declares the Sugar Trust
Saved the Sugar Beet
Business.

Washington, June 16.—Half a million dollars' profit was garnered by the Oxnard brothers almost over night when they put their Brooklyn sugar refinery valued at $200,000, into the Sugar "trust" of 1887, according to the testimony of Henry A. Oxnard, vice president of the American Beet Sugar company, before the house "Sugar trust" investigating committee today.

Had the Oxnard brothers held their "trust certificates" until today, the witness said, the deal would have netted them $800,000 besides the dividends on the certificates. They sold the certificates two years after they received them for $750,000.

Were Glad to Sell.
"We were rather glad to sell out," said Mr. Oxnard, "but throat competition existed in these days, and unless the beet sugar business started out as we thought it would, it was a little doubtful about our keeping going."

The witness said the capitalization of the Brooklyn factory was only $100,000, but that the plant was worth $200,000.

You would have been satisfied to get out what you had put into it, wouldn't you?" inquired Chairman Hardwick.

"Well, I don't know," was the response. "On this little transaction you clean up half a million. Now, how much

THIRTEEN NEW CITIZENS.

Judge W. H. Munger of Omaha, Neb., holds Court in Duluth.

Judge W. H. Munger of Omaha, Neb., made thirteen new citizens in federal court yesterday.

One application was dismissed when it was found that the man was already a citizen of the United States. After the application had been filed the man found that his father had taken out his citizenship papers in this country before he was born. Three proceedings in bankruptcy matters were also heard. Judge Munger, Charles Spencer of St. Paul, clerk of the United States district court and Robert S. Coleman of St. Paul, chief naturalization examiner, left for St. Paul last night. Judge Page Morris will return to Duluth Friday after holding court at Salt Lake City, Utah.

K. C. DISTRICT DEPUTY.

J. J. Nolan of Brainerd Council Is Honored.

Brainerd, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. J. Nolan of Brainerd Council of the Knights of Columbus has been appointed district deputy of this order for the Third district of Minnesota.

One of the chief duties of a district officer is to organize a degree team and to confer all third degree work within his district. This district now contains prosperous councils at Duluth, Bemidji, International Falls, Crookston and Brainerd. The deputy was formerly appointed from Duluth. Brainerd council feels complimented on the appointment of Mr. Nolan, as it is seldom that so young a council receives this honor.

PEQUOT MAN ARRESTED FOR GIVING BAD CHECKS.

Brainerd, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Ulin of Pequot was arrested here yesterday for giving P. Chapin and F. Reynolds checks on the Citizens' State bank of Brainerd for $15.00. They were cashed by V. R. Nash, who got busy when the checks came back.

GOODS MADE IN DULUTH

Thirty-Four Articles Included in List of Duluth Products.

DULUTH-MADE GOODS.
Cigars, Candy, Food products, Butter, Cheese, Hops, Hides, Saddles, Carbolite, Awl, Knives, Portable garage, Knitted shawls, Socks, Shoes, Coffee, Tea, Flour, Water heaters, Fire hose, Cakes, Baking, Mattresses, Drugs, Sewing machines, Electrical fixtures.

One of the most comprehensive exhibits of Duluth-made goods ever assembled is on display in the three corner windows of the Glass Block Store, Second avenue west and Superior street. The exhibit attracted a great deal of attention this morning and when it is known that the display is there, it is expected that many Duluth people will visit the corner to see just what is made in Duluth.

Every manufacturer in the city was invited to participate in the display and most of them have sent some of their products to be shown. Only a few failed to respond, but they will probably participate in future exhibits.

The general display is now being made, it is the beginning of a constant campaign to make Duluth-made goods a general proposition, as well as in the manufacture of the Patrick products. The committee of the Commercial club this year on the "Duluth Made" principle, which has resulted in the shop excursion conducted by the club.

F. Patrick, head of Patrick & Co., the new owners of the Glass Block Store, is interested in Duluth-made goods as a general proposition, as well as in the manufacture of the Patrick products. He has been in the city a continual display of Duluth-made goods and will more readily call for articles made in Duluth.

The general display now being made will be followed by a plan which will give each manufacturer in the city a window in the Glass Block Store from time to time to display his products. Every manufacturer will be invited to make a display and the campaign will be continued until every product of Duluth factories is put on display.

Duluth people generally have no idea of the number of articles manufactured in Duluth. The goods that are as good as, or better than, the products of other manufacturers are not four-fifths of the goods that are made in Duluth. The products are growing among Duluth people and are being brought to the attention of the Commercial club, the newspapers and the manufacturers themselves. Duluth people are being brought to a realization of the fact that Duluth manufactures more than they realize.

The display at the Glass Block Store is an eye-opener to many people in Duluth. It is a plan of continual display. Before the plan worked out, it is believed that there will be a wider general knowledge of Duluth-made goods and a strengthening of the "Do it for Duluth" spirit.

TWO AMERICANS KILLED.

Vice Consul at Ensenada, Mexico, Reports Trouble There.

Washington, June 16.—Two Americans, Dr. Foster and Patrick Glennon, have been killed in Alamo, Mexico, and Mr. Sawdai, the American vice consul at Ensenada, in reporting the fact to the state department, adds that there is dangerous turbulence at Ensenada, and that the Mexicans causing the trouble were to a great extent recruited in the United States, some being reported to be naturalized American citizens. The state department has reminded the Mexican government that some time ago it gave permission for Mexican troops to cross American territory with a view to the restoration of peace and order in Lower California and that it is now depending upon Mexico to make these outrages impossible.

CHINA IS SENDING NO WARSHIP TO MEXICO.

Washington, June 16.—The state department has been assured that the Chinese government never contemplated the dispatch of a warship to Mexico to assist in the collection of indemnity for the killing of several hundred Chinese by Mexican insurgents during the revolution. It is stated that possibly a Chinese warship participated in the coronation celebration at London may pay a ceremonial visit to Mexican and American waters on the return voyage, but this would be entirely disconnected with the preference of any indemnity claims.

$107,000 SUBSCRIBED TO CLEVELAND MEMORIAL.

Newark, N. J., June 16.—Former United States Senator John F. Dryden outlined to the trustees of the Cleveland Memorial fund the result of the canvass for popular subscriptions toward providing a fund of $100,000 for a memorial tower to be erected at Princeton to the late Grover Cleveland. The fund has been over-subscribed early $7,000. Mr. Dryden said, subscriptions having come from every quarter of the United States and from Americans abroad. The amounts ranged from 5 cents to $5,000. The tower will be attached to the building now in course of construction at Princeton university. Mr. Dryden was authorized to take initial steps toward procuring bids. The trustees will meet next Wednesday to appoint a sub-committee to supervise construction work.

ST. PAUL MAN HEADS RETAIL GROCERS.

Denver, Colo., June 16.—With the selection of Oklahoma City as the meeting place in 1912 and the election of officers, the National Retail Grocers' association closed its annual convention here. The officers: John W. Lux, St. Paul, president; Henry W. Schuch, Milwaukee, vice president; John A. Green, Cleveland, secretary, re-elected; George Suhr, Buffalo, treasurer; Charles R. Fuller, Boston, was elected trustee. The association went on record as opposed to the parcels post.

SHE HAD CONSTANT PAIN

Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dewittville, N.Y.—"Before I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered nearly all the time with headaches, backaches, and bearing down pains, and had a continuous pain in my left side. It made me sick if I tried to walk much, and my back was so weak that I was obliged to wear corsets all the time. But now I do not have any of these troubles. I have a fine strong baby daughter now, which I did not have before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. A. A. GILES, Route 44, Dewittville, N.Y.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

MARRIED BY HANDCLASP

Second "Table d'Hôte" Affair of Chicago Girl a Failure.

Applies for Divorce From Nephew of the German Emperor.

London, June 16.—Princess Josephine of Thurn and Taxis, the former Chicago girl who for several years has declared herself the wife of Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis by a "table d'hôte marriage," announced a few days ago that she intended to bring a suit for divorce against him so that she may marry another man, who is wealthy and prominent in London society.

Just how the suit of the young woman (well known in America first as "Baby Jo" Moffitt, an actress, then as "Mrs. Taxis") will be received by a British court is a problem. She never claimed that there were any formalities about the "wedding" more than a mere handclasp across a restaurant table.

London is wondering whether such a ceremony will be considered binding. Prince Victor deserted the "bride" in New York in June, 1907, and has always denied any marriage, even of the "table d'hôte" variety.

Seeking True Love.
The "princess," who has a sumptuous apartment at No. 123 Victoria street, said yesterday:

"It's too bad that my troubles must get into the press again; but I suppose all these things become public. Yes, I want to be free from Prince Victor and marry a man I really love."

"I must have been crazy to marry the prince; but I thought I loved him. He was so clever that he could fool any girl."

Meanwhile Prince Victor, in Paris, is preparing to marry another woman, Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, a wealthy American widow. He apparently is undisturbed by any memories of his "marriage" with "Baby Jo."

The latter has had a picturesque career. As an orphan, in Jacksonville, Fla., she was adopted by a Chicago man. There she met William A. Pike, a son of one of the richest merchants of Chicago. A year or so later she caused a sensation by claiming that she and "Billy" had been wedded, and that he had deserted her.

"We were sitting at a restaurant table one night," she said, "when we married by clasp hands and pledging ourselves to each other."

Even Chicago Sanctioned Her.
The young woman sued "Billy" Pike, but lost her case, as Chicago refused to recognize the "table d'hôte marriage," as it was immediately termed.

Then she became a show girl. Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, who is a nephew of the late empress of Austria, was a guest of the Vanderbilts, Gerys, Golets and other socially prominent folk when he met the pretty actress. This was in 1907. In the summer of that year she started society by claiming to be the prince's secret bride.

Again she told the story of the "table d'hôte wedding." She said: "We were sitting in the Prince George hotel when Victor took my hand in his, looked across the table and said: 'Do you love me and are you willing to be a faithful and loving wife?' I answered 'Yes' and squeezed his hand. Then I asked him if he would be a loving and faithful husband and he answered 'Yes' and squeezed my hand. We were married."

Society frowned upon the prince and the wedding ceremony from Banker Mellon for naming him as co-respondent in the suit.

BIRDS AND CHICKENS
Dodged to Cover Whenever the Aeroplane Ascended.

Evansville, Ind., June 16.—The chickens in the neighborhood of the Tri-state fair ground, where the big aviation meet was held, are glad. Aviators Beachey and Winter have gone. Every time the airmen sailed aloft the chickens would make a dash for the hen roost, where they closed their eyes and prepared for the fall. It was only when the birds heard the buzzing of the aeroplanes above them that they remained inside.

Birds in the neighborhood took to the trees or deserted the community, and residents near the fair ground say that robins and other wild birds have almost disappeared since the rights started last Friday.

The birds are believed to have mistaken the aeroplanes for giant hawks.

INCREASE IS SMALL.
Census Bureau's Report on Manufactures in Stillwater.

Washington, June 16.—The report of the census bureau on manufactures in Stillwater, Minn., in 1909, as compared with 1904, shows increases as follows: 16 per cent in the capital invested, 11 per cent in the cost of materials, and 5 per cent in the number of establishments. There were decreases in all the other items.

There were 28 establishments in 1909, as compared with 36 in 1904, an increase of 2, or 5 per cent.

The value of products in 1909 was $2,666,000 and $2,754,000 in 1904, a decrease of $88,000, or 4 per cent.

WED BY MOONLIGHT ON TOP OF A LONELY HILL.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 16.—As night settled over Two Tree Hill, making the moon more lonely than ever, a couple married on the very pinnacle and were married by Miss Eva H. Hunton, a school teacher, and Bayles Guye Walker, a business man, both of El Centro.

There were nearly one hundred persons present. There was no light save that cast by the moon just rising over

UNCLE SAM HAS 4,000 GALLONS OF AUSTRIAN BRANDY IN HIS CELLAR

It will soon be three years since a consignment of nearly 4,000 gallons of Austrian brandy was received in Duluth and stored in the basement of the customs office.

The customs office on the third floor is becoming more and more fragrant with the fumes of the brandy which comes up the ventilators.

The clerks in the customs office will be glad when the three years are up, for most of those who have business at the office have remarked that those employed there are a selfish lot to keep it all to themselves. From the smell it would seem that they are right. When it is explained that the brandy is in the basement and the city below. It was the wish of the bride that the marriage take place on top of this hill.

It was on the identical spot that they were betrothed two years ago to the hour.

Unfettered as the place is at night, the wedding was far from simple. Miss Hunter was garbed in a splendid wedding creation, the bridegroom was in evening dress, and the guests in evening clothes. So steep is the hill that the clergyman found himself out of breath when he reached the summit and the wedding ceremony was halted until he could speak.

MAY LAY NEW CABLE ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.
London, June 16.—The imperial conference discussed resolutions providing for cheaper cable rates throughout the empire and the laying of a state owned cable between England and Canada, thus securing an "all-red" route, linking up all the British dominions. A resolution was adopted that if considerable reductions in transatlantic cable rates were not effected in the near future, the project to lay a state-owned cable between England and Canada should be considered at a subsidiary conference.

POSTAL BANKS FOR TWO

OCEAN VESSELS MUST EQUIP WITH WIRELESS.

Washington, June 16.—After July 1 ocean-going vessels carrying more than fifty passengers will be liable to a fine of $5,000 unless they are equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus capable of transmitting messages to a distance of not less than 100 miles and manned by an operator carrying a certificate issued by this or a foreign government.

Regulations covering wireless equipment, under an act of congress passed June 24, 1910, to become effective July 1, 1911, were issued by the commissioner of navigation yesterday. Three inspectors, in charge of Atlantic, middle-Atlantic and Pacific divisions, and collectors of customs are authorized to enforce the law. To secure certificates, wireless operators must pass examinations at one of the government navy yards or naval stations.

MANUFACTURES. Increase of 17 Per Cent in Number Is Reported.

Washington, June 16.—A report issued by the census bureau on manufactures in Mankato, Minn., for 1909, as compared with 1904, shows increases, as follows: 37 per cent in the number of salaried officials and clerks; 26 per cent in the salaries and wages; 17 per cent in the number of establishments; 11 per cent in the value added by manufacture; 11 per cent in the average number of wage earners employed during the year; 9 per cent in the value of products; and 8 per cent in the cost of materials used. The decreases were 33 per cent in the miscellaneous expenses and less than 1 per cent in the capital invested. There were 63 establishments in 1909, as compared with 54 in 1904; an increase of 9, or 17 per cent. The value of products in 1909 was $3,723,000, and $3,422,000 in 1904; an increase of $301,000, or 9 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $59,000 in 1909, and about $64,000 in 1904.

100 Cool, Mid-Summer One-Piece Wash Dresses, Saturday $5 Values to $7.95

It's a fitting headliner for this woman's page. We've never seen such good wash dresses at this wee price—as you will agree when you see them.

There is a wide variety of colors in neat figures, stripes and plaids, plain tailored and lace finished; such materials as ginghams, lawns, madras and cotton foulards.

It's a $5 dress story that loudly calls the attention of the woman who is desirous of putting her summer wardrobe money to the very best possible advantage.

Fine Waists in a Rare Disposal We offer the residue of our higher priced Waists—values to $10 $4.95

Fine beaded waists, messalines, taffetas, chiffons, marquisettes, fancy silks. Everything up to $10—no matter how fresh or desirable, are marked to go at $4.95. It's a chance to get a dressy waist at trifling cost—that comes but seldom.

Coats—Suits

In a Memorable Clearance

The prices are such as you'd expect by the end of July, but the garments are not. Instead of odds and ends of early season styles, the pith is bolt ends of higher-priced materials, made up for us about ten days ago into garments of individuality and style—for a consideration that is the very essence of economy.

Tailor-Made Suits

$18.50 in all the fashionable weaves and colors of the season. $22.95

Smart Coats

$9.95 $12.50 $15

Every popular coat material in black and diversified assembly of standard sensible colors.

Values are not quoted. A casual glance at this fine crisp merchandise will convince the most dubious observer.

Comparison will tell—as nothing else—the intrinsic values in the Freimuth June Garment Clearance.

Important and Novel Millinery News

Going through stocks yesterday we rounded up 3 tableful of novel styles in seasonable hats which will be tagged with these special sale prices Saturday—

$10 to $15 Hats.....$7.50

$7 to $10 Hats.....$5.00

$5 Hats.....$2.50

in an assortment of colors converging to light tones.

N. B.—The $2.50 Hats, mostly turbans—the $5 Hats are medium shapes—the $7.50, variously trimmed with lace, pinons and flowers.

All fresh—none soiled or passe styles—it's a hat occasion devoid of false pretense, and the woman who has need of an extra hat will find these better than we lead her to believe.

OXYGEN HELMETS ARE GIVEN TESTS

Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company
Experiments With Life-Saving Device.

Ishpeming, Mich., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Several oxygen helmets, to be used in the mines of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company in case of fire, have been received here, and several have also been received at the company's Swanzy range headquarters.

The helmets were tested at the company's main shops this week, when sulphur was burned in an airtight room, and the men wearing the helmets went into the room, remaining for some time without feeling the effects of the sulphur. Mr. Duncan afterwards stated that the test was entirely satisfactory, and the helmets appeared to be all that the manufacturers claim for them.

Men employed at the mines will be trained in the use of the helmets, and they will be kept at convenient places where they can be procured on the shortest possible notice.

The helmets are similar to those used at the government rescue station at Urbana, Ill., though they will not be heavy. The experiments will be continued until the men are thoroughly familiar with the new equipment.

ROLLA, N. D., YOUTH DROWNS SWIMMING

Suddenly Calls for Help and Sinks While Bathing in Coulee.

Rolla, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hans Hensel, age 12, was drowned while swimming in a coulee near here. The lad had been in the water only a few minutes before he called for help and disappeared. His body was recovered within a short time but life was extinct. The boy was here with his mother on a visit. He had been accompanied by the swimming place by a companion, but the other boy did not go into the water, being fearful because of the unusual depth.

REFORMS AIMED AT MONOPOLIES

Mexican Reconstruction Will Affect Big American Interests.

Chihuahua, Mex., June 16.—Reforms immediately affecting many millions of dollars worth of American property in Mexico were announced last night. Governor Gonzalez declared that under the new regime foreign concerns which might be considered monopolies would not be extended or renewed, and that every legal effort would be made to restrict foreign monopolies now existing in Chihuahua, one of the richest states in mineral and timber, which is practically controlled by American, British and German interests. The Americans are the largest holders.

"All Americans who grievously the downfall of the Diaz administration will find that the Diaz was well founded," said Governor Gonzalez. "We do not intend to take away their riches from foreigners who really hold them, but we realize that under the Diaz system the American companies, with their ruinous payments of large sums of money to Mexican politicians, was a virtual selling out of Mexico."

End Special Privileges.—For years Mexico has been exploited by foreigners and the great body of the people have nothing. We were on the verge of becoming paupers. Now all special privileges shall cease if we can accomplish it.

"We hope to maintain the friendly relations with Americans, and we shall invite all foreign capital to come in, but there will be no more selling out of the country by piecemeal. We will invite competition, not monopoly. If American capital wishes to come here, it must be prepared to compete with Mexican capital. No exclusive privileges will be given to foreigners."

LIVES TO BE 101.

Centenarian Gives Up Fight Against Cancer in Throat.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—Physically the equal of many men of 60, in spite of his 101 years, and capable of many years more but for a cancerous growth which compelled long periods of fasting and at last broke down his wonderful constitution, Marion Crabtree died in the city and county hospital yesterday, after having given up search in Minneapolis for his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Brown, whose address he was unable to remember.

Crabtree walked to Minneapolis a month ago coming from Illinois where he had a farm. He spent a week in a futile effort to find Mrs. Herbert Brown who he said was his daughter, living on Fremont avenue in Minneapolis. He told Supt. Ancker of the hospital that while hunting for Mrs. Brown in the Mill City he was told by a neighbor that she did not want to see him, so he came to St. Paul and went to the boarding house.

The authorities at the hospital have written and telegraphed to Mrs. Brown but have been unable to get into communication with her. The telegram was returned with the statement that no such person could be found in Minneapolis, and neither the Mill City police nor the newspaper men have been able to discover any trace of her.

MAY DELAY BRIBERY CASES.

Judge in Ohio Court Accused of Prejudice.

Columbus, Ohio, June 16.—Attorneys for Rodney J. Diegal, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, indicted in the assembly bribery cases and whose trial was scheduled to begin Monday, have filed affidavits of prejudice against Common Pleas Judge Edgar K. Kinkhead, who presided in the trial of Representative George Nye. The action may delay trial of the bribery cases until fall. Ten senators, including four indicted men, are included in the list of witnesses subpoenaed in the Diegal case.

STARTLING EXHIBITION

Of Dislocation of Bones Given By Man in Bellevue Hospital.

Throws His Heart Six Inches Down, Amazing the Doctors.

New York, June 15.—Dr. Drury, night admitting surgeon at Bellevue hospital, was waiting in the reception room at 2 o'clock in the morning when a young man limped in. He said he had fallen and hurt himself. Dr. Drury found the visitor's left hip dislocated. The surgeon got Dr. Jackson to help him, and they worked ten minutes, but could not force the bone back in its socket. They were puzzled. It was the first time in their experience that an apparently simple dislocation had remained so obstinate to treatment. They decided to try heroic measures. When they faced the visitor again he had become pale and seemingly in pain. They then found that the other hip was out of joint. Involuntarily both surgeons jumped back, startled. As they gazed at him he seemed to suffer a mild convulsion. When the spasm passed his shoulder was out of place. The patient grinned and said: "I'm Billy Whitman, known in the West and in Europe as the human rattlebox. No, I'm not on the stage and I'm not going on it. I've been exhibiting my dislocating stunt before big surgeons in private and in clinics. I make my living that way. The tricks you've seen are simple. Watch."

Gave Himself a Wound.—With that, Whitman, like a flash, dislocated his shoulder blade, throwing it out so far that it looked like a miniature wing. He next dislocated both hips at once. Drury and Jackson asked if he had any more "tricks." When he said he "had a bag full," they told him to wait, and summoned Drs. Kenney and Betts and several of the younger surgeons. Reporters were also called in.

Before a dozen spectators Whitman again dislocated his hips and shoulders. Then, one after another, he threw out of joint his ankles, fingers and wrists. He set each one without help. The doctors said they never had seen anything to equal it.

Suddenly Whitman straightened up and said he would dislocate his spine. The doctors pleaded with him not to attempt so dangerous a thing, but "The Human Rattlebox" gave a peculiar twist to his shoulders and in a twinkling seemed to have developed curvature of the spine.

Exhausted by the strain, Whitman had stripped to the waist to prove that his was not a sham performance. The doctors looked at him and shuddered at the uncanny exhibition. It took Whitman five minutes to straighten himself out. That the effort was exhausting was shown by the fact that he stood panting. For several minutes he stood panting. Then the old indifferent smile came back. "As you seem to be interested, I'll show you the best trick of all—dislocating my heart," he announced.

The younger doctors received this statement with derision. The flexible man apparently went into a trance. A glaze like that of death veiled his eyes; his face became white. The pectoral muscles on the left side worked convulsively. Several minutes of this weird performance and Whitman beckoned to the surgeons and pointed to the heart's normal position. He said nothing, though his lips moved. One after the other the physicians put their hands on the man's chest. Not one of them could feel a heartbeat.

Then Whitman placed his finger below and to the right of his heart, at the most on the abdomen, six and a half inches from the heart region.

Missed a Beat on Return.—The doctors put their hands there and for ten seconds distinctly felt Whitman's heart beat. They turned away speechless except Dr. Drury, who kept his hands on the torso. He says the heart missed a beat as it was put back. All four physicians said there was no doubt Whitman had "dislocated" his heart as he had boasted he would. Whitman came out of his "trance" with a shake of his head like a man dislodging water from his ear. Then for the first time he sat down. It was some minutes before he seemed himself again.

Whitman went to the reporters' room and performed several feats, such as putting a pencil on his hip, throwing the bone out of joint and snapping the pencil thirty feet away. "The Human Rattlebox" is stockily built and weighs 135 pounds.

REMARKABLE CURE IS MADE

Cavity in Man's Lung Healed By Creating a Vacuum.

New York, June 15.—Robert Robbins of 274 Cherry street has been discharged from Beth Israel hospital.

DOUBLE WEDDING IS REMARKABLE

Twin Sisters Wedded to Twin Brothers Who Look Alike.

Austin, Tex., June 15.—Missouri twins married Texas twins at San Marcos, thirty miles south of here, a few days ago. The brides were Misses Alma and Alta Moore and the grooms, Leland and Loran Tabler, of Adrian, Mo.

The most interesting feature of this remarkable double wedding is that the brides resemble each other so closely that their most intimate friends could tell them apart and that the twin grooms also look as much alike as two peas. The twin brides wore dresses of different colored flowers were worn. The couples left together on a bridal trip to St. Louis and will be at home in Adrian, Mo., in two weeks. They will occupy adjoining residences, built exactly alike.

The circumstances of the marriage are quite romantic. The two young couples were informed about a year ago of the two young ladies, this leading to a correspondence and an exchange of photographs. Last Christmas the two young men came to see the young women, and this visit led to the marriage.

HIDING OF KISSES MADE IMPOSSIBLE

Stolen Sweets Plain in View Under Chemist's Microscope.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 15.—The hiding of kisses is to be made impossible. Edward Reif, a Pittsburg chemist, has perfected a microscope with which he can tell whether a person has been kissed and just how often.

Reif aims his microscope at a woman's lips, and if he sees a funny looking microbe he knows immediately that some other lips have been around. Pittsburg is taking to the discovery with great glee, particularly the members of the Downtrodden husbands' club. They will insist hereafter when their wives demand that he permit her to smell his breath to see whether he has been drinking that she let him look at her lips first. That will be, of course, when the output of these wonderful instruments increases.

At present Reif charges $10 a look.

Had a microscope been brought along by the automobile party which night there might not have been such serious results. One man in the machine kissed another man's wife. He did it by mistake, but that did not appease a second man in the party. He fired, and the bullet struck the man's wife.

One of Reif's microscopes may be ordered by Judge Orr of Atlanta, Ga., in order to determine whether his decision is carried out. He ordered a K. White to kiss his wife once a day. If hubby reneged the judge would soon know it.

GIVES MONEY FOR VANIMAN FLIGHT

Frank A. Seiberling Deeply Interested in Attempt to Cross Atlantic.

New York, June 16.—The Vaniman expedition, which is to try to cross the Atlantic in a dirigible balloon, is backed financially by Frank A. Seiberling, president of the chamber of commerce of Akron, Ohio. Mr. Seiberling has long taken a deep interest in aeronautics, and he considers the attempt to make an aerial trans-oceanic voyage of immense scientific importance.

Besides being a capitalist and philanthropist, Mr. Seiberling, who was born in Ohio and is 52 years old, is an inventor by heredity. His father, John F. Seiberling, invented the first reaping machine which gathered the grain ready to bind. Later the son invented a twine binder, which tied the grain bundles in a bow knot.

The younger Seiberling became interested in the rubber business, and invented and patented the quick, detachable rim for rubber tires.

Ever since aviation became practicable instead of a theory, he has closely followed the development of both the aeroplane and the dirigible. So keen is his interest that he has imported special machines for the manufacture of a rubberized fabric especially for the Vaniman dirigible and suitable for the wings of heavier than air machines and for the envelopes of the larger gas-filled balloons.

Seiberling is identified with many large interests.

A dispatch from Akron says that in discussing the enterprise Mr. Seiberling said: "I have been prompted by a desire to see an American-made and American-manned aircraft cross the Atlantic, and have taken upon myself to finance the venture. I consider that Vaniman is the only living man who can make the trip successfully. He is thoroughly in earnest over the venture, and will succeed if any man can."

And Flirt a Bit, Is Boston Teacher's Advice to Schoolma'ams.

Boston, Mass., June 16.—A little harmless flirting with nice people with whom you are acquainted will do much to rest the tired mind after the arduous duties of the schoolroom.

This is one of the suggestions to young women school teachers made by Miss Anne Newell, on relinquishing her position as teacher in the Boston public schools after forty-nine years' service.

"Be a live wire every minute, and don't eat too much," is another bit of advice.

SYLVANUS A LOSER.

"Sitting in" Was Common and Bank Roll Suffered.

Edina, Mo., June 15.—Mrs. Berenice Shevlin has a poor opinion of her husband's ability as a poker player, according to her testimony in her suit against Sylvanus Shevlin for divorce.

The case was heard here, incidentally Mrs. Shevlin informed the jury that she was some poker player herself. She declared her husband was exceedingly fond of "sitting in," but that the family bank account frequently suffered.

ferred. But with herself it was different.

She boastfully declared she never emerged from a neighborhood brush at cards, but that she carried away a "roll." She always won, she said. One of these events was called the "Halley's Comet Party," and she averred she collected considerable of the "dust."

Further, Mrs. Shevlin charged her husband with starting a quarrel over money matters in the early hours of the morning and with knocking her down. The litigants were married in St. Louis in 1890 and both were in court.

Mrs. Shevlin is a striking beauty.

ANDREW CARNEGIE'S NIECE

Has Become Reconciled With Husband Because of His Illness.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 16.—Displaying unusual tenderness and devotion for her husband, James Hever, who was at one time her riding instructor, and from whom she had been living apart for nearly two years, Mrs. Nancy Carnegie, a niece of Andrew Carnegie, has become reconciled to him on account of his illness, and is doing everything within her power to make his remaining days happy. Hever, it is stated, has but a comparatively short time to live.

Mrs. Hever has had her husband removed from a New York apartment house to a cottage which she has rented on Long Island. The four children are with them there.

It is understood that Mr. Hever refused to abandon associates he made instantly in following the races originally resulted in his separation from the former Miss Carnegie. Last summer Mrs. Hever and her children occupied the Thaw residence at Crosson, in the Allegheny mountains. Mr. Hever made them a prolonged visit.

New York, June 16.—The Vaniman expedition, which is to try to cross the Atlantic in a dirigible balloon, is backed financially by Frank A. Seiberling, president of the chamber of commerce of Akron, Ohio. Mr. Seiberling has long taken a deep interest in aeronautics, and he considers the attempt to make an aerial trans-oceanic voyage of immense scientific importance.

Besides being a capitalist and philanthropist, Mr. Seiberling, who was born in Ohio and is 52 years old, is an inventor by heredity. His father, John F. Seiberling, invented the first reaping machine which gathered the grain ready to bind. Later the son invented a twine binder, which tied the grain bundles in a bow knot.

The younger Seiberling became interested in the rubber business, and invented and patented the quick, detachable rim for rubber tires.

Ever since aviation became practicable instead of a theory, he has closely followed the development of both the aeroplane and the dirigible. So keen is his interest that he has imported special machines for the manufacture of a rubberized fabric especially for the Vaniman dirigible and suitable for the wings of heavier than air machines and for the envelopes of the larger gas-filled balloons.

Seiberling is identified with many large interests.

A dispatch from Akron says that in discussing the enterprise Mr. Seiberling said: "I have been prompted by a desire to see an American-made and American-manned aircraft cross the Atlantic, and have taken upon myself to finance the venture. I consider that Vaniman is the only living man who can make the trip successfully. He is thoroughly in earnest over the venture, and will succeed if any man can."

REALTY IN BIG DEMAND

Purchases in New York and Suburbs Greater Than Ever.

Value of Transactions in Past Six Months Is High.

New York, June 16.—Building operations here are becoming less active, as shown by the permits issued, but purchases of realty are as numerous as ever in the city and its suburbs, while values in aggregate of transactions were never so heavy as during the past six months.

Last week's announcement of the sale of the Madison Square Garden site for nearly $4,000,000, the reported financing of the entire deal, including the building to be erected, for about $12,000,000, the money to be furnished by investors in Holland, can be accepted as an evidence of the faith of Europeans in the future of this great metropolis.

Several millions of dollars of English money are invested in Long Island tracts, and with true British tenacity and persistence, the holders care not to sell even at the profits already obtainable, but are holding for the very much higher prices, which they believe are theirs in the future.

There is no doubt that real estate in Greater New York and its suburbs has a permanency of value and an annual accretion of profit far greater than in any other city in the world.

May Beat Out London.
Statisticians have lately been calculating as to the period in the future in which the population of Greater New York will exceed that of London. The last census of New York approximated 4,800,000 persons, while the census of London completed last month gave that city in round numbers 50 per cent more, or 7,200,000.

The experts on population place the dates of this city passing the metropolis of Britain all the way from the year 1921 to 1940, but all agree that it is only a question of comparatively few years.

More than 300,000 persons, it is now figured, is the annual gain of the city in population, and as the census of 1910 is now a year past the city is well assured of being at present well above the 5,000,000 mark.

So much of the growth in population, so much of the value of realty, so much of the facilities of transacting business in this city, as in all other cities, depend upon the transportation lines of the city that the pending question of additional subways is receiving the full attention of the citizens here.

Interest of People Intense.
For nearly five years this has been debated in the press of the city, and as action has now advanced the project until at this time it is merely an award between the corporations contending for the privilege of building and operating a system of subways which will connect all the boroughs, the interest of the people in the decision is most intense.

The award, it is thought, will be made next week. The conflicting interests have fought it out with each other until it is quite apparent that the last words are due.

The board of estimates will meet on Monday next at 2 p. m., and it is expected that the report as to the different propositions will be given to the press at that time. The afternoon newspapers will carry the information to the homes of the city that evening. The board will meet again on Thursday to take final action upon the report, and the decision will be made at that time.

All Benefits City.
The contest between the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and the Interborough Company has been fierce, and the chances equally balanced.

This has all been to the benefit of the city, and through the anxiety of the contest New York is about to secure a comprehensive system of the most modern transportation upon very favorable terms.

The people of Manhattan, Kings, Queens, the Bronx and Richmond Boroughs, will have rapid, safe, direct and cheap transportation from and to each of the boroughs and the effect will be at once felt in even larger trade in Manhattan through easier concentration for business and pleasure of the people included in the entire population area of the city.

On the other hand, the outlying boroughs and the suburbs will be filled more rapidly with the throngs of new residents who will take up their abodes in the outer circles, knowing that they can reach the centers of Manhattan or Kings in a very few minutes through the facilities that are to be provided.

In the plans it is provided for a subway from Long Island under the inner harbor to Staten Island (Richmond Borough), thus giving certain communication with Staten Island at all hours, day or night, and under all weather conditions.

Island Will Be Transformed.
This means much to that splendidly located island, and in years to come will completely transform it in many ways. Later on there will undoubtedly be a subway from Staten Island to the Jersey side, which will bring the entire line of Jersey coast resorts, from Atlantic Highlands to Point Pleasant, in closer and more direct communication with this city.

These lines completed will mean the absolute commercial annexation of that section of New Jersey to New York city, as the electric lines will then carry passengers from Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and Long Branch into the heart of Manhattan in an hour's time or less.

The awarding of this subway construction will mean the placing of immense orders for steel and iron within a very few weeks, and from the signs of the times as shown by recent railway conference in the crop situation, the placing of these subway orders for this material will mark the beginning of a great revival in the iron and steel business.

Crop Reports Watched.
The crop conditions never before received in this city the consideration they are receiving at this present time. Every one, merchants, manufacturers, brokers, bankers, railway men and all the other classes of business men are talking crops.

Cotton, corn and wheat are the topics of general conversation here now, fully as much as they are in Texas, Kansas or Nebraska, and report of temperature, drought, or rain brings on a discussion as to results of the crop.

The crop situation is felt to be the key of business for the ensuing twelve months and to listen to the talk from the Harlem to the Battery one would be led to believe that all the inhabitants were trained agriculturists.

Good crops means lower cost of living to the people of the country, and bumper crops means increased business activity from the basement to the roof of the business structure of the United States.

A representative of manufacturers of silk goods the other day remarked to me that recent fashions in the clothing of the women of the world had struck the silk trade a very hard blow.

The increase in the demand for summer dress goods and linen had largely diminished the demand for silk fabrics, and the fact that the recent styles in dresses required but little over one-half the material formerly used had resulted in a tremendous falling off in the sales of silk dress goods.

He estimated that the reduction in the demand throughout the world was $50,000,000 below former years. Fashion has taken a very hard blow, and the silk trade this year by reducing the quantity of material in the gowns.

for me to speak with authority, but there are hundreds of manicurists who, had they the courage, would give up their work for a place behind a counter or some other position where they could maintain their self respect.

Only a few weeks ago a man, whom I know to be married and the father of several children, came to my table and begged that I accept an invitation to dine with him that night. Later, he said, we were to take an automobile ride. I refused to listen to him. On the way out the man stopped to talk with the proprietor. The proprietor, with whom I shared what I made, told me that I would have to quit, I asked him what he meant, and he replied:

"You don't know how to hold a man's hand. You're like the rest of your kind (meaning manicurists)—none of you are any good."

He then said that the charge of the proprietor and as a result lost her place.

MANICURE GIRL IS DISCHARGED

Chicago, June 16.—This manicure girl won't:

Squeeze customers' hands. Accept presents from them. Allow them to make love to her. Flirt with them to win tips.

Accept invitations to the theater. Go for automobile joy rides with them.

So she was fired.

"You must squeeze the customers' hands," "You must smile at them," "You must jolly them," "You must be the orders which Miss Ella Wood, a pretty young English woman, out of her position as manicurist in one of the biggest barber shops in the loop district, declared yesterday her employers wanted her to live up to."

She has been a manicurist for a little more than six months," she said, "and I am giving up the work with no feeling of regret, although I made a good living. The money that I could make did not compensate me for the insults to which I was subjected daily. Of course," explained Miss Wood, who came to this country from England just nine months ago, "my experience as a manicurist has been too short

She is surrounded even now with the sounds of hammering and the noise of carpenters at work, while she mutters messages to her dead husband through visitors invisible to the frightened servants in the house.

For years Llanada Villa, the Winchester home, has been growing larger and larger under the constant work of the builders, while the mistress, growing weaker and weaker, has urged the workers on. Years ago, just after her husband died, Mrs. Winchester, so she told the infrequent visitors who braved her manner and called on her, was the recipient of a message from the spirit world warning her that she was going to die. The only way, said the message, that she could prolong her life was to have hammers constantly sounding their rat-a-tat in her ears. The house, in the big, lonely estate, was then a large one, but Mrs. Winchester has added to its size until now it is more than five hundred feet long, nearly a fifth as wide, and the tallest tower rises several stories above the green lawn, higher than the giant trees near by.

The great earthquake of 1906 destroyed the home in part, and the strain of that early morning has proved too much for Mrs. Winchester's nerves and since then she has never been well. She is seventy-six years of age.

The house cost her more than half a million dollars. The doors and the windows are draped in white satin. The better to facilitate the ingress and egress of my real friends," says the mistress. Rare old objects of art from Japan, India and China are scattered in careless profusion about the rooms, and the long silent halls are decked in rich brocade stuff from French looms.

WEDS AN EX-CONVICT.

Stenographer to Missouri Secretary of State Proud of Husband.

Carthage, Mo., June 16.—The love that caused Miss Ethel Faskens, stenographer to Secretary of State Roach at Jefferson City, to carry on a secret correspondence with Harry Van Waringa while he was a convict in the Missouri penitentiary, has culminated in their marriage here at the home of her father, G. W. Faskens, street commissioner.

Since his release three weeks ago, Van Waringa, a violinist, has been much at the Faskens home. He met the girl at prison chapel, where he and the orchestra. A jealous author, he had disclosed the correspondence between the couple, and Miss Faskens was discharged by Secretary Roach.

In her place she announced she would wed Van Waringa.

Van Waringa, a native of Amsterdam, Holland, was sentenced from St. Joseph, Mo., to two years in the penitentiary for selling a mortgaged cornet.

He said he was ignorant of the law. They corresponded through the prison chaplain, who had married the parents of Miss Faskens when they eloped.

Miss Faskens is very proud of her husband and refuses all offers of sympathy.

She says his past shall not swerve her faith in him, and declared: "There are as many good men inside the penitentiary as outside of it."

SECEDING FROM CHURCH

Split Takes Place in Our Saviour's Norwegian Lutheran Congregation.

Thirty Families Leave and Will Organize a New Church.

A third Norwegian Lutheran church is to be organized in West Duluth within a short time, and already a building has been secured. The edifice at Sixteenth avenue west and Bristol street, owned by the Swedish Methodist congregation, and for many years occupied by the West Duluth Baptist church, has been rented by the new congregation, and is now undergoing extensive repairs.

The new Norwegian Lutheran congregation is being formed by a large number of former members of Our Saviour's Norwegian Lutheran church, Fifty-seventh avenue west and Wadena street, who left some time ago, because they could not agree with the present management of that church.

The withdrawal of about thirty families from this church, is the cause of some trouble between the pastor and many of the members. One of the leaders of the dissenting faction is Trulsen Taraldsen, a plasterer, living at 6223 Wadena street. It is largely through the efforts of Mr. Taraldsen that the new congregation is being formed. Mr. Taraldsen has about thirty families already with him, but it is understood that many others are coming over to his new band.

The services of Rev. Nelson, a pastor who has been identified with the Norwegian Lutheran church, and has been pastor of the church for many years, have been secured, and he will organize the new church. It is probable, however, that after the church has had a good start, that a younger man may be secured, as Rev. Nelson is not actively working in the ministry, having retired several years ago, but devoting some time to aiding local churches.

Rev. John A. Berke is pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran church, and has held this position for many years. O. L. Wick, of the Commercial club, is the pastor of the church living at 117 North Sixty-third avenue west, stated this morning that many and already left the church, and that more were about to leave, he being among them. He stated that there has been considerable trouble between the pastor and the members.

The other Norwegian Lutheran church located at Fifty-seventh avenue west and Roosevelt street, known as the Immanuel Norwegian Synod Lutheran church, Rev. Bergel S. Johnson, pastor.

MASS MEETING CALLED.

Election of School Directors Will Be Discussed By Citizens.

For the purpose of arousing an active interest in the coming election of directors to the board of education, a mass meeting has been called for this evening at the West Duluth Commercial club. All members of the club are expected to be present, as there is other business to come up.

The West Duluth Commercial club has issued an invitation to the West end club, the Sixth Ward Improvement club and the Central Hillside club to send delegations to the meeting this evening, when the situation will be talked over.

West Duluth and the western end of the city are now represented on the school board by L. A. Barnes. While Mr. Barnes has acquitted himself creditably, the general sentiment seems to be that there should be a larger representation from the western end of the city.

The Onondaga Improvement club has requested the West Duluth club to look into the matter of a sprinkling service for Grand avenue. It is probable that a delegation of Onondaga people will attend the meeting this evening.

PICTURE OF HONEST MAN

It Was Nailed to West Duluth House and Worried Neighbor.

Neighbor Couldn't Sleep or Eat After Looking at It.

A large board bearing a crude picture of a man, and with the inscription "An honest man is the noblest work of God," nailed upon the residence of Edward W. Owen, was the source of great annoyance yesterday to John H. Hall and his family, who live next door to Owen, at 430 South Sixty-first avenue west.

The time-honored axiom became so unbearable that at the close of day Mr. Hall called up the West Duluth police department and reported that a sign was posted upon his neighbor's house, which had on it a "bad picture." Mr. G. Egerberg, a patrolman, was ordered there to investigate, and reported to "deut. Wilcox, in charge of the Duluth department, that there was such a sign, but it was neither a bad looking one, nor a demoralizing one.

Mr. Hall and his family, consisting of a wife and several children, all in union, told the patrolman their troubles with the Owen family. The culminating point was reached when the sign appeared. Hall said he could not sleep, and that his appetite had been taken away from him when he got the first glimpse of the board. As he related his story to the police, he showed signs of great nervousness and appealed to the patrolman to remove the sign.

So far as the police department knew, the sign is up yet.

WILL CHASE GREASED PIG

This Will Be One Feature of Fourth of July Program.

If you are interested in winning a grand prize, sign up with the committee for the West Duluth Fourth of July celebration. The contest of greatest amusement is to be the greased pig chase, the winner of which will be handsomely rewarded.

The sporting committee has been busy for some time and it is probable that any that was ever held at a similar celebration will be made. The finance committee reports that it will raise about $300.

EXHIBIT OF MANUAL TRAINING WORK.

The overflow of the high school manual training department exhibit, which cannot be taken care of at the show windows of the Great Eastern store, will be on exhibition at Spencer's drug store this week.

The exhibit consists of high school students' drawings of a mechanical nature, and a large variety of pattern work, which has been turned out during the past semester.

Visit Blast Furnace.

Members of the West Duluth Commercial club today made a trip to the Zenith Furnace company's plant, where they were shown the blast furnace in operation. They joined the "seeing Duluth" party from the Duluth club, Fred Carson, superintendent of the furnace, and officials of the company took charge of the club members.

RAILROAD MAY DO WORK

City May Save Money on Construction of Concrete Culvert.

Transfer Railway Willing to Make Fill in the Ravine.

The board of public works this morning opened bids for the construction of a concrete culvert and fill on Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, to replace the large wooden bridge which was recently burned. Adam McAdams was the lowest bidder, offering to do most of the work. The railroad desires to cross the road, and to do so it will have to reduce the grade of the street several feet.

The board, however, did not award the contract, as it is probable that some arrangements will be made with the Spirit Lake Transfer railroad to do most of the work. The railroad desires to cross the road, and to do so it will have to reduce the grade of the street several feet.

The company has stated to the mayor that it is willing to place all the dirt which will be taken from the cut into the gulch, and to take off several feet from the grade of the road, and the ground on each side, for about 1,000 feet back, and to make this would supply all the filling necessary, at least for the larger side.

The board of public works, the mayor, the city engineer and the council committee on streets and sidewalks will meet with representatives of the railroad to ascertain what arrangements can be made. The city officials believe that the work can be so arranged that the railroad will complete the fill on both sides of the culvert. If this can be done, the city will be saved a considerable sum of money, there would be a big gain, as the fill on the railroad side would be much larger than the other.

WALKED OFF WITH CHAIRS

Bold Thief Enters West Duluth Store During Afternoon.

The West Duluth police are still looking for the thief who boldly entered Emil Oetzel's furniture store last Friday and carried off a sum of money. The theft was perpetrated some time during the afternoon or evening, while the store was closed. The thief entered in the front part of the store. The chairs were standing near the back door, which was unlocked. The thief was misadvised the next day and reported immediately to the police. An employee of the West Duluth Transfer company sitting on a chair near Fifty-fourth avenue west, almost directly back of Oetzel's store, appeared to be drunk, and told this man that he was taking the chair home, but that he felt tired and was resting. The man probably wanted a full set, and therefore he said to sit, but he got four of one kind and two of another. An arrest is expected shortly.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO PROCTOR.

Lots and Acres in Scott's Addition Offered for Sale.

A sale of much interest to those planning on purchasing land about the outskirts of the city, is to be conducted tomorrow by D. W. Scott & Son, of the Torrey building.

The lots and parcels of land which will be offered by this firm are located at Proctor and known as the Scott Addition to Proctor. Lots 50 by 140 feet are sold at $100. Lots 100 by 175, while acre tracts range from $250 to $500. The land about Proctor is in great demand, and these prices are considered bargains.

The firm will run a special train tomorrow over the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway, leaving Proctor at 2 o'clock and the West Duluth station at 2:15, and returning leaving Proctor at 3:30. No charge will be charged to prospective buyers. Those wishing to go should telephone the company before 10 o'clock tomorrow. Try to arrange to take this free trip to Proctor tomorrow afternoon.

The Fittwell announces their season's clearance sale. See ad on page 18 of this issue.

WAS MODERN ST. BENEDICT

Scion of Wealthy Belgian Family Who Voluntarily Became Beggar.

Had Yearly Income of $7,500—Death Reveals Strange Story.

Brussels, June 16.—The recent death of M. Charles de Courcelles in Rome, which has just been announced here, was the close of a remarkable career of asceticism for a parallel to which one must look back for several centuries. M. de Courcelles was a member of a distinguished and wealthy family of this city—his brother is a prominent member of the second chamber of deputies. He had a private income of $7,500 a year, but it was found at his death that he had actually lived on the hundredth part—$75 annually, and given the rest away to the institutions of the church. For fifteen years he had been living in Rome the life of a common mendicant in imitation of Saint Benedict whom he chose as his example. At 25 he was the leader of one of the poorest of the Little Paris, known by the title of le-petit Parisien on account of his elegant taste in dress and his polished manners. Suddenly renouncing the world, the first of which to his friends was his abstinence from meat, and leaving his worldly affairs in the hands of his relatives, he made a pilgrimage to Rome on foot disguised as a mendicant, like his exemplar, St. Benedict, who like himself deliberately adopted that profession, begging for food and shelter along the way. This was sometimes refused him by a peasantry who are no longer accustomed to those relics of a more devout age—pilgrims, in which case he bought food, but he always slept in the open on the ground.

Slept on the Floor.
On his arrival at Rome he rented a small room in one of the most obscure parts of the city for $5 a month. It contained no furniture and he was accustomed to lie on the floor at night without removing his clothes and to go entirely without fire. He ate but one meal daily consisting of a single boiled egg and a small loaf of bread. This was consumed always away from his lodging in the early morning, either on the steps of some nearby church or on the public benches. His drink was always water scooped up from some public fountain in his hands, as the worthy St. Benedict drank. He was not of a particularly strong constitution and was sometimes overcome by weakness brought on by the rigors of his life and on these occasions he allowed himself a little cheap wine as a reliver. His asceticism is believed, in fact, to have gradually killed him as he died before quite reaching the age of 40. His object in coming to Rome was on account of the vast number of churches of the Roman Catholic faith which it contains and he gave himself up entirely to a life of religious contemplation and devotion. Arising every morning at daybreak he would go forth and after eating his single meal would seek some shrine. His day was passed in the churches and he sought his miserable lodging only at night when the last public service was over. No sign of his mission as a pilgrim was permitted to obtrude as is not the case with many devotees, but rather the opposite. Courcelles preferred to appear simply as a common beggar like his pattern, St. Benedict. In order to bring down upon him the continuity of the mass of the people appearing as such, of course, alms were occasionally bestowed upon him—which he accepted so as not to excite suspicion.

Kept His Identity Secret.
He succeeded in keeping up an impenetrable secrecy even in a city crowded with strangers. This was penetrated only by a nephew who went to Rome some two years ago to try to find him and who recognized him on the street after several days' search, followed him to his lodging and afterwards by careful shadowing and inquiry developed the facts as here stated. At his lodging the family from whom he rented never learned his real name. No letter or visitor ever came to him there. His only correspondence with the world consisted of one or two letters yearly from his brother in Brussels, who sent him his income and forwarded at his request two shirts annually. These letters were marked Post Restante. His nephew was finally sent to inquire into his strange way of life and from time to time to his death, his family alone knew of him. His nephew on one occasion succeeded in obtaining a snapshot of him in the street. He wore an old overcoat buttoned to the chin, and shoes through which his naked feet could be seen plainly. Among the facts learned about him by the nephew was that he had not worn stockings or socks since the beginning of his life of penance. He varied his life in Rome by several pilgrimages to Palestine on foot. He also visited in this manner the leading shrines of France and Spain. At his death it was found that he had bequeathed upon the church upwards of $110,000.

HE WAS ONE TOO.

summoned to serve on the petit jury this week and came down Monday to report. When Judge Jett asked if any jurors had good excuse for not serving, Mr. Schaper arose and claimed to be exempt because he is a "pharmacist." He was excused, when another juror arose and asked to be excused also. "What is your excuse?" asked the judge. "I have about the same excuse," he said. "I am a farm assistant." Subsequently he was one of those arbitrarily challenged. Never side wanted a man with a wit like that on the jury.

FAILURE TO DESTROY BOX
Forces Pretty Girl to Pay Heavy Duty on Ring.

New York, June 16.—Miss Caroline Stansbaugh, aged 22 years, and exceedingly pretty, arrived on the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm with Mrs. G. M. Bonds, her neighbor, of Youngstown, Ohio. Miss Stansbaugh had an idea it would be easy to fool the customs officials, so she forgot to declare a handsome ring purchased in Berlin. However, she also forgot to destroy the box it came in. The inspector examined her baggage he found the empty case in the bottom of the trunk. "Where is the ring that came in this box?" asked the inspector. "I gave it to a friend in Berlin," said Miss Stansbaugh. "Well, give me the name of your friend and I will cable her. You can remain here; it will only take a few hours to get an answer." "I have forgotten her address," the inspector handed the girl her declaration, remarking: "If you wish to amend this you may, I will be back in a few minutes." When he returned, no amendment had been made to the declaration. Deputy Surveyor John O'Connor was summoned. Miss Stansbaugh said the ring cost $90. She paid $54 duty.

WHERE IS DIOGENES?
Only Person Who Really Wanted to Pay Customs Duty.

New York, June 16.—One little girl cried because Uncle Sam did not want to collect duty from her. But she was only 9 years old and has yet opportunity to learn that smuggling is one of the greatest feminine pleasures. The little miss who pined to pay was Adeline Barry, daughter of a prominent Chicago lawyer. With her mother, Mrs. Edward W. Barry, and her older sister, Geraldine, little Adeline arrived on the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm. The little girl carried a doll probably as big as herself. She had bought it in Berlin. When she went aboard her grandmother gave her $20. The doll cost $19 and Miss Adeline still had 20 cents residuary estate. On the dock she went up to the customs man in uniform, displaying two dimes. "Please take this; I hope it will be enough," she said. "What is it for?" asked the customs man. "It is for my new dolly," proudly announced Adeline, and she displayed her prize. "But you do not have to pay any duty on it," explained the inspector. Just to relieve her mind he took one of the dimes and put a customs mark on the doll's foot as a mark of Uncle Sam's approval. "I'm going to keep the dime as a souvenir," said he. "It will be a reminder of the only person I ever met who really wanted to pay duty."

S.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM

The usual cause of Rheumatism is an excess of uric acid in the blood which weakens and acidifies this vital fluid, and prevents the proper amount of nourishment being afforded the muscles, nerves and tendons. The pains and aches of Rheumatism may be temporarily relieved by the use of liniments, hot applications, and other external treatments, but the disease cannot be permanently benefited by such measures and is bound to become chronic and dangerous if such things are depended upon alone. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation. When S. S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, and every symptom of Rheumatism passes away. Book on Rheumatism and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

POTATOES ARE SOARING

Prices Double During Week—Old Crop Out of Market.

Butter Prices Weak—Hot Weather Affects Fresh Egg Receipts.

Potatoes held the center of the stage this week, prices advancing to $1.25 a bushel, an upturn of 100 per cent over last week.

The sensational bulge was due to exhausted supplies of old potatoes on account of drought in the southern districts. Receipts of new stock are light. The Texas crop has been shipped and little is expected from Arkansas and Indiana territory. The excessive heat and dry weather that have prevailed in the Southwest have damaged the potato crop seriously.

Michigan potatoes were expected on the market today to relieve to a small extent the famine. Prices for old potatoes have walked forward with the same rapidity as values for new potatoes. Old potatoes are off the market and new potatoes are scarce. The superior quality of new potatoes gradually weaned over the public to the purchasing of this kind, which caused the supply of old potatoes to last longer than if the consumptive demand had been centered upon it.

The demand for new potatoes has been so heavy that dealers have advanced prices by leaps and bounds. They have been unable to care for the demand. Added to the heavy buying from the public and limited supplies was the fact that there were no prospects of a material increase in the receipts. According to reports from shipping points there is likelihood that receipts of potatoes will be liberal until the home grown crop begins to come on the market or the crop raised in Southern Minnesota and Michigan are available.

Butter prices are fairly weak but the reductions did not make any impression on buyers until within the last few days. Buyers apparently concluded then that prices had reached bottom, for the time being at least. The demand in the early part of the week was slow and holders were beginning to get worried. More interest was exhibited later, however, and a further improvement is expected.

The June run of butter is now on the market and as a general rule speculators scramble for the kind. They still remember, however, the severe drubbing they received last season and show no haste in buying supplies this year. They are determined to get supplies cheaply as possible. Although values are lower than at this time last year speculators contend that butter is not worth the present quotation.

Trading in eggs has been unsatisfactory, the hot weather at shipping points affecting a large number of shipments. The warmer weather that prevailed early in the week did not increase consumption here. Buyers are not desirous of the common stuff which has been a drag on the market. The liberal receipts and decreased demand dealers are not in a position to hold up values. They can do nothing but stand aside while events pursue their natural course.

The poultry market is fairly active and advances were secured. The speculative feature of fowls has been predominant. Spring chickens are plentiful. Prices for old chickens are strong.

Offerings of strawberries are exceedingly heavy and materially lower values have resulted. The receipts principally have been from Michigan and Wisconsin. Many are soft and must be moved quickly. The demand is good.

COUNTY OPTION A FAILURE?

Will Not Remove "Craving" of Man Who Has Drink Habit.

THERE IS PERFECT CURE.

No Hypodermic Injections Given or Powerful Drugs Used.

County option will not take away the craving for drink. It will not remove the thirst. Nor will local option nor state-wide prohibition. Neither will moral suasion. When that craving exists, law or no law, men are certain to find some way to get liquor. Nothing can keep it away from them. The thing the man who is a slave to the liquor habit must do first is to get rid of the craving. There is a way. It is prompt. It is a sure way. It never fails. The door to temperate habits is through the Neal three-day treatment for the drink habit. It takes away the craving for drink by driving the alcoholic poison out of the system, and in its place a distaste, an aversion to liquor is set up. It takes only three days. No hypodermic injections, so liable to cause blood poisoning, are given. No powerful drugs are used. There are no harmful after results. There is no publicity. It is like staying three days at a first-class hotel. If you are afflicted with the drink habit and really want to be free, or if you are interested in a friend or relative who needs treatment, write to the Neal Institute Co., corner Beiknap and Seventh streets, Superior, Wis., for their free booklet giving full information and a copy of their contract. It will be mailed to you under a plain sealed envelope and everything will be strictly confidential. You can be treated at the Superior Institute, or at the St. Paul, Minn., Institute, 676 Dayton avenue, or the Minneapolis, Minn., Institute, corner Fourth avenue south and Seventh street, whichever happens to be the most convenient to you.

Prices are much cheaper. The leading Western and Central markets are congested and berries are trying to find an outlet in Northern markets. Trading in other fruits has been fairly good. Prices tend to lower levels.

Opening prices for California canned fruits are expected about June 20. There is every indication that there will be a considerable advance over the initial prices last year on account of the firmness of conditions on the coast due to a close cleanup of spot stock, a shortage of this season's crop, and the prices that buyers of green fruit are willing to pay. The tendency toward higher prices is forecasted by the attitude of a few packers who have accepted a small amount of business subject to confirmation of buyers' orders.

Both future and spot Maryland standard tomatoes are firmer. Spot stocks are in light compass at primary markets, those in the hands of packers being mostly seconds.

While no opening prices have been announced on canned Columbia river salmon, some of the new pack has arrived in the local market subject to rebate, on a basis of 15c above last year's opening figures, guaranteed against quotations at the opening of this season.

KANSAS WINS ITS OIL CASE

Three Subsidiaries of New Jersey Company Are Enjoined.

Topeka, Kan., June 16.—The Kansas supreme court has handed down a decision in the state's suit against three subsidiary companies of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, prohibiting them from continuing to stifle competition.

The three companies against which the suit was brought are the Standard Oil company of Indiana, the Standard Oil company of Kansas and the Prairie Oil & Gas company, all subsidiaries to the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. Each of these companies is chartered in Kansas to produce, purchase and otherwise procure crude oil, to refine it, and to market it.

No one of the companies has been doing this, according to the findings. On the contrary, each has been working out a part of a system. It was brought out in the hearing that the Prairie Oil & Gas company is a transportation company purchasing the crude oil and transporting it to the Standard Oil company of Kansas, which is the refining company. The latter turns the refined product over to the Standard Oil company of Indiana which is the marketing end of the enterprise. The state asserted that this division of labor showed an illegal agreement between the three.

Although still a youth in his teens, Master Frank Hartley, who is making a big hit with his clever juggling at the Empress this week, has traveled all over the globe and has appeared in almost every known civilized country. This youth is a wonder in his chosen line and he is far more expert than the average adult juggler. Master Hartley made his first public appearance in his home town, Bradford, England, when but 12 years of age. Since that time, he has been constantly before the public and has made a great reputation for himself. While appearing at the Palace theater London, Hartley was seen by the representative of King George, and he was immediately commanded to appear at the residence of Lord Jerech before their majesties, the king and queen, and a company of his distinguished guests. After witnessing his performance, the king highly complimented Master Hartley and said that England was proud of such a son. Although he has enough honors to turn the head of the ordinary man, Master Hartley is still modest and unassuming and is constantly adding new feats to his repertoire. Master Hartley has been in America for only a few weeks but he has been received with open arms and he is very well pleased with the reception he has received on this side of the Atlantic.

"In Wyoming," will be seen here at the Lyceum, Saturday, June 17, matinee afternoon and night. The glorified cowboy has appeared in fiction and stage again and again with his sombrero and his wild antics with a six-shooter. The thing about Mr. Mack's cowboy, that has appealed so forcibly to the public, is that he is a real cowboy. He does some things that society does not sanction as proper; but his instincts are sound, his heart is big, he is generous and honorable, and a man to be trusted. He has lived the wild, elemental life of his kind, but he knows and loves the better way when he sees it.

Olga Nethersole. Olga Nethersole, who is playing this season in a new drama by Henri Bernstein entitled "The Redemption of Evelyn Vaudray," will be seen here on Monday, June 19, at the Lyceum. Miss Nethersole takes her part seriously, and she has decided that the public which paid to see her should see something more than a woman parading herself for the amusement of the crowd. That the theater was an institution maintained principally for entertainment, she was willing to admit, but she insisted upon keeping the purpose of her plays in a dominant tone. Miss Nethersole declined to accept the dictum that the only object of the theater was to amuse and she gave substantial basis to her theory by selecting the plays in which she acted from the works of men who were leaders in modern thought. Her favorite playwrights have been Dumas, DeMaistre, Pinter, Hervieu, Sardou, Melville and Ibsen. "The Redemption of Evelyn Vaudray" is the work of Henri Bernstein, the author of "The Thief," and one of the leaders of the present school of French dramatists. It was adapted by Louis N. Parker, the adapter of "The Thief," and was staged under the expert guidance of Ben Greet.

CHANCE TO DELAY THE ELECTRIC TRUST SUIT.

Washington, June 16.—The National Electric Lamp company, which the government alleges is one of the sections of the so-called electrical trust, has made its answer to the dissolution suit recently filed against it. If the company's attorneys take advantage of all the legal technicalities open to them, it may be more than a year before the case is heard by a court.

Soon after the government suit was begun, the trust reduced the price of electric light bulbs thirty per cent. There were intimations that the company would not fight the suit. The question of how far the United States patents are used in creating a monopoly is one of the main questions involved, and it is said that some other anti-trust sections in contemplation by the department of justice will await the outcome of the electrical case.

Nelson Gets a "Rise." Taking up cudgels in behalf of Attorney General Wickersham, whom Senator Foreman had criticized, Senator Kenyon declared that the present head of the department of justice had achieved more results in his prosecution of trusts than any of his predecessors.

He said Mr. Wickersham did not require instructions from congress to do his duty. Senator Nelson created a diversion when, in applauding Mr. Wickersham's work, he declared that Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, when attorney general in President Cleveland's cabinet, had said the Sherman anti-trust law was a dead letter. Both Senators Doremus and Hitchcock were immediately on their feet to reply. "That is mere imagination," said the Nebraska senator. "Mr. Harmon was the official who first breathed any life into the law."

Sixty for Reciprocity. The Canadian reciprocity bill now has sixty votes in the United States senate, according to the White House. The duty of naming collectors of internal revenue, United States marshals and postmasters will be killed by a comfortable majority in the same body, the men who have studied the situation for President Taft say. The president expects a long debate on the bill, and perhaps some acrimonious discussion on the Root amendment, but he has expressed the conviction that a combination of Republicans and Democrats will defeat the amendment and that the House will vote for the bill.

Look Into Cold Storage. The senate committee on manufacturing is to have a demonstration of the effect of cold storage meat on human beings. Alfred R. Orion of Armour & Co. sold the committee that not to extend five per cent of his firm's products goes into cold storage, and that therefore cold storage is not used to effect in California and Miss Hifton stated that they have been notified that the old rule for fifty-pound packages for California had been changed from 44 to 66, and they wanted a parcels post that will serve them and the general public.

Gift For the President. A fund of $2,000 to purchase a silver service to present to Mrs. Taft on her wedding anniversary at the White House Monday, has been subscribed by members of the house of representatives. Each member gave $5 and the fund was collected so rapidly that a committee was enabled to take the afternoon train for New York, where the gift will be selected. The present will be supplemented by a magnificent silver service which the senate will present to President and Mrs. Taft at the celebration.

Lorimer Committee Attorneys. The Lorimer investigating committee of the senate has appointed as counsel John Marble of Washington, D. C. and John J. Healey of Chicago. Mr. Marble for years has been attorney for the Interstate Commerce commission, while Mr. Healey, former state attorney for Cook county, Illinois, served as counsel for the Helm committee of the Illinois senate in its Lorimer inquiry.

Auto Repairs Investigated. Use of the shop of the Washington navy yard by officers for the repairing of their automobiles and motor boats is being investigated by the house committee on expenditures in the navy department. The committee learned that such repairs have been made in many instances and Secretary of the Navy Meyer told the committee that it should be the custom to make such repairs at cost.

Song Writer's Descendant Weds. Baltimore, Md., June 16.—Dr. George Holstead Boylan, a native of Cincinnati, who served as a surgeon in the Franco-Prussian war by special appointment from the French government, and Mrs. Mary Lloyd Key Gilmer, a granddaughter of Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner," were married here yesterday.

Predicts Dumber Crop. Winnipeg, June 16.—Charles M. Hayes, president of the Grand Trunk railway, who has just returned from four weeks' tour of Western Canada, says the crop this year will exceed the estimates of 200,000,000 bushels. His company is building 446 miles of branch lines this year, besides the main line which will be built into British Columbia this summer.

IN THE DAY'S WORK AT WASHINGTON

Answer to Lindbergh. Washington, June 16.—The first authoritative answer to the charge made by Representative Lindbergh of Minnesota that the administration used the appointive power of the president to further political ends was made by President Taft yesterday. In conversation with friends, the president declared that he would be delighted if congress would take from his hands the duty of naming collectors of internal revenue, United States marshals and postmasters. He would be happy, he said, if congress would extend the civil service law to include such offices. Practically every post up to the grade of United States district attorney, the president told his callers, should be put under the civil service regulations. He declared his belief that there is a lot of "hypocrisy" in the charges made by senators and others that a political machine has been built up through appointments to such offices.

OPEN WAY TO RECRUITS

Augustana Synod Will Receive Ministers From Other Denominations.

Revision of Text Books Is Opposed at Morning Session.

Obtained clergymen of other denominations will be admitted to the Augustana synod, provided that they pass examinations in such special course of studies as the theological faculty shall provide.

The constitution of the synod was amended at the morning session today at Bethany church, West end, incorporating these provisions. In the amendment, it was also provided that ordination may be granted to men who have not passed examinations in the regular course of theological studies, but who are otherwise deemed qualified and who are recommended by some conference of the Augustana synod. However, these must also pass a special examination. In case it is deemed necessary, the applicant shall also be required to spend some time in pursuit of special studies, the time to be specified by the theological faculty.

Oppose Text Book Revision. The morning session was opened by a short devotional service and a prayer by Rev. C. F. Johanson of Boston, Mass. After singing up the matter of special ordinations, the synod considered the advisability of revising the text books and catechisms, which are now in use in the summer religious schools. The theological council in its sessions last week recommended that a revision be made, but there are many in the synod who oppose it. The argument for revision is that the text books are too technical and too long for the average child. Those who oppose it say that the teacher should overcome this difficulty by explanation. The proposition will probably be put to a vote this afternoon.

Following the morning business session, a special memorial service was held at 11 o'clock to commemorate the birth of Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg in Germany in 1711. Rev. Muhlenberg established the first Lutheran church in America, in Pennsylvania. The memorial service was presided over by Rev. Adolph Hult of Omaha, Neb. This afternoon, the matter of raising funds for educational purposes is being discussed. The jubilee endowment fund for Augustana college, amounting to $25,000, has been subscribed by churchmen, has nearly all been subscribed.

Tonight sacred concerts will be held in the four Swedish Lutheran churches of the city. At Bethany church, E. Swanson is director and J. G. Anderson organist. An elaborate program has been arranged for the concert, which will be under the auspices of the city. At the Lutheran church, E. Swanson is director and J. G. Anderson organist. BEET SUGAR OFFICER TELLS OF FORTUNE MADE "OVER NIGHT" water was in the other deals? How much did Capt. Thomas make?"

"I do not know," he was probably treated a little better than the others."

"Why?"

"The wanted name," said Mr. Oxnard. "They really bought out the Oxnard Brothers."

Opposed the Trust.

He said he did not stay with the trust, but went abroad and after studying the beet sugar industry in Europe, returned to America to oppose it in that business in earnest opposition to the trust.

Mr. Oxnard explained that he and his brothers, Robert, Benjamin and James, G. were interested in the American Beet Sugar company, but at present they owned only about 1,000 shares of preferred and 500 shares of common stock. Their largest holdings, he added, were in a Louisiana sugar refinery in which they had invested about $1,000,000.

"There had been a big tariff on sugar for twenty-five or thirty years," explained Mr. Oxnard. "I thought it would be profitable and patriotic to introduce the beet sugar business into this country."

Was "Selling Agency."

The witness said the American Beet Sugar company had never had any connection with the American Sugar Refining company until 1902, under which the latter became the "selling agency" of the former.

"Didn't it say where the sugar was to be sold?" inquired Chairman Hardwick.

"No," replied Mr. Oxnard. "There was a provision that it was to be sold everywhere except in each gland."

"How about this phrase in the contract?" asked Mr. Oxnard. "The witness said that he had a copy of the contract, the following:

"Where being taken by us (American Beet Sugar company), except when necessary, to avoid your markets."

"Well, that was written in there by the lawyers. They said that it was not against the Sherman anti-trust law. As a matter of fact it never amounted to anything, for we sold where we wanted to."

"Why did you make it?"

"Well, there was that war of sugar companies once, and then we wanted the advantage of sales by their brokers."

The witness said the contract was in existence only three years, although it was to run ten years.

"You lived up to the contract, didn't you?" asked Chairman Hardwick.

"Well, I suppose so."

"They lived up to it?"

"They really had nothing to do," he replied. "I don't know then? Wasn't it because of the American Sugar company cutting prices in Missouri refinery in 1907?"

"I don't know that that was the reason. It may have been one."

Chairman Hardwick wanted to know why the contract was abandoned.

Presumed It Illegal.

"I ceased to be president in 1906," said Mr. Oxnard. "My brother succeeded me and Col. Dural came on the board. The colonel was familiar with the railroad and Sherman law. He said it was all right; that John E. Parsons, the American Sugar Refining company said it was legal. He asked if I would object to his friend Wayne MacVeach taking it. Mr. MacVeach said it was illegal. So Mr. Cutting went to H. O. Havemeyer of the American Sugar Refining and told him the contract was illegal. He wanted it to be continued through the year. Mr. Cutting said, 'No, this contract ends today.' So that was amens and the thing was dead from that day."

After a long discussion of the beet sugar industry and the tariff on raw and refined sugar, Mr. Oxnard asked to be allowed to make a statement.

"Give the Devil His Due."

"Quite a little has been said about the 'trust' controlling the beet sugar refineries," he said. "The trust does not control 20 per cent of the industry and the beet sugar refining companies. There is no such thing as a restraint of trade between the beet sugar people and the other people."

"I think you should give the devil his due. If the trust had not gone into the beet sugar business in this country, the industry would not have advanced as it has. It had the money and brains and chemists to put into the work."

Morning Chief Must Appear.

How the sugar interests combined in first one form and then another and how the American Sugar Refining company achieved power in the sugar world, was the theme of the morning session, and in point of interest that story was told only by the testimony of a committee to excuse Joseph F. Smith, head of the Mormon church, from responding to the subpoena to testify before the committee. He must appear at the hearing.

By far the most important witness before the committee was Louis M. Palmer, director of the American Sugar Refining company from 1899 to 1905, and head of its traffic department for years preceding that.

At the outset of his testimony, Representative Madison, who conducted the examination, introduced a question as to the question of the minute books of the company's board of directors. It bore the date of Sept. 6, 1898, and the paramount feature was the authorization of a committee to buy outside refineries.

The page read:

"On motion a special committee, consisting of the president, vice president and three directors, was appointed to fix the price of refined sugars, they were authorized in their discretion to make the price of granulated not less than 1/2 above the price of centrifugals of 96 deg. test."

They were authorized and empowered to purchase for account of the company, or hold any portion of outside refineries, at a price and upon terms to be fixed by them in their discretion."

With this as a basis from which to get at the policy of the American Sugar Refining company, Judge Madison questioned Mr. Palmer as to the first combination of sugar refineries in 1887 and combinations of acquisitions during the period Mr. Palmer was a director. Incidentally, the witness told of the rebates in the days when he was a director, and he also defended as legitimate the company's lighter charges on the sugar ships.

To Buy Companies.

Judge Madison questioned the witness concerning the formation of the National Sugar Refining company of New York.

"It was organized for the purpose of buying companies," said the witness. "Mr. Havemeyer told me he had organized it with his own money and a lot of money had gotten from the National City bank."

Were not these companies competing?"

"Yes, I think they were."

The witness said the American company procured a majority of the preferred stock of the National, but when the question of the legality of the common stock of the National came up, the witness said that there he and H. O. Havemeyer broke.

"Havemeyer brought up before the board of directors of the American the question of the purpose of the common stock of the National, and said he could not vote for the purchase because he was interested in the stock."

Mr. Palmer said he was not in favor of the purchase. We never had much to do with one another after that."

COMMENCEMENT.

This week marks the end of the school year in Duluth, and graduating exercises are celebrating an important epoch in the lives of nearly a thousand young people. From the grammar schools are graduated 706 pupils, and from Central and Irving high schools come about 140 more. For the most of these young people this week closes their school careers, though, as they will soon learn, it marks only the beginning of their real education.

Graduates, from whatever class of schools they come, are always showered with advice and friendly counsel from their elders. The Herald has no wish to add any more platitudes and bromides than are necessary to the flood that is pouring over these young folks. They will be told that they have been given the best that modern educational thought and the rather expensive equipment of the public schools can provide, and that they ought to be grateful enough to society to make the most of what they have been given. They will be told that they are closing the epoch in their lives to which in the years to come they will look back with fondest memories. And it's all true, too; though we would rather they determined to make the most of the education they have received because they want to make the most of themselves and to give their utmost to the service of their fellow travelers here below instead of as a mere sordid payment for the privilege of education.

The hope of the future lies very largely with the young people who are going, in this gentle June time, to the cloistered class rooms of grammar school, high school and college to do their part in the world. Theirs will be the citizenship of the generation that will soon take up the work that the present generation, world-weary and full of years, will drop from tired hands. The welfare of city, of state and of nation will hinge upon their attitude toward civic responsibilities. They should bring to these responsibilities not only the education that society has given them but broad and patriotic conceptions of individual duty to the common good.

To these dear young people, the hope and promise of the community, The Herald extends its heartiest good will and best wishes. May their lives be crowned with solid achievements and illumined by peace and content. May they realize soon that devotion to self is vanity and emptiness, and that only in lives of usefulness to others is there to be found that true happiness which makes life rich in real success and enduring satisfaction.

THEY WANT TO KNOW.

There is a demand from a section of the state press for information, and as it is directed to The Herald it seems necessary to comply with it so far as possible.

The St. Peter Herald and the Warren Register both have tried questions at The Herald on different subjects and since the questions are directed this way they call for such answers as we can give them.

The Herald is always glad to chat with the state press of Minnesota. It is intelligent, progressive and alive to the best interests of the state and the home communities. Discourse with it is both refreshing and profitable. It is true that we get a little irritated when some of the papers get on that seven-senator bill and use it as a basis for stirring up a very mischievous enmity between city and country, but a majority of them are sane on this subject as well as on others.

The Warren Register quotes Chairman Underwood of the house committee on ways and means as saying that he "never scratched a Democratic ticket in his life," and after properly flaying the gentleman from Alabama, ends thus: "In what respect, therefore, is he different from the Republican who takes his politics straight? Perhaps The Duluth Herald will enlighten us."

Gladly. He isn't a bit different. His boast is just as empty as a similar boast made by a Republican. Mr. Underwood is a very good man, and he is showing statesmanlike qualities in his leadership of the tariff discussion in the house; but he adds nothing to his glory when he boasts that he never split a ticket.

The man who makes that boast says in effect that no matter what yellow dog candidate his party may put up, and no matter what yellow dog policy his party may adopt, he is willing to shut his eyes and close his nostrils and swallow the dose. Any man who can say that proves thereby that his partisanship is a more dominating influence than his patriotism.

And may we ask the Warren Register why, if it is so dreadful for a Democrat to make that boast, it is so complacent over the Republicans who make it?

The St. Peter Herald has a question, too. It says: "A puzzling thing about the last session of the legislature was the action of the Duluth delegation in combining with the Twin Cities to defeat the distance tariff bill. Where did Duluth profit? Will The Duluth Herald please answer?"

The Herald cannot, of course, speak for the motives actuating the Duluth delegation in the legislature, but it supposes that the reason its members voted against the distance tariff bill was the reason that led a majority of both houses to vote against it, including Chairman Underwood of the senate railroad committee, than whom there is no more staunch friend of railroad regulation: that it would nullify the state's trouble and expense in the pending rate cases. Since the vote was taken these cases have been decided by the circuit court of appeals, and the state has lost. The distance tariff bill and all other railroad measures can, therefore, be considered on their merits. It is true that the rate cases are still pending in the supreme court, but the old rates are about to go into effect again, and the state has largely lost interest in these cases.

There appears to be no good reason now why the state shouldn't enact such railroad legislation as it can and as it deems wise, especially a law making railroads pay as much taxes as other property pays.

THE CITY OR THE CIRCUS?

In the Open Court tonight appears a communication from E. J. Kenny attacking the stand of the merchants on the Saturday circus question, and practically charging that the newspapers, in supporting the merchants in their fight, are improperly influenced by financial considerations.

Such a charge is easy to make. It would be as easy for The Herald to charge that Mr. Kenny, who is an attorney, must have had a retainer from the circus to inspire his rise to its defense; but we have no wish to reply in kind to his insinuations.

Neither have we any wish to apologize for our stand in this matter. The Herald is standing by citizens who are supporting and building up the community as against a rich foreign corporation which will be somewhat inconvenienced if its arrangements for the circus it is sending to Duluth are disturbed. The Herald thinks more of the welfare of these fellow citizens than it does of the convenience of the circus owners, and that is about all there is to it. Nobody is trying to keep the circus away. It can come and it will be welcome, even though it does carry away a carload of Duluth money with it. But it can as well come on a Friday as a Saturday.

Impugning motives is the cheapest form of argument. It reflects chiefly on those who use it.

FREE TRADE WAGES.

For a generation wages under free trade have been held up as an awful example to the workers of this country, and protection, with its evil brood of special privileges, has waved it as a scarecrow to ward off the menace of tariff reduction.

This country has been told that while the cost of living is lower in free trade countries, wages also are vastly lower; so that the laborer who gets his $2 or so a day in this country would get only a few cents a day in a free trade country.

Those who have made this argument have, of course, deliberately overlooked the fact that the large wage of this country often will buy no better living than the few cents of the free trade country, and they have steadfastly ignored the fundamental fact that it is not wages but the purchasing power of wages that really measures the fruits of toil.

A couple of years ago a correspondent for The Herald made an exhaustive investigation in Great Britain, with the result that he was able to show, by comparing the situation of a New England family and an old England family in similar circumstances, that while the British family's earnings were very much less than those of the American family, at the end of the year the British family actually had a larger balance to its credit in the savings bank.

And now comes the Saturday Evening Post with another comparison which rather takes the wind out of the sails of the protection argument by showing that wages are lower in high protection Germany than in free trade England.

Comparisons between Germany and England are much fairer than comparisons between Great Britain and the United States, for labor conditions in those two countries are more nearly alike. High wages have been possible in the United States because of the vast areas of free land to which labor could direct itself if wages got too low. Now this land has largely passed into private ownership, and a new epoch is at hand.

Taking 100 as the unit for calculation, the comparison between high protection Germany and free trade England is as follows:

	Wages.	Hours of work.	Hourly wage.
Great Britain.....	100	100	100
Germany.....	83	111	75

Wages in high protection Germany are 17 per cent lower than in free trade Britain.

Hours of work are 11 per cent longer on the lower wages of high protection Germany than on the higher wages of free trade England.

Labor's real protection in this country has been an abundance of free land to relieve any possible surplus in the labor market. What will happen when the free land is all gone? It is time to begin thinking of that, for the free land is nearly exhausted.

Says the Sioux City Tribune: "Jefferson and Franklin, who realized that the public domain would relieve a glut in the labor market and who believed that it would serve that purpose for an indefinite period, did not advocate protection as a means of increasing wages, nor, indeed, did Alexander Hamilton, the father of the protective system, nor Henry Clay, upon whom his mantle fell. The idea that protection would increase wages or maintain high wages was an after-thought with latter day monopolists and was put forward to hold the labor vote."

Exactly as the false idea that protection would maintain the prices of farm products in a country that sells farm products to the world was advanced to gain and hold the farmer vote.

THE NEW OLEOMARGARINE LAW.

A local article in The Herald last night described the new state oleomargarine law which goes into effect July 1. The sale of butter imitations colored to look like butter is absolutely prohibited under heavy penalties, and there are equally heavy penalties for selling uncolored oleomargarine without taking extreme measures to make sure that the buyer knows what he is getting.

Protection to the dairying interests could hardly go farther than this. This law, like the Federal law imposing a heavy tax on colored imitation butter, is in effect a bounty to butter-makers. It is not designed so much to protect the public against fraud as it is to protect dairymen against competition from imitations of butter.

When the law penalizes the sale of imitation butter as real butter it does the right thing, and goes about as far as it should. Bounties in any form, by which the consumers are taxed for the benefit of any industry, are unsound in principle. Most imitation butter is whole-some food, though not a satisfactory substitute for real butter. During most of the year real butter is so expensive that the workingman's family can but ill afford it; yet laws like this are intended to prevent him from seeking relief by buying cheaper substitutes. It is wrong in principle and oppressive in practice.

Don't be vexed because the season has been peculiarly good for dandelions. That means that it has also been peculiarly good for hay and grain and garden truck.

SHELL RACING

By the Carnival Publicity Committee.

Let us consider the racing-shell; for we are going to see a good many of them during the Midsommer Water Carnival and they will be in very strenuous action.

Two-thirds of the pleasure of watching a sport lies in understanding its details and there is no doubt at all that a proper boat is a very important detail in a boat-race.

Most people look at a shell and sagely remark that it is narrow, which is a broad remark and also untrue; for an eight-foot shell is really as wide as a ship's hull, and it is really as deep as a ship's hull, and it is really as long as a ship's hull, and it is really as strong as a ship's hull, and it is really as fast as a ship's hull, and it is really as light as a ship's hull, and it is Who Dictates the Quality of Your Shoes—You or the Leather Trust?

It is for you—the shoe wearer—to decide whether you will keep on buying shoes made of poor leather, tanned by cheap and hasty processes under the domination of the Leather Trust—

Or shoes made by the only manufacturers in this country who own their own tanneries and tan the leather they put into their shoes, independent of the Leather Trust. These independent shoes are Endicott-Johnson shoes. You can get them from a representative dealer right here in this town.

Endicott-Johnson shoes will give you more wear than the best shoes you have been buying. They are made of leather that you simply cannot get in any other shoe.

Furthermore, Endicott-Johnson shoes save you 50 cents to $1.00 on every pair. They reach your home dealer direct from the factory—no profits to Trusts or middlemen.

Just try the shoes for yourself. For dress and business wear, you want the ENDWELL (Goodyear Welt)—retailing at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

ENDWELL shoes combine perfect foot comfort with all the little modish touches that a man wants in his shoes. Two hundred styles—a full range of lasts—every width of toe—all the colors of leather.

The name is stamped on every shoe—

"ED" HOWE PLANS FREE CONCERTS

Retired Editor of Atchison Globe Will Visit Minnesota.

New York, June 16.—E. W. Howe, who retired recently from the editorship of the Atchison Globe, wired the following to the World:

"I have long had the ambition to travel over the country with a professional concert band giving two free concerts daily in a tent. Health permitting, I shall do this in the summer of 1912, with an organization of forty. The first summer I shall visit small towns in Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri towns where good bands are rarely heard."

"I wish to do this because of the belief that good music is a great civilizer and that millions of worthy people never hear good music. I was 21 years old and had been the editor of two country newspapers before I heard a capable musical organization; before I knew what music really is. Since then I have believed in the power of good music to benefit as to please humanity."

"My retirement from business gives me leisure to carry into effect an idea I have entertained many years and I am now perfecting my plans."

"In the small towns and on farms surrounding them are a great number of young people who will be in charge of the country's affairs in the immediate future. I have a simple message for these people, and preceding each concert I shall deliver a

How to Get Rid of Your Constipation—Trial Free

It is too long a story to tell of all the different methods resorted to for the cure of constipation, ranging, as they do, from massage to stomach pads and from simple salts to powerful cathartics. It is only after a person has tried these makeshift methods that he begins to realize how futile they are.

Waste no further time on them but try a scientific preparation, one that has some basis in reason and fact, and then watch results. The remedy for the intelligent who are striving for permanent not temporary results, and do not want their intestines nearly strangled by the average violent cathartic, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been on the market for so many years that its stability is assured.

Any druggist will sell you a bottle—it is a Build remedy and not a pill—at 50 cents and $1, but if you hesitate about buying, even in spite of numerous testimonials, then write Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle, which he will gladly send you on receipt of your name and address. Thousands of persons have recovered the perfect use of their stomach and bowels short address. My message concerns the importance of industry, fairness, politeness and temperance. I shall not abuse the people, but express the admiration I have long entertained for them and try to encourage them to live simpler, better and more effective lives. There will be no scheme connected with my concerts. They will be a free will offering I have long desired to make to humanity."

MADE MAD BY OLD INJURY.

Soldier Lived in Woods as Wild Man for Months.

Winsted, Conn., June 16.—William Trembley, a chauffeur of Lee, Mass., will go to Port Ethan Allen, Vt., this week to bring back his brother, Fred. The latter enlisted in the regular army two years ago and on July 30 left Fort Totten for a visit to his home in Lee. He was found in the woods of Vermont on Oct. 10, violently insane. Removed to Port Ethan Allen an examination revealed that a small splinter had been driven in the skull and was pressing on the brain.

It was found to be from an old injury, and his brothers say that he was seriously injured on the head when he was years old. The pressure was removed and Trembley regained his mind.

A HUSBY FOR EVERY DAY.

She Wed on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—On a Monday, so many years ago that Mrs. Margaret Voss Warren wouldn't tell, she married husband No. 1. After he died she married spouse No. 2 on a Tuesday. No. 2 went the way of his predecessor and she married a third partner on a Wednesday.

Mrs. Warren kept up with the rotation in the week's calendar and married a fourth husband on Friday.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader better advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him, Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

WRECK LE LUXE

Was Stranding of the Palatial Yacht of E. C. Benedict.

New York, June 16.—Every one aboard E. C. Benedict's yacht Virginia, which went ashore near Havana, May 28, had a good time until rescued. According to Reid G. Ford, the Virginia's wireless operator, who arrived here on the Ward Line Steamer, it was really a wreck of a wreck. He described it as "the most delightful wreck I have ever known or read about."

"The weather seemed made to order," he said, "and we were enjoying ourselves thoroughly when we were taken to Havana by the wrecking tug Premier."

"We were grounded at a spot where the coral bottom could be seen through the clear, still water. Fishes of all colors swam around us. We spent the mornings in fishing."

"In the evenings we had concerts, at which Prof. Rowe Shelley performed. The Virginia Daily Telegraph was issued. This was my work. The news was made up of little incidents of the day, many of them concerning our plight, and all we picked up by wireless."

Ford said the Premier is still working on the Virginia.

IS SEEKING RELATIVES

Indian Police Chief Looking for White Kinsmen in New York.

His Father Was Dr. Satterlee Who Married an Indian Woman.

New York, June 16.—Mos-ka-ke-we-say has come to the city from the Menominee Indian reservation in Shawano county Wis. While he is the guest of the American Museum of Natural History, he will return to his people in a few weeks with Alanson Skinner of the museum's staff of explorers to assist Mr. Skinner in his Indian researches. He is primarily here to learn something of his father's relatives. The Indian's father was a Dr. Valentine Mott P. Satterlee who settled in the district of Columbia in 1848 and married a Menominee Indian woman, Mos-ka-ke-we-say, or as his father named him, John Valentine Satterlee during his 59 years of life one of the chief of the reservation. His arrival in the city yesterday marks his first visit to any section of the country other than that immediately tributary to his reservation.

Has a Notary's Seal. To assist him in his search for his father's relatives, he has only the seal of a notary public of the state of New York with his father's name cut upon it.

When a World reporter saw the Indian police chief at the American Museum yesterday, he pulled from his pocket a newspaper clipping telling of the death of Herbert L. Satterlee, the son-in-law of J. Pierpont Morgan.

"Perhaps that Satterlee was related to my father," he said to my mother in English. "My father told me that he told my mother that he was a boy of 8, she could not remember more."

The reporter told the man, who at 59 years is more vigorous than the average New Yorker of 40, that Satterlee was the son-in-law of J. Pierpont Morgan.

Who is J. Pierpont Morgan? asked the old chief. "Wall street" was the only part of the reporter's explanation that Satterlee understood.

With the World reporter Satterlee, who commands five Menominee Indians in uniform and is responsible for order in the ten townships that constitute the reservation, set off for a trip in an any large American city. He wore the ordinary street dress of the white man, though he retained his blue uniform.

Police to Help. On the trip to the Twenty-second street subway station the reporter and the chief passed many apartment houses. At the doors of these stood bellboys and porters in varying uniform. Each of these the chief saluted, taking off his hat and bowing.

They must be some high officials, perhaps of the city, he said. Probably the politest man who boarded a subway train yesterday was Chief Satterlee. As he approached the door some women pressed close. The chief took off his hat, bowed and stepped aside and on entered the car after they had proceeded.

One of the whizzing cars he studied the faces of the women closely. "Our girls at home," he said finally, "paint themselves too, with things they buy in the stores, but they do it at night and only when they go to the evening dance of the white man."

When the reporter and the chief finally stood before the new public library the first thing that the chief noticed was one of the lions just above the street on the library approach.

Lions Puzzled Him. Why does the white man put a lion there? he asked. "If an Indian put a lion there it would mean something."

In the East Thirty-fifth street police station, the chief was thoroughly at home.

One to this you put a white man," he exclaimed when he saw one of the little dark cells. "But when our Indians get into these cells, they have their hands on their legs and lay them in bed."

Feet Tired—So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof.

It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, hot-smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as I was with a great many of my friends. It would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally useful," A. F. Drouter, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet by making them fresh.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Luthier Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

until they promise that they will be good." Then the chief told how he captured murderers who occasionally killed their wives.

"I go to their homes," said he, "with a 'come along chain' and my billy. I tell them that the agent wants them and that the Great Father in Washington is angry. They say they are sorry and go with me. I have been chief eleven years and never once has one refused to go to jail."

GHOST HAUNTS CLUB.

Plays Billiards, Rings Bells and Keeps Help on Jump.

Meriden, Conn., June 16.—A "ghost" that plays billiards and pool, rings bells and keeps the help on the jump, both day and night, is worrying Meriden's fashionable Home club and many members threaten to resign.

The ghost has made its presence known every afternoon by ringing the front door bell. The porter finds no one at the door but soon things start within. The bells in the grill and bar-room begin to buzz, every number on the indicator showing in order. The waiter finds no one who has sought spiritual refreshment.

The pool and billiard room is the favorite haunt of the ghost. After night, when players have quit, a ghostly game is played and the balls are heard to crack.

Investigating members can find only a sleepy porter catching forty winks.

COLLIE BIT WRONG MAN.

Dog Made Mistake and Victim Sues for $2,000.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 16.—Because her collie dog made a mistake and bit the wrong man, Mrs. Harold Butt, a resident of the Hillcrest section of this city, is being sued for $2,000 damages by George R. Wilson, a Poughkeepsie lawyer. The action is in the supreme court. On the night of April 2 Mrs. Butt and her sister were returning from the corner mail box when they were accosted by an intoxicated man. They ran home and Mrs. Butt released her collie with the command to "sic 'im."

The man who had accosted Mrs. Butt and her sister disappeared in the darkness just as Wilson, who lives near the collie, turned the corner. Lacking specific instructions, the collie attacked the first man in sight.

Wilson, the dog fastened its teeth in the lawyer's right calf and made a severe wound.

Wilson kicked off the dog and ran to the home of D. W. Wilbur, another neighbor, and there the wound was dressed. Wilson was then rushed to the office of a surgeon and the bite was cauterized.

Next day Wilson demanded of Mrs. Butt that she kill the dog. She refused. In his complaint the lawyer says that he suffered much physical pain and mental anguish as a result of the bite. The bite also, he says, seriously interfered with his legal practice. Mrs. Butt says she will fight the case to the end.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

VETERANS EN MEET

Annual Gathering of North Dakota G. A. R. and W. R. C. Is Ended.

J. H. Mathews of Larimore Is Chosen to Head Old Soldiers' Organization.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Plans for the purpose of gaining the sanction of the national encampment of the G. A. R. in the matter of establishing a so-called picket corps of the Women's Relief Corps, similar to that plan as endorsed by the national encampment for the establishment of picket posts of the G. A. R. were proposed by the North Dakota assembly before it adjourned here yesterday afternoon. The plan of action was fostered in North Dakota by Mrs. Jean McNaughton Stevens, Larimore, who has been prominent in the work of organizing picket posts, and who is anxious that the Women's Relief Corps shall be granted the same privilege.

Another proposition taken up by the department was that of sending legislative delegates to Bismarck to make a bid for state support of the organization.

The report of the soldiers' home showed that during the year twenty-two men and four women had been admitted, and that a total of seventeen had been removed by death, discharge or transfer.

G. A. R. Officers Chosen.—The following officers were chosen at the annual convention of the G. A. R. at Grand Forks, N. D., June 16: President, Mrs. Amanda Freese, Jamestown; vice president, Mrs. Jessie M. Tracy, Valley City; junior vice president, Mrs. M. E. Grand, Grand Forks; N. D. chaplain, Mrs. Anna Horton, Minot; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Fort, Jamestown; delegate to national convention at Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. E. L. Langer, Fargo; alternate, Mrs. Minnie Schmitt, Jamestown; delegate-at-large, Mrs. Mary Matthews, Larimore; alternate, Mrs. Elizabeth Schoeneger, Fargo.

Appointive officers of the Women's Relief Corps were announced by President Mrs. Amanda Freese of Jamestown as follows: National president, Mrs. Folsom, Fargo; inspector, Mrs. Jane Elvick, Grand Forks; N. D. president, Mrs. Elsie M. Powell, Devils Lake; patriotic instructor, Miss Betta Cochrane, Aberdeen; inspector, Mrs. Amelia Geary, Fargo; secretary, Mrs. Lida Wright, Jamestown.

CUTOVER LANDS OPEN IN JULY

Tract Adjacent to Duluth Will Soon Be Ready for Settlers.

Brookton, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Richardson has received word from the general land office at Washington that the cutover lands within the Fond du Lac reservation will be opened for settlement early next year. Much of this land is in close proximity to Brookton, and there will undoubtedly be quite a rush for it.

SECOND BUTTER PRIZE

Given by State Dairy Department to Erhard Creamery.

Fergus Falls, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state dairy and food department has awarded the creamery at Erhard the second prize on butter in the six months educational butter contest. The creamery at Erhard followed in the contest, Erhard butter scoring 94% and Rothsay 94% points. This speaks well for butter of the state.

Doran, in Wilkin county, will have the first benefit of the new Holmberg consolidated rural school law. Three districts will be joined in forming the new one.

The Old Settlers' association will hold its annual meeting at Little Lake on Sunday, June 25, and several notable speakers will be present.

Crops in many portions of Otter Tail County never looked better, and some are predicting a harvest equal to that of 1909.

The commencement exercises at the Park Region Lutheran college closed Thursday night when a large class received their diplomas.

It is now expected that the Decorah, Iowa, band will be one of the attractions in Fergus Falls July 4. This band is now working its way west, and committees are working to secure it for the celebration.

FACTS ABOUT RHEUMATISM

An Attack Always Causes a Rapid Thinning of the Blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cure the Disease Because They Make New, Rich Blood.

There is a great deal still to be learned about the cause of rheumatism, but one fact now stands out prominently—the rapid thinning of the blood from the beginning of the attack. This may be one of the causes of the disease or one of its effects but it is known that anything which will build up the blood during an attack of rheumatism will cure the trouble. Such a remedy either attacks the cause or counteracts its harmful effects and enables the system to throw it off. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills owe their curative effect to this action.

Rev. W. R. Brock, of Berwyn, Okla., in telling of his experience, says:

"When I was a boy of about twelve years, I had what a boy seldom has rheumatism. I had been in bad health for some months and was taken out of school on account of it. But I kept getting worse and at one time could hardly get around. This, I suppose, undermined my health and was the cause of the later troubles which afflicted me."

"Some years ago I had liver trouble which finally caused chronic diarrhea. This in itself was very weakening but, in addition to that, my stomach refused hearty food, I had a severe pain in my side almost all of the time and, when I walked any distance, I became out of breath, with a feeling of burning at the heart. My head and limbs would ache fearfully, especially at night. Then my rheumatism came on again and, later, I had a dry hacking cough."

"I was under the care of two physicians but, although the tonics they gave me seemed to do me good for a while, the effect was only temporary. A friend in Texas, some years before, had told me of the benefit he had received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I thought then I would trust to the doctors. However, doctors were not helping me and finally I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by an advertisement in a paper. I took them and eight boxes cured me."

JOHNSON DECLARED HE WOULD NEVER FIGHT AGAIN

Chicago, Ill., June 16.—An announcement that will surely find its way into the history of boxing was made today by a statement of Jack Johnson made to a Chicago friend before sailing for England.

Comfortably ensconced in his new home on Wabash avenue, this city, surrounded by all the luxuries of a nabob, Johnson was the picture of contentment. In fact, he was not for the moment inclined to discuss his career, but he did not mind talking about his future.

Johnson said that he never would fight again, and that he was content with his present position. He said that he was not for the moment inclined to discuss his career, but he did not mind talking about his future.

CANDIDATES

CALLED FOR

Water Sports Program Will Be Big Feature of Carnival.

All Members of Club Are Asked to Take Part.

The special water sports committee of the Duluth Midsummer Carnival is working with the field sports committee to make the water sports feature of the carnival one of its distinct drawing cards.

Working with that end in view, the committee today issued a call for candidates for the various water sports events. These candidates will receive coaching from officials of the club who have participated in these sports in the past, and are thoroughly familiar with the details.

Members of the committee want it understood that every member of the club will be welcome to participate in these various events, and that they will receive just as careful attention as the members of any other club.

Starting next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, there will be a water polo match between two teams that have been selected. These teams will be under the leadership of Bethel Robinson and August Frey, both of whom have been successful in the past.

COMMENTS AND OPINIONS

ON THE SPORING PARADE

The Sox and Their Pennant Chances—Playing Our Respects—A Black Cyclone of Humor.

(BY BRUCE.)

ATCHING baseball by the Sox and their pennant chances is a subject that has been around for a long time. It may be said at the present time that there are five teams in the league that have a chance for the flag.

Frankly, with the present line up there is a very slim chance for the White Sox to win the pennant. There is always more interest in the game when that long chance is there. At the present time it is lacking.

What we apparently need most, as has been pointed out before, is a shortstop and a right fielder and a pitcher. If we get these players the Sox should be in the hunt for the remainder of the season.

There is an old saying some where which has to do with summary action regarding the presence of a thorn in the side. It is not always easy to get baseball players for the reason that they are not in many parts of the country after the season. The Sox can swing a deal that will bring a new shortstop here, he will be doing a very wise act.

WITH THE FIGHTERS

The scheduled fifteen round bout between Jack White of Chicago and Tommy Bresnahan of Omaha at Akron, Ohio, last night, was stopped in the tenth round by Referee Walter Kelley when Bresnahan went down for the count of nine twice. Butsy Brannigan of Pittsburgh had the best of his fifteen rounds, but was not the result of an edit issued by Governor Carr. The fight was a very close one, and the result was a very close one.

WEST END TRUCKMAN IS INJURED

John Olson Falls Through Skylight While Fighting Fire.

Damage of $2,000 at Johnson & Peterson's Hardware Store.

John Olson, a truckman of No. 2 company, was injured by falling through a skylight while fighting a fire at the hardware store of Johnson & Peterson, 1818 West Superior street, early this morning. His back was strained, but his injuries are not serious.

The fire, which did about $2,000 damage, started in the basement of the store about 4 o'clock this morning. The basement is stocked with oil and the fire was hard to fight. The loss is partly covered by insurance. The building is owned by O. B. Johnson.

While the firemen were at the hardware store, an alarm was sent in from the O. P. Collier company's printing plant. A printing pot had set fire to the floor. The fire was quickly extinguished and the loss will not run over $50.

MOVEMENT TO BE LAUNCHED

"Men and Religion" Committee to Organize at Grace Church.

The "Men and Religion Forward Movement" will be launched in Duluth next Tuesday evening, when a gathering will be held at Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street.

A banquet will be held there in the evening and the general committee of 100, composed of members of all of the churches of the city, will be organized and special committees named to take charge of the various lines of work.

June 25 has been named by the local committee as the day on which all of the churches of the city will recognize the movement. Special services will be held in many of the churches and an effort made to arouse the interest of all laymen. On Sept. 24, Sunday, a general rally day will be observed throughout the country.

RESIDENT OF COTTON DIES IN HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Ellen Lindbeck, aged 38, died at St. Luke's hospital late yesterday afternoon after having been in the institution but a few hours. Death was caused by a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Lindbeck was brought here from Cotton, Minn., where she is survived by a husband and children. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Olson & Crawford, 213 West First street.

Father Dies.

William F. Schuckle of 212 Gilbert street, proprietor of the Zenith broom factory, received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his aged father at Watertown, Wis. Mr. Schuckle and three brothers, C. O. Philip and Emil Schuckle, all of whom reside in Duluth, left this afternoon for Watertown to attend the funeral. Their father was 78 years old.

Reception for Guest.

Miss Edith Frisk, daughter of Rev. Carl E. Frisk, president of the Columbia conference of Swedish Lutheran churches and a resident of Tacoma, Wash., was a guest of honor at a reception last evening at the home of Mrs. A. Broman, 912 West Third street. A dinner was served, covers being laid for nine. Miss Frisk formerly resided in the West end.

West End Briefs.

Mrs. David Adams of 2314 West Second street left this morning for a visit at Winnipeg, Man., Canada. She will return via Fort Arthur and the lakes, after a two weeks' visit.

Miss Eva Grennell of St. Ignace, Mich., is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. I. E. Grato of the United States block. She expects to spend the summer in Duluth.

Lars Thorstein of Washburn, Wis., returned today to his home in Washburn, after a visit with West end relatives.

Mrs. W. A. Coventry of 1911 Piedmont avenue has returned from a visit in the northern part of the state.

Miss Edith Miller of 1524 West Michigan street has returned from a visit to North Dakota.

C. E. Hall has sold his interest in the Snow Flake laundry West Superior street, to W. S. Wicks.

Iver Holmberg, who returned last week from a nine months' visit to his former home in Sweden, has accepted a position with the Johnson department store.

BABY MOOSE FROM DULUTH PROSPERING IN CHICAGO ZOO

DULUTH MOOSE IN CHICAGO ZOO.

The two baby moose which were sent from Duluth a year ago to the zoo at Lincoln park, Chicago, as a present from one of Duluth's prominent citizens, have grown and prospered in their new surroundings.

They have broken all records in the Windy City for infantile development and have proved one of the greatest attractions ever placed in the park. Every pleasant day in the year they are the center of a curious throng. Many people have made regular trips to the park to watch their advance towards maturity. The attendants have given them every attention, caring for them as solicitously as a nurse maid would for children in a private family.

The moose celebrated their first birthday in Chicago last March. They were in the best of health and the indications are that they will be one of the attractions of the Lincoln park collection for many years to come.

The baby moose were caught and raised on a farm near French river, being fed on the solid food. They were first offered to the park authorities of the city, but as the city had no place to care for them properly they had to be regretfully declined. They have come in for considerable advertisement in the papers which have been exhibited in all parts of the country.

BOYS WILL BE ARRAIGNED

Must Face Juvenile Court on Charge of Torturing Pony.

Harland Tomlin, Roy Tomlin, Roland Stafford and Earl Bruno, all under 14 years of age, the boys who it is claimed, tortured a small pet pony on Duluth Heights until its condition made it necessary to shoot it, will be arraigned in juvenile court Saturday on a charge of cruelty to animals.

The pony was the property of Mrs. R. H. Wilhelm, who lives on a farm on the Pike Lake road. She had driven to Duluth Heights and in order to save the pony the trip up and down the hills during one of the hottest days of the season, she stabled the animal in a barn belonging to a friend and took the rest of the car to the central part of the city.

When the boys discovered the pony in the barn, it was locked but the boys found a small window through which they poked sticks and a pitchfork at the animal until it was driven frantic.

It raced back and forth the length of the halter until it was exhausted and terror-stricken for there was no way by which it could avoid the thrusts of the sticks.

When Mrs. Wilhelm returned the boys were still at it, but they ran when she approached. It took her the entire night to get the pony home. The drive was made with the same pony in about an hour and a half.

A local veterinary did what he could for the pony in the next day but it was a colt by Mrs. Wilhelm and she is broken hearted over the affair.

Yesterday Humane Agent McKeercher was sent out to investigate the case. He found the boys who were supposed to have been implicated and he ordered them to appear in juvenile court Saturday morning.

On Unidentified Body Taken From Red Lake River.

Crookston, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—An aluminum pocket comb bearing the imprint "Eagle Clothing company, 421 West Superior street, Duluth, Minn.," was the only marked article found on the body of an apparently well-dressed man, aged about 50, taken from the Red Lake river about five miles below here by boys yesterday afternoon. The body was found in a bad state of decomposition, nearly all the flesh having rotted from the bones, indicating it had been in the water a long time.

There were no marks of violence. A tuft of short, brown beard remained under the chin. The man wore a chambray vest between his shirt. The man was a stranger in this section, as no explanation has been taken place. Coroner Stenholm will hold the body and make an effort to have it identified.

Its Officers.

Ironwood, Mich., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following officers were installed in the George Washington lodge, No. 26, Sons of St. George for the ensuing year by District Deputy Grand President F. W. May: Past president, Arthur Kemp; president, James Middleton; vice president, A. W. Lobb; secretary, Jos. Smith; treasurer, E. B. Williams; messenger, Jos. Lutey; assistant secretary, R. J. Harris; assistant messenger, Thos. Harris; chaplain, Samuel Vatters; inside sentinel, Wm. Craze; outside sentinel, Wm. Symons.

NORTH DAKOTAN DIES IN ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Irvin Chandler of Rome, N. D., on the way home from Chicago, died here yesterday in his room in the Continental hotel. Twice during the trip he complained of being ill. He apparently recovered, but during the forenoon yesterday called a physician. It was not known at the time that his condition was serious, but he soon began gasping for breath and died. A cousin who was traveling with him will take the body to Rome.

MACHART SURRENDERS.

North Dakotan Who Eluded Officers to Change Clothes Gives Up.

Grafton, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—John V. Machart, the alleged Lankin violator of the prohibition law, who made his escape from Constable Catherwood of that city on the pretense of changing clothes in an adjoining room, has completed that task and is now in the county jail.

Machart grew weary of the task of constantly avoiding officials and decided to submit himself to arrest again, and at the preliminary hearing he was bound over to the district court for trial. Machart was one of several against whom warrants had been sworn out by authorities.

CATHOLIC FORESTERS OF NORTH DAKOTA ELECT.

Bismarck, N. D., June 16.—The state convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters ended here with a big banquet. State officers for the next two years were elected as follows:

State chief ranger, Edward F. Flynn, Devils Lake; state vice chief ranger, Dr. F. B. Strauss, Bismarck; state secretary, Thomas E. Dunn, Fargo; state treasurer, John Sheehan, Langdon; state trustees, H. J. Tavis, Mandan; Jacob Weller, Lisbon; Matthias Kronenbusch, Sanborn.

Devils Lake won out over Fargo and Grand Forks for the convention place in 1912.

Robert E. Smith of Hankinson and Moses Norman of Grand Forks were elected delegates to the international C. O. F. convention to be held at Cleveland in August.

The Suit Sale of the Season!

It's an undeniable fact that suits have not been selling the way we expected when we laid in our Spring and Summer stocks—we bought more heavily and of better qualities than ever before—and we're STUCK—that's all there is to it—might just as well tell the plain truth about it. We're just loaded down with the nobbiest suits you ever saw, right bang up to the minute in style; many of them really superb creations—a much higher grade than we ever had before—whatever the reason, they haven't sold QUICKLY enough, and so—we're stuck. BUT we ain't going to stop that way! No! We are going to put on the most strenuous clearance sale you ever had the luck to participate in, and we're going to SELL those suits, if we only get enough to pay for the braid and buttons out of the whole collection! We have slashed the price clear in two on every suit in our stock—and that while the season is just getting fairly STARTED. Here's your chance, you people who want the BEST and don't care if you DO get it cheap! Come and pick out the very suit you WANT at a how-can-they-do-it price!

Over a Hundred Swagger Suits at One-Half Price

We can't begin to describe every one of the hundred—scarcely any two alike—you must come in and look them over for yourself. We will give you just an idea of the styles and materials. All have the new short coats and modish skirts—some have high skirt effect. The suits have the plain notch collar for the most part, though some have natty sailor collars. Every last one is the pink of perfection and the keynote of fashion—each according to its style. We have them in serge, mannish worsteds, new venetians and novelties; in every imaginable shade—all light, summer weights—you'll find them in six groups—thus:

- GROUP 1—Suits sold formerly at $18.50—now $9.25
- GROUP 2—Suits sold formerly at $20.00—now $10.00
- GROUP 3—Suits sold formerly at $25.00—now $12.50
- GROUP 4—Suits sold formerly at $32.50—now $16.25
- GROUP 5—Suits sold formerly at $35.00—now $17.50
- GROUP 6—Suits sold formerly at $38.50—now $19.25

Every Trimmed Hat in the House at Half Price!

We have too many hats, also; at the beginning of the season we laid in an immense stock of everything that was new and correct—and the differences were immense over last year's styles—we have been adding to them ever since; and now the time has come not alone to call a halt, but to make such a sweeping clearance as shall do much to enhance the reputation of this store for giving great bargains just WHEN the people want them. YOU can get a new hat at this sale for next to nothing—and have nearly two-thirds of the season to wear it! Don't let the chance slip!

One Hundred of the Latest Models to Go Out.....

All this season's very newest thoughts in millinery; many of our famous Imported Pattern Hats; hats that sold up to $18 at our low prices—hats you would have paid thirty for at most places. Every one from the highest to the lowest in price goes out at just exactly HALF the former price. The price tickets will all be left on the hats. You can see for yourself what they were priced at—the price you pay is just ONE-HALF. That means every $18 hat at $9; every $15 hat at $7.50; every $14 hat at $7; every $12 hat at $6, and so down to the very cheapest hat in stock—ALL WILL GO AT JUST ONE-HALF PRICE. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS GREAT OFFERING!

CALLS CHINA MENACE TO HEALTH OF WORLD.

Chicago, June 16.—China is a perpetual menace to the health of the world, according to Dr. R. E. Edwards, head of the branch of the medical school of Harvard, which is being established in Shanghai to combat disease. Dr. Edwards has arrived here from his trip through China to study conditions. "Every ship which sails from a Chinese port," he said, "is a possible carrier of cholera, bubonic plague and even leprosy to the outside world. China has all the diseases of America and Europe and many others."

Of Missoula, Mont., Treasurer.

Dr. L. A. Johnston, D. D., of St. Paul, was elected president of the Augustana Synod of North America at the afternoon session of the annual convention yesterday. Dr. Johnston was formerly vice president of the synod and he is also chairman of the board of directors of Augustana college, the largest educational institution under the supervision of the synod.

Colo., a former president of the Kansas conference of Swedish Lutheran churches, was elected to the position of vice president.

Rev. J. G. Dahlberg, of Winnipeg, Man., Canada, was unanimously selected as secretary, succeeding himself for another term. Rev. Carl J. Bengtson of Missoula, Mont., was re-elected treasurer. Dr. E. Norelius, D. D., the retiring president, had served for nineteen years. On account of his advanced age, he expressed his wish that someone else take his place at the

BOOSTERS FOR DULUTH

Delegates to Augustana Synod All Enthusiastic Over Weather.

Visitors From All Parts of United States and Canada in City.

Delegates to the Augustana Synod are enjoying not only the religious feast offered them at this big convention, but also the hospitality of Duluthians, and the weather, for both of which this city is famous.

Men are here from all parts of the United States and Canada, some from the sweltering heat of the South and East, others from the rain soaked West, while many come from the cooler north.

"Duluth is a beautiful city," said Rev. L. G. Abrahamson, editor-in-chief of the "Augustana." "I have been here before, and know its many advantages, especially in the line of weather. In Illinois we have had it so hot we could hardly endure it, and it is a great relief to come here to cool off a little."

"This city has many advantages, which the West has not, both in commercial and industrial lines as well as in weather," said Rev. J. J. Jepsen, who has been here before, but never for as long a time as I am now staying. "What I have seen of the city has impressed me. It is a queer town, so long and narrow, but it has considerable commercial interests, which have made the city famous all over the world."

Rev. J. J. Jepsen, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., president of the New York conference, and pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, is delighted with the city. "I like the weather here very much," he states, "but the changes are rather too much. I am accustomed to more gradual changes. The weather in the East has been warm, but the heat is much greater within the large cities, not in the suburbs nor the country. In regard to the work carried on by the Swedish Lutheran churches, the conditions are about the same in the East as in the West. In the East the farmers predominate, but in the West the farmers predominate. But in religious work, they are all making the same progress."

A. G. Anderson, manager of the Augustana Book Concern, is pleased to be in the city. "The weather here is ideal," he said this morning. "I enjoy it much here, and hope to come to Duluth often."

Rev. C. F. Johanson of Boston, Mass., said "I never realized that this city had so many beauties, although I have heard much about it. The weather is grand, and I enjoy every bit of it. This will be my last trip to Duluth, I hope."

Dr. Lilja is one of the prominent men of the church and also stands close to United States Commissioner of Immigration William

Williams of Ellis Island, New York city. In handling the influx of thousands of immigrants Commissioner Williams has found occasion to co-operate with Dr. Lilja upon many occasions. The immigrant home was purchased at No. 5 Water street New York about five years ago for $60,000, a suitable home, conveniently located for the work.

Alterations and improvements, costing $6,000 were made. The property is now valued at $25,000. The debt against the place is $25,000. "The object and aim of the Immigrant Mission," declared Dr. Lilja yesterday, "is essentially philanthropic. We stand ready to furnish the immigrant aid and disinterested services. Last year out of the 300,000 immigrants who passed through New York city, 26,000 were Swedes. Most of them came to our home. In most cases inquiry is made of the immigrant as to his proposed place of employment, the character of the wages to be paid and the terms of employment. If the immigrant is without funds, we generally try to help him out. "Desirable immigrants are worthy of every protection from fraud or loss and it should be the plain duty of missionaries or immigrant societies," declared Dr. Lilja, "to stand at all times ready to assist the government in its efforts and endeavor to render the immigrant every possible and necessary assistance. Immigrant homes acting in good faith do not exist for pecuniary reasons, but have for their chief aim, the civil welfare of the immigrant. This is where they differ from the employment agency, which naturally exists for profit only. The establishment of employment agencies at these homes would require additional assistance and reduce the fund from which they assist the needy immigrant."

The immigrant mission work was only hampered by a want of a home and for many years the Swedish immigrants were cared for in the General Council home. The building now owned by the synod in New York was long rented and what it could be rented no longer, it was bought.

Interest of the delegates to the big Augustana synod convention centers about the display of books in the basement of the church by the Augustana Book Concern, of which A. G. Anderson is the manager. Mr. Anderson has been identified with the concern since its organization, and it is largely through his efforts that the concern has reached its big success.

The Augustana Book Concern is owned by the synod and was formed on Aug. 1, 1889, with headquarters at Rock Island, Ill. Beginning practically with nothing, the concern today has resources above all liabilities amounting to $260,000, according to a report made to the synod. The concern not only has its own publishing plant, but also has its own printing and binding establishment. Branch offices have been established in Minneapolis, New York and Chicago.

Besides the many books which the company publishes, the concern is turning out many weekly and monthly periodicals, in both Swedish and English, which have large subscription lists.

The Augustana is a Swedish weekly paper with a circulation of 20,000, of which Rev. L. G. Abrahamson of Rock Island, is editor-in-chief. The Lutheran Companion is an English weekly, enjoying a circulation of 10,000, edited by Rev. J. J. Jepsen of Burlington, Iowa. The Ungdomsvannen, is a Swedish monthly magazine, devoted entirely to literary work, to which some of the ablest Swedish writers contribute. It was started in 1896 and today has 10,000 subscribers. Dr. S. G. Younger is the editor in chief, assisted by many prominent writers. The concern also publishes a large number of Sunday papers, both in English and Swedish, some of which have circulations of almost 40,000. The books published by this concern cover practically the entire field of literature. They are published both in English and Swedish, and are works on religion, history, science and literature.

The success of the educational institutions established by the Swedish Lutheran synod is most remarkable. Probably the most interesting is that of the Coeur d'Alene college, founded at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, three years ago with Rev. J. Jepsen as president. The institution has three large brick and stone buildings, valued at over $40,000, and a plot of ground of twenty-four acres, costing $50,000. The land is in an ideal location and affords all the advantages desired for such an institution.

The enrollment last year was 152. The faculty is composed of eleven professors who devote their time to instruction in music, literature and a business course. This college serves a large field and students come there from four of the neighboring states as well as from the western part of Canada.

The success of the college is largely attributed to the energy and persistent work of President Jepsen, who has been engaged in educational work for many years. Prior to his founding of the Coeur d'Alene college he was head of the Augustana college at Rock Island, Ill., the principal educational institution of the Augustana synod. It was at the earnest request of the board of education of the synod that Mr. Jepsen undertook to establish this new college in the new field, which offered so many opportunities.

BIG GIFTS TO AUGUSTANA COLLEGE ARE REPORTED

Gets $56,000 From Iowa Senator's Will and Also a New Library.

Afternoon Session of the Conference Is Devoted to Reports.

Augustana college, the oldest of the educational institutions of the Augustana synod of Swedish Lutheran churches, came in for much consideration at the afternoon business session of the fifty-first annual convention yesterday at Bethany church.

The annual reports of the college were read by the various officers and Prof. Gustav Andreen, president of the institution, gave an interesting talk about the school, its problems, its aims and its financial standing.

The afternoon session was opened by short devotional services conducted by Rev. J. E. Swanson of Wahoo, Neb. The first business was the election of officers. Dr. Johnston of St. Paul being chosen president, took the chair. Floor privileges during the convention were given to all ministers not delegates, the members of the council of the four churches of this city, O. P. Lotgren of Superior, Prof. Andrew Kempe of Augustana college,

PROF. GUSTAV ANDREEN.

Rock Island, Ill., and J. S. Helligren of Omaha, Neb. The treasurer's report given by Andrew Kempe, treasurer, showed the finances to be in fairly good shape. The income last year was $226,698.98. Of this amount $21,451.48 was raised by a tax levied on the congregations of the synod. The total resources of the institution were given as $605,351.51 and the liabilities, $123,529.14. The synod accepted the reports of the officers and by a standing vote thanked Prof. Andreen for his work at the head of the institution. The Denkmann family of Rock Island was also thanked for the magnificent gift in a resolution passed by the synod.

The gift for College. The synod was notified that the will of the late State Senator C. J. A. Erickson of Boone, Ia., provided that $35,000 should go to the Augustana college. The gift was accepted. The synod also passed a resolution expressing appreciation for the visit last year of Bishop von Scheele of the diocese of Visby, Sweden. The bishop was one of the principal speakers at the big jubilee at Rock Island last year. He has provided in his will, that upon his death his private library, one of the finest in Europe, shall become the property of Augustana college.

The afternoon session closed with a prayer offered by Rev. P. Froberg of Bridgeport, Conn.

Dr. N. Forsander of Rock Island, Ill., a member of the faculty of Augustana college was elected a delegate to represent the Augustana synod at the annual convention of the Norwegian Lutheran church at St. Paul this week. Dr. Forsander left yesterday for the Saintly City and will attend the sessions of the Norwegian body in person and will bring to them the greetings of the Augustana synod.

The chairman of the board of directors of Augustana college, Dr. L. A. Johnston of St. Paul, now president of the synod, read a report. He stated that the board of directors had elected as vice president of the college, C. L. E. Ashorn, Rev. Theodore Eklund, treasurer, had resigned during the year and had accepted a charge at Superior, Wis., and according to the report, Prof. Andrew Kempe had been chosen to succeed him.

Prof. Gustav Andreen, president of the institution, spoke mainly about the new Denkmann Memorial library, a $200,000 gift of the Denkmann children of Rock Island to the Augustana synod in memory of their parents. The construction of the library was begun in 1909, he said, and the dedication of the new library took place on May 21, this year. Dr. L. A. Johnston in the presence of distinguished scholars and librarians of the country, he said, delivered the dedication address. The gift is pronounced to be one of the finest college libraries in the entire country.

 WOULD CONVERT JEWS OF JERUSALEM TO CHRISTIANITY. *****

The Jerusalem Society of the Augustana synod held a meeting yesterday afternoon after the synod business meeting.

This is a society, the chief aim of which is to convert the Jews of the city of Jerusalem to the Christian faith.

Prof. Gustav Andreen of Rock Island, Ill., president of Augustana college, is president of the society and Rev. A. Norborn of Sioux City, Iowa, is its secretary.

The main business to come before the society was a discussion relative to the raising of funds during the coming year.

FAREWELL TO HIGH SCHOOL

Last Chapel Exercises for the Class of 1911 Are Held.

Class Presidents and Members of the Faculty Speak.

In the assembly hall of the high school, this morning at 10:30 o'clock, the last chapel exercises of the present school year were held.

It was not until the final farewell speeches of the class presidents and of Mr. Young, that a real feeling of regret came to the senior class in leaving the high school.

Mr. Young gave a very interesting speech, extending his best wishes for the 1911 class in its future career and wishing the faculty and lower classes a pleasant vacation.

Stanley Lamb gave one of the best speeches ever made by a class president. All his words were in praise of the faculty and lower classes and the speech was finished by extending the best wishes of the 1911 class to all present.

Robert Mars, junior president, and Richard Cullum, the sophomore president, in their speeches, related some very witty stories and gave the customary "knocks" against the other classes, incidentally praising their own class.

The freshmen's president, Clifford Baker, was unable to attend the exercises on account of sickness.

During the chapel time Mr. Young presented baseball sweaters to the members of the baseball team and displayed the cup which was won by the D. C. H. S. team in the interscholastic league.

HE "WORKED" DULUTH PASTOR

John Wolfe Sent to St. Paul Workhouse for Defrauding Minister.

John Wolfe, 26 years of age, who purported to have been converted at the old Lake avenue Bethel early this spring, was sentenced to nine months in the county jail at St. Paul yesterday for having defrauded Rev. Theodore W. Gulick of Duluth out of $46.

Rev. Gulick is a missionary who made his headquarters at the Bethel while he was stopping in Duluth. Last April Wolfe, who said he was a painter by trade, got into his good graces by attending church services regularly, praying and participating in the Sunday school services and the weekly prayer meetings. To all appearances he was one of the most faithful religious workers who had ever changed of faith in this city.

He couldn't do too much to help the suffering and the needy or to bring them spiritual relief, as the pastor, Bethel, or some one connected with the institution, footed the bills.

When he left the city he obtained $20 from Rev. Gulick and went to St. Paul. There he wrote for more money, saying that his father was dying in Chicago. The preacher sent $25, later his suspicions became aroused, and he concluded that Wolfe had been deceiving him. He recalled that it was for some similar purpose that he had borrowed the first $25, and things did not look right to him. He started an investigation which resulted in the arrest of Wolfe in the St. Paul City on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Wolfe started his nine months at hard labor in the Ramsey county jail this morning. While at St. Paul he is said to have worked the Bethel for an easy living by becoming converted and devoting himself most earnestly to a religious life.

COUNTY BOARD IN QUANDARY

Plan for Beautifying Driveway Near Building Being Worked Out.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the St. Louis county commissioners to decide on the improvements to be made to the driveway in front of the county building, is trying to decide on what is wanted so that bids can be made on the work. The bids are to be opened at the next meeting. As contractors do not know just what is wanted, there have been no bids submitted. The committee is composed of Commissioner Cummings, Fraser and Thayer.

The committee is open to suggestions by those who have ideas for the improvement of the driveway. At present the commissioners are considering the laying of a pavement with a concrete border on either side and the installing of flower gardens in the center of the drive. The driveway is wide for an improvement of this kind. It is more of a turning point than anything else and there is room to plant flowers and have plenty of room to drive around them. This plan has been tried in other cities in front of the buildings and is said to have been a big improvement on other plans.

At the present time the grounds in front of the structure look rather bare. The suggestion of Commissioner Cummings, the board decided to improve them to compare with the rest of the grounds surrounding the building.

The shrubbery planted a year ago on other parts of the grounds seems to be doing nicely. A number of the flowers are in bloom and many pleasing remarks have been dropped by strangers as well as Duluthians on the appearance of the grounds.

NURSE TO BE CHOSEN.

Many Applications for Position Under the Associated Charities.

The new nurse to be engaged by the Associated Charities for visiting work in Duluth will probably be selected next week. Miss Anderson, who has been in Duluth working under the direction of the Associated Charities, left yesterday for Rochester, Minn., where she has secured a position under the Mayo brothers.

There are several applications in for the position. Mr. Dinwiddie, the secretary, wishes that the applications by the end of the present week.

The secretary also states that if some local person can be found who is competent to hold the position, she will be given the preference.

North Dakota Jewelers Elect. Grand Forks, N. D., June 16.—The North Dakota Jewelers' association finished its work yesterday afternoon and adjourned to meet in Fargo next year. The new officers are: president, A. G. Teller, Jamestown; first vice president, W. R. Blakely, Grand Forks; second, Paul Girard, Grand Forks; secretary, George K. Munro, Grand Forks; and, W. H. Reighart, Minot; delegate to national convention, George K. Munro.

LAW IS NOT ENFORCED

Records of Babies Born at Lying-in Hospitals Not Kept.

Probate Court Will Insist on a More Strict Observance.

The local probate court is going to be more strict from this time on in reference to babies born in lying-in hospitals. The law has never been strictly enforced, it is said.

The new law provides that a written report be made three days after a birth in a lying-in hospital. This report must be made to the probate judge.

Thirty-three days after the birth another report must be made to the probate judge stating the physical condition of the child on the thirtieth day after birth. The report must also state the name, the sex, parentage and other data concerning it.

The baby must not be taken care of by anyone but a relative unless after written application has been made to the probate judge, he shall have given his permission. With the application for the child, the person must deposit a fee of $10. DECISION IS REVERSED

M. S. Cook Must Pay $1,000 Commission to Realty Firm.

The state supreme court today reversed the order of the St. Louis county court in the case of C. H. Graves & Co., against Moses S. Cook.

The case was the outgrowth of a real estate deal. The Graves company claimed that through an agreement with Mr. Cook, they furnished a purchaser for the Old Haystack block on Superior street. Mr. Cook, the owner, as he claimed that he would use the location for a saloon. Mr. Cook refused to sell.

The Graves company, claiming that it had provided a purchaser, brought suit for $1,000, the amount Mr. Cook had agreed to pay them.

The supreme court reversed the decision, which probably means that Mr. Cook will have to pay the commission on the property which was not sold.

ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Farm Hand Alleged to Have Stolen $800 From Floodwood Man.

Gust Hattala was arrested by Sergeant Robert and Patrolman Link, as he was leaving a restaurant on Lake avenue at 6 o'clock this morning, on a charge of being a fugitive from Floodwood, where he is said to be wanted for the theft of $800.

Hattala had $738.50 in bills and currency in his pockets when he was searched at headquarters this morning. It is claimed that Hattala had been the employ of a farmer near Floodwood and left last Saturday after he had stolen the money, but claims that what was found on him was the product of years of saving. However, he appeared to know where the farmer had the money hidden and the amount. The Floodwood authorities have been notified of his arrest.

CROSS-EXAMINE HARRY GORSUCH

Secretary of Lumbermen's Association Is Kept on the Stand.

Kansas City, Mo., June 16.—Harry A. Gorsuch, secretary of the Southwestern Lumbermen's association, who has been questioned by the state's attorney for three days, was cross-examined by the attorneys for the defendant companies today in the hearing of the state's ouster suit against the alleged lumber trust.

A bundle of letters which passed between Gorsuch and Carl A. Drake, formerly secretary of the Texas Lumbermen's association and which were confiscated from Drake's office when he was arrested in Austin, Tex., put vigor into the suit when they were introduced in evidence by the prosecution yesterday. Mr. Gorsuch, who was on the witness stand, admitted the letters were genuine.

AGREE ON RECIPROCITY VOTE IN FORTNIGHT.

Washington, June 16.—Chairman Penrose of the senate committee, in conference with President Taft today, confirmed the report that sixty senators are expected to vote for Canadian reciprocity and predicted that within two weeks a date for a vote would be agreed upon. He gave the president a detailed report of the situation in the senate and declared the bill would be passed without amendment.

WILL TALK ON HOUSING

National Expert on Municipal Problem Will Speak in Duluth.

Charles B. Ball Is Coming to Investigate Conditions Here.

Charles B. Ball will be in Duluth Sunday, June 25, until the following Tuesday.

Mr. Ball is chief of the bureau of sanitation in Chicago. He was formerly chief inspector of the tenement house department in the city of New York.

He is being brought to Duluth by the Associated Charities for the purpose of telling what he knows about "housing," one of the most important questions yet brought up for discussion by the society.

Mr. Ball is considered one of the best authorities in the country on this subject. He has made a careful study of it and is backed by years of experience. He is a director of the executive committee of the National Housing association.

He will look over housing conditions in this city and will have a conference with the officers of the Associated Charities and the business men.

A public meeting will also be held at which time Mr. Ball will give a lecture on "Housing." It will be illustrated with lantern slides.

The members of the society are congratulating themselves on being able to secure Mr. Ball for an investigation of Duluth conditions and a public lecture. The subject is most important in a city of the size of Duluth.

Mr. Ball is said to be a very entertaining speaker. The lecture will probably be free to all, and be held either at the Armory or the high school assembly hall.

smoked furiously for half an hour, while the Hoboken fire department and the ship's crew played water into her hold. When the smoke went down sufficiently to permit an examination it was found that only a few bales of furs had been smoldering at the foot of one of the cargo shifts, and that the total damage did not exceed $200.

MAJ. MAGINNIS COMING. Montanan Who Served in First Minnesota to Attend Reunion.

Helena, Mont., June 16.—Major Martin Maginnis of this city, who served in the First Minnesota regiment going in as a sergeant and retiring as a major, and participated in the bloody fight at Gettysburg will be among the survivors of the First Minnesota to attend the fiftieth anniversary of the regiment at St. Paul, June 22.

Major Maginnis returned a few days ago from Southern California, where he spent the winter and despite his years is enjoying good health. Major Maginnis is one of the most eloquent speakers in the Northwest, having delivered one of the memorable addresses at a reunion of the First Minnesota at Gettysburg and during his long term in congress as delegate from the territory of Montana frequently attracted attention to the territory through his speaking ability.

TAFT CANNOT VISIT SOUTH DAKOTA CITY. Washington, June 16.—The South Dakota congressional delegation was informed at the White House today that President Taft would be unable to visit Huron, S. National Food Expert Will Be Invited to Visit Duluth.

Arrangements for Meeting of National Association in August.

Fred W. McIntosh, secretary of the state dairy and food commission, is in Duluth today to make arrangements with the Commercial club and other Duluth people for the annual meeting of the Association of State and National Food Departments, which will be held here for a week beginning Aug. 21.

Joel G. Winkler, state dairy and food commissioner of Minnesota, is chairman of the committee on arrangements for the meeting and Mr. McIntosh is acting for him. He arranged today for the use of the Commercial club assembly room for the business sessions of the convention. The Commercial club will attend to other details.

The meeting of the association here will be one of the most important in years. Important legislation for the pure food cause was obtained at sessions of the different legislatures during the past winter and much desired legislation also failed of passage. The representatives from the different states will exchange experiences and suggestions, with the legislative work of the past year as the basis for most of the discussions.

Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the bureau of health of the department of agriculture, will be invited to attend the meeting to address the pure food men. Other men of national prominence in the framing and enforcement of pure food laws will also be here. The papers and discussions will cover new laws, the value of existing laws and their enforcement—subjects of vital interest to those engaged in the work.

The delegates will come from every state in the Union, and the national government will be well represented. While the delegates will number only about 150, they will bring their families, and a big crowd is to be expected to Duluth for the meeting. The program of addresses and the entertainment program are now being arranged and will be announced soon.

LONGWORTH RAPS NEW WOOL BILL

Says He Cannot Comprehend Action of the Democrats.

Washington, June 16.—Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio denounced the Democratic wool tariff revision bill in the house today as "founded on vulgar rumors of ignorance." He made a plea for scientific framing of tariff schedules.

Mr. Longworth professed inability to understand why Speaker Champ Clark and Representative Underhill, chairman of the ways and means committee, spoke and voted in favor of a tariff board at the last session of congress, and at the present session had taken a stand that such an institution was useless in framing tariff bills.

JURY TO TRY SEE HAS BEEN FILLED

Chicago, June 16.—The first evidence against Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the "absolute life" cult, was heard today. The jury which is to try See on a charge of abduction was completed this morning, and Judge Honore declared there would be no further delays.

Stephen Bridges, a jeweler, whose wife and 17-year daughter both were disciples of the See cult, will be the first witness.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY, 50 CENT SCALE AND ONLY UNION MEN

An eight-hour day.
Fifty cents an hour.
Only union carpenters employed.

These are the demands of the Duluth union carpenters decided upon at the meeting this morning, held in Rowley hall, and the men say they will stand firm and not work until they are granted.

They further assert that some of the local contractors have already acceded to the demands and are paying the new scale of wages.

The present scale for carpenters is 45 cents an hour. The men have had an eight-hour day, but there have been cases where non-union men were also employed on jobs, so the bone of contention is a raise of 5 cents an hour and the possession of the few non-union carpenters.

The men in support of their contention point out that they work only eight or nine months a year and that under the present scale they are not given a fair living wage. They argue that bricklayers, who buy only about $10 worth of tools, are paid 70 cents an hour, while carpenters have to spend from $150 to $300 for tools, and get only 45 cents an hour.

The carpenters issued a statement in which they point out the increased cost of living in Duluth, the high rents, and the short season for work, as the reasons for the demand for an increase.

The contractors who are members of the builders' exchange say they will stand pat, and refuse to pay the advance.

"Why pay it when we can get men who are willing to work for less?" said one of the contractors. "These are hard times in the building trades and the sooner the carpenters learn it the better it will be for them."

The contractors deny that carpenters are getting 70 cents an hour in the Twin Cities. The men struck for that price, but the strikers are either walking the streets or are working for from 30 to 40 cents an hour.

There are about 700 members of the local union, of whom about 500 have been working in Duluth. Of these the carpenters claim 150 or more are back at work already at the new scale.

STILL AFTER A WORKHOUSE

State and County Committee Will Renew Its Efforts.

The new state and county sub-committee of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club held its first meeting today. It being an off year in legislative matters, the committee activities are restricted, but plans for the year's work were talked over and the matter of dealing with petty offenders promises to give the committee material for thought and action for some time.

The committee inherited the workhouse and work farm project from the former committee, which made a report to the public affairs committee on the subject. The new committee is not going to allow the matter to rest there, but will continue to keep it in mind and will endeavor to obtain action from the county board and city council as soon as possible.

The new committee is just as heartily in favor of the work farm and workhouse as was the last committee. It will work along the lines of the theory that imprisonment for drunkenness and vagrancy is not corrective and that better results for individuals and for the community may be obtained by having the workhouse for tramps and the work farm for drunks and others, whose only offense is weakness, misfortune or habit.

SIXTH SHOP EXCURSION

"Seeing Duluth" Trip to Blast
Furnace and Carbolite Plant.

The sixth shop excursion under the direction of the publicity committee of the Commercial club left the club at 2 o'clock this afternoon with the American Carbolite company's plant and the Zenith furnace as the objective points.

The crowd fell far lower in number than that which visited the steel plant on the last shop excursion, but it was a representative gathering of Duluth citizens anxious to see just what Duluth manufacturing plants are doing.

Both plants to be visited today are among Duluth's biggest and most important industries. The Zenith furnace company was the American Carbolite company is shipping its product all over the world. Besides being an important part of Duluth's industrial life it is one of the best advertisers the city has.

More Power for Dock. Arrangements have been made for the installation of additional power equipment to furnish about 400-horse power at No. 1 dock of the Northwestern Fuel company, at the foot of Winnetka street on Superior bay. At the present time, the company has one of the most complete power plants to be found on any dock, but with recent additions and improvements, it is found that more power is needed. The supplemental plant will be operated by electric power from the Northern Power company.

Baudette, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—Mrs. Haun, aged 50, was burned to death in a fire which broke out in a building at Rainy River yesterday morning. Mrs. Haun and another woman roomed together, and when the fire broke out early in the morning Mrs. Haun was urged to leave promptly, but she tarried too long. The origin of the fire is not known.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

PLAYING FOR MORRIS CUP

Northland Club Team in Competition With All Western Clubs.

Each Club Plays Against Par of Its Own Course.

This afternoon the Tom Morris Memorial trophy event is being played by a picked team of the Northland Country club and also by teams representing practically every country club in the Western Golf association. Old Tom Morris was one of the pioneers of the merry game of golf. He lived, years ago, in Bonnie Scotland, and it was in memory of the deeds of Tom, and of his character and his accomplishments, that Peter Lawson of Glasgow, Scotland, donated the Morris Memorial trophy, which is to become the temporary property of the club winning it each season. June 16 is the birthday of Tom Morris, a man whose name is revered in the annals of the game, and in honor of that event the Morris Memorial event is being played at this afternoon.

The Northland Country club will be represented by R. S. Patrick, R. T. Goodell, M. B. Cullum, Ward Ames, Jr., A. M. Miller, Jr., E. P. Alexander and Cassius Bagley.

Frankly the members of the Duluth team have no hope of making the lowest score against par. Probably the team that is playing this afternoon is the best that has ever represented the club, but against the great teams of some of the western clubs it stands little or no chance of making the lowest score against par.

What the members of the team will try to do is to make a better showing than the team of last season, thereby showing progress in golf at the Northland club.

Different courses have different pars. The competition is against the par of each hole club. The club making the lowest score against par wins the right to hold the trophy.

The rule governing the Morris Memorial play, reads as follows: "Conditions are 18 holes against par. Teams of eight, all of which must be regular members of the club and must be 25 years of age or over. Competition to be governed by special rules for the competition adopted by the Western Golf association. The club whose team returns the best total result in 18 holes or less, shall win the trophy for that year, and each member of the winning team will be given an appropriate medal."

The play is expected throughout the West and the result of the play will be watched with eagerness.

PAL BROWN IN DULUTH

Tough Little Range Scrapper Will Meet Unknown at Ashland.

Pal Brown, the tough little range fighter who is looked upon in some fighting circles as the coming lightweight champion of the world, is in Duluth today. Pal hooks up at Ashland tonight against an unknown fighter. Neither the little man on his manager, Dr. Herman Plapper, who is here with him, are the men who apprehensive over the outcome, though they state that they have no idea of the identity of the unknown.

In speaking of his plans today, Pal stated that he had several fights in the near future, and later on he will have some fights with some of the big boys of the country. The little range lad is ambitious, fully believes he is as good as any boy of his weight in the business, and is here to take a chance with any of the tough ones.

Dr. Plapper stated that Brown was fighting better today than he was yesterday. He expected his protégé to win this evening, as well as the coming fight in Montana.

PITCHER STANLEY WILL JOIN SOX

Pitcher Joe Stanley, who has been secured from the Fort Wayne team, arrived this afternoon and will join the White Sox at Eau Claire tomorrow evening.

According to the statement of local baseball officials, Stanley is a very good pitcher and will prove a valuable addition to the pitching staff of the White Sox.

Stanley has been in fast company and is said to have done very good work with Fort Wayne the present season.

NEW YORK POLICE "GET" AMATEUR BOXERS.

New York, June 16.—The police succeeded in dealing a blow at the prize fighting game today after several months of futile efforts to prevent boxing bouts. They arrested a number of persons connected with the international amateur championship tourney in Madison Square Garden last May, and four of them in special sessions today were fined. They were "Tim" Hurst, the well known referee and baseball umpire, who was fined $50; Samuel Lowing, a boxer, $25, and two ticket sellers, $25 each.

SWEATERS FOR BALL PLAYERS.

During the last chapel exercises this morning the members of the high school baseball team received sweaters and high school letters for their services. Central team, by winning the interscholastic championship, gained possession of the "Herald" trophy. The letter, offered to the winners in the league.

Those who received sweaters were: Joe Boyle, captain and shortstop; Harold Kelly, catcher; Murray Harris, pitcher; Ralph Waldron, first base; "Zeke" Nolte, second base; Neil Maclaren, second base; Ward Brown, third base, and Max Brown, Eben Spencer, Ed. Ductett and William Lundberg, fielders.

LA JOIE WILL RETURN TO THE GAME SOON.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 16.—Napoleon LaJoie, second baseman of the Cleveland American league team, who has been out of the game for more than a month because of strained abdominal muscles, will be able to play within two weeks. Dr. H. M. Castle, the club physician, announced this belief today. La Joie has started exercising to get in shape for his return to the game.

The Fitwell announces their season's clearance sale. See ad on page 10 of this issue.

RAILROADS

ASK MEN TO BE SAVING

Burlington Railroad Follows Example of the Rock Island System.

President Requests Employees to Cut Off All Needless Expense.

The new policy of the railroads to cut expenses has been taken up by the Burlington railroad. It has sent a letter, personally addressed to its 44,000 regular employees, asking them to take a hand in shutting off some of the waste and to take a personal interest in the welfare of the road. The letter is signed by Darius Miller, president of the road.

The first step was taken by the Rock Island lines some time ago in asking its employees to save the road 5 cents a day. Mr. Miller, in his request to the employees, does not specify any particular amount, but asked them to save a few minutes of time and a few cents' worth of material every day.

In addition, suggestions for the improvement of the service, for greater economy and greater safety in operation are solicited.

Low Service. The Rock Island will start through service from Chicago to San Francisco by way of Salt Lake City Sunday. Standard sleeping cars will be run over the tracks to the Denver & Rio Grande from Denver to Salt Lake and over the Western Pacific from Salt Lake to Lake City. The arrangement is similar to the one established a short service will leave Chicago on the Rock Island train No. 5, 10:32 p. m., from Lake City, 4:35 p. m., and from Salt Lake, 10 p. m., arriving in San Francisco 10 p. m.

TO ERECT TEN COTTAGES AT LAKE VERMILION.

Dr. R. L. Burns and E. J. Atkins, agent for the Duluth & Iron Range, both of Tower, are in the city today to confer with Horace Johnson, general passenger agent for the railroad, regarding the building of ten cottages at Lake Vermilion. The arrangement is to construct four cottages with two bedrooms and a screen porch, and six cottages of four bedrooms, a kitchen, a bath and a screen porch. The cottages will cost from $800 to $1,200 each. With the cottages these men will have thirteen in all having erected three at Gold Island last year.

AMONG RAILROAD MEN

B. Stephenson, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Duluth & Iron Range, is in the city from St. Paul.

A. M. Thompson of Minneapolis, traveling passenger agent for the Erie road, is here on a business trip.

Holds Third Excursion. The Duluth, South shore & Atlantic railroad will hold its third excursion this evening from this city eastward. The degree teams of the West end and West Duluth Modern Woodmen camps will be on the train, leaving for Buffalo to attend the annual encampment there.

SISTER'S DEATH CAUSES SUICIDE

Grieving Canadian Soo Bank Accountant Fatally Shoots Himself.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—After worrying constantly for a year over the death of his sister, in Toronto, J. A. Barth, an accountant in the Imperial bank here, shot and fatally wounded himself at noon today, while in his living quarters.

A statement given out at the bank where he is employed, says his accounts are straight.

ANGLERS WILL PAY THOUSANDS TO STATE.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—It is expected that non-resident fishermen will contribute between $8,000 and $10,000 to the state fund for the propagation of fish. The game and fish commission has sent out more than 8,000 non-residence licenses already exhausted their supply and have sent in orders for more.

DENEEN'S WATERWAY BILL PASSES SENATE.

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—Governor Deneen's waterway bill passed the senate late last night, was reported to the house today and ordered printed. Next week it will be read a first time and referred to the house waterway committee.

WHY IS THE W. C. T. U.?

Secretary of Local Organization Answers Question in Report.

Closing Meeting of Year Held By Duluth Society.

The W. C. T. U. of West Duluth held its final meeting before the summer vacation with Mrs. Alfred Merritt yesterday afternoon. Mrs. I. P. Swanlie was elected delegate to the W. C. T. U. state convention in Fairbault in August, with Mrs. Harry Merritt as alternate.

Lester Park was chosen as the place for the annual picnic, July 20. Mrs. Shoup played two excellent piano solos and Mrs. Nelson rendered beautifully Will Carleton's poem, "The Early Bird." The meeting was held in their lines.

It was department day, and reports were made by the various superintendents of work done during the year in their lines.

An interesting report was that of the charity department given by Mrs. Swangle, who told of visits made and articles given to those in need of work found for men, and exhortations to work. Some of the women they took the advice, too, she said.

The woodmen's department reported nineteen sacks of literature and twenty-five comfort bags sent to the camps. The annual report of the secretary, Mrs. M. J. Jakes, was read, as follows:

"The W. C. T. U. has finished another year of work. It has held twenty meetings with an average attendance of 100. The meetings have been held from Lakeside to the far end of West Duluth in private homes and places more or less public. Some of the most successful meetings in attendance have been held in the Y. W. C. A., the Bethel Home, and the Children's and Deaconess' homes."

"What have we accomplished the past year?"

"The saloons are still here, more and more of them, dealing out death and misery as it is their nature. Some of the most successful meetings in attendance have been held in the Y. W. C. A., the Bethel Home, and the Children's and Deaconess' homes."

"The influence of this society in city and state counts something with the legislature, and sometimes one of our bills passes. This year, the one forbidding the sale of malt drinks in unlicensed places was a good measure, passed by the efforts of the state W. C. T. U."

"We have co-operated with the state union in payment of dues and in sending delegates to the state convention."

"Heads of departments have been appointed, some of whom have been able to do good in their lines."

"We have helped with money and donations in charitable institutions and some good causes, viz: the Bethel and Children's home, the Bethel hospital, the Associated Charities, the Bethel building fund, the Y. W. C. A., and the Children's and Deaconess' homes."

"We have forwarded and held some public meetings, viz: one addressed by Miss McLaughlin."

"We have co-operated with the other women's clubs and societies of Duluth by having our delegates in the Women's Club, the Y. W. C. A., and the general welfare of the city are discussed and pushed."

"We have comforted sick members by sympathy and flowers."

"We have aided the poor; this work has many perplexities and discouragements, but it is sadly needed and will be necessary so long as drink makes life a misery."

"We have tried to instruct ourselves by papers and talks by those both inside and outside our union on subjects connected with the principles and methods of our work. I doubt if any of the city gives its members any more instruction on important subjects."

"Our Bethel Saturday night meetings were a Christian work done just where we needed it, and we hope they did some permanent good. You can hardly hope by one hour a week to make much impression on those who are under the influence of the evil influences. In these meetings eighteen confessed conversion and eighty-five signed the pledge, and if a few of them stand firm, our labor has not been in vain."

"The sower never knows what seed will grow and bring forth fruit, and he must keep on sowing, in hope. In union there is strength; yes and by united prayer there is strength more than ours to be had for our cause. May God bless and guide us!"

DULUTH VETERAN CHOSEN JUNIOR VICE COMMANDER

Dr. C. M. Wilson of Culver post of the local G. A. R. was elected junior vice commander of the Minnesota Grand Army of the Republic at this morning's session of the encampment at St. Paul. Only a few of the Duluth old soldiers were able to attend the encampment.

A. Everett of Fairmont was elected senior vice commander of the Minnesota G. A. R. and the other officers chosen for the ensuing year were: Senior vice commander, Dr. C. M. Wilson; junior vice commander, Dr. C. M. Wilson; and in Dr. O. S. Pine, St. Paul, council of administration, A. G. Guild, E. F. Kendrick, B. J. Mosier.

for president was greeted with a round of applause and Mr. Everett made a speech of thanks to the G. A. R. was unanimous. To the old soldiers, the most interesting feature of today's session was the address of John A. Gilman of Boston, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who in his address to the encampment at St. Paul, and Judge S. F. White of Duluth, and Edward Force of the Culver post.

The Women's Relief corps elected Mrs. Mary E. Wilson of St. Paul, president of their state organization. Her assistant was Mrs. Carrie M. Nelson of Minneapolis. The ladies of the G. A. R. elected Mrs. Lizzie Brookings of Duluth, and Mrs. L. K. Edwards of Benson, Mrs. Wicks, the retiring president.

MILITIAMEN DEFY SHERIFF LEARN EXTENT OF MAINE DAMAGE

Attempt to Arrest Private at Lake City Makes Trouble.

Battleship's Condition Is Much Worse Than Was Supposed.

Havana, June 16.—That the shattering of the hull of the battleship Maine, expressed by the mute testimony of steel ribs bent apart, decks up-heaved and the bottom of the ship exposed, bulksheads crumpled like sheets of paper, and apparently inextricable masses of twisted metal, is evidently far greater than supposed, has been revealed as a result of a superficial observation made possible by the lowering of the water level in the cofferdam a total depth of seven feet.

On account of this unforeseen revelation of the terrific character of the explosion which sent the battleship to the bottom of the harbor, all plans heretofore proposed for dealing with the ultimate removal of the hull have become merely conjectural until a considerably greater amount of water has been pumped out. As the water recedes every successive foot reveals worse and worse conditions in that portion of the hull formerly of "battleship" which was subjected to the main force of the explosion.

Not Yet Cleared. The bow section is still nearly twenty feet below the surface, and here it is believed the destruction will be found to have been even more complete. The work of pumping has been somewhat delayed because of the heavy rains and a slight interruption of the electric current. It is the intention to put in service the most powerful pumps and lower the water more rapidly, but still use the utmost caution, observing the effect of the increased pressure on the hull.

Colonel Black of the engineer corps, says that he has reasonable expectation of lowering the water a total depth of eighteen or twenty feet within three or four days, which would

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—Governor Eberhart probably will be called on to prevent a clash between Sheriff Wagoner's force of deputies and the officers of the First Regiment, Minnesota National guard, in camp at Lake City.

The threatened clash is because Sheriff Flannigan, who went to Lake City yesterday with a warrant for Benedict J. Sender, private in company of war were Maj. Elie Luce of Minneapolis and Capt. and Quartermaster Arthur J. Stobart of St. Paul. It was decided that men of the First Regiment were wanted on a warrant sworn out by H. M. Heath, route agent of the Wells-Fargo Express company, charging him with having embezzled $66.99 while in the employ of the company.

render possible a fairly complete exploration of all portions of the ship where men were likely to have been on the night of the disaster, except the quarters in the after structure, where they may find the body of Ensign Merritt, the only officer missing, the body of Lieutenant Jenkins, the only other officer killed, having been recovered from the torpedo chamber shortly after the explosion.

One-half of the business handled by the express companies in the country consists of packages weighing less than eleven pounds, most of which would be sent by parcels post if once established, he said. There will be such a volume of this, he claimed, that the postoffice could handle it profitably.

REGISTER FOR SUMMER UNIVERSITY COURSES.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—Registration for the summer course at the state university, which for the first time is practically a continuation of the winter session, began today with the enrollment of twenty-five students. Prof. A. W. Rankin predicts that on Monday, the opening day of the session, the attendance will have reached 100.

Registration for the teachers' training course at the state university, which formerly held at the university, will open at the agricultural college Monday. More than 100 teachers are expected to attend this session.

Not Salts, Oil or Pills But 'Cascarets'
No odds how sick your Stomach; how hard your head aches or how Bilious—Cascarets make you feel great.
Cascarets act as a bowel tonic, not as an irritant. They are vegetable.
Their action is natural. Their effect is the same as the effect of some foods. They are gentle; no griping.
They are pleasant; no dreading. They are convenient; no waiting.
One old way was castor oil. The effect was to grease the bowels, and for a single day. Oil never causes the bowel muscles to act. Other ways were pills, salts and cathartics. The effect was the same as pepper in the nostrils. They flooded the bowels with fluid. Those fluids were digestive juices. And the waste today means a lack tomorrow.
We knew that the method was wrong. That the after-effects only weakened the bowels. But we had no gentle laxative in the old days. So we waited as long as we could, then took a big dose of physic. The method today is to take one Cascaret at a time—just as soon as you need it.
Then the bowels are always clean.
They cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store.

MAYOR SENDS BEST WISHES

Message to J. Proctor Knott,
Who Is Seriously Ill at His Home.
Expresses Hope That Aged
Statesman Will Soon Recover.

Duluth, Minn., June 17, 1911.
J. Proctor Knott,
Lebanon, Ky.
"Learning through the newspapers of your serious illness, Duluth wishes to send you its kindest regrets and its most sincere wishes for your early recovery."
"M. B. CULLUM, Mayor."

News of the serious illness of J.
Proctor Knott, the famous, as well as the most efficient press agent Duluth ever had, has reached the city. Responding for the people of Duluth, Mayor M. B. Cullum sent the venerable statesman a message of regret and hope for an early recovery.

The news dispatch, however, conveyed the impression that the aged orator who sent the name of Duluth resounding throughout the country in an ironical speech which has become a classic, is on his death bed. Weakened by a stroke of paralysis a few months ago, he is now threatened by pneumonia, which his physicians fear will be fatal because of his advanced age.

Mr. Knott recently celebrated his eighty-second birthday.

Knott was formerly governor of Kentucky, but it was by his speech on the floor of congress, Jan. 27, 1881, that he won lasting fame with his salute to Duluth, "The Zenith City of the Unsalted Seas."

The dispatch telling of Mr. Knott's illness is as follows:
"Lebanon, Ky., June 17.—J. Proctor Knott, former governor of Kentucky from 1867 to 1881, is critically ill at his home near here, within sight of the little court house where he made his first campaign speech, signaling his entry into politics.

"Weakened by a stroke of paralysis a few months ago, he is now threatened by pneumonia, which his physicians fear will be fatal, since Mr.
Knott is of advanced age—82 on his last birthday.

James Proctor Knott won national attention during his service in congress by his brilliantly humorous speeches on different subjects, but it was reserved to one oratorical effort in particular to couple his name for time with the fame and fortunes of the city of Duluth, "The Zenith
City of the Great Unsalted Seas."

In that speech, delivered in the house of representatives on January 27, 1881, Knott, in compliment to the city, said that he was visiting fame with his salute to Duluth, "The Zenith City of
the Unsalted Seas."

He lampooned Duluth and other cities in the north, and in the south, and at the same time the kindred of the city of Duluth, "The Zenith
City of the Great Unsalted Seas."

Northwestern Minnesota until even within the last few years, the representatives of the city of Duluth, "The Zenith City of the Great Unsalted Seas," have been in the habit of saluting the city of Duluth, "The Zenith City of the Great Unsalted
Seas," in the following words:

guilty, would be an accomplice of Cooke's.

"The fact that the defendant is innocent until he is proven guilty, applies to every material point.
The jury must give no testimony regarding Cooke's honesty the same consideration, as any other testimony in this case."

Then followed the court's formal charge.

"The state," he said, "must establish these four facts:
"First—Was Cooke, on Sept. 11, 1901, an agent or employee of the Big Four railroad?
"Second—As an agent or an employee of the Big Four, did he have in his possession $30,000 of Big Four railroad cash, or some part of that amount?
"Third—Was the $24,000 wrongfully taken and converted to his own use?
"Fourth—If the jury finds, according to the evidence, that a less amount was taken by Cooke, the amount should be stated."

"As to other offenses," said Judge Hunt, "and the state or the laws of morality, the testimony as to other such alleged offenses is not only as affecting the credibility of Cooke's testimony, but considering the testimony of a number of witnesses, the jury must consider the fact that by the same testimony witnesses make themselves equally guilty with him."

MAYOR DUMAS OF CASS LAKE IS ARRESTED AS CHIEF OF YEGGEMEN

order for enforcing the Indian treaty provisions regarding the sale of liquor was suspended and Dumas returned to Cass Lake where he was received as "the man of the hour."

Now he stands accused of being the ringleader of one of the worst bands of robbers with which the police of all the west of Chicago ever have had to deal.

Not only is he said to have participated in the robbery of the safe at Cass Lake, but he is said to have furnished the money for the purchase of the safe, which to blow the safes, and it is understood that the failure of the robbers to get into the bank at Shevlin was due to a limited supply of "soup" furnished by Dumas. He is also said to have rushed from Shevlin to Cass Lake, where he was arrested, by the time the automobile got back it was too late to make further attempts, so the robbers made their get-away.

"Job of Revenge."
There is still another angle to the affair, which involves the burning of the Dumas residence. It is understood that the burning of the residence was the work of the robbers, and it was the present important arrests regarding the safe at Cass Lake, and the burning of the residence, has been in Benjamin Dumas, the man who was arrested at Cass Lake.

The plans for trapping the robbers at work are said to have grown from information furnished by a former member of the gang, who, disgruntled at the amount of the reward offered for certain jobs, decided to tip things off to the officers. He claims to be in high standing and has been in the habit of saying "If the worst comes to the worst, the governor will pardon me." His name is withheld.

More Arrests Due.
More arrests involving prominent persons both in Minneapolis and Benjamin Dumas is said.

Detective Fielding, who worked up and executed the trap, declares that Dumas is a man of high standing and the arrest of Dumas and his associates of the robbers is but a slight part of the sensation which is to follow, Mr.
Fielding said.

From information and evidence at hand, Mayor Dumas was said to be shown up in a vast different light than that of a respected physician and honored public official, but he is not the only one. We have given the public only the bare facts. The feet are yet to be exposed.

In my opinion, neither of the men arrested had any chance at escape.
We grabbed Ben Dumas without any thought of his being a doctor, and away. There is no question but that he was badly wounded. We heard him choke and cough as he was being choked and he seemed to be trying to get away. He probably fell in the woods and we might have found him there, but Dumas is a bad man and I did not wish to let any boys to take unnecessary chances."

The arrest of Mayor Dumas made at Hibbing at 10 o'clock this morning, was a remarkable one. The Northern train, Mayor Dumas is manager of the Cass Lake baseball team and he had taken his players to Hibbing to play the team at that place this afternoon. He was one of the first men to step from the train when it stopped at the Hibbing station, and he landed squarely in front of Chief of Police Peter Wring, who had been notified by Detective Fielding from Cass Lake to apprehend the mayor.
He had to come to the station, and the Hibbing officer, taking Dr. Dumas by the arm.

"What's the matter?" rejoined Dumas in a surprised tone.
"There's a warrant out for your arrest at Benidji and I have been instructed to hold you."

Plans Party Successful.
The plans for the capture of Dumas, and Detective Fielding had expected, until the battle at Puposky, when Dumas grawled to cover under shelter of darkness. Later, after Ben had been locked up here, Fielding took his men together with Sheriff Hazen, to Cass Lake in automobile. The plan was to take the train to Cass Lake, and the detectives were to arrest the mayor, before any news could get to him of the arrest of Dumas. The plan was a successful one, and the mayor was taken out in the building for the use of the detectives. Fielding, however, had all avenues of escape thoroughly guarded.

Plotted in Saloon.
The plans for the Puposky robbery

PETER WRING, Hibbing Chief of Police Who Ar- rested Mayor Dumas at That City.

were consummated in the Bank saloon in Benidji. Mayor Dumas was present, he said, and agreed to furnish the necessary explosives. According to the detectives, who were stationed so that they could hear every word of the saloon plot, the affair at Puposky, was in a spirit of revenge than in the hope of obtaining a large sum of money. The place agreed upon for the robbery was the Laqueux store and postoffice. It was claimed that Dumas knew the place in Winnipeg, and that he bore a grudge against him.

The plans were that the safe should be robbed and that then the building was to be dynamited and destroyed by possession, as the result of the confession of the former crook, and upon information furnished by two Benidji men whose names also are withheld.
Detectives, under the direction of the Hibbing chief of police, Peter Wring, set about to catch the men in the act. The robbers had first planned to crack the safe Thursday night, but it had to be postponed because the explosive used, did not come to Cass Lake.

International Falls, Minn., June 17.
(Special to The Herald.)—The formal opening of the public library took place Thursday night and was a splendid success, many citizens calling to encourage the library and to contribute books, the latter numbering about 500. The library is now on the shelves of the library, and as they are quite varied in their nature, it is small wonder that the library is a pears that when the road was granted its franchise it voluntarily agreed to do this work free of charge. At present there is only a foot path there for pedestrians. The depressing of the avenue would give vehicles of all kinds another route to Lakeside. The tracks would then pass above the avenue with sufficient clearance for vehicles of all kinds.

The question of compelling merchants to keep the sidewalks free of all obstructions may come up for action, but this is uncertain. The last time this was considered the merchants were informed that they need not remove their cases unless they heard further from the aldermen.

Many protests have been filed with the council against the construction of sidewalks which have been ordered built by the board of public works.

only manufacturing centers offer plants for a pattern job shop. The Lakes, the Iron ranges and the Copper Country area of the Upper Peninsula, located at the headwaters of the Great Lakes, have gained strength to the fact that they are the largest manufacturing cities of the North.

F. Anderson and Arthur Paik, who have been in the pattern business for 25 years, have gained experience in their line, and their company, Anderson and Paik Machine Tools, etc., have built up a most successful business.

Orders from a steadily growing territory, including Michigan, the Lakes, the Iron ranges and the Copper Country, come to the company. Their line consists of making pattern and mold boxes of steel and aluminum castings, and also making modernizing old patterns.

Since they went into business two years ago, they have turned out a very large number of pattern boxes, and some of the largest and most difficult to make.

WRITERS OF "BEST SELLERS" AS PROSAIC REAL ESTATE INVESTORS

A Naturalist Puts $100,000 in a Country Seat—A Successful Novelist Buys a Large Tract of Woodland—A Delineator of Frontier Life Invests in a New York City Apartment House—A Playwright and Humorist Gets "Back to the Farm"—Charles Major Booms His Native Town—Other Lucky Ones and Their Investment Notions.

Written For The Herald By E. J. Edwards ("Holland.")

(Copyright, 1911, by E. J. Edwards.)

If you had written a book that turned out to be a "best seller" and suddenly found yourself in possession of a fortune, what would you do with your money? You might think first of automobiles or motor boats, or something of that sort, but the chances are that before long you would put a good part of your money into land. That is what many of the authors of "best sellers" have done; as soon as they had the wherewithal to gratify it, they disclosed a strong passion to possess acres.

There is nothing remarkable, of course, in the fact that writers of successful books buy land. Men who make successes in other and less romantic ways do the same. But it seems as though for those who have reaped fortunes by writing books this form of investment has a peculiar fascination. There may be something especially alluring in turning the shadowy creations of the fancy into the most tangible and permanent of all forms of property. And there is a quite evident impulse on the part of the successful writer of fiction to possess himself in reality, of scenes similar to those he has described in his fiction, whether those scenes have been drawn with exact fidelity from deeply fixed early memories, or composed with a large element of imagination.

A Nature Writer's $100,000 Country Seat.

Take the case of Ernest Thompson Seton. The great passion of his life and the primal source of his success have been his love of wild nature and wild animal life.

His early years favored his bent, for he spent the most impressionable period of his boyhood in the backwoods of Canada, and he has always preserved, notwithstanding the scientific and artistic culture of later life, the boy's naive delight in the woods and all that is native to the wild.

At first his passion for nature sought a scientific outlet. He became a naturalist, and was employed in government work. His researches in connection with this work led him to some original discoveries as to the habits of certain animals which he published and which attracted much attention from the scientific world. Later he studied art in Paris and became known as an illustrator of animal life.

But these activities, while they assured him a comfortable income, did not bring him wealth. It was not until he turned author and began to write about the things he had loved as a boy and had studied as a scientist, and an artist that fortune came to him. It came suddenly then, and with the publication of his first book he found himself a man of ample means and large earning power.

Mr. Seton was living in New York at the time and some of his friends there who had explored the neighboring country made him acquainted with a picturesque spot just over the border of the neighboring state of Connecticut, not quite forty miles from the metropolis. The locality had retained almost all of its original wilderness. There were woods and rocky hills, shaded brooks of pure water, small ponds fringed with reeds lying in the midst of luxuriant meadows, and a little lake. The place abounded in wild life. Foxes and other furbearing animals still made their homes there, and there were fish in the brooks and still waters; loons and wild ducks haunted the little lake, which in the early spring and fall was also a favorite resting place for wild geese on their migrations north and south.

Mr. Seton was charmed with the picturesque variety of the place and quickly negotiated the purchase of about 1,000 acres of the widest part of it.

He set about making the improvements that he considered necessary, not merely to make it a livable place, but to preserve its wild character and protect its wild inhabitants. He erected a high screen fence about it, and built some roads through the woods, and also a country house or lodge. These improvements, together with the original cost of the land, are understood to have involved an outlay of about $100,000.

While the money made for his personal pleasure and not as a speculation, it was a good one from a business point of view, for land in the vicinity has greatly increased in value since Mr. Seton put his first large earnings into these wild acres.

At "Windygool," as he calls it, Mr. Seton spends most of his time when he is not traveling. He is greatly interested in the "Back to the Farm" movement, and one of his hobbies and pastimes is the initiation of boys into the mysteries of woodcraft. At different seasons of the year he has different sets of boys camp on the place. They are organized as tribes of Indians, and they learn to become expert swimmers, to handle a canoe, to make fire with fire sticks and to become proficient in the various other arts that make a man independent and at home in the wilderness.

Mr. Seton issues cards of admission to "Windygool" for certain days, thus making his home a place of interest to a certain public party.

Irving Bacheller's North Woods Home.

Irving Bacheller is another writer with a best seller record who has invested in a country seat. He was born in Northern New York and the Great North Woods were familiar to him in his boyhood days. Although his interest in wild nature is not scientific and artistic in the way that Mr. Seton's is, but one might rather say, romantic, he agrees with Mr. Seton in finding the wilderness the most pleasant of all environments.

For years before his great success came, Mr. Bacheller was an active newspaper man, shut in most of his time by city walls. He had no great expectations of novels when the tale that was to bring him sudden wealth and fame was published, and he had no great expectations of that book. He thought it might be an average good selling novel, and probably no one was more surprised than he was when it sales mounted up within a short time to something like six or seven hundred thousand copies.

Becoming almost in a day the master of his own time and the possessor of more money than he had dreamed it possible for him to make by writing, Mr. Bacheller began to think of the longing of the scenes familiar to him in his boyhood, the scenes, indeed, that he had portrayed in his successful story. And so one of the first things he did was to take of his nearest neighbor a country lawyer, with no desire to live elsewhere. He believed that the best place for him to live was in the woods—a distance of some 400 miles—is an incidental part of his establishment.

There he built a large lodge and there he spends his summers. A good woodman and an ardent fisherman, he is able to enjoy himself to his heart's content in either capacity and he has found that the woods are always guests at the lodge, for it is one of his chief pleasures to entertain congenial friends there. He also finds the place a good one for literary work, and his summers are not spent at all in play.

"The city is not for me," said Mr. Bacheller, when it came to his choice of a winter home. In winter he likes the seclusion and so it happens that a portion of his fortune is invested in a fine place in Long Island where, within an hour's riding by rail from New York, but sufficiently close to nature to satisfy him, he has built a home. He frequently makes trips from his home on the sound to his home in the woods—a distance of some 400 miles—is an incidental part of his establishment.

An Author Who Owns an Apartment House.

Rex Beach is one of the writers of best sellers who likes city and frontier life equally well. He was educated in miners and mining, and has written about them, and it was natural enough, therefore, that he should invest some of his money in a mine in the West. But at the same time he has written notably in his novels the rough life in the wilderness or on the borders of civilization. He has given the same study to city growth and development, as both an interesting phenomenon and as a business proposition, and some of his fortune exists in the form of New York real estate. He bought a recently a $150,000 apartment house in New York. He is not the first successful author to make this sort of investment. The late General "Law" Wallace, whose big success was made thirty years ago, put a portion of his large earnings into an apartment house in Indianapolis.

Winston Churchill invested a considerable portion of the golden harvest gathered for him by his big sellers in an estate in New Hampshire. Cornhill, the place where he invested portion of his first big returns from his books, had been the center of an artistic and literary colony. The late Augustus Saint-Gaudens had a place near there. On his estate Mr. Churchill for some years past has lived the life of a country gentleman, varying its even tenor by adventures into the active political life that has been the theme of some of his later books.

How George Ade Got "Back to the Farm."

Country life is what George Ade knew as a boy—not the country life that consists mainly of adorning suburban villas, but the genuine thing, in which the tilling of the soil and the raising of crops is a real serious business. He knew Indiana farm life at first hand when he went to college. He was a boy, and he kept in pretty close association with things rural until he plunged into the thick of metropolitan journalism in Chicago. Ten years of strenuous newspaper work, and a big city gave him a certain perspective from which to view his rural past. This perspective served him well in his writing, and it also affected his personal inclinations when the money began to flow from his country life, and he put the humor of it into his books. But while there was exaggeration in his fun, there was none of the bitterness of satire in it. For he really liked the country best of all, and when the chance came, he said with emphasis, "Back to the farm."

His royalties from books and plays gave him in a very short time almost more money than he knew what to do with. But he had a very particular idea of the kind of life he wanted to live. He was born in the neighborhood where he was now, and he had found his way to a farm in a big tract of land at Brook, Ind. "Hazelton Farm" has been his home for a number of years, and he goes in for real farming, dividing his time between writing and managing the property, and he takes as much pride in raising a fine crop as he does in producing a big seller or a thousand nights.

Making a Fortune Out of Farm Land.

Probably no author of a best seller ever had a more sudden and startling access of good fortune than fell to the lot of Charles May. In his first book in only two months he received $30,000 in royalties, and he became known as one of the very successful authors of the time, he had acquired a fortune that was a good many times that amount, and was large enough to make him feel very much like a capitalist.

He was a practicing lawyer in Shelbyville, Ind., when his first literary success came. The place had been his boyhood home. He had found his wife there, and there he had settled down after his marriage to follow the career of a country lawyer, with no desire to live elsewhere. He believed that the best place for him to live was in the woods—a distance of some 400 miles—is an incidental part of his establishment.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

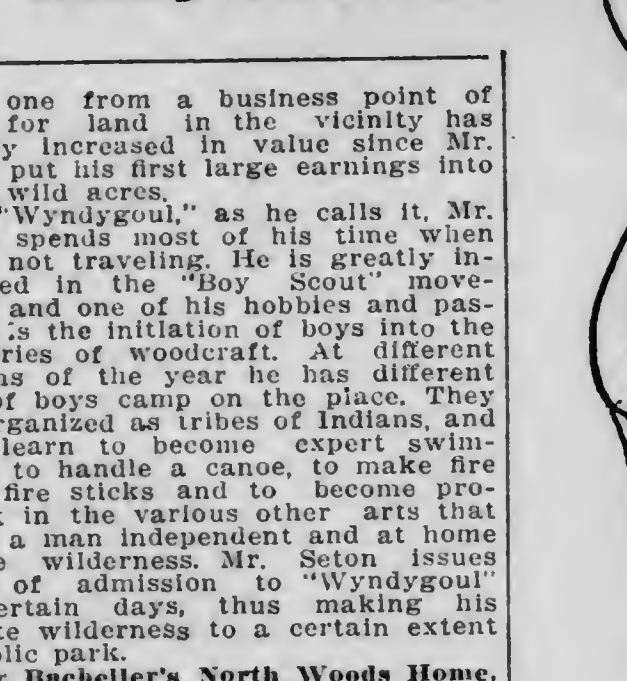

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair, and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Max Wirth, 13 West Superior street.

farm lands. He put practically all his money into them, and acquired most of the land in the vicinity that was for sale.

There was a good deal of sentiment in this, undoubtedly, but there was more than that. There was shrewd business sense as well. Mr. Major thought that Indiana farm lands were going to increase greatly in value, and he was right. Farm lands went up and Mr. Major realized a handsome speculative profit on his investment.

Some time ago a syndicate came along and offered him $150 an acre for 1,000 acres, a mere fraction of his holdings. It was a temptation, but after thinking it over he said: "If that land is worth $150,000 to them, it is worth $150,000 to me."

Recently, Mr. Major is said to have come to the conclusion that the day of big speculative profits in Indiana farms has passed, although he does not think such lands are going to be any less valuable than at present, but rather believes that they will be more so. He has a new novel nearly done, he is beginning to think of other possible ways of investing, with the prospect of something like speculative profits.

But you can see that Mr. Major does not do with his money, it will be said, "one of his friends the other day." He is just as shrewd in making investments as he is skillful in weaving romances.

Mr. Major has always been popular in his home town, and the fact that he owns a big part of the place has not diminished a bit the liking his fellow townsmen have for him.

Meredith Nicholson is another native of Indiana who has accumulated riches rapidly by writing. He has invested in his home town, and the fact that he owns a big part of the place has not diminished a bit the liking his fellow townsmen have for him.

Stewart Edward White's Various Holdings.

Stewart Edward White, who was born and reared in Michigan and who has explored mountains, plains and forests in various parts of the country, has settled in California. A fine estate at Santa Barbara, which he has named "Jumping Off Place," shows what he has done with some of the money he has made. Fifteen miles from Santa Barbara he has a seaside home, of several acres, on the shore front, in the high Sierras is his summer home, and elsewhere in California he owns a large tract of very valuable timber land.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, with money she made from her books, bought residence property in Washington, D. C., where she makes her home part of the time, and an estate on Long Island. She also has a handsome estate in England, and so has Rudyard Kipling. One of the first investments that Kipling made after he "arrived" was the purchase of a farm in Vermont, near Brattleboro, where he lived for several years.

Unlike most of the other conspicuous novelists of the day, Owen Wister seems to have little or no sentimental interest in possessing land. Perhaps this is because he is essentially a city man, although he knows the country well, and especially the wilder parts of the country. At any rate, the greater part of the fortune that has come to him from the writing of books is understood to be invested in securities.

Neither does George Barr McCutchen go in for really holdings. Rare books, oil paintings and automobiles are the things that he chiefly delights in, and they represent a very considerable part of his worldly possessions. He is an enthusiastic collector. Among his books are a good many first editions of English and American authors, while his gallery of paintings includes several of the modern Dutch school, an Israeli, Boshom, De Rock, Welsch, and others—several of the French school—Harquies, Jules Dupre, Diaz and Schreyer, to mention a number of Americans. He likes the city as a place to live and work in, and the country has most charm for him when seen from a touring car.

Good deal of his time, and, therefore, it follows, of his money is devoted to his favorite sport of automobile driving.

The Plantation That "Hot Corn" Bought.

The authors of some of the books that had phenomenal sales forty or fifty years ago had much the same liking for real estate that their successors of today have.

There are not many people today, probably who remember reading "Hot Corn." It was a best seller in its time, which was some fifty years ago. Its author was Solon Robinson, a native of the Nutmeg state, who had a curious career. He learned and followed the carpenter's trade, but finding that indoor life did not agree with his health, gave it up and turned peddler. He traveled about among the farmers of Connecticut, and being of an observing turn of mind, he took to writing sketches about what he saw on his travels. These sketches found their way into print and they attracted the attention of Horace Greeley, who gave Robinson a place on the staff of the Weekly Tribune. Robinson wrote a number of sketches of things he saw in New York, just as he had about farm life, and one of these, which was called "Hot Corn" caught the popular fancy. He enlarged the sketch and made a book of it and it had a sale of something like 100,000 copies the first year. Robinson bought with the money he made from this book a fruit plantation in Florida.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe was one of the first persons in the North to invest in property in the South after the Civil war. She was the first person of prominence to do so, and her example really started a Southern investment movement in Southern properties. Almost immediately after the close of the war, she bought an orange plantation in Florida, chiefly because she thought the Florida climate would be beneficial to her son, who had been severely wounded in battle. For a good many years she and her family spent their winters on this Florida plantation.

E. P. Roe, whose books had a tremendous vogue in the generation ago, bought a fruit farm on the Hudson river in the neighborhood where he has a place to live and work in, and the country has most charm for him when seen from a touring car.

Good deal of his time, and, therefore, it follows, of his money is devoted to his favorite sport of automobile driving.

The late F. Marion Crawford invested his first large earnings in a beautiful Italian estate, which he made his home for many years.

SHE COULD CHEW.

Los Angeles Times: "Things look pretty bad," said James J. Corbett, the ex-champion, the day after the fight at Reno. "There will soon be another man, though, to fill Jim Jeffries' boots. I am a confirmed optimist."

The handsome pugilist put on his sparkling vaudeville manner. "Oh, yes," he said, "I am as optimistic as the old lady who mumbled over her crust and water in the poorhouse: 'I've a lot to be thankful for. I've two teeth left, and they're opposite each other!'"

The farmer and his wife were about to sit down to a cold supper when they saw some old friends driving towards the house.

The good wife was equal to the occasion—thanks to her New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

She had it lit in a moment, and her guests hardly were seated on the porch before a hearty hot meal was ready for the table—sausages and eggs and long rashers of streaky bacon, and rolls crisped in the oven and fresh coffee—and the hostess herself as cool and neat as if she had not been near the kitchen.

She never could have managed it with an old-fashioned range. The New Perfection is the quickest, most convenient and best cooker on the market.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with blue porcelain enamel chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

CLEVELAND CLUB WINS

Has Best Score in Play for Tom Morris Trophy.

Northland Country Club and Others Handicapped By Weather.

Chicago, June 17.—The Country club of Cleveland, with a score of nineteen down on par, unofficially was announced the winner of the seventy-three teams entered in the Tom Morris memorial trophy competition yesterday. The official result of the match will not be determined until records of all games have been received and examined by officers of the Western Golf association here.

More than a score of the teams entered were prevented from playing by the rain, a downpour extending from the Great Lakes to the Rocky mountains. Many clubs, on the other hand, disregarded the storm and played the match through in the rain. The rain is given as the reason for the comparatively high scores of many of the clubs.

The Oakmont Country club of Pittsburgh, winner of the trophy in 1910 and considered to be a likely contender in yesterday's contest, proved unable to compete with the Cleveland club, finishing 79 down.

The Denver Country club, winner in 1909, the Los Angeles Country club and the Lamington Golf club of Toronto, Canada, all of which were thought to have a strong chance of winning, played on slow grounds, owing to the weather, and their scores were considerably higher than the winning club.

The Exmoor Country club of Chicago was Cleveland's nearest rival with 23 holes down, the Portsmouth, Ohio, club was third with 28, next the Skokie Country club of Chicago with 35.

The Tom Morris trophy contest is an annual event of 18 holes against the official par of the various courses and was open to all clubs of the Western Golf association and played by chosen teams of eight amateur members.

On June 18, the anniversary of the birthday of Tom Morris, who died at St. Andrews, Scotland, in 1908, the trophy was given by Peter Dawson of Glasgow, Scotland.

The winning club retains ownership of the trophy for one year. It must be won by a team of five consecutive years before it will become the property of the club.

The individual scores of the clubs follow:

Country Club of Cleveland, 19 down.
Exmoor Country club, Chicago, 23.
Skokie Country club, Chicago, 35.
Westward Ho, Chicago, 40.
Jackson Park Golf club, Chicago, 47.
Wheaton Golf club, Chicago, 54.
Normandie Golf club, St. Louis, 51.
Rockford Golf club, Rockford, Ill., 55.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 17.—Miss Florence Sutton of Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday afternoon beat Miss Eleanor Sears of Boston, Mass., in the final round for the women's national lawn tennis championship. The scores were 6-2, 6-1.

Today Miss Sutton will meet in the challenge round Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of Berkeley, Cal., the present national champion.

TEXAS MAN HIGH GUN AT TOURNAMENT.

Chicago, June 17.—F. W. McNair of Boston, Texas, with a score of 142 out of a possible 150 targets, was high among the amateurs yesterday in the Chicago Gun Club tournament. Jesse Young of Chicago was second with 141, while W. F. Raup of Portage, Wis., and J. B. Graham of Ingleside tied for third with 140. Among the professionals, C. C. Spencer of St. Louis was high with 140.

SOME HYDROPHOBICS--BY THE DOG

A NUMBER OF YOUNG PEOPLE CAME OVER TO DULUTH THIS WEEK TO ATTEND THE BASEBALL CARNIVAL. A PLEASANT TIME WAS HAD BY ALL.

TURN ON THE WATER, DEAR GRANDPA WAS A SAILOR.

MR. BILL YARD, HALL SAYS: "I PROPOSE TO INTRODUCE AN ORDINANCE TO CLOSE ALL STORES ON EVERY AFTERNOON FROM 2 TO 6 BECAUSE IT INTERFERES WITH THE BALL GAMES."

I DON'T SEE WHY THEY WANT SO MANY LIGHTS AROUND THE TENNIS COURT AT NIGHT.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE TIME TO GO OVER TO THE BOAT CLUB FOR DINNER, TRY THE ABOVE SCHEME OF EATING IN THE KITCHEN--IT WON'T WORK.

TOLEDO-ST. PAUL, LOUISVILLE-MILWAUKEE GAMES POSTPONED ON ACCOUNT OF RAIN.

LARRY IS LAST OF GREAT CROWD

Now that it is reported that Napoleon Lajoie, owing to an injury received on the field, may never be able to play again it is remembered that Larry is the last of the great Philadelphia team got together by the late Harry Wright. It was a great team of hitters that Wright rounded up for the Phillies in the early 90s.

The catchers, Jim Clemente and Lave Cross, were also .350 sluggers. The outfielders, were also .350 sluggers. Bill Douglas, Larry Lajoie, Joe Sulist, and Bill Hallman composed the infield.

While Billy Hallman was playing second base for the team Lajoie covered first base. Hallman was the weakest hitter on the club. The other infielders were all smashing hitters. When Jack Taylor was pitching for the club every man on the team hit over .300.

The year Harry Diddleback managed the Browns for Chris Von der Ahe and Ben M. Enos, Theodore Breitenstein almost pitched a no-hit game against the hard-hitting Phillies. The score was 1 to 0 in the last half of the ninth.

LANGFORD TOYS WITH CAPONI

Chicago Italian Has No Chance Against Stocky Negro Fighter.

Winnipeg, Man., June 17.—Sam Langford of Boston had all the better of a ten-round bout with Tony Caponi of Chicago last night. Under the laws of Canada, no decision is permitted.

Caponi never had a chance against the bulky form of Langford, but the negro seldom opened up and, outside of a few body blows, he landed few punches that bothered the Boston man.

In the seventh Langford started out as if he meant business. After landing a few telling blows the police pulled the gong and spoiled the only bit of work which promised to be interesting. Langford really never let out during the ten rounds.

After this round the negro only sparred and practically made a joke of it by making fancy dodges and swings which were not altogether appreciated by the crowd. The Italian, who was knocked out, the Italian yelled for a knockout. The Italian yelled for a knockout. The Italian yelled for a knockout.

In the preliminary Mike Gibbons of St. Paul forced Joe Wilson of Kentucky, a negro, to quit in the eighth round of a scheduled ten-round bout.

"KING KEL" NEVER HAD AN EQUAL

Washington, June 17.—According to Connie Mack there never was a ball player like Mike Kelly, who in his day was known as "King Kel." The greatest character that baseball ever knew, the ablest leader and the most magnetic player was old Mike Kelly.

Nobody before or since ever touched Kel when it came to leadership. Inspiring his men and personally pulling his team out of a hole was his specialty.

"I saw Kel give the greatest exhibition of leadership in Washington that I ever saw before or since. Kel had John Clarkson and Mike, the famous $10,000 beauties, and Boston had a tough fight with New York for the pennant.

"This day Boston was ahead a single run, and with nobody out Clarkson lost control. Everything was in his hands. Kel was playing in right field and the bases were filled. He ran to the bench, where Jim Hart was managing, and yelled: 'Let me get behind the bat.'

"All right," said Hart, "go ahead." Kel stuck on his mask and Charlie Gansel, who was catching, went into right field. He was sore because he had been pulled from behind the plate, but he took it and went into the field. Tom Daly was at the bat. Kelly did not catch.

"He had two balls on him when Kel came to catch. He struck out. Another fellow came to the bat. Kelly gave the signals and nursed Clarkson along. That fellow fanned. Kelly's dummy was the third fellow to come to the plate. He popped up a little foul to Kel. That was what Kelly did. He inspired the team, he always made them stiffen up and play.

"So he was the hardest man in the world at life saving. I never was so sore in my life as one day when I was catching, and I had that ball to throw a second time in front of me. 'Watch it,' he yelled in his umpire, and I'll be hanged if he didn't stick around that base and wait for me. No man ever lived who could catch the signals of the other fellows like Kel. When I worked with Jim Whitney, he gave all the signals. He didn't throw a ball unless I signaled for it. You can believe me or not, but Kel got wise to every sign that we had. I could nab the other fellows on the team, but Kel, who got wise when Jim was going to pitch, would steal third on us right along.

"And tricks. Why Kel lived on tricks. He could think in half a second. One day in Pittsburgh with Red Evers pitching, we had Boston 2-0 in the ninth. Evers got fooling with Kel, sticking up soft ones for him to hit. But Kel wouldn't pull at the easy ones. He would hit the ball and he would hit it so that he hit one foul, low and passed another, and the sacks were filled.

"Bobby Lowe came to the bat and he laced one down into right field that Patsy Donovan had to scramble to get back. Now watch Kelly.

"Mike didn't hustle home. Not on your life. He timed the play. He just walked along down the line with two men right at his back. He didn't reach for the plate, when Kel, timing the ball, got to the plate. He gave me the knee, knocked me sprawling on my face, and the three men scored.

"The umpire didn't see it. I knew that. The spectators were not wise. It was done so slick. That gave them three runs instead of two and when Bobby Lowe scored a little later it made four, and that's what they beat us 4-2—with everybody cursing Evers for fooling with Kel.

"He was the most wonderful ball player that ever lived and it was just such stunts that made Kel the great fellow that he was."

RACING PROGRAM AT THE BOAT CLUB.

There will be a number of attractive races at the Boat club this afternoon. The first and second eights will race over the mile and a half course. The bantam and junior fours will also compete over the full regatta distance. In addition to these two races there will be a meeting between two lapstrack crews.

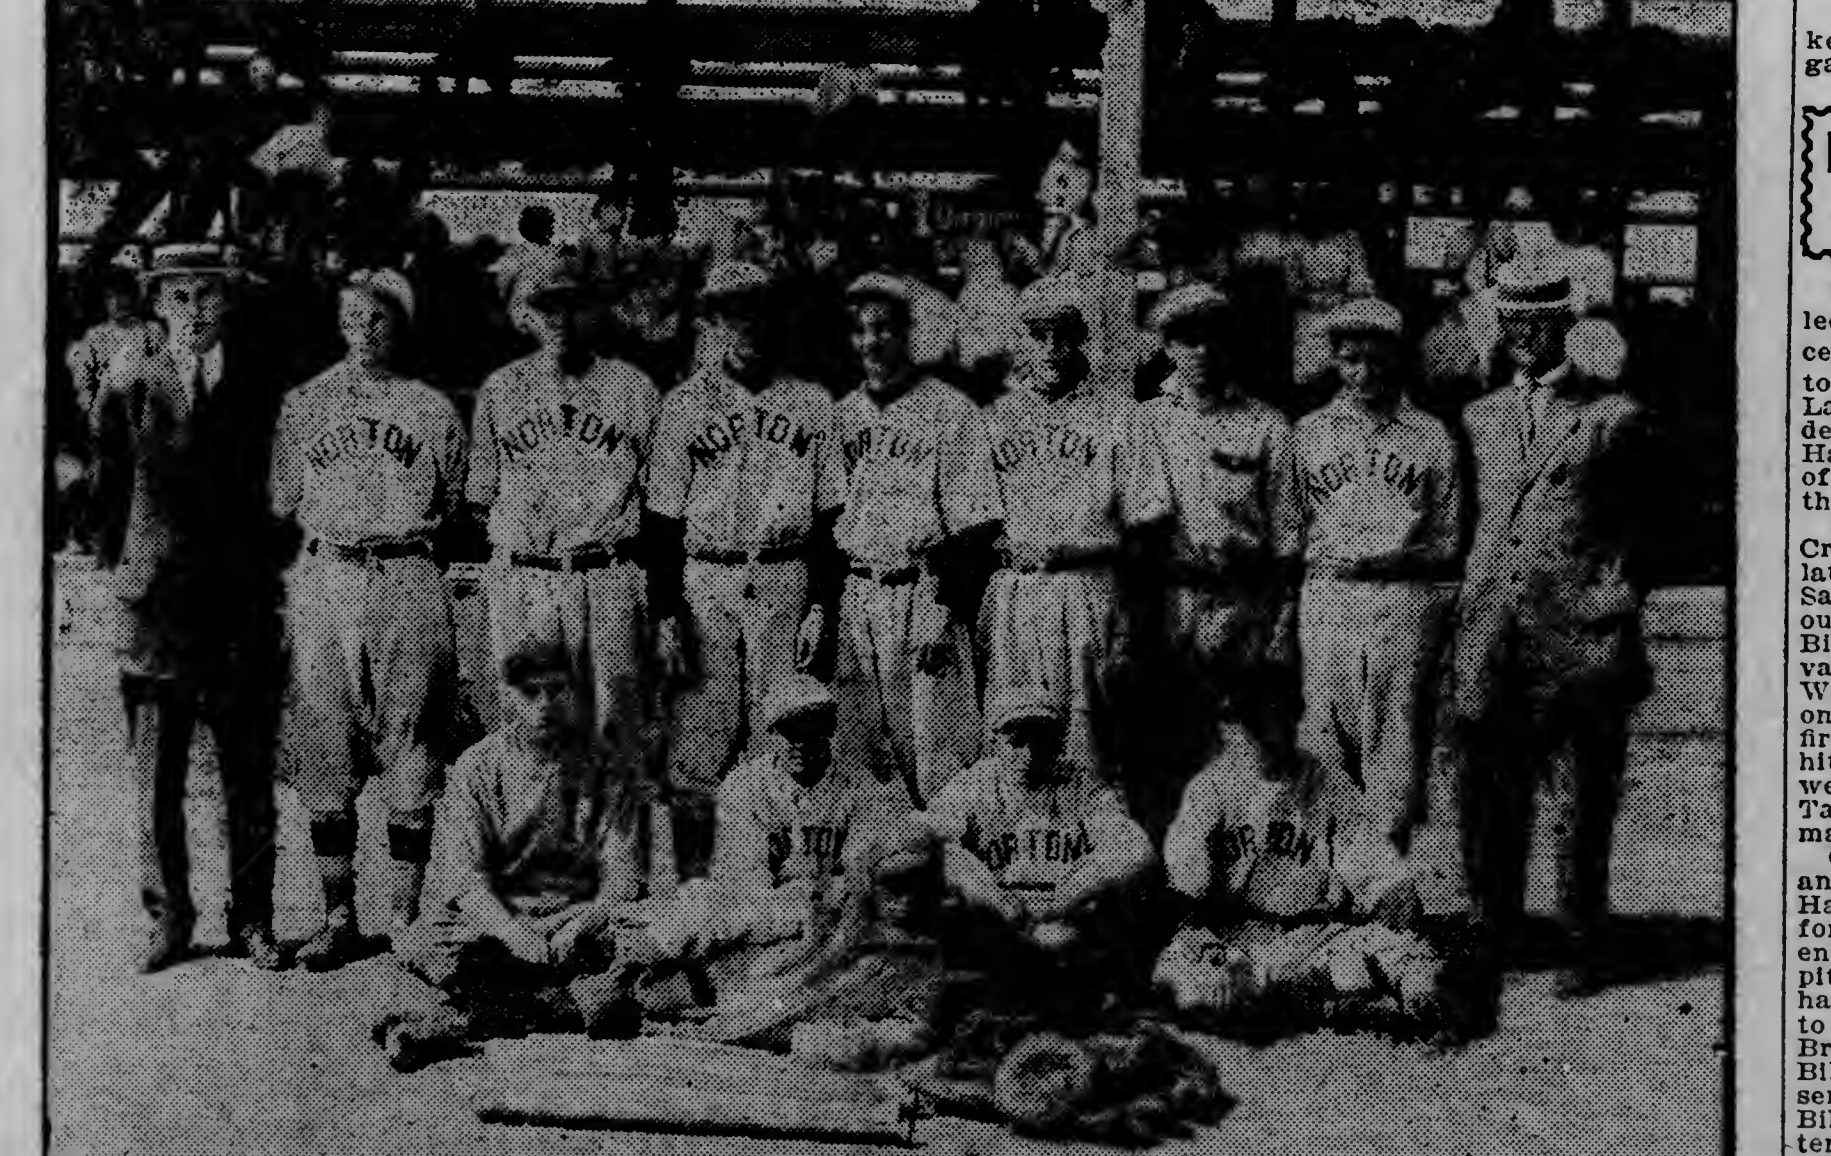

The sailing department has also its first races of the season planned. There will be a race in the 15-foot class and in the special 22-foot class, which is for the club boats sailed by the younger members of the club.

MANY ATHLETES ARE ENTERED IN EVENTS.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—Fifty Middle Western athletes will compete here this afternoon in the Western Athletic Union championship games to be held under the auspices of the Kansas City A. C. The contest, it is expected, will be mainly between the Kansas City A. C. and the Missouri A. C. of St. Louis, which has ten men entered. Several star athletes from the universities of Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska are entered, most of them running under the colors of the Kansas City A. C. A team from the Kansas City Y. M. C. A. will compete.

THAT'S WHAT HE WANTED.

THE girl who filled his order for ice-cream merely glanced at his face and noticed that it carried a lonesome look. When he ordered a second dish she merely thought to herself that he was cooling off. The order for the third dish rather surprised her, and at the fourth she ventured to say:

"You must love ice-cream?"

"Oh, no," he replied as he finished the last of it and called for a fifth.

It was when he was eating his seventh that the girl went to the manager about it, and the manager came and said:

"Don't you know that one can eat too much ice-cream?"

"Yes, sir."

"I have seen people die of it."

"Sure?"

"Certainly. You see—"

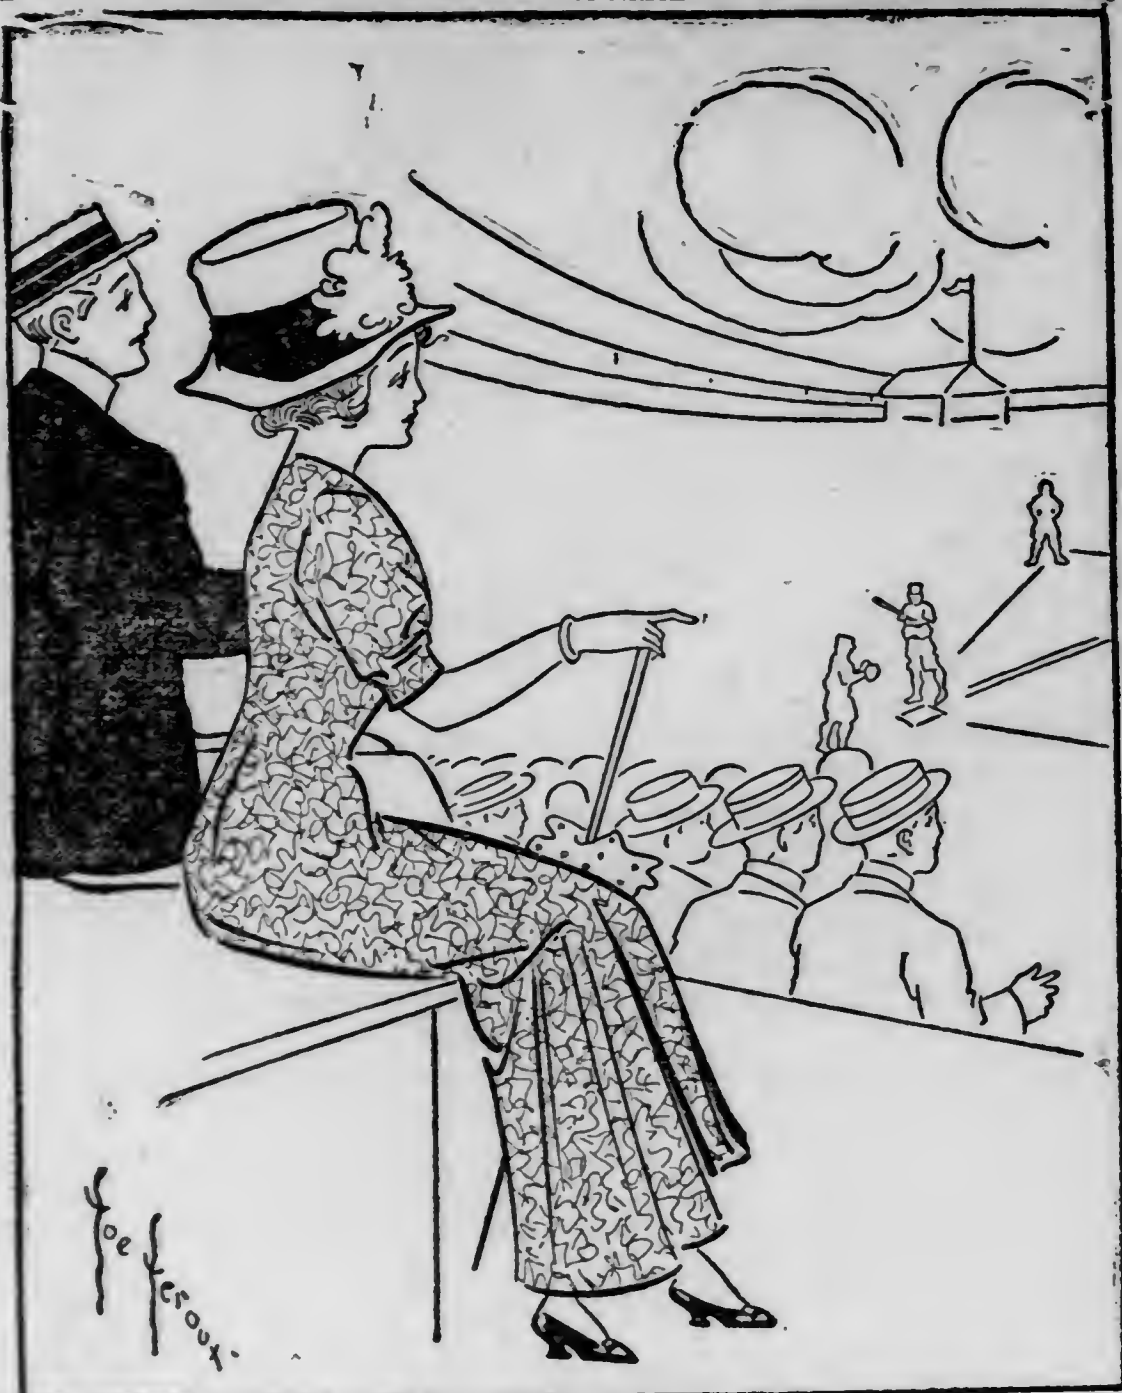

"Bring on the eighth dish. That's what I came in here for—to commit suicide! Heap it up and don't be stingy!"

JOE KERR.

THE WAY SHE CURED HIM.

Mrs. Oldwed—Does your husband still talk about his mother's cooking?

Mrs. Newwed—Not since I invited her to come and spend a week with us and let her do the cooking.

NEW TO THE GAME.

Oh, isn't the man that throws the ball on your side, just splendid? Think so?

Yes, he sends it so they hit it every time.

TWO OF 'EM.

He—You certainly are a little goose.

She—Well, I'll admit I've led you a wild goose chase all right.

Summer Girl

WHEN memory climbs the upward grade
And cattle seek the grateful shade,
Then, cool as dewdrop in the glade,
She smiling comes—the summer maid.

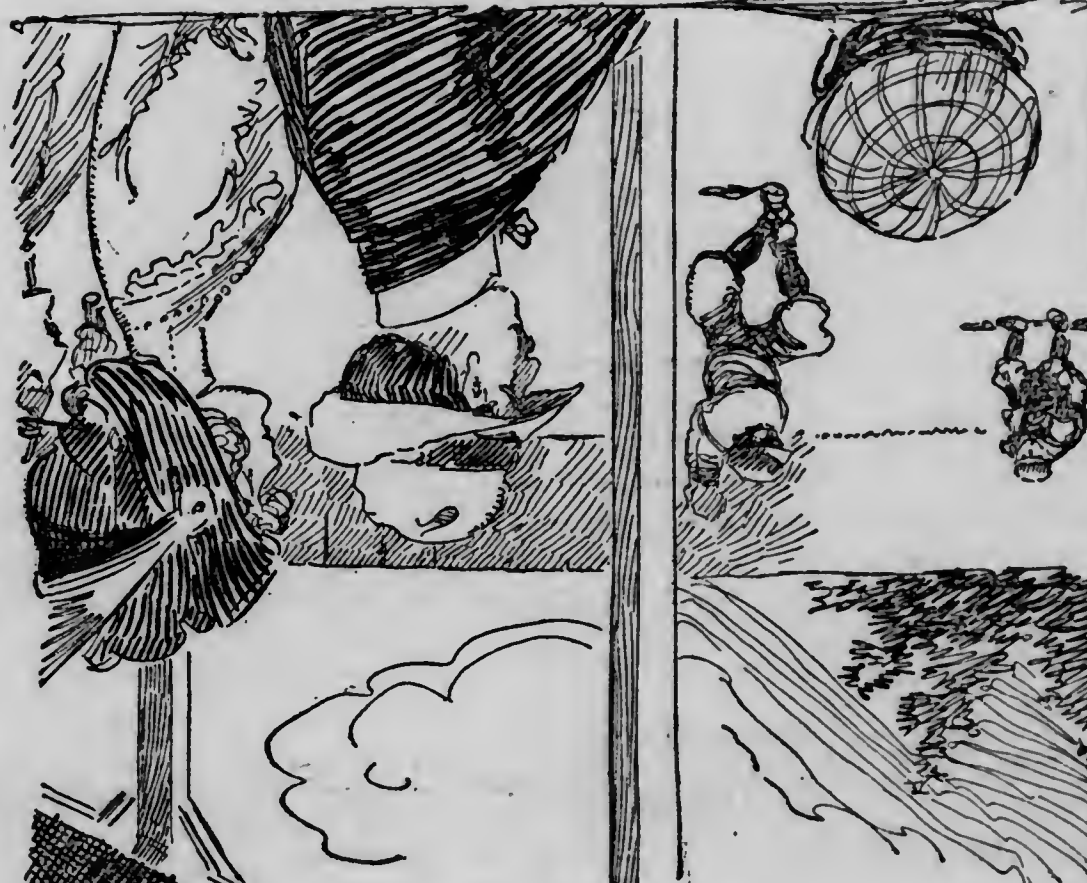

NOR heat nor dust nor glare we met
And wilt this maid—she heeds them not—
And when weak man is almost parched
She still in sweetly calm and starchy
A vision of coolness in lawn arrayed,
She greets our eye—the summer maid.

DIVIDED.

That pretty girl fell off the pier yesterday. Accidentally?

Opinion is divided on that point.

PROBABLY.

I think women would like baseball if they could enjoy it as they do a book.

How is that?

What Ails the Country.

BURGLARS complain that receipts have fallen off thirty per cent. in the last year.

Horse thieves are a unit in saying that there are no longer any horses worth stealing, and that farmers who used to sleep like logs are now sitting up with shot-guns across their knees.

Bank burglars used to make the tour of Europe every year, but for the last two seasons they have not been able to even occupy rooms at the seashore.

The Chicago Beef Trust is offering five hundred dollars reward for an excuse to raise the price of meats again, but nobody responds.

Grocers declare that as they can no longer get five cents apiece for cucumbers and tomatoes the business of the country is at a stand still.

Confidence men in convention last week were unanimous in saying that the scarcity of suckers was making this country a place no longer worth living in.

Wall Street is asking what has become of all the lambs?

Mining promoters are agreed that all the fools in the United States must have been taken into asylums.

It has got so that a decent pick-pocket can no longer patronize the first-class hotels nor wear diamonds, and from every corner of the land comes the query: "Whither are we drifting and what is to be done?"

JOE KERR.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN.

"So Peckly has gone into nervous prostration as to where to spend his vacation?"

"Yes, and on top of that his wife gave him a piece of lavender dress goods to match. That was his finish!"

Wayside Wisdom.

Brass is a poor substitute for brains.

The greatness of a man's sorrows is known by his sighs.

In the eyes of the modern reformer, whatever is, is wrong.

Cremation is the burn from which no traveler ever returns.

It is easy to believe that a rich young woman is beautiful.

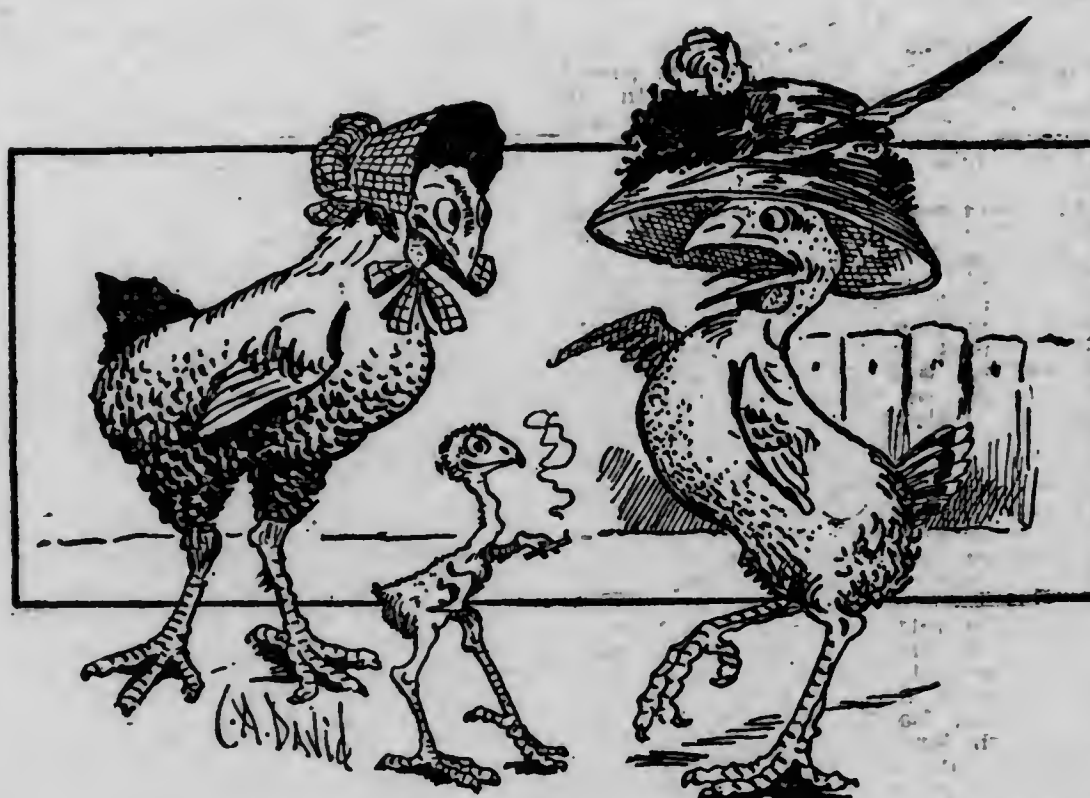

Heroes can be safely forgotten after their monuments have been erected.

You never really find a man out till you find the hours when he is in.

The milkman's pump is a well spring of pleasure, but not a fountain of honor.

NOT HIS FAULT.

Mrs. Hen—This boy of yours used the most shocking language in my presence. I want him punished severely.

Indignant Mother—Madam, you should pity the poor child—not blame him. He can't help it. He was hatched from a bad egg.

Only Two Kinds.

I SUPPOSE you see lots of human nature here?" he said to the clerk who had exchanged a glass of soda water for his check.

"No, sir, I don't," was the prompt reply.

"Why, I should think it would be a great place for that."

"No, sir. We never see but two phases of human nature here. A man comes in and calls for what he wants—drinks it—wipes his mouth on his hand—says it's a hot day, and off he goes."

"And the women?"

"Well, I've been here five seasons, and I have never seen one get away from the counter in less than twenty minutes. They change their minds three and four times about the syrups. They sit down. They wait for the froth to settle. They lick the spoon before using it. They hold arguments. When they can no longer find excuse for tarrying they get up grudgingly and wish they had taken something different from what they did."

"But after all they are good patrons," said the interrogator.

"Oh, yes. About three out of five try to carry their checks off with them for use another time, and those who have to hand over tell us that somebody else's soda water is twice as good as ours!"

JOE KERR.

FOR PROMENADE PURPOSES. Why do you insist that fancy bathing suits ought to be encouraged? Because they tend to prevent people from going into the water, where they might be drowned.

THE OTHER SIDE.

"I see you employ a number of old men."

"I do."

"How old are they?"

"Too old to be interested in canoeing or mandolins, or race horses, or girls, or tennis. That makes 'em fine for work."

The June Bride.

IT was in mid-July of last year. Coming suddenly upon her daughter and finding her in tears, the fond mother had asked:

"Estelle, what harrows your heart? Do not fear to tell your mother all."

"It is, mother, that he cometh not," was the reply.

"You mean that you are discouraged about getting married?"

"T-yes."

"But you needn't be. He will come in due time."

"So will death!"

"Well, if you feel that way about it we must hurry things up a bit. Get on your hat, my dear, and go forth to the swamp to gather huckleberries. I will let our tame bear loose at the proper moment."

"Thank you mother. You are the best mother in the world."

Three-quarters of an hour later, at the huckleberry swamp, a bear rushes into sight. A maiden's screams awake the echoes. A young man passing along the highway in his auto hears the racket and rushes to the rescue. Bear is licked to a frazzle and the maiden rescued. Love at first sight. More love at second and third sights. Will you be mine? I will.

And among the very, very happy June brides is Estelle. And among the proud and happy mothers is her own. And among the grinning, winking tame bears is that of her father's, who scratches his left ear with his right hind-paw and whispers to himself:

"When you want to hurry things up get a bear to do it!"

IRON RIVER

Iron River, Wis., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dates for the Mayfield county fair have been announced as Sept. 18 and 19, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Iron River team returned from Hibbing Monday evening, where they were scheduled to play two games with the fast Hibbing team. The game Saturday was won by Hibbing by a score of 9 to 4. The second game, to be called off on account of rain, will be played on Sunday.

The Iron River team expects to go to Hibbing for a series of games later in the season.

The Farmers' Produce exchange held a meeting last Monday and heard a report of the committee appointed to select a site for the potato warehouse. The committee selected a site at the foot of George street, between the Northern Pacific and the Duluth tracks and are now endeavoring to get a lease of the property. The next meeting will be held at the town hall next Saturday morning.

The Alborn baseball team will play the Iron River team on local grounds next Sunday.

ALL ABOARD FOR DULUTH

Inhabitants of Sizzling Cities Showing Gleams of Wisdom.

Suggestion to Little Willie to Make Some Spending Money.

The Duluth Commercial club is receiving inquiries from all over the country for accommodations in Duluth during the summer months. One letter arrived today from a Milwaukee man, who intended sending his wife and children to a lake resort farther south than Duluth. Hearing of Duluth's cool weather, he has changed his plans and the family will come to Duluth for the summer. He wanted to know of some pleasant place where they may stay.

A woman writes from Blomark, N. D., that she will enjoy the Lake Superior breezes in July and August. She also would like to arrange for accommodations. Similar letters are arriving daily and the commercial club is hard pressed to supply the accommodations desired in all cases.

Which leads to the suggestion that sleeping out of doors is very healthful during the summer months and if father and mother will allow Little Willie to put a tent in the back yard and use it for sleeping quarters, Little Willie's room will bring a good round sum in rental for the summer.

A summer hotel would be a gold mine in Duluth, and anybody living near a lake and having a room to rent is losing money daily by not notifying the commercial club of the fact. The commercial club is the best place to get the most for the least and Duluth is beginning to come into its own as a summer resort.

It is very probable that another year will not go by without a good summer hotel being erected in the city. The need for it was never so evident as it is this year and some man with vision and a knowledge of such matters will be sure to build it within a year or two.

Speaking of advertising, C. P. How, Jr., has a rubber stamp produced with the inscription, "The Finest Summer Climate on the Lake Superior Coast."

Min., and all his business correspondence carries the stamp. Other Duluth people may wish to do the same. Mr. How says he has no copyright on it.

Will Meet Here Next Year. The Minnesota Association of the Deaf, which closed its biennial convention at Fairbault yesterday, will meet in Duluth in 1912. Jay Cooke Howard, who attended the convention this year, extended an invitation to the association to meet in Duluth next year and it was accepted.

Had His Clothes. Lena Peterson was arrested this morning by Capt. Flakett and Detective Terry on a charge of having received stolen property. She asked for an examination, which was set for Thursday morning. It appears that while walking along Lake avenue a dress Anderson, the thief making his getaway. Anderson followed him to the home of the Peterson woman and then informed the police of the circumstances. The suit was valued at $15.

Magazine Writer to Visit Tower. Jerome Curtis, a magazine writer and book writer, is in the city and will go to the tower, where he has rented a cottage. After his stay there he will return East and will write up an article about this country. During his stay there he will have a party of twenty-four come up and spend some time with him.

COASTWISE STRIKE

MAY BECOME GENERAL.

New York, June 17.—Fifty stokers of the steamship Monius, plying between New York and New Orleans in the marine department of the Southern Pacific railroad, struck today. They said they would take forty others with them and the $400,000 worth of coal and passengers would follow the forty.

Organizers of the coastwise seamen have said that they control between 15,000 and 20,000 men and that a general strike order, if obeyed, would stop all coastwise shipping. The general situation will not take form until Sunday, when a mass meeting of the International Seamen's Union of America will be held.

WILL SHOW, WON'T SHOW

Circus Question Is Brought to Head at Meeting Before Mayor.

Business Men and Circus Agents Seem to Be Equally Determined.

"We are going to show in Duluth on Saturday, July 1," was the substance of the statement of representatives of Barnum & Bailey to a group of business men in the office of Mayor M. B. Cullum this morning.

"We will fight you to the last ditch. We will exert every means within our power to prevent the Barnum & Bailey circus from appearing in Duluth on that date," said Mr. Cullum.

The meeting this morning brought the rather uncertain proposition to a head. The indications are now that the result of the controversy will rest with the courts, for both sides will demand for victory, as it is there is no chance that either side will give up.

The outcome will be extremely interesting, as the situation at the present time has excited the interest of the entire city. In the street cars, on the hotel lobbies, and in fact everywhere, the common query is, "Will the circus show in Duluth on Saturday before the Fourth?" Everybody is taking sides, either with the business men or with the circus.

The question, "Will it or will it not?" that is the question, to resort to an old phrase, "The business men assert that they are within their rights in trying to keep the circus out of Duluth on that day. They are placing the situation on a purely business basis. They say that the circus will not take form until Sunday, when a mass meeting of the International Seamen's Union of America will be held."

While stating that the management of the circus did not wish to arouse the world to appear antagonistic or aggressive on their part, Mr. Cullum stated that it was simply a case of having made the date, of having no place to show that day, and of showing here or losing a lot of money.

"Here we are up against it. We will have to either show in Duluth on the first of July or not show at all that day. We do not wish in the least to arouse the ire or resentment of any of the citizens or business men of this city. On the other hand we believe that we have rights in the matter and propose to get these rights, if possible."

DENY DUMAS HIS FREEDOM

Officers Refuse to Let Accused Man Go About Streets.

Warrant for His Arrest Sworn Out By Sam Fullerton.

Bemidji, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mayor Dumas, arrested this morning as a member of a gang of crackmen, yesterday evening denied the charges against him. He said that he was not a crackman, and that he was not a member of the gang. He said that he was a legitimate business man, and that he was not involved in any criminal activity.

The warrant was sworn out by Sam Fullerton, assistant state marshal, and which charged a conspiracy to defraud the city of Bemidji. The warrant was for the arrest of Dumas and his associates.

The warrant does not charge the crime of robbery, it was suggested to the police. "Well, if we had written down all the charges against him, we would have had enough paper to fill a barrel," was the reply.

INDIANS ARE NOT PLEASED

Grand Portage Chippewas Oppose Sanitarium at Walker.

Send Bitter Opposition Statement to Representative Miller.

Washington, June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Clarence E. Miller is preparing a bill carrying an appropriation of $100,000 to provide a tuberculosis sanitarium for the Chippewa Indians, to be located at Walker, Minn. The money will be taken from the fund to the credit of the Chippewas now in the United States treasury.

It is said that the Chippewas are opposed to the enactment of the bill, which will introduce a new sanitarium at Walker. They are said to be opposed to spending any more money out of the tribal funds for a tuberculosis sanitarium, or in fact for any other purpose.

This Grand Portage branch of the Chippewas thus petitions Representative Miller in opposition to a further expenditure of tribal funds.

"Having no complaint called to the proposition now before congress to build a $100,000 tuberculosis sanitarium for the Chippewas, Indians of Minnesota, and being told that this hospital will not be built except upon the request of the Indians, we, Grand Portage reservation Indians, have received to say to our congressmen that we do not join in any request for such an enterprise."

FIVE SUPERIOR STREET DEALS ARE UNDER WAY

Promising Outlook for Renewed Activity in Central Business Property.

Interest in Outlying Lots and Acres Continues Unabated.

According to statements from members of one of Duluth's largest real estate offices, deals are now pending for the sale of five properties on Superior street. Negotiations have been under way for some time, and it is understood that these may be closed during the coming week.

Offers were received yesterday by the firm from outside parties for two superior street properties, which are said to be acceptable to the present owners, and the deals may be closed Monday. As regards the other three, the differences between sellers and prospective buyers are said to be small, and some agreement will undoubtedly be made.

These five deals are the only ones which have been under way for central Superior street property. There has been a general lull in this class of business, but with the probable change of ownership of these properties, business in Superior street property may be increased during the summer.

Two of the premises under consideration are east of Lake avenue while the others west. All are improved with big business blocks, occupied by high-class business firms.

The biggest transfer made this week was the sale of the McFarlane property, located on the northwest corner of Ninth avenue east and Superior street, described as lots 8 to 16 inclusive, block 12, Portland division, by Thomas F. Cole to the Kitchi Gami club. The consideration given is $42,000. It is said that this property is worth more than this, but that Mr. Cole had purchased it six years ago with the view of holding it for the club, and that he realized little on the transaction. This is to be improved by the club with a $250,000 club house, plans for which are being prepared by Gram, Goodhue & Fox.

W. M. Prindle & Co. report considerable activity in the purchase of small acreage tracts about the outskirts of the city. Many sales were closed during the past week for property in Crocker Park. Tomorrow this company will conduct a sale in Kenilworth park, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. There are only a few parcels of land left there, and these will probably be taken up tomorrow.

N. J. Upham & Co. report an increased activity in the sale of lands in Woodland and on the Duluth Heights. During this week they sold sixteen tracts in Woodland and six lots at the Heights, while many deals were closed for the Home Acres, also on the Heights.

This firm also reports that the deal for the purchase of the P. Hand property, described as lots 15 and 16, block 126, Portland division by Dr. G. F. Stack of Independence, Wis., was closed this week, the consideration being $2,000.

The new railroad to be built from the Duluth Heights to the Bronck-Scanlon road, by the Suburban Tracton company, which was incorporated during the past week, with N. J. Upham, T. F. Upham and A. A. Fider as incorporators, means much for the development of the land in that vicinity. It is stated by the incorporators that work will be started soon on this road and that it will be rushed to completion. Many acre plots have been sold in this section, and it is believed that with the coming of the road the sale of lands will be greatly increased and the property raised in value.

Two sales are going on this afternoon of property on Bay View Heights and at Proctor, and the companies carrying on the sales have many prospective buyers there.

T. W. Cullen of West Duluth has many tracts of land near Bay View Heights which he is showing there today, the sales having started at 2 o'clock. The parcels of land are within ten minutes' walk of the belt line, and are said to be excellent garden tracts.

D. W. Scott & Co. are also conducting a sale. This firm has many acre tracts in the Scott Division to Proctor, which were placed on sale this afternoon. They ran a special train from the Union station over the Duluth, Massena and Northern, which was filled to its capacity with men interested in the land for sale.

The Highland company reports that there are now under way deals for the sale of sixteen lots in the Highland division on the Duluth Heights, which will probably be closed next week. The inquiries are coming in fast these days, and the prospects are looking better than ever.

C. P. Craig & Co. sold four five-acre tracts during the past week near Woodland, and reports that many others are under consideration, the closing of which are expected during the coming week.

The Lakeside Land company reports the sale of the northeast corner of Pitt street and Forty-eighth avenue east to George Sternberg for $100, upon which Mr. Sternberg will build a residence for himself.

This company also sold a lot on the upper side of Glenwood street, between Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth avenue east to R. E. Clyde, for $725. Mr. Clyde will build this fall.

E. R. Artman has sold to Fannie R. Smith, lot 4 block 34, Second Glen Avon division for $6,000.

The Stein-O'Rourke Investment company purchased lots 32 and 33, block 36, Gary first division from A. C. Volk & Co. for $2,000.

J. T. Michael has closed a deal with John T. Stack for the sale of his property described as lot 41, East First street, Duluth, property, first division, for $9,000.

Theodore Rud sold to Michael Cudry the southerly 40 feet of lot 331 and the southerly 40 feet of the southerly 40 feet of lot 332, for $9,000.

HOLLOW TILE HOUSE NOW COSTS BUT LITTLE MORE THAN FRAME BUILDING

ANTHONY PUCK & HOLSTEAD ARCHTS.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN: SECOND FLOOR PLAN:

A gratifying and prominent development in American house building has been the desire to build in a more substantial and permanent manner. The difference in cost between a frame building and one of substantial masonry has been so considerable in the past that very few people could afford the better class of construction. Even those that could afford it were not without good reasons for preferring a wooden house. Americans were forced by the presence of constantly changing conditions to make their arrangements very much for the present and very little for the future.

They never knew what a few years might bring by way of a change in economic and social conditions and they had no assurance that their children would care to carry on their business or to live in their houses. During the last few years, however, a change has undoubtedly taken place for the better, primarily because of the methods and materials used in the construction, becoming cheaper as the demand grew. It can now be estimated that a hollow tile house without rough cast finish as shown in the above illustration can be built for a comparatively low cost over its frame predecessor and must save in upkeep and insurance many times the difference in cost. The plan of the house shows another solution to the small house problem, which, with its varying and ever changing conditions as to aspect, accommodation, size of rooms, lighting, etc., can only suggest one more solution to a home builder with any definite ideas of his or her own. The finish of halls, living room and dining room is in oak wood and the bedrooms in white enamel. Such a house will cost to build inclusive of heating and plumbing $4,900 in Duluth or vicinity.

Discussion of Educational Work Occupies Synod During Morning.

Delegates Will Preach in Many Duluth Churches Sunday.

Rev. Joseph A. Anderson of Boone, Iowa, president of the Iowa conference of Swedish Lutheran churches and H. A. Hagerberg of Duluth, Ill., a member of the Denkan family, which donated the $200,000 library to Augustana college at Rock Island, Ill., were named as two of the four-year term directors of the synod. The morning session was given over to the discussion of the educational work of the synod. The afternoon session was given over to the discussion of the financial condition of the synod. The synod decided that the treasurer of each conference should be held responsible for the handling of the funds. The synod also decided that the financial condition of the synod should be reported to the synod at the annual meeting. NOTED SWINDLER LANDED IN CELL

Herbert F. Robinson Finally Taken to Still-water.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Before the sun sets tonight, Herbert F. Robinson, known to secret service men as a "high pitch" man, will be behind the bars at Stillwater to begin serving a sentence of two years, imposed by Judge Morris in the United States district court at Minneapolis three years ago.

Robinson was brought to St. Paul today from Canada by Special Agents Henry Dotzert and G. C. Crawford of the Department of Justice, who, with Special Agent Amos Poulton, have been on his trail since he forfeited his $10,000 bond in 1908.

Robinson was indicted in 1908 on a charge of fraudulent use of the mails, his scheme being a brokerage business and sending out "come on" letters. He headed a company known as E. A. Vaughn & Co. The office was raided by the officers, who found $600 of the "come on" letters there, and Robinson later admitted that he had secured about $100,000 in thirty days out of his scheme.

Officers of the department of justice found him living in elegant style in Montreal. His case was not extraditable, but the department secured his deportation as an undesirable alien by showing up his record. Robinson sued out a writ of habeas corpus, but the Montreal judge found he had no jurisdiction.

RAILROADS TRAINS FOR FISHERMEN

Chicago Anglers Hear the Call of the Trout Streams.

The call of the Northern Wisconsin trout streams is becoming too strong to be resisted by Chicago's fraternity of fishermen, says a Chicago paper, and already the demand for transportation to the fishing grounds for "week-end" vacations has led the Chicago & North Shore railroad to announce three new "fishing trains" which will be put on Sunday and continue throughout the season.

The first will carry through sleepers to Three Lakes, River, Conover, State Line, Watersmeet, Cisco Lake and Gogebic. It will leave Chicago at 8 p. m. and arrive at Cisco Lake at 7 a. m. and at Gogebic at 8 p. m. Another train will carry through sleepers to Rhineland, Tomahawk Lake, Woodville, Lac du Flambeau, Manitowish, Powell, Menomonie and Ashland, leaving Chicago at 6 p. m. and arriving at Ashland at 7 a. m. and at Tomahawk at 8 p. m. A third train will carry through sleepers to Solon Springs, Superior and Duluth, leaving Chicago at 6 p. m. and arriving at Duluth at 7 a. m. and at Superior at 8 p. m.

PACKERS' MOTION ON THEIR INDICTMENTS IS DENIED BY COURT

Armour and Others Are Advanced Nearer to Trial.

Must Face Charge of Violating the Sherman Law.

Chicago, June 19.—Judge George A. Carpenter in the United States district court today denied a motion of J. Ogden Armour and nine other Chicago packers for a rehearing of their motion to quash indictments charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. This means the packers must stand trial.

The packers under indictment and who were moved nearer to trial by the decision today are:

J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co.
Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co.
Edward F. Swift, vice president of Swift & Co.
Charles H. Swift, director of Swift & Co.
Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing Company.
Arthur Meeker, general manager of Armour & Co.
Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co.
Frances A. Fowler, director of Swift & Co.
Thomas J. Connors, superintendent of Armour & Co.
Louis H. Heyman, manager of Morris & Co.

Gave No Reason.
No written opinion has been prepared by Judge Carpenter and he gave no reason for his findings. It is now expected the trial will be reached about next October.

The latest motion of the packers for a rehearing of the motion to quash the indictments was based on recent decisions of the United States

KILLS HIMSELF TO AVOID ARREST

Chicago Bookkeeper Commits Suicide at Bangor, Mich.

Bangor, Mich., June 19.—James Houghy, a Chicago bookkeeper, committed suicide here today by shooting himself, at the home of his wife's father, George Flawson, Houghy, who came here Saturday with his wife, had just learned that Under Sheriff Boutelle had arrived from Pawnee to arrest him on a charge of embezzlement, made by his Chicago employers.

DETROIT WOMEN IN AEROPLANE

Daughters-in-Law of Late Senator Alger Make Trips.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—Two prominent young Detroit women went up as passengers for five-minute flights on an aeroplane today at the Country club at Grosse Pointe. The two passengers were Mrs. Russell A. Alger and Mrs. Fred M. Alger, wives of the two sons of the late United States Senator R. A. Alger.

BONDS SOLD AT PREMIUM

Three Per Cent Issue to Raise Canal Fund Easily Marketed.

Treasury Department Has $240,000,000 That Can Be Sold.

Washington, June 19.—Announcement may be made late today of the investors who bid successfully for the new 3 per cent $50,000,000 Panama loan.

As the tabulating has progressed it has become more apparent that most of the issue will go to individuals, trustees of estates, schools and public institutions, rather than to banks. Treasury officials feel they have been vindicated in their prediction that there was a public demand for a government guaranteed form of investment.

Although the government will realize about $31,200,000 from the sale, that will reimburse the cash drawer for only about a third of what has been advanced for the building of the Panama canal. The proceeds of this loan, however, will strengthen the working

MAN WHO PUT DULUTH ON THE MAP IS DEAD

J. PROCTOR KNOTT.

J. PROCTOR KNOTT DEAD

Man Who Put Duluth On the Map Passes Away.

Last Days Are Spent in Sickness and Partial Blindness.

Lebanon, Ky., June 19.—James Proctor Knott, who made Duluth famous through a speech that yet stands as a masterpiece of satire and humor, died at his home in this city late yesterday afternoon, at the age of 82 years.

For several years he had been enfeebled and partially blind, and his death, following a relapse a week ago, was not unexpected. He served two terms in congress, and had been governor of this state.

James Proctor Knott was born in Washington (now Marion) county, Kentucky, Aug. 29, 1830. He never attended the public schools to any extent, receiving most of his education at home. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1851, and entered upon practice at Memphis, Mo., where he lived until 1862. Meanwhile he was a member of the Missouri legislature and also served that state as attorney general.

Moved to Kentucky.
On leaving Memphis he took up the practice of law in Kentucky, and in 1867 was elected to congress from that state and served one term. In 1872 he was again elected to congress and served one more term, and from 1883 to 1887 he was governor of Kentucky.

During his congressional service he was regarded as one of the ablest speakers on the Democratic side, and it was while speaking against an appropriation for the betterment of harbor and transportation facilities at Duluth that he made his memorable speech, which put that city on the map. In 1885 he was awarded the degree of doctor of laws by Centre College of

JUDGE KINKEAD TO TRY DIEGLE CASE

Affidavit of Bias and Prejudice Knocked Out By Court.

Columbus, Ohio, June 19.—Presiding Judge Goldsberry of the common pleas court of this district today knocked out the affidavit of bias and prejudice filed last week against Judge Kinkead in the bribery case of Rodney J. Diegle. Goldsberry sustains Judge Kinkead as a member of the Missouri legislature and also served that state as attorney general.

ESCAPES WITH FINE

Mail Clerk Confesses and Restores Stolen Property.

Fargo, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—A mail clerk, Paul Engel, mail route clerk on the Soo between Enderlin, N. D., and Portage, N. D., was released in federal court today with $200 fine for failing to file a registered package. The money was in transit from a North Dakota town to the Minneapolis Reserve bank when the theft occurred.

FIND PART OF TAFT FAMILY HUMAN BODY CELEBRATES

First Such Discovery Made in Wreck of the Maine. President and His Wife Keep Their Silver Wedding Day.

Hull of Battleship May Not Be Capable of Floating.

Havana, June 19.—The first human parts to be recovered from the wreck of the American battleship Maine were discovered today when workmen, removing mud and debris from the spar deck just forward of the after superstructure, discovered the blackened and coral-encrusted bones of a left forearm and right foot.

As the remains of the battleship gradually rise like a grim, grey ghost above the slowly lowering level of the turbid waters within the cofferdam, the discoveries are most interesting. A curious relic of the great disaster has been found. The explorers recovered plates and other ware in the officers' quarters. Some were identified later as parts of the dinner service of the captain and wardroom mess. All were in a good state of preservation and were found piled up as they had been left by the stewards after the last dinner.

Hull May Be Damaged.
Sunday afternoon the searchers found on the spar deck, adjacent to the port turret, a small ammunition box, such as is customarily distributed about the decks. This contained an agglomerated mass of six-millimeter cartridge clips for the naval service rifle and a number of short bayonet knives in scabbards. The clips of cartridges were well preserved, but the steel bayonets were reduced to almost unrecognizable masses of rust.

The disintegration of the bayonets is believed to be the result of galvanic action between the steel and the brass cartridge cases in the medium of sea water. This gives rise to speculation regarding the effect of galvanic action on portions still under water, on which depends greatly the

NEARLY $500,000 IN POSTAL BANKS

Hitchcock Predicts There Will Be $1,000,000 By July 1.

Washington, June 19.—A statement issued today by Postmaster General Hitchcock shows that a total of $390,666 was deposited in the first forty-eight postal savings banks in the first five months of their operation. The second group of forty-five banks, which opened for business on May 1, received in the first month $10,745 in deposits—14.7 per cent more than was taken in at the initial opening during the first month's operation.

There were 2,119 separate deposits, averaging $33.39. On July 1 it will be possible for depositors to convert their savings account into United States bonds bearing 2 1/2 per cent interest. Many applications for the bonds have been received.

The reports received from the depositories are so encouraging, the prediction is made that by July 1 deposits will have reached $1,000,000.

ANOTHER CORONATION THAT IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Delegates from nearly every part of the United States to the Boot and Shoe Workers' International convention assembled in the old capitol today to attend the annual convention of the union. There are 250 delegates, and all had reported. The convention will last all this week.

Questions of the re-establishment of the referendum system of electing their national officers and settling constitutional changes and of the re-granting of charters to New England locals, revoked because of alleged violations of a national agreement, promised to make the sessions this week highly interesting.

Leading the fight for the two changes are the sixty-seven delegates from Brockton, Mass., who also will propose a candidate for international president against John F. Tobin of Rochester, N. Y., who has led the present organization since its formation, sixteen years ago.

Iowa Church Convention.
Ottumwa, Iowa, June 19.—Delegates are arriving for the Iowa Christian convention, which opens here this afternoon for a four day session, with representatives from all the Christian churches of Iowa attending.

CLAIM SEE IS THE VICTIM OF A PLOT

Attorneys for "Absolute Life" Teacher Outline Defenses.

Chicago, June 19.—Counsel for Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the "Absolute Life" cult, and now charged with the alleged abduction of Mildred Bridges, outlined the plan of defense when See's trial was resumed today.

The attorneys declared See was being made the victim of a conspiracy by the police and press.

"We will show that the teaching of the Absolute Life is pure," said Attorney Robert E. Cantwell, "and that Mildred Bridges was not enticed from home, but was left at See's with the full consent of her parents."

Much of the opening statement of the defense was devoted to an attack on Stephen Bridges, father of Mildred Bridges, against whom the attorneys claim to have evidence that he conspired to bring about See's ruin.

TAFT FAMILY CELEBRATES

President and His Wife Keep Their Silver Wedding Day.

Many Beautiful and Expensive Gifts Reach White House.

Washington, June 19.—President Taft and Mrs. Taft celebrated their silver wedding today.

Twenty-five years ago William H. Taft married Miss Helen Herron at her father's home in Cincinnati. Mr. Taft was a young lawyer, Miss Herron had been a school teacher. Today, in the White House, they celebrated the quarter century of married life during which Mr. Taft became a United States judge, commissioner of the Philippines, secretary of war, and president.

The celebration began this morning with the arrival of a delegation from the Commercial club of Cincinnati, thirty-five strong. The visitors reached Washington in a special train. Many of them called at the White House soon after arriving, but others waited to greet the president at the luncheon they had arranged in his honor at the Chevy Chase club.

Big Reception Planned.
The reception comes tonight. If the weather is good, the reception will be held on the grounds in the rear of the White House, but if rain interferes, Mrs. Taft will receive in the blue room, as at the winter receptions.

Both inside and outside every preparation had been made today for the reception. Every angle and corner of the White House has been festooned with electric lights, and the pictures have been mounted nearby to play upon the fountain, near which the president and Mrs. Taft will receive.

Six thousand lights have been used in preparing for the display. Japanese lanterns will add to the picturesqueness. One spotlight will be used to throw in relief the American flag that floats over the White House.

BOOT AND SHOE MAKERS MEET

International Union Holding Sessions in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Delegates from nearly every part of the United States to the Boot and Shoe Workers' International convention assembled in the old capitol today to attend the annual convention of the union. There are 250 delegates, and all had reported. The convention will last all this week.

Questions of the re-establishment of the referendum system of electing their national officers and settling constitutional changes and of the re-granting of charters to New England locals, revoked because of alleged violations of a national agreement, promised to make the sessions this week highly interesting.

Leading the fight for the two changes are the sixty-seven delegates from Brockton, Mass., who also will propose a candidate for international president against John F. Tobin of Rochester, N. Y., who has led the present organization since its formation, sixteen years ago.

Iowa Church Convention.
Ottumwa, Iowa, June 19.—Delegates are arriving for the Iowa Christian convention, which opens here this afternoon for a four day session, with representatives from all the Christian churches of Iowa attending.

ARRIVE FOR CORONATION

Royal Guests Reach Capital of the British Empire.

Streets of London Are Decorated as Never Before.

London, June 19.—A score of King George's coronation guests, accompanied by their suites, reached London this morning, and with as many more from foreign courts and states, due to arrive this evening, will complete practically the assemblage of foreign missions. John Hays Hammond, special United States ambassador, and his suite, will be included in the later arrivals, coming from Dover on a special train.

Throughout the day special after special rolled into the different London railway terminals bringing in princes, special ambassadors and their suites from all points of the globe. The streets presented a lively appearance, with a constant coming and going of the royal carriages with their escorts, palace and other palaces and the private residences given over for the entertainment of the envoys.

Decorations Unparalleled.
The night long work of the army of decorators served to enliven most of the streets in the center of London. (Continued on page 6, sixth column.)

ARTICLES FOUND ON DR. DUMAS

Receipts for Guns Bought in St. Paul Are Secured.

Hibbing, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sheriff Hazen of Beltrami county today received from Chief of Police Peter Wring the articles taken from Mayor F. D. Dumas of Cass Lake when that official was arrested here Saturday.

Among the articles are an automatic revolver, a check for $200 signed by F. R. Lynch and a receipt from a St. Paul gun store for three guns purchased. The latter is considered important in view of the charges made against Dumas.

Sheriff Hazen said he believed the case against Dumas was strong. He also intimated the authorities had more sensations to spring in the matter. Sheriff Hazen left at noon for Duluth and St. F. J.

MORE CUSTOMS FRAUDS FOUND

Millions of Dollars Involved in Cutlery Importations.

Washington, June 19.—Frauds amounting to several millions of dollars in duties on importations of cutlery during the last few years have been discovered by secret agents of the customs service who, under the direction of Chief Wildlife Lorden, Oscar Linton and M. Morin also dropped to the Solingen district of Germany, whence most of the imports come to the United States.

Fulton, Mo., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a luncheon given by Miss Elizabeth Rice at her home in Court street, covers were laid for twelve. Miss Isobel Harris was the guest of honor, and during the luncheon her engagement to William Harrison, a prominent attorney of Duluth, Minn., was announced.

Both Mr. Harrison and Miss Harris are members of two of the oldest and most prominent families of Galloway county. Thomas B. Harris, the father of Miss Harris, was one of the first county clerks of Galloway county, and was among the pioneers who brought the state institutions and the Chicago & Alton railroad to Fulton. Miss Harris is a graduate of Synodical college, in this city, and a prominent member of the city's young social set. She has also been actively identified with the work of the church.

VIOLIN PLAYER.

Instrument Which Plays Violin on Exhibition.

The violino-virtuoso, the self-playing violin with piano accompaniment, one of the most interesting and marvellous inventions of the age, is on exhibition at the Y. W. C. A. and the beautiful instrument, which has been seen and heard in play, have been greatly surprised at its wonderful ability. The instrument is operated by electricity, which drives the perforated music sheet, working both the violin and piano. The violin used in this model is of the famous Stradivari model. The bows are small celluloid discs, one for each string and are automatically resined. The fingering is done with sixty small steel fingers actuated by electric vibrations. The tone and excellence of execution and expression are wonderful. The violin characteristics the vibrato, slide, staccato, bouncing bow, legato portamento and even picking up the strings are all obtained by this instrument.

The violino-virtuoso can play on all of the four strings of the violin at the same time giving the effect of a violin quartet or two can be played for a duet and the other two can be picked for a harp accompaniment, and all of this can be done with one music roll. This instrument plays such selections as the D minor Concerto by Wieniawski, the Symphony No. 2 by Lalo or the Moto Perpetuo by Paganini, any of which are a treat to the eye. It will be exhibited and demonstrated at the assembly hall of the Y. W. C. A. daily and evenings from June 19 to three weeks. Friday evening of this week a special concert will be given at which time vocal solos will be sung by Donna Bibbette Platten and George Sufel. A piano solo will also be given by Ruby Kraus.

Stage Career Offers Fewer Temptations Than Shop Work

Olga Netherlands, the distinguished English actress in an interview today, shortly after arriving in Duluth, lucidly and emphatically expressed herself on the wisdom of a stage career.

"Many parents oppose their daughters in adopting the career of an actress on the ground that the stage is a place where the temptations are greater than anywhere else," she said. "To my mind this is an erroneous idea. To the pure all things are pure, and there is no good reason why a woman should not lead a life as pure and correct on the stage as elsewhere.

"If a young woman is employed in a shop she, in all probability, earns a salary not to exceed $10 a week, and the majority of women employed in the shops of the great cities earn from $1 to $6 weekly. Money—or want of money—is acknowledged by all as one of the factors in the temptation of young women from the path of virtue. I've seen the temptation in that respect, far less on the stage than anywhere. The very simple reason that a young woman on the stage, even when playing a very small part, will command a salary of from $20 to $40 a week, while her sister, working in a close, evil smelling shop, will draw the meagre salary of, let us say, $6 for six days' daily toil, working from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening.

"Who, in this case, do you really think is subject to the greater temptation, the girl who earns enough to support herself in comfort, or the girl who slaves for barely enough to pay for food and lodging, not to mention the fact that she must be clothed? I think you will agree with me that the girl on the stage has all the advantages up to the present time, and good girls are respected everywhere.

"Next comes the question of companions and surroundings. I have been in the company of actresses of all ages, and judging from my own experience and what I have been told by young women employed in other walks of life, I think I am perfectly safe in saying that a young girl commands equally as much respect from actors as she will from men whom she is thrown in contact with if employed in store, office or shop—it she respects herself and her priceless heritage of pure womanhood.

"In choosing a profession, adaptability must be considered. If you think you are fitted for the stage and have any talent for acting, it is a vocation where the financial reward is greater for women than will be found in any other walk of life. Another thing greatly in favor of the stage is the fact that, with few exceptions, the young women who adopt that profession are most ambitious to succeed, and as every one knows, success on the stage means study and hard work and hard work and study never ceasing. A woman on the stage is so occupied in her work that she has little or no time for the frivolities of life.

"A last word to any young woman contemplating the adoption of a theatrical career: Don't do it unless you are prepared to work and study. This does not mean study for weeks or months—I might say a life of study."

STATE TAKES UP "SANE FOURTH"
Fire Marshal Begins Campaign Against Use of Dangerous Explosives.

The state fire marshal's department has started a campaign for a sane and safe Fourth of July along the same lines that will be carried out in this city where there will be no explosives permitted.

Sam M. Wallace, first assistant state fire marshal, has sent bulletins to the newspapers asking the co-operation of all citizens in maintaining the state so that the expensive and dangerous celebration of Independence day, the death of which has cost the lives of so many seriously wounded, 35,670.

We heeded the British in 1776 but in the end they have made the biggest score in blood," says the bulletin.

In the last eight years, according to the figures issued by the state fire marshal, there have been 37,282 people killed or dangerously wounded, while celebrating or watching the celebration of Independence day.

The death toll of 1909 was a record, and the list of seriously wounded, 35,670.

Mr. Hartley said that the agricultural industry of the reservation is as good as any in the state, is mostly idle on account of the uncertainty as to titles of the land. Many half-breeds and quarter-breeds who sold their land are now claiming to be full-bloods and are trying to get back the land they sold to white farmers.

Mr. Hartley believes that the Indian should be paid all that the government owes him and that he should stand on his own feet. The administration of Indian affairs, Mr. Hartley thinks, constitutes the darkest pages of the country's history. He believes that if the Indians were not pampered by the government, they would not be so inclined to lapse into old ways after being educated at the government's schools.

The Indian, said Mr. Hartley, possesses great courage, honor, solidity of character and physical prowess, when his inherent characteristics have not been contaminated.

BIG STRIKE ON THE OYUNA.
Iron Mountain Mining Company Has Nine Holes in Ore.

The Iron Mountain mining company, which is drilling its ninth hole on the Oyuna range, two and a half miles north of Crosby, is developing a large ore body. In every hole there is ore running from 50 to 85 per cent, with manure as high as 20 per cent.

These nine holes are all on the same foot of the northwestern of section 23, town 47, range 29. Ore was encountered in each hole at an average depth of sixty feet. The last hole stop in ore, one at a depth of 263 feet.

Dinner to Fellow Directors.
C. A. Langman, secretary and assistant treasurer of the Almar Iron Mining company, Almar, Minn., will give a dinner tonight at the Hotel Holland to his fellow officers and directors of the company.

Mr. Langman is to be married on Wednesday to Miss Alice M. Ehmer, a daughter of A. J. Ehmer, retired lumberman of the city. The guests tonight will include L. L. Culbertson, E. E. Bunker, C. A. Waters, Dr. W. A. MacLaren and Dr. J. E. Bowlers.

SERVICE IS INADEQUATE

Traction Company Unable to Handle the Sunday Crowds.

Warm Weather Attracts Thousands of Duluthians to the Parks.

The beautiful weather of yesterday attracted the majority of the residents of the city to the parks. Thousands of families took their lunch-baskets, heavily laden with delicacies, and ate their dinners under the shade of the trees.

Many more thousands enjoyed the day on the water, and sailed to Fond du Lac and other resorts along the water front. It was the first warm Sunday, and everybody was ready to take advantage of it.

The Duluth Street Railway company, was unable to cope with the situation, even though it had added many cars to the service. The parks in all parts of the city swarmed with people, and the cars coming and going were filled to their capacity.

The greatest congestion in the service was experienced at Lester Park, where more than 20,000 people spent the day. An attempt was made during one part of the day to put on a five-minute service, and every car was filled. Later the regular schedule was put into effect, and proved entirely inadequate.

Lakesiders stood for hours on the shore, waiting for a car, while loaded cars whizzed by.

Lincoln and Fairmont parks were also well patronized, and the company had difficulty in handling the crowds there. Mr. Warren, manager of the Duluth Street Railway company, stated this morning that they had done all they could under the circumstances, but that they were getting new cars just as fast as the railway companies could ship them here from the Twin Cities. Two cars arrived yesterday and they were immediately put into service. With these cars, four of the twenty which have been ordered here arrived, the others being expected here before July 1. At that date, the company promises better service, and the regular service on the Lakeside will be improved.

The company also has difficulty in handling more cars especially at the distant parts of the city, because the power is weak there, and the rate much slower. In trying to put on a five-minute service, on the Lakeside a quantity of carbonic acid at the station is so great from the distributing station that the power is weakened, and therefore the service lessened.

DRANK ACID BEFORE HIS WIFE'S EYES.
Fred Pearson, a bartender, attempted to commit suicide in sight of his wife and small son shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday morning by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid at his home.

Dr. J. W. Eckblad responded to the call and administered antidotes which it is thought will save Pearson's life. He was removed to St. Luke's hospital and it was stated at the institution this morning that he will probably recover.

Dependancy due to financial reverses is said to have caused Pearson to attempt to end his life. He came home about 8 o'clock Saturday evening and retired a short time afterwards. About 1 o'clock in the morning he roused his wife and son and bade them goodbye, saying that he was tired of life and was going to end it all. After the antidotes had been administered and it was almost certain that he would recover, Pearson said that he was sorry that he had tried to kill himself.

GRAND MARAIS WOMAN MISSING
The police have been asked to help in the search which is being made for Mrs. J. E. Peterson, wife of a restaurant keeper at Grand Marais. She and her baby son mysteriously dropped from sight in this city last Monday. She was last seen at the Union station, coming from Minneapolis, and was on her way home. She is about 25 years of age, weighs 140 pounds, is about five feet six inches tall, with dark hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. When the left home she wore a black turban hat, a blue skirt, a white shirt waist and a gray coat.

RESIGNS CLOQUET JOB.
Cloquet, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. S. Spencer, who has been city engineer and superintendent of the waterworks for Cloquet for a year past, has resigned and will take a similar one in St. Paul. Mr. Spencer came here last summer to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of City Engineer S. L. Meyer and will remain until Cloquet secures another man.

The funeral of Mrs. Philip Sarazin took place Saturday morning at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart and was very largely attended. Mrs. Sarazin died very suddenly, following an operation. She was a member of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, and was buried in the United Order of Foresters. Father Crozier was assisted in the requiem mass by two priests from St. John the Baptist church in Duluth.

The funeral of the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell of Cloquet, was promoted to a captain at St. John's military school year. It is the highest official honor the school could give him. Mrs. Earl Filler will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon.

STARTS FIRE IN THEATER

Empress Theater in Eveleth Badly Damaged By Incendiary Fire.

Second Play House in Range City to Be Visited By Firebugs.

Eveleth, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—At 3:40 a. m. a fire started by firebugs was discovered in the new Empress theater by Patrolman Kettie. The fire, which had been started on the stage by kerosene, destroyed two pianos, the scenery, and the smoke and heat badly damaged 300 seats. The total loss is $2,000, insurance $2,000. A kerosene bottle was found. Insurance agents are expected today.

The fire was extinguished in one hour. The theater is across the alley from the fire station and jail. Entrance was made through a back door by a skeleton key. The Empress was burned out of business. The city of the burned Othello theater, and around two weeks ago, Manager McLaughlin and Fire Chief Thayer of Virginia viewed the damages this morning, and arrests are expected. There is much excitement over the affair.

EACH TAKE GAME.
Eveleth and Ely Divide Honors at Ely.

Ely, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local fire department team was defeated by the Eveleth boys in the first game played this season by the score of 12 to 10, but defeated the Eveleth boys in the second game by the score of 9 to 1. A large crowd witnessed the first game, which was a poor exhibition, errors and hits being plentiful on both sides. The second game was much better, the boys showing ginger and snap, errors were scarce. The boys showing their true form. Rice did the hurling part of the game, allowing only one run for the Mesabe range boys. Eveleth put up a good game, but could do nothing against Rice. The showing the Ely boys made in the second game was a surprise to the local fans as the boys started practice only last Monday. Ely has good baseball material and before long the range towns will know it as Manager Cox has arranged games with several other range teams.

Hibbing, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—While driving in the Morris location in a rig from the Dupont powder plant this morning, Helmer Johnson and his young son and daughter were thrown from the rig and badly injured. They were brought to a hospital in an automobile.

BOLTS OF CLOTH CAME FROM DULUTH

Suspicious Circumstances of Man Arrested By the Hibbing Police.

Hibbing, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mystery surrounds the finding of a man asleep by the side of the Mesabe railroad tracks west of town. The man was wearing a coat and a few of them bearing the name of Duluth firms. The fellow, who gave the name of O'Leary, was arrested by the police.

O'Leary will be "sweated" today by the police who are utterly at sea as to how the man came in possession of the bolts. The man was found by the police at the side of the tracks. He was wearing a coat and a few of them bearing the name of Duluth firms. The fellow, who gave the name of O'Leary, was arrested by the police.

HIBBING TOOK BOTH.
Colts Defeat Cass Lakers Saturday and Sunday.

Hibbing, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Although Schmidt, the Cass Lake pitcher who twirled all of Saturday's game against the Hibbing team and six innings of yesterday's contest, was undoubtedly the best pitcher and one who proved hardest to get, the first by the score of 9 to 1, and the second by 11 to 2. In the sixth frame of yesterday's game he was replaced by Weaver, who went home runs and was touched up for two home runs, besides several hits. In the Saturday game Schmidt fanned five batters in the first five innings of the contest.

The feature of yesterday's game was the stick work by Brookings local third sacker, who out of five times up, got a double, a home run, and a homer, the last run being made by reason of the ball getting lost in far right field.

CURRENT ELY NOTES.

OVERPAID FOR CARRYING MAIL

Some Railroads Will Have to Lower Charges, Says Hitchcock.

Washington, June 19.—"Many of the railroads of the country are being overpaid for transporting the mails, I believe that a saving of approximately $5,000,000 a year to the government can be made without injustice to the carriers by readjusting the pay on basis of 6 per cent profit to all railroads carrying the mails."

Some are underpaid. "While many of the railroads are carrying the mails at a large profit," the report announced, "others are furnishing the service at a loss. Out of the 394 companies reported on 278 are making a profit from mail transportation while others are incurring losses. The rate of profit and loss varies widely with different companies."

The postmaster general will recommend that congress authorize a readjustment of the payments for railroads carrying the mails, said Mr. Hitchcock. "The postal surplus, which is the first in many years will be increased largely, saving the way further for the introduction of 1-cent letter postage."

plished without a postal deficit just as soon as the postage rate on second-class mail matter is properly adjusted."

"The Atmosphere of Faith," was the theme of a sermon preached by Rev. Geo. R. Gebauer at the First Unitarian church yesterday. "If the atmosphere of faith and hopeful expectancy is so much important in physical life and in the healing of the body, it is a still greater factor in the social and moral life," he said. "We all know from experience that there are social conditions, which draw forth in us what is best; there again are social conditions that call forth in us what is worst. In the first case we were met by a healthful expectancy in our moral strength; in the other it was a mean and perverted expectancy in our failure. This faith attitude means much in the education of the young. Take our boys. The average boy does not excel in school; he is usually outstripped by his fair sister. There are various reasons for this, some physiological, some psychological. Considering the latter, a telling factor is the social expectancy and faith. Boys are not studious as a rule, not merely because they like better to play ball, but because society has made up its mind that boys will hate Latin and Greek. We rather expect the boy to excel in other directions. Yes the studious boy already appears to the mass of people, certainly to his comrades, as somewhat girlish. He is apt to be called a 'dissy.' The successful boy is the athletic boy. The school which makes the best baseball team is the one most honored. Scholarship is all right as far as it goes, but it must not be too far."

"I remember a report of the commencement exercises of a certain high school a while ago in which ran like this: 'The girls again carried away all the honors in scholarship, but the boys won make up in their betterment, they will make up for failure in mathematics by a big jump, for flunking in Latin by a half mile run, for failing in rhetoric by shouting the class yell. There in nutshell is the public attitude toward our boys; we do not care so much for their failure in scholarship as long as they show muscle and grit. I am not criticizing this public attitude, there is in it much to recommend it, but it accounts to me no little for the fact that so many of our boys make poor scholars. Our boys will not achieve the highest in scholarship as long as we believe in our hearts, that athletics is of greater importance. We must expect our boys to be studious, if we have them excel in the lecture room and laboratory."

"And so it also in matters of morality. Moral education must rest upon moral expectancy; in the atmosphere of moral scepticism or indifference it can not well thrive. If we would have a higher type of manhood, we must expect our boys to grow into it. We must meet with trust this rising generation, and not with sceptical watchfulness. Such an attitude will weaken the moral fiber of the young. We must make upon them great moral demands, take it for granted that they will be pure and true and manly. Where no great moral demand is made, there will not be any great moral effort. Only when the community, the nation, expects great things from its sons, will it have sons which will do great and noble things."

"But though public expectancy is a very important factor in life, it is not all powerful. The social atmosphere about us can not entirely paralyze our efforts, if we do not look altogether to society for our standard of conduct. And after all even in the most lax social conditions, there are always some men and women who demand the many things from men, and above them."

When the Cook Leaves

don't fret or scold—lay in a good supply of Shredded Wheat—the food that is ready-cooked, ready-to-serve—contains all the nutriment in the whole wheat grain, steam-cooked, shredded and baked a crisp, golden brown—a food that is good all the way through—tempting in its nutlike flavor—a delight to eat and to serve.

SHREDDED WHEAT BISCUIT

is without doubt the most perfectly balanced, most easily digested food ever given to man. It is not flavored or compounded with anything—not a "patent-medicine" food—not a "pre-digested" food—just plain, simple, wholesome, steam-cooked whole wheat, shredded and baked. It is better than mushy porridges because you have to chew it, thereby getting from it all its rich, body-building nutriment.

Try it for breakfast with milk or cream (hot milk in Winter). Being in biscuit form it is easy to prepare a nourishing meal with it in a few minutes in combination with fresh or stewed fruits. Always heat the biscuit in oven to restore crispness before serving. Two Biscuits with milk or cream and a little fruit make a complete nourishing meal. Your grocer sells it.

IRON AND STEEL REVIEW

New York, June 19.—Canadian carshops are overflowing with orders, and in consequence a heavy contract for plain structural material has just been placed with the United States Steel Products company for export to the Dominion. The shapes and plates will be rolled by the corporation mills. On the other hand, American Car & Locomotive works are running scarcely more than 40 per cent of capacity. The rail mills are encouraged, however, by larger specifications on orders, which, during the first five months of this year, have been 600,000 tons greater than for the corresponding time last year. Last week rail orders were light, but 178,000 tons are now actively under negotiation, including 40,000 tons for the Northern Pacific and 28,000 tons for the Great Northern. The Baltimore & Ohio and Queen & Crescent are about to place orders for 1,000 cars each and the Erie is authorized to purchase sixty locomotives. The largest local building contract placed last week was for United States Rubber company, which will require 3,700 tons of steel shapes. Specifications for the Kansas City Railroad terminal have been put out calling for 8,000 tons of steel. Fullness continues to be the most prominent feature in the pig iron trade. Current orders for foundry and steel making iron continue to average only about 7,000 to 8,000 tons per day.

The various sums expended in these fees are aside from the regular expenses of maintaining the department of justice, a special fund being at the disposal of the attorney general, who determines the compensation of special assistants at his discretion.

Two items which have attracted attention of Chairman Beall are $13,900 to A. A. Birney and $10,200 to Morgan H. Beach in land condemnation cases in the District of Columbia.

"We are going to look into all these condemnation cases to learn if there is reason for fees such as are shown," said Mr. Beall.

SAYS MEXICANS PUT DEAD RATS IN HIS CELL.

San Antonio, Tex., June 19.—William L. Dunne, a former American newspaper man, imprisoned at Monterrey, Mexico, for participation in an alleged plot to kill Francisco I. Madero, and freed of the charge, has arrived here bearing tales of atrocities perpetrated on him while in jail.

He said that in an effort to make him confess something, the Mexicans threw many dead rats into the small, ill-ventilated cell they kept him in. He said the cage was six by six feet, with only one opening six inches square, twelve feet from the floor. The rats were never removed and liberty to attend his trial, was the only relief.

LUMBAGO IS BAKED OUT OF DULUTH CITIZEN

MR. ANDREW WICK

One who has never had lumbago and kidney trouble does not know what torturing suffering it brings. At times the pain is so severe that it seems unendurable. Mr. Andrew Wick of 709 West Third street, Duluth, was a lumbago sufferer for a long period; in addition he was bothered with his kidneys, which had been affected for the past year or more. With both ailments Mr. Wick was in almost continuous agony.

He tried almost everything suggested until he heard of the Loughney bake oven at 301-2-3-4-5, Christy building and he took a course of treatment. Today he is a well man, and of the hundreds who are praising the bake ovens no one is more pleased with results than he. His case is typical of scores of others who have been similarly cured. The bake oven is rightly named. It literally bakes out disease. The oven touches parts that medicine can never reach. Its results are always speedier and more lasting.

The bake oven rooms are open daily from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Sundays from 9 to 12 only. They have lady nurses to care for lady patients.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

DETAILS OF AWFUL CRIME

Are Being Told in District Court at Brainerd at Maki Trial.

Jury Selected After Tedious Work and Evidence Being Introduced.

Brainerd, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—After exhausting a special jury, a venire of twenty-five talesmen from the courtroom and a special venire of ten, the jury was at last selected to sit in judgment in the Maki murder case wherein Erick Maki is accused of the murder of 6-year-old Earl Edmund Kelly.

On the jury are W. H. Rosenkrantz, George Bock, W. J. Hutchins, J. C. Hammett, H. Plankberg, S. P. Coffin, W. H. Bolton, E. Slipp, E. Cannon, Perry Everett, Hugh Carmichael and Bert Baker.

It took about two days to get the jury. County Attorney W. A. Fleming is prosecuting the case and W. W. Barron, a young attorney who has just commenced to practice here, was appointed by Judge Stanton to defend.

Mrs. Neoma Bajulanti, mother of the murdered boy, was the first witness. Her evidence covered the finding of her dead son in the bathroom in the rear of her father's home. She had not seen the crime committed.

John Bakula, her father, told how the little boy of some milk woman had run in to his home and told him that Erick Maki was hurting Earl. He ran into the bathroom and found the boy lying on his back badly hurt and the blood oozing from his nose and mouth.

"Erick hit me hard," gasped the boy, Bakula ran out and saw Maki running to a neighbor's yard. Bakula called to him and said: "You have been doing something wrong here." The old man ran two blocks to inform Mrs. Bajulanti of the lad's condition. When they came back he felt Earl's pulse and the lad was dead. No wild boast about the crime was made.

Maki did not come to pieces as Maki did. The crime was so brutal that people shuddered when they heard of the case. Attorney Barron also has an interpreter at his elbow as his client speaks Finnish and Swedish. The progress of the case is necessarily slow. It may last three days longer.

Brainerd, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—What is conceded by many experts to be the most modern foundry in the United States, has been completed here by the Northern Pacific railway and leased to the Parker & Opping Company, for a term of five years. Today the first castings were made. Electricity is used for lighting and for motive power runs the presses, drills, emery wheels, elevators, iron and cinder rollers, the heavy lifting cranes and the little steam engine that runs the blowers, takes the hot, molten metal stream from the seventy-eight-inch cupola and in fact does all the drudgery work.

The foundry is three stories in height and measures 120 by 300 feet. Many a store in the large cities is as well lighted as this foundry for light streams in through the skylights and the windows. The pattern storage house is four stories high and contains all the locomotive and car casting patterns. The power house generates steam to be used to heat the foundry in winter. One hundred and fifty men are employed at present. When required, the force will be increased to 200.

Edmonton, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Convincing evidence of the fact that North Dakota farmers are becoming more and more interested in co-operative companies of various kinds is to be found in the new corporation charters that have been granted by Secretary of State F. D. Norton within the last week.

Only two out of the ten concerns that were formally chartered are made up of other than farmers' companies. The new farmers' organizations are the following: Farmers' Terminal Elevator company, Mantador, capital, $25,000; Farmers' Elevator company of Forbes, capital, $15,000; Valley City Farmers' Elevator company, capital, $25,000; Equity Elevator & Trading company of Kelso, capital, $15,000; the Farmers' Grain company of Kramer, $25,000 capital; Equity Elevator & Trading company of Turtle Lake, capital, $15,000; Gunderson Elevator company of Mohall, capital, $10,000.

KILLING DEER OUT OF SEASON

Causes Trouble for Three Princeton, Mich., Men, Who Are Fined.

Marquette, Mich., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Game Warden Harrison and Maney arrested three Italians at Princeton, two of whom are charged with killing deer and the other who was found with a fawn in his possession.

The two charged with killing deer are John Walpi and Louis Bocca, and the party who had the deer in his possession is Giacomo. The game warden has every reason to believe that the mother of the fawn was also killed by Rosa, but nothing that would serve as evidence to that effect could be found in his possession.

The game warden went to Princeton, and being discovered, the three men, on their way to a thorough search, finally discovering a keg filled with venison in the house where the violators were "hatching." The venison was confiscated and sent to the county house at Marquette, and the fawn that Rosa had in his possession was given to W. J. McCorkin, late to be raised at the Cleveland park in Ishpeming.

The violators were taken before Justice of the Peace Wm. Verran. Twenty dollars for having a fawn in one's possession, $25 for being an accessory to the killing of deer and $50 for the party who killed the deer, is what Judge Verran handed out to the three men. There are two more implicated in the killing of deer in the vicinity of Princeton and in all probability the warden will be able to get them this week.

GATHER AT MENOMINEE.

K. of P. of Upper Peninsula Meet This Week.

Menominee, Mich., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual gathering of the Knights of Pythias of the Upper Peninsula will be held in Menominee this week and the city is decked with flags and ornamented with the emblems of the order. The delegates from all directions, in anticipation of the arrival of the delegates, are expected to arrive in the city on Friday.

The gathering will be marked by parades and drills and competitions for which handsome prizes will be awarded. Among the many guests of distinction who are expected is Grand Master Frank Kuhn, the attorney general of Michigan.

The dramatic order of the Knights of Khorassan will be represented in full force and large delegations of the British sisters are expected from all quarters of the Upper Peninsula.

IRONWOOD TO CELEBRATE.

Gogebic County City Is Preparing to Observe Fourth.

Ironwood, Mich., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ironwood will hold a big celebration on the Fourth of July. As usual a meeting was called last Wednesday night at the city hall, and a large number responding to the call. Luther C. Brewer, general manager of the Northwest mine was appointed president of the day, and the following persons were elected: Supt. J. M. Bush, chairman; J. B. Patrick, secretary; Fred E. Houghton, treasurer; E. S. Gaudy, Houghton, L. C. Brewer, S. A. Reid, Mayor Sutherland, O. J. Kulkow, C. E. Bennett and C. E. Hook.

Dr. H. E. Fox and J. W. Oxman are other committees were appointed so that all possible arrangements of grand Fourth of July celebration will be perfected.

WOODTICK IN EAR

Necessitates Winter, Wis., Man Having Operation.

Coudersville, Wis., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—About a week ago a woodtick crawled into the ear of Allan Bishop of the village of Winter, near here. The woodtick could not be dislodged and the ear became so painful that he had to be taken to Rice Lake for medical attention. It was necessary to administer chloroform and operate slightly before the woodtick could be removed from the ear.

GRANK EDDY TO SPEAK.

Former Congressman to Deliver Staples' Fourth of July Address.

Staples, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ex-Congressman M. Eddy of Sauk Center will deliver the Fourth of July address at the Staples celebration. A varied program of attractions will keep the people busy enjoying themselves. Prizes will be offered for athletic events and baseball games, parade, shows and fireworks will fill in vacancies.

State road No. 5 leading in to Staples is being macadamized. For some time it has been almost impassable but with the improvement it will be one of the best roads in the country. All who travel are well pleased with the construction and the fact that it is continued along the line and grades are being fixed the extension towards Verdala.

BELOIT COLLEGE WILL GRADUATE THIRTY-NINE.

Beloit, Wis., June 19.—The baccalaureate sermon of the sixty-fourth commencement of Beloit college was delivered yesterday by Edward Dwight Eaton, president of Beloit. MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Moorehead—Carl P. Olenwallner, aged 51, street commissioner for the city of Moorehead, died Wednesday morning, following only a brief illness, caused by heart trouble and dropsy. He is survived by four daughters and one son. He lived here twenty-seven years.

Haistad—The fourth annual reunion of the old settlers' association will be held at Haistad, Minn., Saturday and Sunday, June 24 and 25.

Little Falls—The election Wednesday to vote on the incorporation of the village of Flensburg, was carried by the advocates of incorporation by a vote of 29 to 7. Organization and election of officers of the new village will be held Friday.

Milaca—The summer training school opening here June 19 is a joint session for Little Lake and Kanabec county teachers, and a large attendance is expected.

St. Cloud—Work has been started tearing out the floor on the bridge over the Sauk river at the old Arrow mill, on the river road four miles north of the city. A concrete bridge will then be laid which with the steel bridge is expected to make one of the safest and most up-to-date bridges in the county.

Mankato—Allan Jackson, manager of the Mankato, Minn. fire department with $50 for the services rendered on the fire at the company's headquarters a few nights ago. A check for the sum accompanied a letter that was received by Assistant Chief A. D. Beach.

Pergus Falls—Plans are about complete for the fourth annual reunion of the Cass County Old Settlers' association, which will be held here on Friday next, June 23.

Green Bay—The foreman of the Wild Rice Lumber company's sawmill here for the past fifteen years, was killed in the mill Wednesday morning, a heavy log rolling upon him and crushing him to death. He was a prominent, respected citizen of Ada, 60 years of age, and leaves a widow but no children.

Red Lake Falls—Joseph Bishop, one of the pioneer residents of Red Lake county, passed away at his home in Louisville township, eight miles west of this city, May 30. Mr. Bishop was one of the very early settlers of the county. In 1879 he settled on what is known as the Bishop farm, just west of town, and had since resided in the county. Street Commissioner Hanson has about completed the re-laying of the bridge over the river. The bridge was found to be in very poor condition, and the repairs were not made any too soon. The re-laying puts the bridge in first-class condition, but some filling will be desirable in the approaches.

ITASCA COUNTY FORGING AHEAD FAST

Population Trebled in Ten Years—Rich Agricultural Region of Cheap Farm Lands and Good Markets—Big Tax Receipts for Roads and Bridges From Its Iron Mines—Great Dairy and General Farming Country.

(BY GEORGE REID.)

More farmers have come into Itasca county this spring than at any previous period in its history. A majority of these are from the older settled sections of the country, such as Iowa. Neighbors had preceded them and their reports of conditions to the old home folks induced a large number of the latter to sell their high-priced lands and come to one of the richest agricultural regions, where cheap lands are to be had, in the Northwest. Quite a number of these newcomers brought carloads of stock, agricultural implements and household goods.

Other farmers have come from the cities and towns of Wisconsin and Minnesota. These were born on farms and harkened to the cry of back to the land, from which they had been driven away by the high prices of farm products. Other settlers—and they are not a few—are Finns and others, farmers in the old country, who labored long and hard for last year was $34,556.73. That is other products at good prices to fall back upon. The farmers here and in adjoining counties are profiting amply from the state experimental farm, which is less than two miles from Grand Rapids, the county seat. This farm has achieved a reputation which extends beyond Minnesota, due largely to its superintendent, A. J. McGuire, who is the farmers' guide, philosopher and friend throughout a wide region of scientific and practical agriculturists in Minnesota.

No other county, with the possible exception of St. Louis county, has the money available that Itasca county has for the building of roads and bridges to help the settler to market. In assessments for state purposes Itasca is the fourth county in the state. Its rich iron mines bear a big share of the tax burden. Itasca county has 1,172,555 acres of taxable lands. Its valuation is $2,644,272. Contrast these figures with the valuation of the city of Duluth, which is $11,000,000 in round figures, and you will have some idea of the wealth of this county, which is still but sparsely settled. The tax levy for last year was $34,556.73. That is best appearing in Northern Minnesota. In this section most of the farmers are from Illinois and Iowa. Quite a number of Finns—good farmers—have settled during the last year around Trout Lake, near Cohasset and Bovey, which afford them high-priced markets.

The cost of clearing the cut-over lands in this section is one of vital importance to intending settlers. Let us consider the cold facts concerning the rapid growth of this county. In 1900 the federal census gave Itasca county 4,557 people. Five years ago, Koochiching county, which was in Itasca county and last year the federal census gave Itasca county 17,269 people, an increase in ten years of 276.5 per cent. If allowance is made for the people in Koochiching who were in Itasca when the 1900 count was taken, then Itasca has more than trebled its population in ten years, a growth not equalled by any other county in Minnesota.

Itasca county is engaged in a grand and comprehensive campaign of road building. Last year it constructed about 75 miles of roads and this year will have built by the end of the season seventy of them have formed the Itasca Co-operative Creamery association and have their creamery at Grand Rapids almost completed. It will have a capacity of 500 pounds of butter daily and deliver bottled milk and cream in Grand Rapids. By fall the association will have completed a large potato storage adjoining the creamery. The village of Grand Rapids gave almost half a city block on Third avenue for this purpose. It is the intention of the association, as its business expands, to establish branches in the range cities for its products.

NINE GOOD NEWSPAPERS.

Itasca County Does Not Lack for Local Enlightenment.

The rapid growth of Itasca county is reflected in its nine newspapers, three of which were established within the last two years. The oldest and the farmer in older communities with thousands, Itasca county beckons, offering cheap lands, beautiful harvests to the cost of clearing is not as big a question as it seems. Some settlers have cleared everything except the stumps in the beginning, and a few have cleared a few acres and are easily and cheaply removed. Besides, the farmer to do, after crops had been harvested. Mr. McGuire thinks no country settlers offers the same inducements to farmers that Northern Minnesota does.

E. N. Remer, who has been engaged in the land business at Grand Rapids for ten years, has more than any other man. He is a member of the Reishus-Reimer company, which has vast holdings of cut-over lands in all parts of the county. Nobody is clearing Itasca county land. Mr. Remer told me that land is cleared at an average of $20 an acre or less. Mr. O'Brien, who said, who figures the cost of clearing land, told me the value of the land is $20 an acre, had failed to take into account the cost of clearing. Mr. Remer told me about forty acres of the toughest land in the county to clear which was covered with big pine stumps. Under contract, W. J. Meyers at $20 an acre and made $200 over the cost of labor and dynamite. Mr. Meyers even plowed the land and made it ready for a crop.

Mr. Remer says that it is a mistake for a settler to come in for less than $12.50 to $25 an acre, because it will be a waste of money. He says that his company has lots of these cheaper lands, but believes it is better to settle farmers where there are roads and markets within a reasonable driving distance. The settlers will prosper much quicker and will send for their friends to come and settle. They will prosper and their markets will become dis-hand, a settler who would have prospered under proper conditions. Mr. Remer believes the highest priced lands will prove to be the cheapest in the end. He thinks it will be time enough to settle in the outlying districts when roads have been built into them and the most valuable land has been put to the plow. His policy is to be commended. In the long run it is a paying policy for his company through the advertising that will be given to Itasca county by satisfied settlers.

Conceding for the sake of argument that my estimate of $20 to $25 an acre as the cost of clearing ready for the plow is high and add to that an average of $15 for cut-over lands which make the best of farms, giving a total of $35 to $40, on a good living, there is no other part of this continent where land which is equal, close to good markets, where a great diversity of crops can be raised, can be bought at a price like as cheaply as $40 an acre. Much of the timber in clearing is available for pulpwood, ties, posts and other purposes, and this will reduce my figures somewhat. Each settler on as little as forty acres will find more than enough timber for all his buildings, and there will still be more than enough standing timber for all his needs, including fuel.

And then there is the water supply. Minnesota has 10,000 lakes, most of them in the northern part of the state. Springs are almost everywhere and any place you put down a shallow well there is good water. Brooks and streams are on almost every place of farm land and in this unending water supply is attributed Northern Minnesota's success with crops when drought is burning up the crops now and then in the Dakotas, Montana and the Western Canadian provinces.

From all information obtainable then, using improved clearing methods, fertile farms await the settler, which, ready for the plow, will have cost him $30 to $40 per acre, close to railroads and good markets with fuel for nothing forever. Nothing is so convincing as seeing, and people who contemplate coming to Itasca county should look over this country themselves. If they do, they will move in.

Most of the progressive farmers hereabouts belong to the Duluth Co-operative Producers' association and thus market their own products doing away with all middlemen. Nearly most influential paper is the Grand Rapids Herald-Review, E. C. Kiley, publisher, and also publisher of the Iron Index, at Marble. The Itasca County Independent, A. L. La Fontaine, publisher, runs Mr. Kiley's county seat paper a close race.

C. E. Seely publishes the Cohasset Opener, which has as a neighbor in Bovey (the two towns join the Itasca Iron News, of which J. Lamson and G. B. Heath are the publishers. Helmer Hauken is the editor of the Nashua Herald and Pearl Phillips of the Big Fork Settler. The Deer River News is for Ed. Dorchy at $20 an acre and made $200 over the cost of labor and dynamite. Mr. Meyers even plowed the land and made it ready for a crop.

The writer is indebted to Mr. Kiley and to his able right-hand man on the Grand Rapids Herald-Review, and The Iron Index, W. Guy Finch, for valuable information concerning Grand Rapids and Itasca county generally, and also to Mr. J. Taylor and the Deer River Times by E. R. Tauterberry.

MORE WIDOWS THAN WIDOWERS. L'Ydon Chronicle: The proportion of remarriages shows an almost continuous decrease, says the registrar general in his report on the births, deaths and marriages in England and Wales during 1909.

The number of widows, he states, is always much greater than that of widowers, because in the first place men marry later in life than women; secondly, because the duration of male life is shorter than that of female life; and thirdly, because the proportion of widows who remarry is much lower than the proportion of widowers who remarry.

Marriages of persons described as divorced have steadily increased and in the year 1909 were the highest on record.

range to have money enough to make payments on farms and secure the necessary stock and implements. American and foreign born are settling side by side and all will prosper in Itasca county, where serious crop failures have never been known.

Some of the best farms and farm buildings in Minnesota are within a few miles of the county seat, and good farms are to be found in all parts of the county. Some farms are humble, as true, their owners, homesteaders, in many cases, having started with little or nothing, and with little real knowledge of farming. But they are learning and each year sees them with more land, cleared and under cultivation. Land values in their homes. Land values in Itasca county are rising steadily, as is evidenced in the prices of the sales of state lands during the last few grasses spring up between the stumps on cut-over lands. Rutabagas and similar roots grow to an astonishing size. Itasca county potatoes are unsurpassed anywhere and the usual yield is from 200 to 250 bushels per acre, close to the Mesaba range and the Duluth markets. Itasca county took the third prize for its farm products at the Minnesota state fair last fall and might have fared even better but for its failure to exhibit corn and barley. From clover, wheat, corn and barley, to watermelons, potatoes, cantaloupes, tomatoes, strawberries—anything and everything suitable to the Minnesota soil will grow here. Farmers can raise diversified crops so that if there should be an overproduction of potatoes, for instance, they will have many

Mr. Lewis has built up a good practice, and is village attorney of Keewauk. He does a large business in fire insurance and is well posted on realty values in and about Nashauk. Much money will be made by people who invest in Nashauk real estate now, when the town is just beginning to have its first real boom. Intending investors will do well to consult Mr. Lewis.

John C. Lewis is a native of this state. He was born at Hutchinson, Nov. 9, 1876, and was graduated from the high school of Hutchinson. He went to Montana and roughed it for a few years, working as a cowboy and doing other hard work. Returning to Minnesota, he was graduated from the law department of the state university in 1902 and admitted to the bar. Before coming to Nashauk Mr. Lewis practiced his profession at Chokio and New Ulm, Minn. He is one of the best public speakers in the county.

VILLAGE FATHER ALSO A FARMER

W. A. Gordon Has Done His Share in the Building of Nashauk.

When W. A. Gordon came to Nashauk from Hurley, Wis., eight years ago he built the "Q" hotel, on Central avenue and ran it for three years. Then he entered the livery and draying business and has been engaged in it ever since. He is serving his sixth term as assessor, in which difficult office he has given satisfaction, and his first term as a trustee of the village. He is one of the most progressive men in town and takes a hand in everything that will tend to make Nashauk forge ahead.

W. A. GORDON,

Like many other far-seeing men Mr. Gordon is also a farmer. His farm is near Ashland, Wis., and he has eighty acres of it under cultivation. He is a native American. He belongs to the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias and the Woodmen. He is a man who makes friends and Nashauk has no more popular citizen.

It is a tradition with traveling men that they have never missed a train when they depended on Gordon's livery and bus line, and the tradition is founded on fact. Gordon's livery has the best of horses and rigs, and its bus line meets all trains on the Great Northern railway at the Nashauk station, and goes to Penikese, on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad. Gordon's livery line gives local merchants good service. Gordon's rigs can be had at any hour of the day or night.

Mr. Gordon has made money in Nashauk, which he has invested in Nashauk real estate, believing that this town will go ahead as fast as any place on the range.

VILLAGE CLERK HAS A FINE FARM

John H. Carlson Successful in Business as Well as Agriculture.

When they want things done in Nashauk they go to John H. Carlson. He was largely instrumental in bringing about the "white way" and other important public improvements. Mr. Carlson is serving his third term as village clerk, which shows what the taxpayers and voters think of his work in the capacity. He came to Nashauk from Buhi eight years ago and has since been engaged in the hotel and saloon business.

JOHN H. CARLSON,

John H. Carlson was born in Sweden. He has been in the United States twenty-three years and on the range sixteen years. Before going into business he was a mining foreman. He was superintendent of the Pitt mine, between Sparta and McKinley, and the Shores mine, near Ashland, Wis. He owns the Carlson frame block, at Central avenue and Third street, opposite the Ollie hotel. He is married and has four children, three boys and a girl. He is a big man, physically and mentally.

On a five-acre farm in Sweden Mr. Carlson's father raised a large family and took good care of it, and the son has taken naturally to the soil in this country. He owns 280 acres four and a half miles from Ashland, St. Louis county. It is on the Miller trunk road, twenty-five miles from Duluth. He has about 100 acres cleared and has spent nearly $4,000 in improvements. Here he intends to spend his later years in dairying and truck farming, with Duluth for a market. Notwithstanding the dryness of last summer Mr. Carlson had a fine hay crop. He declares that farmers cannot come to a better section of the country than Northern Minnesota, particularly Itasca and St. Louis counties, where the crops are bountiful and the markets high-priced.

JOHN P. RAATTAMA GOES AHEAD FAST

In Two Years He Has Built Up Largest Dry Goods Business in Town.

Two years ago the Mesaba Dry Goods company, with J. P. Raattama, proprietor, began business in Nashauk upon a small scale and now has the largest dry goods business in town, occupying the ground floor of the big three-story building at Central avenue and Second street, in the heart of town. The rapid growth of the business has been due to Mr. Raattama's policy of the quick turn over of goods at a very small margin of profit. His store is drawing trades from miles around.

JOHN P. RAATTAMA,
Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Raattama has been on the range six years, having been in Bovey before coming to Nashauk. He was born in Sweden, coming with his parents to Ottertail county, this state, when 6 years old. Since he was 16 years old he has been engaged in mercantile business. He is justice of the peace, a Mason, having all degrees except the Mystic Shrine, and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

The Mesaba Dry Goods company carries a large stock of dry goods, men's and women's furnishings, and women's, men's and children's shoes. Everything in stock is the latest in style. This store caters more especially to women, and makes a specialty of women's and children's wearing apparel.

NASHAUK'S NEWSPAPER.

The Herald is Esteemed as One of the Best Range Weeklies.

Nashauk has one of the best weekly newspapers on the range, the Nashauk Herald, edited and published by H. Haugen, for six years on The Duluth Herald.

Besides being a good newspaper man, Mr. Haugen is a first-class printer and his office is equipped to do all kinds of job work. The Nashauk Herald is the official newspaper of Nashauk and Keewauk.

ITASCA COUNTY'S GREAT IRON MINES

Oliver Company Spent Ten Millions Before It Shipped a Ton of Ore.

Mining and agricultural development in Itasca county are supplementing each other. The development helps agriculture by making a larger home market for farm products and agricultural development helps mining by reducing the cost of living on the western frontier.

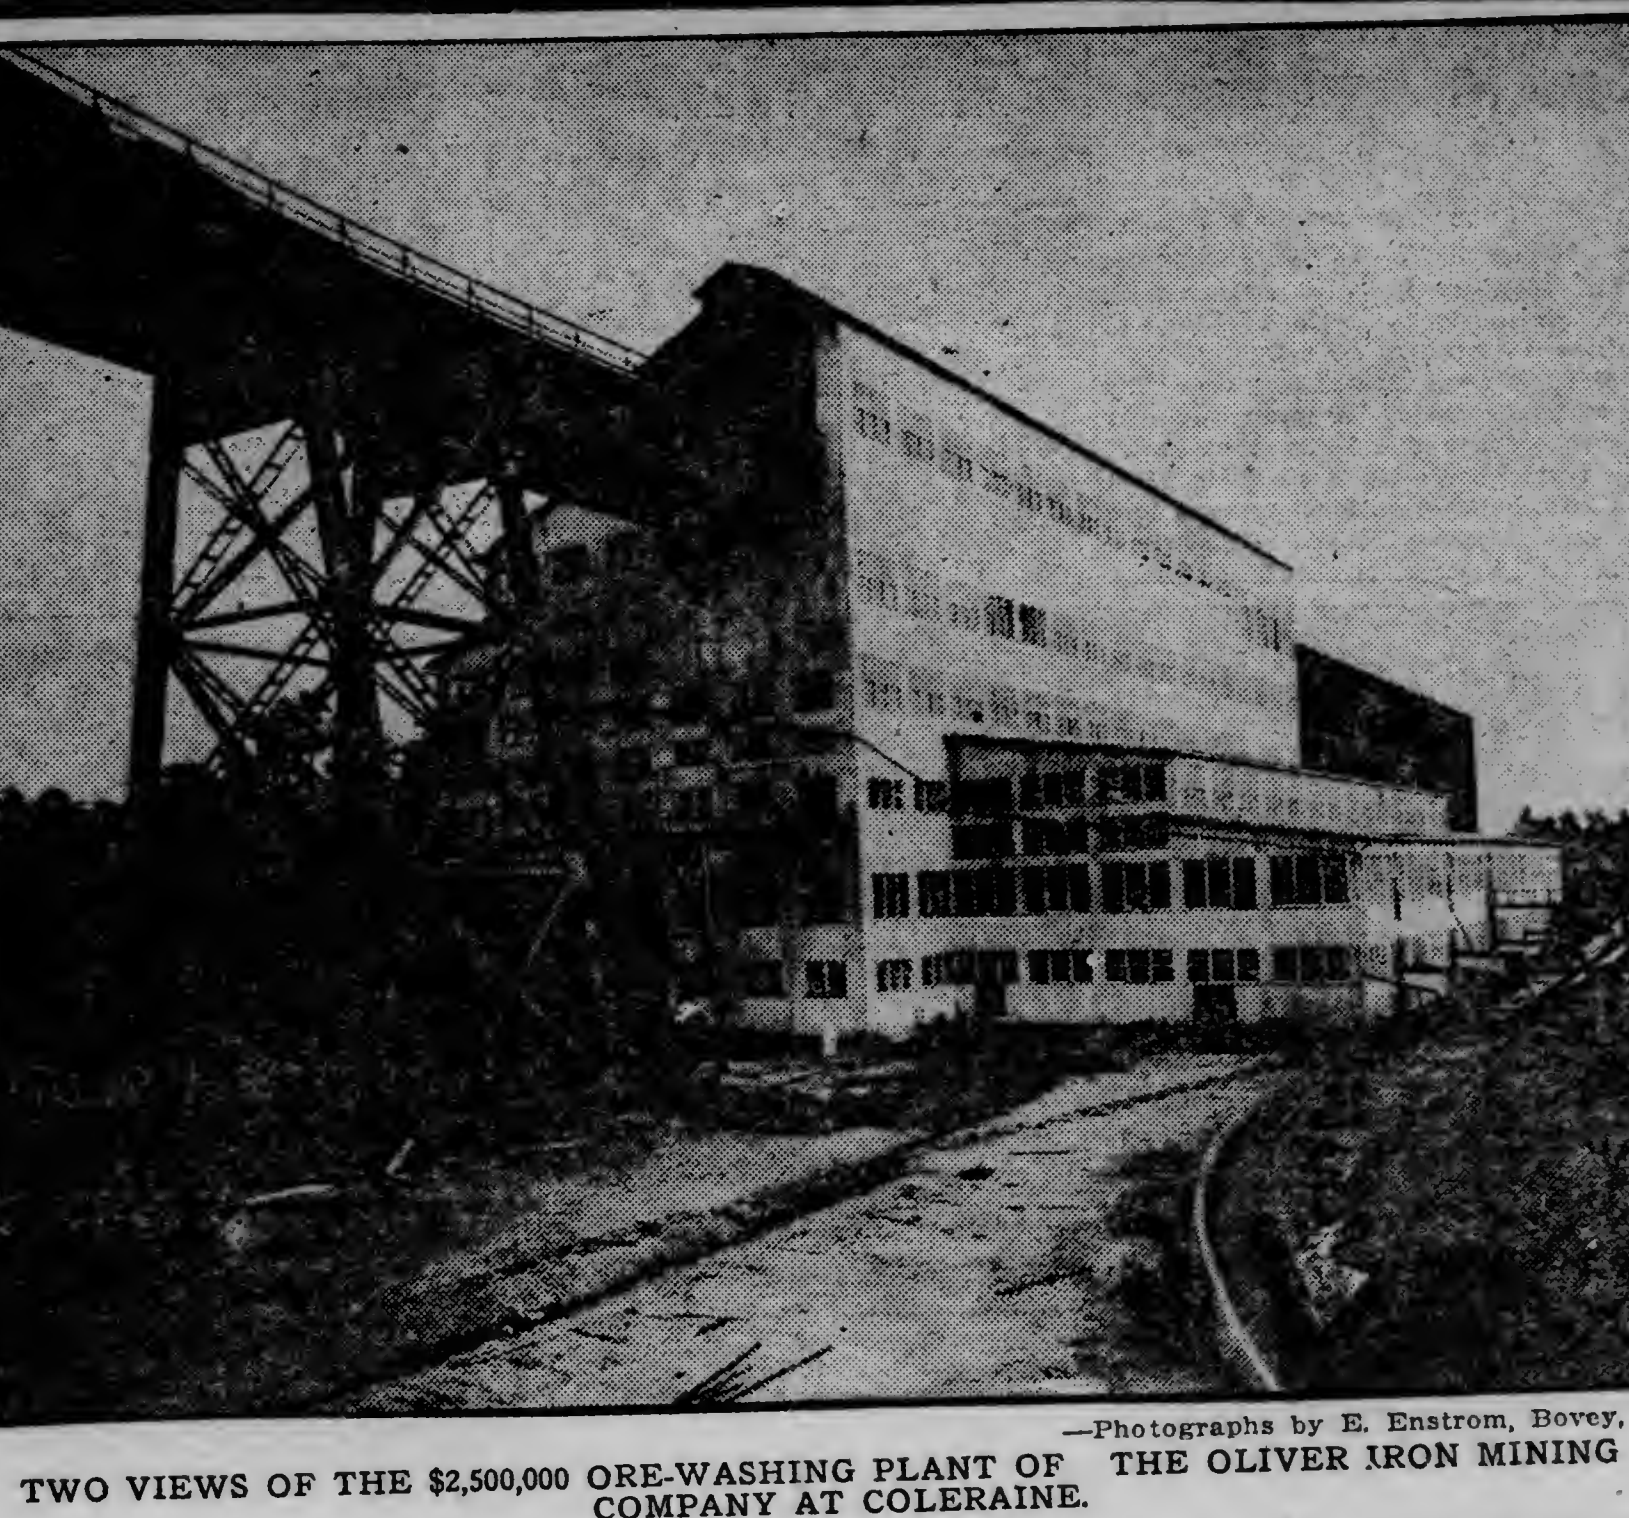

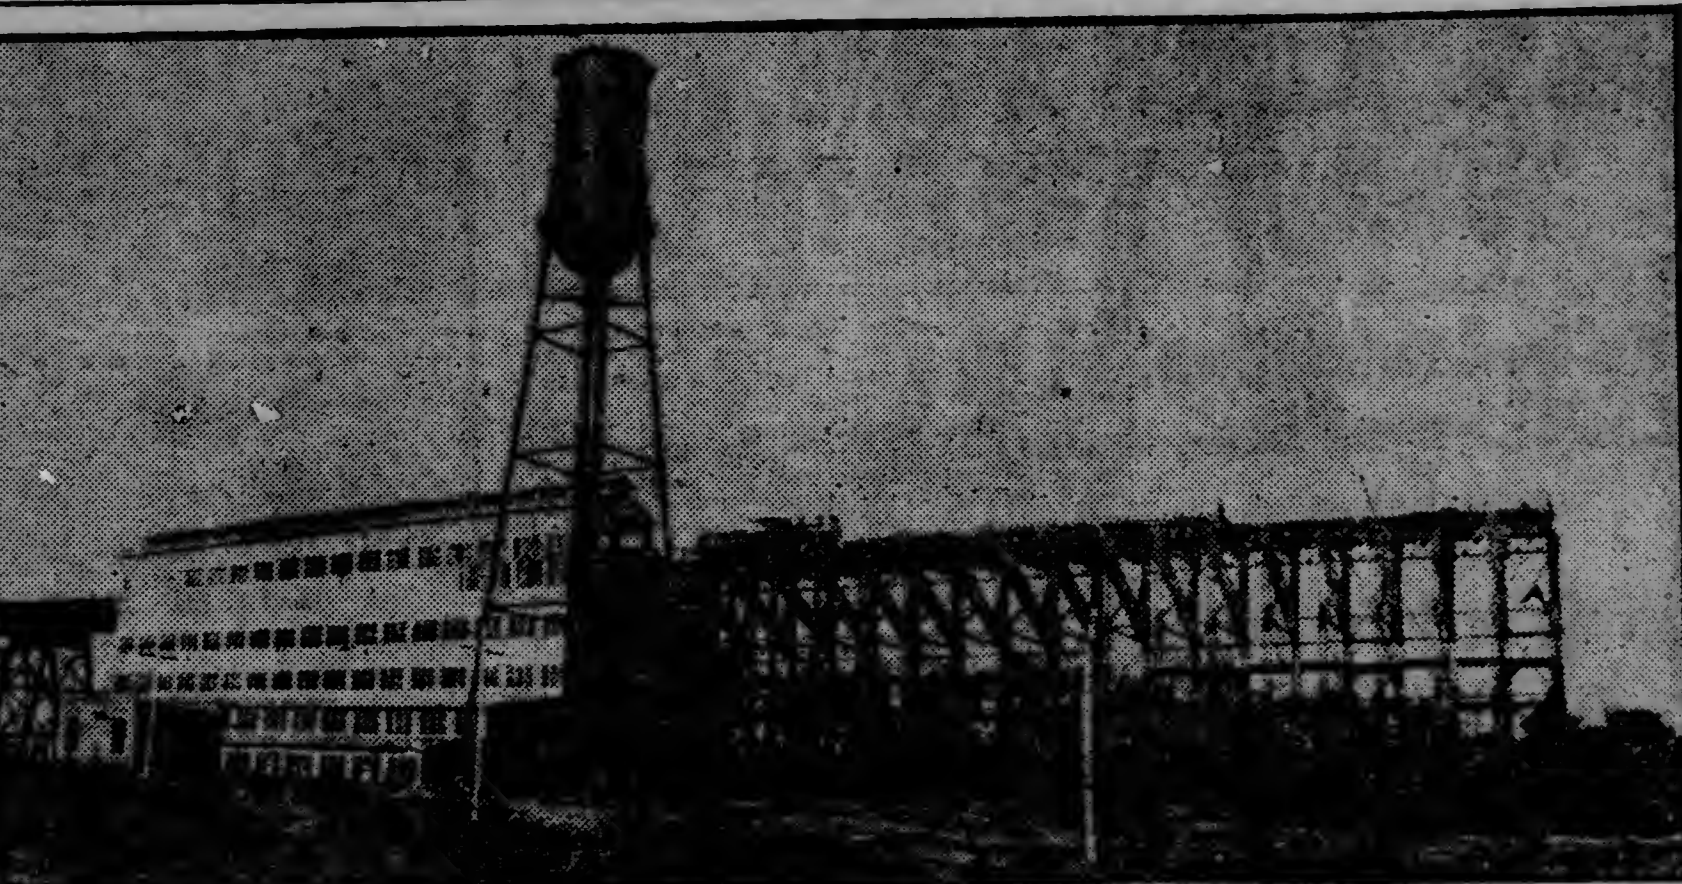

While mining has been going on for some years in the Mesaba range, the places being included in what is called the Hibbing district, the Canisteo district, as the western extension of the range, is in its infancy, although it is making tremendous strides as a shipper of ore.

Great aggregations of capital have been made for the purpose of developing the Canisteo district. Before the Oliver Iron Mining company shipped a ton of ore from this district it expended in the opening of monster mines and the building of model towns for its employees in the wilderness approximately $10,000,000, to which may be added the cost of the great Coleraine, $2,500,000.

In the beginning, only six years ago, all machinery and supplies had to be hauled from Grand Rapids, a distance of nine miles from Coleraine, the model town of the Mesaba Iron range, is a beautiful city, mostly of brick, along Roosevelt avenue, its main thoroughfare, with a $100,000 schoolhouse, a handsome village hall, sewerage and electric light and water plant. The Oliver company spent a quarter of a million dollars in putting in all modern improvements and then turned Coleraine over to its residents to govern as they see fit. Marble is another model town built by the company as it built Coleraine and Taconite is a third. Each town has model homes for workers of all classes, which they can buy at cost and pay for during a period of years.

These three towns may be said to be an experiment upon the part of the greatest corporation in the world to ascertain whether by surrounding workers with all modern comforts and conveniences, giving them homes at cost and itself paying for public improvements to start the towns it will obtain a better class of workers, better service and more loyalty. From all that can be learned from the employees themselves the experiment is a success. Each of these towns is an addition to a great iron mine. Coleraine adjoins the Canisteo-Walker, Marble, the Hill mine, and Taconite, the Holman.

While agriculture added greatly to

GEORGE H. CROSBY IS FINDER OF MINES

Helped to Show Up the Canisteo District and Developed the Cuyuna Range.

One of the first men to give Itasca county its start as an iron producing district was George H. Crosby of Duluth, and Itasca county gave Mr. Crosby his start toward fame and for-than half a million of ready cash to work with, in addition to royalties. Since his first strike, Mr. Crosby has proved properties on the Mesaba range all the way from Mesaba station, Itasca county, to La Prairie, Itasca county. In the Hibbing district with Gust Carlson he proved up the Mesaba mine, near Hibbing. Mr. Crosby has royalty interests in valuable properties on the Mesaba, but is now giving most of his attention to the new range in Minnesota farther west, the Cuyuna, which he developed after Cuyler Adams of Duerwood discovered it, and some of the largest steel interests refused to become interested. As a direct result of Mr. Crosby's early faith and expenditures, great ore bodies have been shown up at points miles apart on the Cuyuna, which promises to be another Vermilion range, duplicating its high-grade ore.

The Kennedy mine at Cuyuna, which began shipments last month, was discovered by Mr. Crosby and he is still one of the few owners. Several other shafts have been completed on the range and will soon be shippers. Mr. Crosby told the writer on the Cuyuna range as far back as last September that he figured 300,000,000 tons of ore had been proved up within three miles of the townsite of Crosby, and additional great ore bodies have been countered close by since then. It will be realized from these few facts that Mr. Crosby has added many millions of dollars to the taxable value of Northern Minnesota.

The Cuyuna branch of the Soo lines has its terminus at Crosby, the metropolis of the Cuyuna, named in honor of the man who developed the range. While Crosby is not yet a year old it has graded streets, cement sidewalks, brick buildings and business houses of all kinds, including a bank. It is planned to be a city, beautiful, nestling on the shore of a lake, with winding residence avenues, so laid out as not to disturb the magnificent shade tree lots in the new city have trebled in price in a little more than a year.

All mines in the Cuyuna range are underground. They employ a high class of workmen, who are employed the year around, and these facts account for Crosby's prosperity. Many are being sold as fast as they are being built. Building cost is at a minimum, as all ingredients for concrete except cement lie only a few feet under the surface at Crosby.

Mr. Crosby has also located iron lands in Utah, and is interested in gold, silver and copper mining. He owns valuable business properties in Duluth and Minneapolis and has one of the prettiest homes in Duluth. He has determined to make the city of Crosby the best place in which to labor and to live, and so far he has always accomplished what he has set out to do.

THE VILLAGE HALL AT COLERAINE.

SOUTHERN ADDITION TO NASHAUK!

Read the preceding page about Nashauk and you will understand why lots here will quickly double and treble in price.

With four operating mines—the Hawkins, the La Rue, the Crosby and the Pearson—and the proposed opening of the Platt and Roberts mines, Nashauk is destined to be one of the largest and best towns on the Mesaba range. The Wisconsin Steel Company has begun the erection of a washing plant to cost half a million dollars, which will add 500 to the population of Nashauk. The erection of another washing plant is being considered. The future of Nashauk is assured.

Nashauk is surrounded on three sides by mines or ore properties. It can expand in only one direction. That is to the south, where our property is located, only two blocks from Central avenue, the main street of Nashauk, which is pictured on the preceding page. Purchasers of lots in the new addition will reap rich returns. The opening of the Platt and Roberts mines will crowd Nashauk still further for room.

Lots in the Southern Addition are selling fast. Local people, who best appreciate their value, are the principal purchasers. Investors at a distance will be awarded the best lots available at the price in the order in which their applications are received.

TAKES HER OWN LIFE

West Duluth Woman Strangles Herself at Fergus Falls.

Ties Sheet About Her Neck and to Radiator in Her Room.

Mrs. Bertha Neston, 30 years old, wife of Philip Neston, 118 North Fifty-third avenue west, died yesterday afternoon at the state hospital at Fergus Falls, from strangulation.

While alone in her room she had torn a sheet into a strip and wound it about her neck, then tied it to a radiator, and strangled herself. When found by attendants of the hospital, she was dead.

The body will be received by M. J. Philbrick, undertaker, tomorrow, and funeral arrangements will then be made. Besides her husband she leaves a little child.

Mrs. Neston had been committed to the hospital about three weeks ago, owing to illness, was not taken to the state hospital until a week ago today.

Mrs. Neston had been ill, and six weeks ago she became greatly frightened, when men were working on a house in her neighborhood, since which time she has been in the hospital.

Mrs. Neston had been employed some time to make repairs to the house, but had forgotten to mention the fact to her husband. In the morning she heard the voices of men under the floor of the house. The men were speaking in a foreign language, which she did not understand, but she was so frightened that she began to cry.

She began to cry, and she was so frightened that she began to cry. She began to cry, and she was so frightened that she began to cry.

Refuse to Pay New Scale—Men Claim 200 Are Employed.

Jacobson Brothers, the local contractors, who erected the new manual training building and other large buildings, have brought about twenty-five carpenters to Duluth from points in Michigan with which to fight the local carpenters in their strike for higher wages.

It is said that several other contractors are advertising in Michigan and Wisconsin towns for carpenters and that all the firms who are members of the builders' exchange will do likewise.

There is not a great deal of building going on in the city at the present time, but the contractors refuse both to pay the new rate of 50 cents an hour or be held up on the jobs on which they are fulfilling contracts.

It is stated that wood workers in local planning shops and carpenters working for mining companies on the range at regular wages will take place at Duluth and work at 40 cents an hour.

This, it is claimed, is more than they can work for regular wages. The local carpenters held a short meeting this morning at which it was reported that 200 carpenters are working under the new conditions, 50 cents an hour. There are about 200 unemployed, it is stated.

The regular monthly business meeting of the local union will take place at Rowley's hall tomorrow night.

Congressmen Listen to Stories of Big Wealth and Big Profits.

Washington, June 19.—With two separate committees of the house delving into the history and operations of the American Sugar Refining company, there have been a number of sensational tales of riches made overnight and sordid stories of alleged frauds against the government.

The special sugar trust investigating committee began work on another angle of the investigation, that of the refinery frauds at the port of New York, questioning Oliver Spitzer, one of the American dock syndicates who was convicted and later pardoned by the president.

What Havermeier Got. Mr. Post told how H. O. Havermeier had been rewarded for forming the National Sugar Refining company of Duluth by stock in the refinery worth $100,000, stock which since then has earned in dividends $2,500,000. Mr. Post insisted that the $100,000 did not represent only a proportion of the total value of the company, but that it represented the whole.

SONS OF NORWAY AT FARGO EVENT

Noted Men to Participate in Laying of Corner Stone of New Home.

Fargo, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Christian Michelson will lay the cornerstone of the new temple of the Sons of Norway here sometime this month. He was invited to represent Norway during the interim between the separation from Sweden and the coronation of King Haakon.

Another distinguished speaker will be Axel Thorsen, who has been in the affairs of the Norwegian legation at Washington. He will be making a tour of the Northwest as the representative of Minister Bren, who was recently at Fargo. Along with the speakers will be Norwegian Consul, John A. Lofgren, and consuls at Chicago and Ottawa.

JOHN PETERSON HAS THROAT CUT

Found in Dying Condition Near Hibbing—Attempted Murder or Suicide?

Hibbing, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Peterson, 43, was found in a Mississauga railroad camp near here this afternoon in a dying condition, his throat cut from ear to ear. He was rushed to a local hospital and every effort made to save his life.

Whether he was attacked by another or attempted suicide is not known.

COPPERS STRONGER; METAL IS HIGHER

Values Advance Under Favorable Conditions—Close Weaker.

Coppers went forward until the close when values eased off on profit-taking. The market at the end of the session, however, was higher than on Saturday. The buying was in the leading stocks, the usually inactive issues not displaying any indications of moving either way. Specialists had a busy day.

Copper metal in London was up 10s 12d to 12s 6d. Copper metal in New York was up 10s 12d to 12s 6d.

Four crop reports which bulled wheat and a bullish effect on stocks and the rally weakened toward the close, being followed by the industrials and copper.

Red Warrior sold at $1.37 1/2 to $1.31 1/2. Calumet and Montana at 56c, 58c and 56c. Sierra, at 52c.

Amalgamated sold at $1.50, $1.12 1/2, $1.12 1/2 and $1.12 1/2. Butte-Ballklava at $1.75, Calumet & Arizona at $2.50, $2.25, $2.25 and $2.25. Grouse at $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2. Greene at $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2. Pitsburg at $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2. Butte at $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2.

North Butte sold its quarterly meeting here today. A dividend of 30c was declared as usual.

Boston wired: In the month of May it is understood that East Butte averaged 6.5 per cent copper, including of the investigation, that of the refinery frauds at the port of New York, questioning Oliver Spitzer, one of the American dock syndicates who was convicted and later pardoned by the president.

The annual meeting of the C. I. R. stockholders will be held in August, 1911. It was postponed from June 6.

Damage News From Southern Minnesota—Slump in Linseed.

There is not much change in the value of the farm, but the value of the building in which is steady thought of as the main asset. The difference is reflected in the price at which the old and new will be made. Good New York State corn is selling at 10¢ per bushel, but the price of the old corn is 10¢ per barrel in wood. Ohio and Indiana are selling at 10¢ per bushel, but the price of the old corn is 10¢ per barrel in wood. Ohio and Indiana are selling at 10¢ per bushel, but the price of the old corn is 10¢ per barrel in wood.

Farm Values. Prices in the winter wheat markets are high, and the price of the wheat is high. Further heavy Chicago seems to be the main asset. The difference is reflected in the price at which the old and new will be made. Good New York State corn is selling at 10¢ per bushel, but the price of the old corn is 10¢ per barrel in wood. Ohio and Indiana are selling at 10¢ per bushel, but the price of the old corn is 10¢ per barrel in wood.

Moderate Profit-Taking Wipes Out Some of the Advances

AFFECTS PRICES

Produce Weaker — Dealers Work for Quick Removal of Goods.

The produce market today was active and prices were slightly off. The shipments were affected by the weather and the dealers worked to get rid of their goods as rapidly as possible.

The decline in some green fruits, such as Florida Watermelon, are arriving more freely and the produce standpoint is improving.

VOLUME XXIX—NO 62.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 20, 1911.

HEAD OF HARVESTER COMPANY TESTFIES IN LORIMER PROBE

Senate Committee Advances the Date of Re-Investigation.

Edward Hines Wants to Have an Attorney Present.

Everybody Mentioned in Early Hearing Will Be Called.

Washington, June 20.—The second investigation by a senate committee of the circumstances surrounding the election of Senator William Lorimer of Illinois, scheduled for today, promised to take a far wider range than the one of last winter which, after a bitter fight, resulted favorably to Mr. Lorimer.

The new committee, appointed by resolution of the senate, had not expected to begin its hearings until Thursday, June 22, but the desire of a material witness to get away to Europe brought about a decision to begin the taking of testimony today. Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, will be the first occupant of the witness stand.

Mr. McCormick was brought into the case in connection with the testimony given before the Helm committee of the Illinois senate by Clarence S. Funk, manager of the Harvester company, but he was not himself a witness before that committee.

It was not expected that his testimony would be extensive, as from Funk's statement, his only knowledge of the alleged irregularities in connection with the Lorimer election consisted of what Funk had told him of his reported connection with Edward Hines relative to the raising of a fund of $100,000 in Lorimer's behalf.

Attorney for Hines.

When the committee began today's hearing, William J. Hines, an attorney of Chicago, asked to be permitted to appear for Edward Hines, the lumberman who is alleged to have been instrumental in collecting the $100,000 fund said to have been used in election of Senator Lorimer. The committee took the matter under advisement.

Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the REBELS DEMAND MONEY AND LAND

Mexicans Want $100 and 160 Acres and $1 Per Day.

San Diego, Cal., June 20.—Gen. Mosby's insurgents at Tijuana are expected to make a choice within the next few hours between peace and annihilation by federal soldiers. Gen. Ensenada, commander of the federal forces, has offered the rebels a choice between peace and annihilation. The rebels are expected to make a choice within the next few hours between peace and annihilation by federal soldiers.

Former Gen. Leyva of the insurgents went to the boundary yesterday, and standing on the side of the river, he was talking with Gen. Mosby, on the Mexican side. According to Mosby, the former insurgent, he then threatened to make the negotiations official. An appointment was made for 1 o'clock today.

Mosby demands as conditions of disbanding that his men receive $100 each bonus, 160 acres of land, $1 a day for the time of service, and that they retain their equipment. Leyva's offer is said to have been $10 per insurgent.

HELPS TO LYNCH SISTER'S FIANCE

Nebraska Youth and Three Mates Arrested for Ranchman's Death.

Cody, Neb., June 20.—Charles Sellers, a young ranchman living twenty miles south of here, was taken from the home of Jack Hutch, a neighbor with whom he was spending the night, and hanged to a telegraph pole by four young men, sons of neighboring ranchmen. Hutch attempted to defend Sellers, it is said, and was driven back at the point of a shotgun.

The lynching is alleged to have resulted from a quarrel between Sellers and a member of the party. The sister of the slain man, who is said to be a sister of the party, was left hanging to the pole until late in the day, when the sheriff and coroner arrived and took charge of the body.

Four Under Arrest. Following an inquest, the sheriff arrested George and Alma Weed, Kenneth Murphy and Harry Heath, who are charged with the killing. The four were rushed to Valentine in automobiles to prevent any attempt by their friends to rescue them from the officers. The affair has created intense excitement. The dead man and the boys under arrest are well known, and the latter belong to prominent families. According to a story told the sheriff by the prisoners, Sellers had threatened the life of Murphy and his sister, the latter of whom he was engaged. Heath, it is stated, was also a shifter of Miss Murphy, and frequent quarrels had occurred between Sellers and Heath.

The young ranchmen remained about the town until the sheriff arrived, when they gave themselves up.

GAVE QUART OF BLOOD TO SAVE HIS WIFE

LUKE LEA, United States Senator from Tennessee.

Washington, June 20.—Mrs. Luke Lea, who when on the verge of death was suddenly revived by the transfusion of a quart of blood drawn from the veins of her husband, Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, is somewhat stronger today. Her condition is still critical, though the physicians hope to save her life. Senator Lea is weak from his ordeal, but will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

NEW PARTY PROPOSED

Independent Political Action By State Labor Federation Urged.

Contest for Presidency of Federation Very Much in Doubt.

Mankato, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the report submitted yesterday afternoon by G. W. Deacon, chairman of the state central political committee of the State Federation of Labor, it was declared that the program of the federation in the near future would be a complete and disastrous failure. He suggested that a special convention be held some time in the near future to outline a plan for the entrance of the federation into state politics. Mr. Deacon admitted that this might mean a new political party having for its purpose the advancement of legislation of interest to the working classes. "We have nothing to expect from either of the old parties," said Mr. Deacon, "and our only salvation lies in independent political action." Action on Mr. Deacon's report will likely be taken some time this afternoon.

PEDDLERS WAR ON EACH OTHER

Violence Marks the Strike of Hawksters in Chicago.

Chicago, June 20.—Peddlers who have gone on a strike hoping to force the repeal of an anti-noise ordinance, today began acts of violence to force the less demonstrative members of the trade to join them. Wagons were overturned, fruit and vegetables scattered about and drivers who refused to strike were driven from their wagons. More than a score of arrests were made. In one instance the police found it necessary to use their clubs and nearly all of the prisoners suffered minor cuts and bruises. There are said to be 10,000 peddlers in the city. The anti-noise ordinance was issued for the benefit of night workers, of whom there are 100,000 here, and whose days of rest were broken by the cries of the peddlers.

INVESTIGATE ILLNESS ON ITALIAN STEAMER.

New York, June 20.—The Italian steamer Duca Del Abruzzi, in today detained at quarantine to await the investigation of suspicious cases of illness on board. Two members of the crew were taken ill yesterday. On the voyage a steerage passenger died of cholera. The Abruzzi brought twenty first class passengers and 635 steerage passengers.

BRITONS GO THROUGH ALL THE MOTIONS OF CROWNING NEW KING

Full Dress Rehearsal of the Big Event Is Carried Out.

People Crowd Around Palace and Throng the Streets.

London, June 20.—A full dress rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies, the reception of envoys from foreign lands by the king and queen at Buckingham palace, the state banquet to royal guests and representatives of the heads of states, and the Shakespearean ball at Albert hall, make up today's crowded program of events directly connected with the crowning of King George and Queen Mary.

The coronation rehearsal will depict the ceremony practically as it will be performed on Thursday. The Shakespearean ball will be a notable affair, as it is expected that King George and Queen Mary and nearly all of the members of the royalty will be present.

The state banquet at Buckingham palace tonight will be the most elaborate of the kind ever given in London. The famous Windsor gold plate will be used.

Always Something Doing. Aside from the main events there are a large number of lesser features constantly occurring, incident to the continuous arrival of distinguished foreign dignitaries and the innumerable semi-official dinners, garden parties, reception, exhibitions and private events which have sprung up in connection with the coronation.

The coming coronation is signified by a free-handed distribution of honours. In the list announced the colonial premiers figure prominently. The ceremony will be carried out on Thursday.

YOUTH TOLD NOT TO WHITTLE, STABS MAN

Mexican Is Lynched Later By a Mob of Texans.

Thorndale, Tex., June 20.—The whittling of a stick led to the killing of Charles Zeitung, a garage owner, and the subsequent lynching of a Mexican youth last night. Whether the boy was a citizen of the United States or of Mexico is not known. The sheriff of Milam county is on his way to Thorndale this morning to investigate.

The Mexican, a lad of about 18 years, whose name has not been ascertained, was sitting on the sidewalk in front of Zeitung's garage last night, industriously whittling his pocket knife and making a pile of shavings. Zeitung, who was a citizen of the United States, was passing by at the time and ordered the boy to stop. This, according to bystanders, angered the Mexican and he stabbed Zeitung through the heart.

JONES ACCUSES CHICAGO BANKER

Says That Man Knew of Many of His Companions All Forgeries He Committed.

Muskegon, Mich., June 20.—At a secret meeting of the creditors of the bankrupt American Electric Fuse company of Muskegon, held here last night at the Fuse company's offices, Frank G. Jones, president of the concern, who has admitted forgeries totaling $450,000, declared that a former business associate, who is a Chicago banker, knew all about his forgeries and illegal business methods.

Jones declared that this man knew of the company's financial situation all the time and was familiar with all his questionable operations to keep it on its feet. The Fuse company, assuming the debts of other concerns in which his associate and he were interested, he said, brought on the exposure.

DETECTIVES KEEP UP HUNT FOR YEGGMAN WOUNDED AT PUPOSKY; DAVIS MAY BE HIDING IN DULUTH

TRAP FIXED FOR DUMAS?

Mystery Surrounds Story of $200 Check He Had With Him.

Officers Say It Was Part Payment for Illegal Service.

Marked Money Also Figures in the Deal With Smyth.

Bemidji, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Search by Deputy Sheriff Helmer and Pinkerton detectives last night and early this morning, of points where it was thought Mike Davis, the safe cracker wounded in the fight at Puposky Saturday morning, might be in hiding and protected by friends, was unsuccessful and no trace of the bandit was found. The officers have every reason to believe that Davis is still in the vicinity of Bemidji, and that he is now being protected by friends who have been in contact with the gang of which Davis is a member, for several years.

Make Mystery of It. Officers here claim they have nothing new relative to Davis in this vicinity in confident manner when it is hinted that he has made a clean get-away, or that it was not Davis who was at Puposky, but a Pinkerton detective who played the part of a safe cracker, supposed to have been put on the job by La Claire, who could not be here.

Whether La Claire himself ever got the letter which Dumas is said to have written him from Cass Lake is a question unanswered by the detectives. (Continued on page 14, fourth column.)

NONE TO TALK RECIPROCITY

Senate Discussion of Measure Is Apparently Deadlocked.

Republicans Are in Revolt Against the Bill.

Washington, June 20.—Deaf to the entreaties of Chairman Penrose of the finance committee, no one was prepared to speak on Canadian reciprocity when the senate convened today. Determined that some champion of the measure must come forward with arguments in its support before they begin their assault, those Republicans opposed to the agreement are standing firm. The friends of the bill, however, are not so sure. Senator Root's explanation of his amendment tomorrow will mark the beginning of the regular consideration. It was evident early today that today's consideration of the agreement would consist of rapid fire debate. On the floor of the house consideration of the wool tariff bill again has been undertaken.

Revolt Led by Dixon. Republican opposition to the bill in the senate reached the stage of open revolt yesterday. Led by Senator Dixon of Montana, who again failed in his demand for an explanation or a Sherley of Kentucky Wants to Amend Medicine Law.

Washington, June 20.—Representative Sherley of Kentucky today introduced an amendment to the pure food and drug act prohibiting false and misleading statements as to the curative value of a medicinal preparation on patent medicine labels. The bill is designed to strengthen the law, following the recent decision by the supreme court of the United States in which it was held that patent medicines were "misbranded" only when they were "misleading" or "false" statements were made on the labels as to the quality, quantity or purity of the ingredients.

WARD OF HIS DAUGHTER

New Guardian Is Appointed for James E. Sullivan, of West Duluth.

A. E. McManus and W. B. Getchell Exchange Some Warm Words.

A controversy between Attorney A. E. McManus and W. B. Getchell in the case of James E. Sullivan of West Duluth, occupied the attention of Judge S. W. Gilpin of the probate court the entire morning today.

Sullivan does not like his guardian, W. B. Getchell. Of that he is positive. He complains that although Mr. Getchell has nearly $600 of his money, he cannot get enough to pay his board or to have medical attendance furnished him.

Mr. Getchell claims that he is continually bothered by Sullivan for money with which to get drunk. Sullivan, he claims, is a habitual drunkard and would go through with his money in a very short time if he had his way.

This morning Sullivan, who is a cripple, started proceedings to get his money or have a new guardian appointed. It was finally decided to appoint his daughter, Nellie, guardian. She is at present in Seattle, Wash. A ticket will be bought for Sullivan and he will be sent there at his own request. He stated that he has no friends in the city and that he wants to get away from his old cronies with whom he is in the habit of drinking at saloons.

Before the matter was settled there was a hot argument between Mr. Getchell and A. E. McManus, attorney for Sullivan.

Mr. Getchell said that he did not understand why McManus wanted to mix in the matter, unless it was to get Sullivan's money and Mr. McManus stated that Sullivan had come to his office in a weak condition which, the result of not having had enough to eat.

He said that Mr. Getchell had been over zealous in his endeavor to sit on his ward's money.

Mr. Getchell stated that he was sick of his job and would welcome the appointment of a new guardian.

Sullivan, it seems, has been around West Duluth for years. A short while ago his wife, Mary T. Sullivan, secured a divorce and a division of the property. Sullivan's share amounted to nearly $1,000. He has about $500 left. In an endeavor to save his money for him, Mr. Getchell stated that he had refused him anything but the barest necessities of life.

Sullivan claims that he is a cripple and unable to work. Mr. Getchell thinks that he is perfectly able to earn a living.

It was finally decided to send him, at his own request, to Seattle and make his daughter his guardian.

FARGO ELKS GOING AFTER STATE MEETING.

Fargo, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fargo Elks are after the state meeting for 1912. They have arranged for a special train and a band, and will leave Fargo at 8:30 tomorrow morning for Grand Forks. It is expected there will be a delegation from Fargo of 150.

Fargo advocates a rotation of the state sessions and the officers, according to the age of the lodges. If this plan is endorsed this city wants the 1912 meeting. If the plan is adopted it is not known whether Fargo Elks will enter into a bitter contest for the meeting or not.

AWARDED $250 FOR BOY'S DEATH

Jury Finds for Hugo Lindholm in Case Against Street Railway.

The jury in the case of Hugo Lindholm, as administrator of the estate of Reuben Lindholm, a minor, against the Duluth Street Railway company, for $25,000 for the death of the child, returned a verdict of $250 for the plaintiff in district court yesterday.

Reuben Lindholm was killed during the month of November last year while sliding down hill. He was hit by a street car at the corner of Lake avenue and Fourth street and killed instantly.

The case was on trial for several days past before Judge H. B. Dibell.

CAMPAIGN OF PUBLICITY

Duluth Hotel Owners Will Combine to Advertise Duluth.

Say Zenith City Is Well Equipped for Tourist Trade.

Duluth hotel owners are going to combine for the purpose of giving this city wider advertising as a summer resort, and to put before the traveling public the fact that Duluth has five first class hotels ranking with any of the hotels of the West, that are capable of taking care of all the tourists who reach the city.

In discussing the scheme yesterday, Edwin H. Lee of the Spaulding hotel stated that few people outside of Duluth either appreciated the wonderful summer climate of this city or the fact that the hotels of this city are the most modern and up-to-date of any city of Duluth size in the entire country.

"One of the features in the advertising for the carnival is the fact that Duluth has ample hotel accommodations for the crowd that is expected to come here," said Mr. Lee. "One of the inquiries anyone makes, and especially the traveling public, is in regard to the hotels, and we will make it our business to give Duluth and Duluth hotels advertising."

Just at the present time Duluth is becoming known throughout the country as a city where the weather is generally ideal in the summer time. It has been the object of the Spaulding as this city to cater to the summer tourists, and in the future we want to make our capabilities in this line better known.

"I have lived in many cities of this country and have a rather wide experience with the traveling public. I have never been in any city that is so ideally situated geographically and fitted as to climate for a summer resort. There is no reason why Duluth with its situation at the head of Lake Superior, and with a climate that is a relief from the torrid heat of other cities, should not become famous throughout the entire country."

"That is one of the objects of the getting together of the hotel men of this city. We realize that what helps Duluth will help us, and we are taking the broader view of it."

The present summer Duluth is achieving advertisement through the weather reports alone. When the traveling public realize that we have five hotels here to accommodate them for a day or week or month, and that Duluth can offer to the tourist or the person wishing to escape the hot weather practically every advantage of the more famous summer resorts, there will be more travel up this way."

In the statement of Mr. Lee the managers of the hotels of Duluth are planning to give the city a wider advertising was an excellent one and Mr. Lee stated that he had expressed the opinion that the hotel men could do much to help their own business and also to make the name of Duluth more famous as a summer resort. Mr. Lee stated that the Hotel McRay and Mr. Goldberg of the Holland are also thoroughly in accord with the idea.

MRS. NELLIE RYAN DIES

Well-Known Duluth Woman Passes Away After Long Illness.

Mrs. Nellie Ryan, 63 years of age, died yesterday at the family residence, 18 West Second street, following an illness of long duration. She had been in failing health the last four years.

She was the wife of Edward B. Ryan, who is very well known in Duluth, having for many years been one of the prominent railroad conductors running out of the city. Mrs. Ryan had lived here for the last seventeen years. She had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Besides her husband she is survived by four children, one daughter and three sons. They are: Miss Esther, Mrs. Ryan, Edward Ryan, Jr., and George B. Ryan and J. Fred Ryan. The body will be taken to her former home at Janesville, Wis., for interment.

George B. and J. F. Ryan will join the funeral party at that place. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow at the residence of the family. The body was at the bedside yesterday when she came.

WAS PIONEER ON VERMILION

John Smith Passes Away at Hospital After Long Illness.

John Smith, one of the pioneers of the Vermilion range, died yesterday afternoon at St. Luke's hospital following an illness of several weeks. He was 80 years of age.

It is stated that he has a valuable homestead in the iron belt of the Vermilion range. It is said that he refused an offer of $100,000 for his property, with a royalty agreement attached.

He has two brothers and a sister residing in Canada. The body is being held at the undertaking rooms of Yipiranga. He planned to proceed to Paris this evening.

BRINGS SUIT AGAINST THE UNITED WORKMEN.

Hilda Nelson has begun a suit against the Grand Union of the Order of United Workmen for $2,000, which she claims is due her on a membership held in the order by her husband, Nels O. Nelson.

She claims that he joined the order during May, 1910, and that he died in July, the same year. She claims that the order owes her $2,000 on a fraternal insurance with the order.

The papers in the action were filed with the clerk of the district court this morning.

NORTH DAKOTA DOCTORS MEET

First Annual Gathering of Homeopathic Association at Fargo.

Fargo, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first annual meeting of the North Dakota Homeopathic Association began this morning at the residence of Dr. J. M. Gidding. Dr. F. M. Gidding was the first part of the program. Dr. Fraesche of Buford spoke on "Treatment of Typhoid Fever." Dr. Putnam of Fargo discussed "Organism." Dr. Peake of Jamestown spoke on "Hemorrhages." This afternoon Dr. Arthur Peake of Fargo, Dr. DePuy of Jamestown, Dr. Francis Peake of Fargo and Dr. Dillon of Fargo will address the gathering.

At the noon lunch several visiting physicians, including Dr. Moffit of St. Paul, Dr. Matchen of Minneapolis and Dr. Richter, the first Fargo physician, were guests of honor. An automobile ride and a picnic supper in the park will conclude the meet.

NEED EXTRA EDITIONS OF PROCTOR KNOTT'S SPEECH

Since the death of James Proctor Knott, the demands on the Duluth Commercial club for copies of his famous speech, paralleled with present conditions and statistics showing how his hyperbolic predictions have been carried out almost to the letter, have been more numerous than ever. The last edition of the Commercial club's booklet with the speech so arranged, is out of print, but a new edition is now on the press and part of more than the last edition. It will show that the joke was emphatically on the Kentucky ex-governor and that Duluth has made good.

Even twenty years ago, when Proctor Knott was here to see the material city he had imagined, he said: "I have been around upon a population of 50,000 where ten years ago there were but 3,470 souls; when I see the sumptuous residences, the costly and magnificent churches, the costly and commodious educational buildings, the extensive factories, and the enormous elevators they have reared within the last decade, besides the street improvements they have made, the wonderful roadway hills have been in the picture and docks they have constructed, and undertake to compute the thousands of tons of freight they have received and forwarded within the same brief period, the reality seems to exceed the wildest dream of Oriental fiction. I feel almost like it was in a land of enchantment, where mighty genies at the behest of some powerful magician perform the labors of a century in a single night."

That was twenty years ago and Proctor Knott was exaggerating a little for the benefit of the citizens, but what he said at that time is literally true in the present day, and the Commercial club publication will show that fact.

DISSOLVING PROCESS CURE

Surgical Diseases Without Knife—Drugging the System Slowly Kills Thousands.

The human body is more complex than any machine or device ever invented, and if anything is going wrong with any of its parts the danger is manifesting itself in pain, because of the inflammation, pressure or decay, which interfering parts. People make the greatest mistakes in constantly drugging and dopping the body in order to rid themselves of the pain and instead of going to doctors who know how to cure chronic diseases, they go to the drug stores, buy some dope, and when they find that it does not work, they go to the doctors and say, "I have tried everything and it does not work."

Science has made a greater advance in 2,000 years than it did in 2,000 years previously, and the method of dissolving chronic pathological lesions and diseased organs is one of the greatest achievements of medical specialists. In Duluth, the Progressive Medical Specialists on Superior street at 1:30 p. m. instead of 2:30 p. m., for Superior, Cloquet, Floodwood, Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Bovey and Grand Rapids.

Commencing Monday, June 19, Great Northern train No. 37 will leave Duluth at 1:30 p. m. instead of 2:30 p. m., for Superior, Cloquet, Floodwood, Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Bovey and Grand Rapids.

It is the most wonderful, though natural process. There is no pain nor cutting, nor blood shedding, and it never fails to get results in the hands of these Expert Specialists. You can be cured by this process of cancer, RUPTURE, kidney trouble, lung and heart disease, paralysis, skin diseases, rheumatism, liver, bladder trouble. You can be cured and made happy. Remember these doctors can cure you, no men's diseases and can cure you, no matter how long you may have had it. You may consult them without any cost from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and it would pay you to have their opinion and advice free of charge.

IS TREASURER OF COMPTROLLERS

City Comptroller William S. McCormick was back in the harness in his office at the city hall this morning, having returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended the annual national convention of comptrollers.

Mr. McCormick was signally honored at the convention, having been elected treasurer of the organization for the coming year. He stated that the officials gained a great deal of valuable information, which will be a big help in adding them to improve the systems in their offices. He said that each year he finds that more cities are coming to the plan of having a universal system of bookkeeping. In some states, he explained, the legislatures have taken up the subject and passed laws calling for uniform systems conforming to that recommended by the comptrollers' association.

There had been much irregularity in the manner in which it had been placed before the American people. He argued that reciprocity, at least that contained in the proposed agreement, would reduce the cost of living and would be especially disadvantageous to the American farmer.

This morning's session was given over largely to the introduction of resolutions.

The contest for the presidency of the federation is very much in doubt, the supporters of both President Howley and E. G. Hall of Minneapolis asserting that their man will be elected.

Axel Peterson of St. Paul, a plumber, is in the field for the office of secretary-treasurer, now held by W. E. McEwen of Duluth. However, it is not likely that Mr. Peterson will have sufficient opposition to prevent his reelection.

President Howley's Report.

In presenting his annual report to the convention, President George Howley of Minneapolis said:

"Organized labor needs no defense or excuse for its existence. Its record is written in loud and enduring phrases in the recent history of our country, and everywhere it has shown itself to be one of the most active, energetic and fruitful of all the agencies ever established among men for the advancement and betterment of the race."

"The philosophy is neither profound nor intricate, although it involves principles which are deep in their import and cover the whole of human life. It is the plain and simple philosophy of human good, and this it seeks to promote by applying practical and common sense methods of administration to the ordinary, every day affairs of life. Its mission is the elevation of the lowly, the protection of the poor, the relief of the toiling masses from oppressive and unnecessary burdens, and the general betterment of the whole human family."

"It would be of time and out of place for me to indulge in any discussion of that part of the program which is familiar with the principles of organized labor and also with the objects it has in view and the means by which it strives to win its ends. Any effort to raise the question of the right to a higher level necessarily interferes with the gains and profits of the few who thrive in the debasement and subservience of the many, and arouses the hostility of those who are ready to use their opposition increases in intensity and violence as they lose their supremacy and the power it gives them."

Has Extended Its Influence.

"As this privileged class has felt itself weakening in one direction it has used all the means at its command to strengthen its hands in other directions. It has extended its influence over all creative and directing forces of the country, and it has endeavored to consider itself the rightful master of all human affairs, not only in the making and execution of our laws."

"All branches of our government, state and national, have bowed down before it. Legislators and congresses have become its ready tools; governors and presidents have done its bidding, and many of our states have been ruled by a handful of men, a pirate's heartlessness, a miser's greed. Organized labor has been the only force that

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is regarded as a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perform its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents sickness of the stomach, keeps the bowels regular, and in every way contributes to a strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

RAIN

The mercury hit a new high mark for the year yesterday, when it deg. was registered. The early part of the evening was warm, but the temperature dropped to 61 deg. early this morning and it was comfortable for sleeping. Those cool nights are some asset for Duluth.

Today is fair and cool, and the weather man promises showers and cool weather for tonight and tomorrow.

A heat wave was working a year ago today, rose this morning at 4:12 and it will set at 8:06 this evening, giving fifteen hours and fifty-four minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"High temperatures prevailed Monday over Montana. The highest reached being 100 deg. at Miles City, Mont., but over the state mentioned temperatures of 90 deg. or higher were general. The disturbance central over Northwestern North Dakota, caused scattered showers or thunderstorms over Western Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Montana, Wyoming, Utah and Southern California during the last has sought to resist this tyranny practically and effectively. By its unrelenting and ceaseless efforts it has arrested public attention. By its unrelenting and ceaseless efforts it has arrested public attention. By its unrelenting and ceaseless efforts it has arrested public attention.

Success In Strength Not In Brains

Many men with ordinary brains make huge successes, while many brilliant men are failures because they lack the nerve, motive power—otherwise called steam, vim, snap. Most men and women should take a safe and effective nerve-invigorator and blood purifier every once in a while to "re-charge their batteries," for what can you do when your strength vanishes, no matter how brainy you may be?

If you have nervous trouble of any sort, tired, you cannot sleep, no appetite, kidney or liver trouble, or rheumatism, you should take a course of Make-Man Tablets at once. Make-Man Tablets are wonderful builders of nerve strength and purifiers of the blood. They are absolutely the best medicine for men, women and children, because they give a splendid, youthful tone to the nerves, quicken the brain, dispel worry, give a keen edge to the appetite and sound refreshing sleep. Trial treatment free on request. Make-Man Tablet Co., Dept. 14 Chicago. Sold at 50c and recommended by A. E. Swedberg, White Swan Drug Co., 2 East Superior street also 2015 West Superior street.

come and unwelcome phases; that in the absence of any provision for presidents, he would open a law office in his old home city, and that he determined that his son, Robert, shall work out his life amid those surroundings.

Mr. Taft was speaking at the Chevy Chase club luncheon tendered him by the Cincinnati Commercial club, and was formally accepting for Mrs. Taft and himself a silver rose bowl presented by the Cincinnatians. The president said:

"As I look about this table and experience such memory as has been left me after my experience in Washington, almost every face brings up some incident of my life in Cincinnati that I like to cherish; and as the time grows nearer when I shall go back to Cincinnati and make it my permanent home, as a retiring place for one Cincinnati friendship grows greater and greater."

At the age of twelve years, Mr. Taft, it is only twelve years; and twelve years in the life of a man, or the life of a nation, or the life of an association, as we grow older and look back, is not a period of very long time. But we have to measure time rather by events than by the ticks of the watch, and certainly in twelve years it has fallen to my lot to have a great many unusual things happen to me.

"To be transplanted from one civilization to another, from contact as a civilian, or as the arm of the administration of justice, to the chief executive, for the time being, of millions of people, is a tremendous change, and to have the last four years made a period such as I have experienced, is to prolong the period until it seems a lifetime."

"And then, to come to Washington and to remain six or seven years, under conditions so different from those at home, creating a distance to it, so to speak, than the mere months or years of its duration. The effect that it has upon one's life and character is something one realizes but cannot explain."

Less Active Life. "The prospect of going back to a less active life has in it at this time some phases that are welcome and some that are unwelcome. I have been formed, no provision for that score. There is as yet, so far as I have been informed, no provision for that score. I do not wish to hold out any threat of competition to the two lawyers who honor this club. I wish to say to the rest of the members of the club that I shall open an office and be ready for business, not at an old but a very new stand."

Lawyer. When my son Robert comes back to Cincinnati to practice law, I shall be in Cincinnati, and while it has been pressed on him and me to have him go to some place where possibly his conclusions would be larger, I am determined, and he sympathizes with me that he should go to the home that knew his grandfather and his father, and that there he shall work out his life under the influences that I hope will be favorable to his success—at least in restraining him within the path and the limitations of an honorable life."

The speech of presentation was made by James Albert Green, president of the Commercial club, who said his organization came without axes grinded and without petitions to present, to assure the president of the affection of the club members and their loyalty, adding that the esteem in which they have always held him "mounts higher and higher day by day."

WEDNESDAY IS LONGEST DAY.

Wednesday, June 21, is the longest day of the year.
The sun will rise at 4:12 a. m., and set at 8:07 p. m.
There will be 16 hours 54 minutes of sunlight.
Since June 10 the sun has been rising at 4:12.
On June 22 it begins to come up one minute later, 4:13.
For three days it comes up at the same time, 8:07. Soon it will begin to come up nearly a minute later each day and set a minute or a fraction of a minute earlier each night.
For the long days of more than fifteen hours sunshine, the sun set shorter until along the latter part of December the sun does not come up until 8:01 and sets at 4:50, a day of eight and a half hours of sunlight.

RECOGNIZED BY UNITED STATES

Portuguese Republic Given Formal Notice of American Action.

Lisbon, June 20.—The United States has officially recognized the republic of Portugal.

This followed the opening of the new constituent assembly yesterday morning, at which the president of the chamber read a decree proclaiming the abolition of the monarchy and the banishment from Portugal of the royal family of Braganza, which was unanimously approved. The decree was also read by the president to the great throng which gathered outside the assembly building, after which the chamber adjourned.

George L. Lorillard, American charge d'affaires, waited on Senor Machado, minister of foreign affairs and delivered the note to him.

DINNER FOR LEGISLATORS

St. Louis County Delegation Will Be Entertained By Commercial Club.

The Commercial club has sent out an invitation to the members of the St. Louis county delegation of the last legislature for a dinner which will be held at the clubrooms at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, June 23. Previous efforts to get the members of the delegation together for a talkfest and joint-entertainment have been unsuccessful for one reason or another.

KIDNAPED BOY COMES BACK MYSTERIOUSLY.

New York, June 20.—Three-year-old Salvatore Buffa, who was kidnaped six weeks ago and held for a ransom of $10,000, was returned last night to his parents as mysteriously as he had vanished. The ransom was not paid, and the father had received no tidings of the missing child for so long that he feared the kidnapers had fulfilled their threats to slay him. The boy was picked up, crying, by the police in Williamsburg last Sunday.

Pharmacologists Meet. Columbus, Ohio, June 20.—The National Association of Pharmacologists opened its annual meeting here today. Governor Harmon welcomed the delegates who represent twenty-five states. W. Sinclair of Columbus is president of the association and P. A. Waidebaugh is secretary.

WEST END FOR THE SONS OF SWEDEN

Big Picnic Is Planned on Midsummer's Day at Lincoln Park.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 Swedes Expected to Take Part.

June 24 is in Sweden a legal holiday and is celebrated all over the land. In Duluth it is expected that between 15,000 and 20,000 Swedish-Americans will observe the day. Several historical events are connected with this date and may have some bearing for celebrating this day as a holiday. The chief reason, however, is that it is the middle of summer. From June 21 to 24 the sun is said to stand still as it is the summer solstice. In North Sweden there is no night for weeks and even quite a distance South the sun shines night and day for several days. The earth has clothed herself in summer raiment and everything stands in bloom.

For this reason it is customary to go out and pick flowers and enjoy the beauties of nature. On this day everybody enjoys himself. Beautifully decorated bowers built of young birch, in which refreshments are served and Maypoles decorated with leaves, garlands, flags, etc., are the chief decorations. Here the young and old enjoy themselves with various kinds of games and amusements. This celebration is usually held midsummer evening or June 23.

In this country and other countries where the Swedish people are gathered in large groups, they usually observe this day with a midsummer picnic. So it has been in Duluth with the different societies, but as each society could hold this only for the benefit of its own members, it was planned this year for all to join in one big body in order to make a midsummer festival as great as possible.

The different organizations which are taking part in this festival are the following: S. H. & E. P., a large organization with about 600 members; Vasa Orden, with about the same number; Orpheus Singing society; Svea Glee club; the Good Templar lodges and Synthod. Several of these societies have branches throughout the Northwest and they have all been invited and promised to be present. It is anticipated that between 15,000 and 20,000 will take part.

The festival starts with a parade at 1 p. m. from the Armory, proceeding to Superior street and from there to Lincoln Park. The parade will be led by the city marshal, with John Lawrence as assistant. Gus H. Lindstrom is chairman of the parade committee.

COLLINS WELL KNOWN IN DULUTH

Body of Man Killed at Willow River Sent to St. Paul.

James Raymond Collins, 31 years old, a Northern Pacific railroad conductor, who was cut to pieces by a freight train early yesterday morning at Willow River, Minn., was well known to many Duluth railroad men. Fred Olson, of Olson & Crawford, returned today where he was called immediately following the death of Collins. The body was prepared for burial and sent to Collins' home in St. Paul.

Collins had been lame and his left arm severed from his body, his chest crushed, his right arm mashed and his head mutilated. He is survived by a wife and two children, in St. Paul and also by six brothers.

FIRST SERVICES IN NEW CHURCH.

The new $60,000 St. Clement's Catholic church, which will be formally dedicated on July 16, will be used for the first time for divine services next Sunday. Mass will be sung there for the first time at 10:30 a. m. A large class of children will be confirmed. The interior work has been completed and everything is in readiness for the dedication. Rev. Augustine Brockmeyer, pastor of St. Clement's parish, will deliver a short sermon Sunday morning in honor of the opening of the church.

The new structure replaces the old church, which was burned in January, 1910.

Brindos-Robinson.

The wedding of Miss Felice Camille Brindos and William Robinson will take place tomorrow at the West end, the ceremony to be performed at the bride home, 2601 West First street. Both of the young people are well known in the West end, where they will make their future home.

West End Briefs.

Stense Parkovich and his wife, Caroline Parkovich, both of the West end.

DON'T BUY BOTTLED PROMISES

Newbro's Herpicide Is Bottled Results.—Results Are What You Want.

A feeling of uncertainty, a dread of possible disappointment, a dread of an "off brand" hair preparation. That is part of the purchase, just as much so as the label on the bottle.

You don't get this with a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide. It is not an experiment. You number among your acquaintances and friends hundreds who have used Herpicide with satisfaction, and you know that you can do the same. The results are always positive, always right.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and stops falling hair. Any druggist will sell you a one dollar size bottle under an absolute guarantee.

WILL NOT TRADE CALIFORNIA LAND

Robert B. Whiteside Offered to Treat With Government for Cash.

Robert B. Whiteside has returned from Washington, D. C., where he went on invitation of the California delegation in congress to consider a proposition to receive government lands in exchange for the famous Calaveras grove in California. The California land comprises 12,500 acres, which includes the famous grove of huge sequoias.

Mr. Whiteside estimates that there are more than 800,000 feet of timber on the land, valued at an average price of $2.50 a thousand, in the present market. Mr. Whiteside offered the tract to the government for that sum and declined to consider any proposition that involved trading in timber lands.

When the California delegation found that the purchase price would be about $2,000,000 they appeared to think that the government would be averse to paying so much money for the proposed reserve. Mr. Whiteside said that he is satisfied with the property as an investment and that he is not eager to sell. When he does, however, he will not ask an exorbitant price because of the character and location of the property and its availability for the purposes to which the government would put it.

Mr. Whiteside said he will sell the big grove on the same basis quoted by him for the entire property.

WANT GERMANY TO JOIN IN PEACE PACT.

New York, June 20.—The national German-American alliance has issued here the translation of a strong appeal addressed to the people of Germany, pleading for their assistance in having their government adopt the peace and arbitration treaty proposed by President Taft.

LOSES LIFE SHOWING NATURAL BEAUTY SPOT.

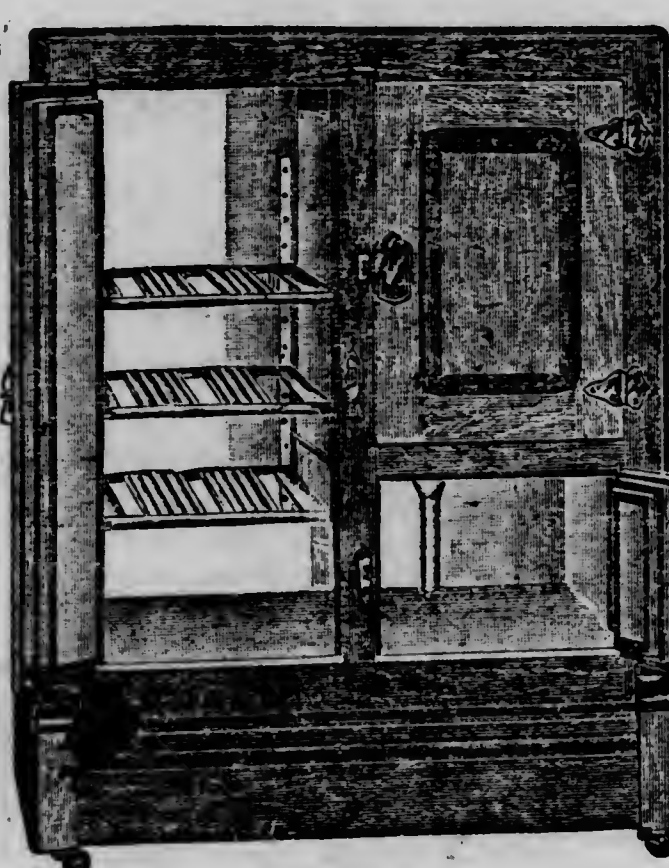

Titica, N. Y., June 20.—To show the well known naturalist the beauties of the Trenton Falls gorge, Eugene A. Rowland, one of the most prominent attorneys of Rome, took John Burroughs there yesterday and fell into the stream from a rocky path and was drowned. Mr. Burroughs and Mr. Rowland were proceeding along a narrow path about twenty feet above the stream when the latter tripped and plunged down the embankment into the water. Mr. Burroughs ran to a power house nearby for assistance, when he returned with P. S. Daley, Mr. Rowland had gone down. Daley dived into the stream and brought up the victim, but effort to revive him proved futile.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—Mrs. HELENA SETHI, Pound, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

SHAKE HANDS 5,000 TIMES

President and Mrs. Taft Greet Guests at Silver Wedding.

Thousand More Crowd Out- side Fence of White House Grounds.

Washington, June 20.—The silver wedding celebration of the president and Mrs. Taft, the second that has been held in the White House, came to an end last night with the reception of the United States supreme court, the senate and the house of representatives, the departments of the government, the men who are high in political affairs of the country, the army, the navy and every walk in life, almost, were present.

Thousands stood outside the iron fence that surrounds the grounds and looked longingly at the electric display, the splashing fountain and the gay throng within. Washington seldom gets excited about anything, but it showed its interest in the anniversary of the president in the unimpeachable fashion.

At 9 o'clock, to the strains of a wedding march, the president and Mrs. Taft came slowly down the staircase of the White House, preceded by the six presidential aides, and followed by the cabinet. Out through the red room, the rear portion of the mansion, down the broad steps and out on to the lawn the procession marched, while hundreds of guests watched their progress. They took their stand beneath two trees just about the center of the lawn, whose branches were joined by an electric sign flashing 1884-1911.

Sought Informality. The reception was just as informal as the president could make it. Those who could, waited in line for hours to shake hands, but many slipped out of the line and sought the shaded walks, the chairs, waiting on the grass or wandered at will through the lower floors of the mansion.

Many numbered into the hundreds, and whose money value ran high into the thousands, attracted many, while others turned to the East room, whose polished floor echoed to the tread of the dancers.

Mrs. Taft surprised even those familiar with the improvement in health that she has shown by remaining by the president's side in the evening. She wore a gown of white satin, brocaded with silver flowers, with a court train. Miss Helen Taft, who was near at hand, wore a gown of pink satin with a tunic of pink chiffon.

It was after midnight that the band struck up "Home, Sweet Home," the last dancers swept out on the floor of the East room, and the president felt that he could retire.

Ex-Consul Arrested. George Schmucker, former consul of the United States to Canada and Mexico, who was arrested at the east entrance of the White House, the ex-consul insisted that he had no part in the party, and was sent to the president's office, where he was held for observation.

Schmucker was recently relieved from his post owing to a nervous breakdown. He had come to this country and had been stopping at Stanton, Va., but came to Washington last night. Theodore F. Schreyer, Schmucker's uncle and an official stenographer of the president, requested that Schmucker be held for observation. No weapons were found on the man.

ACTION IS URGED IN HAZEN CASE

Chairman Peterson of Bel- trami County Board Puts Matter Up to Governor.

St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—Viggo Peterson, chairman of the board of county commissioners of Beltrami county, called on Governor Eberhart yesterday and urged the appointment of a commission to inquire into the official conduct of A. E. Hazen, sheriff of Beltrami county. Several weeks ago formal charges were filed with Governor Eberhart against Sheriff Hazen, and they were turned over to the attorney general's department for an opinion as to whether they were in the proper form. Governor Eberhart assured Mr. Peterson that as soon as a formal opinion is received he will appoint a commission to inquire into the charges if, in the opinion of the legal department, such action is warranted.

NEW GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO DEFIED

Insurrectos in State of More- los Armed Again By Zapata.

City of Mexico, June 20.—In what appears to be open defiance of the constituted government and the wishes of the former leader of the revolution, Emiliano Zapata has re-armed some hundreds of former insurrectos in Cuernavaca, the capital of the state of Morelos. His action has placed Francisco I. Madero in a most embarrassing position and may result in orders being issued to General Figueroa Zapata's one-time commander, to lead against him the troops of Guerrero.

Madero has ordered Zapata to report here, to give him an opportunity to explain. That he will avail himself of this offer is considered by most persons improbable.

West Cabinet Changed. An effort to bring about changes in the cabinet of President De La Barra, it has been learned, is blocked by a faction in the revolutionist party desiring the resignations of Rafael Hernandez as minister of justice, Emilio Vasquez Gomez as minister of government and Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez as minister of public instruction. Revolutionists behind the movement conferred with Francisco I. Madero last night in an effort to have him use his influence with President De La Barra to bring about the cabinet make-up. Much secrecy has characterized the operations of the insurgents within the revolutionist party, but it is not generally believed their move will be successful, since President De La Barra is said to be unwilling to make changes at this time.

The removal of Hernandez as minister of justice is requested by the faction of the new regime because certain justices, including Judge Perez Leon, who are alleged to have unlawfully imprisoned many revolutionists early in the insurrection, have not yet been ousted.

Your Neighbor's Experience. How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. E. G. Whiting, 360 Willow street, Akron, Ohio, says: "For some time I had a very serious case of kidney trouble and I suffered with backaches and dizzy headaches. I had specks floating before my eyes and I felt all tired out and miserable. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and got a bottle and took them according to directions. The results showed almost at once. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eyesight became clear, and today I can say I am a well woman, thanks to Foley Kidney Pills. For sale by all druggists."

SENATOR GIVES BLOOD TO WIFE

Luke Lea of Tennessee In- sists on Transfusion Operation.

Washington, June 20.—United States Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, to save the life of his stricken wife, sacrificed a quart of his blood at Georgetown hospital, and hope for Mrs. Lea's recovery, which had almost been abandoned, is practically assured. Senator Lea, upon learning of her condition, demanded that a transfusion operation be performed, and prepared at once to submit to the ordeal. Attending physicians and surgeons made arrangements immediately, and the operation which followed was declared to have been very successful.

Senator Lea withstood the operation well, though it cost him the blood that for hours he could not stand alone, but his gratification at the relieving effect of the transfusion was inexpressible. Surgeons assured him that with this blood transfusion which he made Mrs. Lea could have lived but a few hours. It will be two or three days before Mrs. Lea is altogether out of danger.

WATCHING THE SCHOOLS.

United Norwegian Lutherans Want No Religious Teaching There.

St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—In compliance with the unanimous decision of the delegates of the United Norwegian Lutheran church convention President Dail yesterday appointed Rev. A. I. Hulting of Grand Forks, N. D., official delegate from the convention to the convention of the Lutheran Augustana synod, now meeting in Duluth. Rev. Mr. Hulting started immediately for Duluth.

The fact that a delegate has been sent is looked upon as a sign of a continuation of pleasant relations between the Scandinavian church bodies. The annual report of the synod's home hospital in Chicago was read. During the past year there have been 200 more patients than any previous year. The total was 12,008.

The president's report recommends the advisability of congregations keeping in touch with the instruction in the public schools. The church body realizes it has no right to meddle with the public schools, but it has been reported that in a few instances public school teachers have sought to inculcate their own religious views into the minds of the children of the church. He believes that wherever this is done it is the duty of the church to call attention to the fact that it is the function of the public schools to interfere with the religious faith held by any of its pupils.

COREY COSTUME BALL GAY.

Champagne Flows Freely and Guests Throw Orbits and Bread.

New York, June 20.—A Paris cablegram to the World says that Mr. and Mrs. William E. Corey, who have this season been making their entrance into Parisian-American society by several large entertainments, gave last week a costume ball which is expected to launch them on a special career.

The affair has been the talk of the American colony ever since because of numerous incidents attending it. Champagne flowed as recklessly as when the wine growers were on strike in the Rheims district, emptying barrels of sparkling wine. Some of the company became so lively at the supper table that they broke an important battle of flowers, throwing orchids and other costly blossoms across the room at their fair neighbors. This was followed by tossing bread.

HANDS WOULD BURN LIKE FIRE

Could Lay Pin in Cracks. Four Long Years of Eczema. Only Relief in Scratching. Used One Set of Cuticura Remedies.

Hands Entirely Well.

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of eczema. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I could lay a pin in them. After using all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all did me no good. The only relief I got was scratching."

"So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. Today my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed) Miss Etta Nerber, R. F. D. 2, Spring Lake, Mich., Sept. 1, 1910.

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of the Cuticura Remedies in the treatment of torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin. A simple hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases and permit rest and sleep when all else fails. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are equally effective in preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole proposers, 139 Columbus Ave., Boston.

Mail free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 25c. book.

NO STADIUM AT YALE.
DECIDES CORPORATION.

New Haven, Conn., June 20.—The Yale corporation unanimously accepted the report of the alumni advisory board advising that the erection of a stadium along the line already presented and at a cost given was not advisable and that a special committee should be appointed to consider the matter further.

The corporation elected Charles F. Scott, consulting engineer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company, professor of electrical engineering in the scientific school.

The resignation of Prof. Henry S. Graves of the forestry school as a director was accepted and he was granted another year's leave of absence to continue as United States forestier.

Prof. Henry L. Wheeler's resignation from the professorship of organic chemistry in the scientific school and from the governing board, was accepted.

BEHAN'S WIFE TO JOIN HIM

Says This Is His First Experience at Safe Cracking.

Woman Will Go From Grand Forks, N. D., to Bemidji.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.) Mrs. Marie Behan, wife of the crackman arrested in the fight at Puposky, Minn., when he and his pal, "Curley" Davis, were surprised in their work Saturday, is in Grand Forks and will leave tonight for Bemidji to join her husband in the jail there. Interviewed this morning, Mrs. Behan declared that she was surprised to hear of her husband's arrest, and that she had absolutely no knowledge of any adventures upon his part in the role of a bank robber.

With tears streaming from her eyes, Mrs. Behan, slight in stature and certainly not more than 30 years old, tucked off her hair, she said, had been a housewife at Hillsboro, N. D., nine years before coming to Grand Forks several years ago. He secured employment in an East Grand Forks saloon, and his first trouble came when he was arrested two years after entering the saloon business, on a charge of robbery, from which he was cleared.

For some time her husband has been out of employment, she said, until about a week ago, when he received a telephone message from Bemidji to the effect that there was some work there. That was the last Mrs. Behan had heard from him, and she was of the opinion that the work had failed to pan out, that he had gone to drink, and in that manner had become involved in the Puposky affair. She stoutly maintains that her husband was without previous experience in safe-cracking.

DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION FAILED—THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY PROVES ITS MERIT.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the patent medicines that is better than many of the prescriptions prescribed by doctors at least it has done more good for backache and kidney trouble than any other medicine I know of and I always recommend it to my friends as I know it can't be beat.

I had a severe backache sometime ago which could not be cured by the doctors' medicine. I am glad to say however that Swamp-Root cured me in a few weeks time.

So certain am I that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a medicine of merit that I send you this testimonial which you can use any time.

Yours very truly,
JACOB DORNACHEER, Edwardville, Ill.

When writing, be sure and mention the Duluth Daily Herald. Regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Victor I $25
Other styles $10 to $100
Victor-Victrolas $50 to $350

The greatest pleasure that comes from the possession of any musical instrument is to be able to hear at will the world's best music sung and played by the world's greatest artists.

And of all instruments the Victor and Victor-Victrola alone bring you this exquisite music in all its beauty.

Only through their use in combination with Victor Records is it possible to secure the full, clear, rich, true-to-life, musical Victor tone which has become the ideal in the world of music.

If you haven't recently heard a Victor, you haven't a clear understanding of its wonderful perfection. And as no is so necessary to every American home, you owe it yourself to go to any Victor dealer and hear this most wonderful of all musical instruments.

And be sure to hear the Victor-Victrola

Always use Victor Records, played with Victor Needles—there is no other way to get the unequalled Victor tone.

SUIT AGAINST MIDDLECOFF

Thomas Clark, Jr., Claims He Did Not Receive Full Salary.

The case of Thomas Clark, Jr., against Jehu B. Middlecoff for $600, wages claimed to be due him for work performed under Mr. Middlecoff in the probate court, was begun this morning before Judge Dancer.

As basis for a first cause of action Mr. Clark claims that he was employed in the probate office when Mr. Middlecoff was judge. He claims that he drew $150 each month, the amount set by law, and that each month he paid to Rose Behoff, another clerk in the office, the sum of $50. This was between the months of May, 1908, and June, 1909. The complaint states that he was forced to do this at the direction of Mr. Middlecoff and under fear of losing his position. He claims that Miss Behoff drew $25 from the county and that her work for Mr. Middlecoff was largely of a personal nature.

For a second cause of action, Mr. Clark claims that while in the employ of Mr. Middlecoff he paid persons and firms various sums of money, which amounted in all to $60. This he claims has never been paid, although Mr. Middlecoff had promised to pay him.

Attorney Fulton appears for Mr. Middlecoff and C. C. Teare for Mr. Clark.

COOL WEATHER BULLETIN ACTIVE

Duluth Continues to Be the Coolest Place on the Map.

The Duluth cool weather bulletin, which the Commercial club inaugurated to inform people in the warm cities of the country that Duluth is cool, is working. It has something to work at, for Duluth continues to be about the coolest place on the map.

That, despite the fact that the mercury went up to 90 deg. yesterday, if one had not taken the trouble to look at a thermometer or a weather report yesterday, he would not have known that the mercury was up to 90 deg. The absence of humidity in the air robbed the heat of most of its oppressiveness. If one were out in the sun for some time, he would know it was hot, but the heat was not nearly as uncomfortable as a lower temperature with an excess of humidity would be.

Last night the early part of the evening was warm, but during the night the temperature dropped to 81 deg. Today, the mercury didn't get above 65 deg., and the cool breeze is refreshing and stimulating.

A temperature of 90 deg. during the day in an inland city would be followed by a sweltering night, whereas Duluth slept under blankets last night. The "backache" traceable to your stand a second dose of 90 deg. weather, but the weather man is kind to Duluth and doesn't give it the test.

The men in charge of Duluth publicity work are beginning to realize that Duluth's greatest asset is its climate, and they are informing people in other cities of that fact. Duluth has possibilities as the greatest summer resort in the country and efficient publicity work will bring thousands of visitors here every year.

WORKING HARD TO RAISE SMITH SCHOLARSHIP FUND.

The officers of the Duluth Central High School Alumni association are meeting today the following letter to the local members and citizens and former attendants at the high school.

"Dear Fellow Alumni—The officers into whose charge the D. C. H. S. Alumni association has entrusted the matter of raising the Smith Memorial Scholarship fund, are giving every effort to complete this before the enthusiasm dies out.

"Somewhat dissatisfied with the response to the circular letter and the attendance at the box office of the Lyceum theater, Duluth, whereby a certain portion of all the receipts for the week starting Tuesday, June 27, and including the day of the Lyceum, were given during that week by the Cus A. Forbes stock company, playing Clyde Fitch's comedy, 'The Bachelor,' traceable to your attendance, shall be applied to the scholarship fund. To secure as large revenue as possible you are urged to make up a party if convenient, or at any rate to attend in person, some one of the performances.

"Be sure to present the enclosed tickets at the box office of the Lyceum theater, as it is only in this way we can secure credit for the fund.

"Let us all get behind the scholarship fund movement and push it until it becomes a reality, reflecting credit upon our association and our school."

The officers of the association are Edward Furl, president; Miss Hazel Owens, vice president; Miss Hazel Robinson, secretary, and Victor Rakowski, treasurer.

The scholarship which the association is working to establish is the first one that will be available to high school students. The local high school is not on an equal footing with many smaller schools in this part of the state. The present time there is not one scholarship in the local high school for the students. After the death of Charles Alden Smith, who was for ten years principal of the school, the movement was started to raise a fund to make possible a memorial scholarship for Mr. Smith, who was one of the best loved educators that Duluth has ever had.

As yet the association has not made a general appeal to the business men of the city for gifts to this fund as every effort is being made to make a good start on the $5,000 before the help of the citizens is asked in liberal gifts. Through the generosity of Mr. Forbes and the management of the Lyceum a percentage of next week's receipts for seats secured on the exchange of the tickets mailed today, will be turned over to the fund.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

DID ABOUT ONE SIXTH

North Dakota Insurance Companies Fared Pretty Well Last Year.

Annual Report of Commissioner of Insurance Taylor Is Issued.

Bismarck, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual report of the state insurance department compiled by Commissioner W. C. Taylor shows that the North Dakota insurance companies did considerable of the insurance business in 1910. During the year the national and state mutual fire companies wrote risks to the amount of $120,859,379.38, received $2,282,766.26 in premiums, incurred $1,372,147.94 of losses and paid $1,256,411.79 in claims. Of the total business North Dakota companies did about one-sixth. County mutual insurance companies wrote 6,318 policies, representing a loss of $12,084,235.07, collected $35,074.15 in premiums, incurred losses of $62,601.61 and paid losses to the amount of $61,429.29.

The risks of the hall insurance companies amounted to $17,368,843.51 while they received in premiums $181,852.61. The losses incurred were $365,859.05.

264.05 while those paid reached $365,859.05.

Life Insurance Business. Life insurance companies wrote 7,663 policies, 1,037 ceased to operate and at the end of the year 31,022 were in force. These represented a risk of $59,985,240.25. Premiums collected amounted to $1,781,301.28, losses incurred totaled $287,865.31 and losses paid summed up $296,543.01.

Fraternal Insurance. Fraternal insurance associations wrote 8,634 policies during the year while 6,103 ceased to exist and left $2,791 in force, representing a risk of $771,106,577. They collected in premiums $556,053.30, incurred losses of $473,164.53 and paid out $464,345.52.

Miscellaneous Insurance. In miscellaneous insurance, such as accident, plate glass, and surety the risks written amounted to $36,553,018.95, the premiums collected to $270,719.17, the losses incurred to $101,829.23 and the losses paid to $91,463.43.

THREE MEET WITH VIOLENT ENDINGS

Copper Country Reports Suicide, Child Burning and Fatal Shooting.

Calumet, Mich., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—There have been an unusual number of violent deaths in this locality in the last two days, a suicide, a fatal shooting and child burning to death being reported.

Joseph Minto of Ontonagon, 57 years old, a recluse, committed suicide by blowing the top of his head off with a shot gun. From the position of the body and the gun it is evident he sprang the muzzle against his head and killed himself.

Helma Siler, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Siler, was burned to death here. The child was playing with a handful of matches. All of them lighted and fell on her dresses and the little one's clothing was a mass of flames in an instant. The mother's hands were burned terribly in an effort to extinguish the flames.

Louis Golop, aged 22, was accidentally shot through the heart and killed by his mining partner, Anton O. Zich, aged 17, yesterday afternoon, while the two were examining a loaded 38-caliber revolver in Golop's boarding house. Zich was arrested but was released from custody on his own recognizance.

ELKS ARE HEADING FOR GRAND FORKS

North Dakota Herd to Gather There in Annual Association Meet.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The antlered herd of North Dakota, in other words the Elks, are turning their faces toward this city and already the advance guard has arrived for the annual state association meeting which begins here tomorrow.

The annual meet will be held from 2 p. m. to 6 tomorrow. There will be an address of welcome by Mayor M. F. Murphy, responses by Addison Leech, state deputy grand ruler, for the state association, and by Tracy R. Bangs, grand ruler of the local lodge. The program of the next place of meeting.

Parade Thursday. Tomorrow evening the automobile parade will take place followed by a theater party. Thursday morning there will be the big parade of Elks with the plume and the Elks. The plume promises to be something unusually fine, the city having given the Elks the exclusive rights to the big parade in which the affair will take place.

DROWNING SEASON CLAIMING VICTIMS

Four Young Minnesotans Lose Lives in the Past Two Days.

Prior Lake, Minn., June 20.—Exhausted in his efforts to rescue George Boiz, 13 years old, from drowning in Prior lake late Sunday, Louis Shapner, 26 years old, sank and both were drowned. The two were sons of farmers living near Prior Lake. The bodies were soon recovered.

Pipestone, Minn., June 20.—Left alone on the farm to take care of the cattle, while their parents drove to Danabod, two young sons of Peter Christensen, residing near Ruel, lost their lives in a small lake on the farm. The boys finished the chores and took a small boat and rowed out into the lake. In some manner the boat capsized. The lake was dragged and both bodies recovered.

UNWRITTEN LAW MAY BE SIVERT SIMPSON'S DEFENSE.

Crookston, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The trial of Sivert Simpson for the murder of Theodore Nelson last December, has been set for June 27. County Attorney Maybury will prosecute. Sivert Simpson, 21, of Crookston, is charged with the murder of Theodore Nelson, 21, of Crookston, on June 27. A Grady will defend. The unwritten law will probably be the defense, but this is still conjecture.

Butte Priest Honored. Butte, Mont., June 20.—A cablegram from Bishop John P. Carroll at Rome announces the appointment of Pope Pius of Rev. Father Peter Desiere of St. Patrick's parish of Butte to be domestic prelate with the title of co-signor. The investment of robes of the office will take place upon the return of Bishop Carroll to Montana in August next.

There are but six monsignors in the entire Northwest, each of which is the vicar general of his diocese. The investment of Father Desiere will be the first of its kind in the history of Montana.

BEMIDJI PLANS TO WELCOME BANKERS

Lake Rides, Pike Dinner and Trip to International Falls Promised.

Bemidji, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Minnesota State Bankers' association, as well as famous financiers from Chicago and New York, will be the guests of Bemidji tomorrow at the twenty-second annual convention of the association, which will be held at the First National bank.

A. G. Wedge, vice president of the First National bank of Bemidji, is treasurer of the bankers' association; W. L. Brooks, cashier of the Northern National bank, is a member of the executive council; and they, with H. C. Baer, cashier of the Security State bank, and R. H. Schumaker, cashier of the First National bank, of this city, are active in the arrangements and program. These gentlemen are arranging for the co-operation of Bemidji citizens generally in the welcome to the visitors, and it is expected that the convention will be an interesting moment during the stay in Bemidji.

Special trains and regular trains will bring the bankers from the Twin Cities and Duluth and intervening points.

The local committee will meet the bankers at the hotel, and take as many as possible for a short trip in the country, and then around the town. On this trip an opportunity will be given to inspect a model dairy farm owned by W. G. Schroeder, recently established.

Pike Dinner at Diamond Point. At 11:30 o'clock delegates and guests will be conducted in automobiles to Diamond Point on Lake Bemidji where a pike dinner will be served, following which there will be automobile and launch trips around the lake.

At 7:30 o'clock there will be a band concert on the shore of the lake. Following the adjournment of the evening session, launches and automobiles will be available for trips on the lake and to the sawmills. The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, June 22, but those desiring to get earlier can do so in the train which will be available for occupancy at all times.

The program as published in The Herald will be adhered to strictly, which includes the several days of instruction papers by men of note in the financial world, with general discussions of the same, and the entertainment provided by the local committee, acting with a committee appointed by the association.

NORTH DAKOTA BANKERS WILL MEET AT FARGO.

Marion, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Wesley C. McDowell of the North Dakota Bankers' association, who is a resident of this city, announces that every arrangement of the association to be held in Fargo Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28. The program that has been provided is unusually elaborate and provides for addresses by a number of very prominent men from various sections of the state.

MANDAN POLICE CHIEF ASSAULTS RAILWAY MAN.

Mandan, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alfred Monjorg, a Northern Pacific railway engineer, was struck by Chief of Police Charles Reynolds, Sunday evening, receiving two fractures of the skull and a broken breast bone. Doctors have given up all hopes for his recovery. The feeling against Reynolds is running high. The trouble started as the result of a fight between the two men. Reynolds has yet been taken.

Boats Cannot Handle Crop. Mandan, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Indications that there will be an exceptionally large crop throughout the western Missouri river district north of Morton county, in Oliver, Mercer and Dunn counties, has resulted in a demand from this section for better facilities for the transportation of the harvest.

the office will take place upon the return of Bishop Carroll to Montana in August next.

Bemidji, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Minnesota State Bankers' association, as well as famous financiers from Chicago and New York, will be the guests of Bemidji tomorrow at the twenty-second annual convention of the association, which will be held at the First National bank.

A. G. Wedge, vice president of the First National bank of Bemidji, is treasurer of the bankers' association; W. L. Brooks, cashier of the Northern National bank, is a member of the executive council; and they, with H. C. Baer, cashier of the Security State bank, and R. H. Schumaker, cashier of the First National bank, of this city, are active in the arrangements and program. These gentlemen are arranging for the co-operation of Bemidji citizens generally in the welcome to the visitors, and it is expected that the convention will be an interesting moment during the stay in Bemidji.

Special trains and regular trains will bring the bankers from the Twin Cities and Duluth and intervening points.

The local committee will meet the bankers at the hotel, and take as many as possible for a short trip in the country, and then around the town. On this trip an opportunity will be given to inspect a model dairy farm owned by W. G. Schroeder, recently established.

Pike Dinner at Diamond Point. At 11:30 o'clock delegates and guests will be conducted in automobiles to Diamond Point on Lake Bemidji where a pike dinner will be served, following which there will be automobile and launch trips around the lake.

At 7:30 o'clock there will be a band concert on the shore of the lake. Following the adjournment of the evening session, launches and automobiles will be available for trips on the lake and to the sawmills. The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, June 22, but those desiring to get earlier can do so in the train which will be available for occupancy at all times.

The program as published in The Herald will be adhered to strictly, which includes the several days of instruction papers by men of note in the financial world, with general discussions of the same, and the entertainment provided by the local committee, acting with a committee appointed by the association.

NORTH DAKOTA BANKERS WILL MEET AT FARGO.

Marion, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Wesley C. McDowell of the North Dakota Bankers' association, who is a resident of this city, announces that every arrangement of the association to be held in Fargo Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28. The program that has been provided is unusually elaborate and provides for addresses by a number of very prominent men from various sections of the state.

MANDAN POLICE CHIEF ASSAULTS RAILWAY MAN.

Mandan, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alfred Monjorg, a Northern Pacific railway engineer, was struck by Chief of Police Charles Reynolds, Sunday evening, receiving two fractures of the skull and a broken breast bone. Doctors have given up all hopes for his recovery. The feeling against Reynolds is running high. The trouble started as the result of a fight between the two men. Reynolds has yet been taken.

Boats Cannot Handle Crop. Mandan, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Indications that there will be an exceptionally large crop throughout the western Missouri river district north of Morton county, in Oliver, Mercer and Dunn counties, has resulted in a demand from this section for better facilities for the transportation of the harvest.

DISORDERED DIGESTION

If Neglected May Develop Into Severe Form of Stomach Trouble.

The Best Safeguard Is to Keep the Stomach Toned Up and the Treatment Should Be Begun When the First Symptom Is Noted.

Palpitation of the heart does not imply that the vital organ is diseased. Pain in the back does not necessarily mean kidney disease.

Headache does not often indicate that there is anything wrong with your head. All of these symptoms are caused by stomach trouble and when this is righted the alarming symptoms disappear. If you have them look to the condition of your stomach for the cause before you start to treat the symptoms rather than the disease.

Mrs. George E. Shields, of No. 1139 1/2 Pierre street, Manhattan, Kans., says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills effected a remarkable cure for me nine years ago. For four or five years previous to that time I had suffered at intervals of from six weeks to two months from what the doctors called acute indigestion. My physician put me on a diet but in spite of all precautions those spells came on just the same and I was suffering more and more. I could not eat anything at all without distressing pains. It seemed as if there was a knot in my stomach and it was being twisted around. My stomach was so sore that even the pressure of my clothes kept me in constant misery and at times it was hard for me to breathe.

"Then I was persuaded to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and when I had taken only about half a box I saw that they were helping me. I continued to take them until I had used three boxes and in the meantime ventured to eat things which I had never dared to eat before and suffered no ill effects.

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me and I have never had a spell of indigestion during the nine years which have elapsed. I have gained in weight from scarcely one hundred pounds to one hundred and thirty-eight and feel perfectly well. Words cannot express the gratitude and confidence I have in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

PEPER'S TRUE SMOKE

A man who smokes Peper's smoke eats better, thinks better, sleeps better—that's true.

"Supper Ready"

When you get back to camp, tired and hungry, you do not want to spend the evening getting supper ready. You want a stove you can start up in a minute—that will cook quickly and well.

For camp, houseboat or bungalow, a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove is the ideal cooking device. It is ready for use in a moment. It saves all the trouble of cutting wood and getting in coal. It does not overheat or make dirt in a kitchen; there are no ashes nor smoke. It requires less attention and cooks better than any other range.

FIVE LAND SEEKERS QUIT LINE IN FEDERAL BUILDING

Date and Manner of Fond du Lac Opening Are in Doubt.

Some Are Ready to Remain in the Line All Summer.

There is a feeling of uneasiness among the men and women who make up the line of land seekers in the corridor of the federal building today. As a result of the information given out yesterday by The Herald that the opening of the government land at the Fond du Lac reservation would not take place until probably September, five men left the line last evening, while only one addition was made to it. There are now 12 men waiting at the door of the land office.

During the day time a visitor to the federal building will see many women lined up, and many express surprise that many are seeking land. But of the large number, only five women are going to file for themselves, and they declare that they will stick to the line as long as any of the men.

Mrs. Anna Steffen, wife of Fred Steffen of Brookston, is "camping" in the corridors, in spite of the fact that but a few weeks ago she was discharged from the hospital following a serious surgical operation. "My husband has a farm near Brookston," she stated this morning. "I am anxious to have one myself. I have selected a claim near his farm. I want to file on it if I can. I am feeling quite comfortable here and believe myself able to stand the wait just as well as any of the men."

Mrs. Nellie Wilson, a widow of Brookston, is in the line, and seeks land for herself. She seems to have much confidence in herself as a woman to handle the land if she can get it. Mrs. Edith Wood, also of Brookston, is desirous of getting a parcel of ground in that reservation, and claims she will stay there until the time for filing.

Mrs. Ida Risenia is a Finnish woman giving her address as 394 St. Croix avenue, Duluth, who wants a section of land. There is a young unmarried woman in the line, Miss Hilma Katranen of Duluth. She, too, is Finnish, and has difficulty in expressing her ambitions to get land, although she states she wants a plot of ground for herself.

No further light has been thrown upon the perplexing question of the opening, but nearly all some definite word has been received from Washington regarding the fact of the opening. The local office has received no word, and is at a loss to know what to say about the matter.

There is to be an opening, that is a certainty, but no date can be given out except by the land authorities at Washington. When they have decided upon the date, they will notify the local officials, who in turn must advise the forty days before the date of opening.

The letters which have been received by parties in the Northwest interested in this opening have undoubtedly been misinterpreted, and the fact that it is to be conveyed being that notice would be given some time about the middle of July. This would place the opening at about Sept. 1.

As there is a new land commissioner at Washington, there is some doubt as to the manner in which the opening may be held. It is believed that the opening will be held in the Dakotas, and will be conducted under the system of drawing as was done in the Coeur d'Alene lands, in which case the landseekers must put in applications. This is believed to be the best and the fairest manner in conducting the opening, and it does away with the nuisance of having a long line waiting at the door of the land office.

Crop of Contests. The opening of land in the Fond du Lac reservation on June 20, last year, resulted in five land contests, involving many parties, and of which some are still pending. While many men are filing on the land, others are near the reservation ready to settle upon it as soon as the opening is made. The land is open to settlement on section 12, 50-19, and on section 12, 50-19, and on section 12, 50-19. The filings of these two parties do not in any way conflict.

Smallwood, however, went to the land taking his position on opened land and waited until 9 o'clock, when he crossed the line and began his settlement. The filing of Smallwood was made at 9:06, while Dr. Ryan's was made a little later. It is averred by the defendants that Smallwood committed trespass in getting to the government land, and that so doing he lost all his claim. The government land is surrounded by the land which was to be opened. The sections which he crossed over are contained only in the section which the defendants claim that it would have been impossible for Smallwood to pass from one section to the other without passing over the land to be opened. The case has an interesting law point involved, which is attracting considerable attention. W. E. Cullen is attorney for Smallwood, while O. J.

ing tried, filed an answer to the divorce suit recently begun by her husband in which charges of undue intimacy with See were contained. Bridges left his wife soon after the exposure of the See cult and the subsequent indictment of See. In her answer to the divorce suit, Bridges left her husband without reasonable cause. Bridges also has pending suits for damages for $10,000 against See, charging him with alienation of his wife's affections and the abduction of his daughter.

A prosecutor Burnham then read into the record the world's new record. See, speaking of the spirit of wisdom personified in his own body, said: "I am he, whom it was announced would come to lead to a new world whom all men seek. I am now suffering from the fact that I am not Him who sent me."

Amnesia of Ghost. Attorney Carwell for the defense, tried to show that the extracts had not been written by See, but by a spirit, which was the cause of the amnesia. He moved that the extract be stricken from the evidence, but he was overruled.

Continuing the prosecutor read many pages, through which See claimed to be a divine agent for the purpose of purifying the world by creating a new race of men and women, all to be physically and spiritually perfect.

Mildred Bridges, with whose abduction See is charged, and Mona Rees, his friend and confidante, were in the home of the cult, were barred from the courtroom during the reading of the extracts.

HEAD OF HARVESTER COMPANY TESTIFIES IN LORIMER PROBE

International Harvester company, then took the stand. Provided with an ample corps of attorneys, clerks, stenographers and other assistants, the committee is prepared to proceed with the work as rapidly as circumstances will permit. The meeting today it was expected that an adjournment would be taken until Thursday.

The committee continues to promise that if possible the work will be concluded during the present session of congress. Every person mentioned in connection with the case will be examined, together with new witnesses, and it is believed that visits to both Chicago and Springfield will be necessary. Mr. Lorimer himself will be questioned.

Will Have Legal Aid. The committee has secured the assistance of John H. Marble, an attorney for the Interstate Commerce commission and of John J. Healy, who acted for the Illinois senate in the same capacity. Former Judge Eldridge Haneey of Chicago, will be counsel for Mr. Lorimer, as he was in the previous inquiry.

The first inquiry was conducted by the committee on privileges and elections without the assistance of special counsel.

As now arranged the first witness on the stand will be Governor Richard Yates of Illinois, but there will be no decision as to who shall follow him. It is expected, however, that Mr. Funk will be called at an early day, as announced by the committee. The Illinois inquiry were the result of his testimony before the Helm committee. Mr. Lorimer is not expected to appear until much later in the inquiry.

DETECTIVES KEEP UP HUNT FOR YEGGMAN WOUNDED AT PUPOSKY

Further information along this line is unobtainable from those in charge, but it is believed that the whereabouts of the missing yegg will be known before the end of the week.

The identity of the third man who is said to have driven Davis and Behan to Puposky is said to have been established. He is said to be a Bemidji man, but the officers refuse to give out his name. It is intimated that the man will be placed under arrest within twenty-four hours.

Had No Lookout. Inside information as to the work this third yeggman did the night of the fight at Puposky is that the yeggs and their associates had no lookout. It would be so easy that they put the third man to taking care of the wires and the door to the store. The yeggs were out of Puposky, instead of acting as a lookout, and were guarding the work of the men inside with the dynamite and matches.

The man threw a rope over the wires and dragged them to the ground. When there was shooting, and the yeggs were known to have been hurt, this third man released the wires and attempted to get into town. He was followed by other points to warn Dumas and confederates, say the detectives, but he was not seen again.

Nothing could get through. Replying to Mayor Dumas' assertion that he received the check for $200 found on him and $100 in currency for some time ago, the detectives assert no less than four eye witnesses heard the bargain made when Dumas agreed to have Davis and Behan blow the store and burn the store at Puposky, and that Dr. Dumas accepted the check for $300 and that this will be proved by witnesses whose veracity is above reproach. Smith, who signed the check, will say nothing except that it will be brought out that he has done nothing but what was in accord with a prearranged plan, and is guilty of no real wrong.

Dr. Dumas refuses to comment further regarding the check found on him by Chief of Police Waring of Hibbing. This check was signed by R. E. Smyth, who owns the building which was to have been robbed and burned at Puposky.

Allege Aaron Plot. The detectives declare that when Dr. Dumas learned that the Smyth building had been for sale at Puposky for some time, he had been sold, he made the proposition to burn it for the insurance money and he would see to it that the building was destroyed for $300 and that the $200 check was part payment and that he was to receive $100 in cash. It is presumed that Smyth was working in harmony with the detectives, and it is known that the $100 was in marked bills.

Firemen at Cass Lake have told the detectives that when the Dumas residence was burned at Cass Lake there was a lot of furniture of real value in the place; that some winter overcoats and other wearing apparel had been taken to the doctor's office. A Cass Lake man who called up Dr. Dumas immediately after the fire found the doctor responding promptly at the other end.

The condition of Behan, the wounded hand, grew worse last night, but is somewhat better this morning. It is believed he will recover rapidly. Dr. Marcum, who is in charge of Behan, stated again this morning, that Behan will not be in shape physically to attend a hearing before a week or ten days. Some of the men were moved from his legs, affording relief, but no more will be taken out at present.

Confession Not Given Out. Behan's statement to the officers is not given out and there is some doubt expressed that he has yet made a clean breast of what he knows. However, detectives assert Behan will furnish their valuable and indisputable evidence corroborating in every detail the evidence furnished by the parties to the plot who were supposed to be yeggmens, but who were really officers. The situation here is rather quiet, but there is every indication that within a few hours startling developments will break, connected with the work of the state fire marshal's office in St. Paul, the Pinkerton detective agency and the state penitentiary at Stillwater, where Deputy Fire Marshal Fullerton and Detective Fielding have gone. Mr. Fullerton left here last night and was joined at Stillwater by Mr. Fielding, who spent yesterday in Hibbing and left for Stillwater late yesterday afternoon.

Too Many Fires. St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—No doubt is felt among state officials here that there is an organized gang of firebugs at work in Northern Minnesota. Whether their activities are as charged by the division in the stories from Bemidji involving prominent persons, the authorities in the capital do not claim to know, but figures on losses by fire in Minnesota, during the first five months of 1911, are $42.3 per capita, in 1910 the tax was less than $3. These figures, it is said, are conclusive of the activity of "firebugs" in Northern Minnesota. The per capita fire tax for the entire United States is only $2.51. In Europe it is only $3.

Governor Eberhart has authorized Fire Marshal C. E. Keller, in the name of the state, to offer $500 reward for the capture of Davis, the yeggman who sat away after the fight at Puposky.

F. S. Rexford, 615 New York Life building, Kansas City, Mo., says: "I had a business deal with a man, which settled in my back and kidneys, and I was in great pain from my trouble. A friend recommended Foley Kidney Pills, and I used two bottles of them and they have done me a world of good." For sale by all druggists.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

Frank Higgins Talks at the Convention in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., June 20.—Home missions was the subject that engrossed the thousands of delegates to the thirteenth annual convention of the International Sunday School Association of North America, that convened here this morning. The principal address of the morning session was delivered by Rev. Henry J. Coker of Kansas City, Mo., secretary of the board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, who spoke on "Christianity and the Home Missions."

Other speakers at the morning session were Robert M. McMillan of Cincinnati and Prof. H. M. Hammit of Nashville. There are 174,000 Sunday schools represented.

OHIO LIQUOR TAX LAW IS SUSTAINED

Saloon Keepers Will Carry It Above State Supreme Court.

Columbus, Ohio, June 20.—The Ohio state supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the Dow-Alken liquor tax law and the right under this law to collect the liquor tax in dry territory. This decision sustains the lower courts in the cases of fifty New York, Ohio saloonkeepers, who sought to restrain the collection of the tax.

The saloonkeepers were certified for taxation by deputies of the state food and dairy commissioner's office, who found the liquor sold in violation of the law after the county had been voted dry.

The saloonkeepers intend to carry the cases to the United States supreme court. The attorney general's department defended the law in the Ohio courts.

CATTLEMAN IS TAKEN FROM CELL TO HOSPITAL.

Omaha, Neb., June 20.—On an order direct from Washington, Bartlett Richards, the wealthy Nebraska cattleman who with three others has been serving a jail sentence for land frauds against the government, was taken to Rochester, Minn., three weeks ago for an operation for gallstones. The matter was kept a close secret except from Richards' intimate friends.

CRIPPEN LAWYER IS IN DISGRACE

Law Society Wants Newton's Name Taken From Rolls.

London, June 20.—Arthur Newton, the attorney for Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, who was hanged for the murder of his American wife, the actress, Belle Elmore, has been found guilty of professional misconduct in connection with the notorious case by a committee of the law society, and today the divisional court was requested to strike Newton's name from the roll of solicitors of the law society. The court adjourned without announcing its decision.

FARMERS HOPING FOR BIWABIK PUBLIC MARKET.

Biwabik, Minn., June 19.—The proposed converting of the old village light and water plant into a public market is receiving indorsement from the farmers. The farmers are beginning to bring in large amounts of produce and are calling for a warehouse management that will take all they bring in at wholesale prices, existing conditions they are compelled to sell much from house to house, and say that they would prefer to deal for cash with one firm.

ROLLA, N. D., FARMER IS GOING THROUGH BANKRUPTCY

Grand Forks, N. D., June 20.—A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Charles Jolliffe, a farmer of Rolla, N. D. Mr. Jolliffe schedules his liabilities at $3,217.59. No assets of any kind are given.

Forman, N. D., Entertains. Forman, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the fifth annual reunion of the Sargent County Old Settlers' association and the dedication of the new Sargent county courthouse as the big events for the day, Forman is entertaining a tremendous crowd today. The dedication address was delivered by Judge F. P. Allen, while an address to the old settlers was made by President John Worst of the agricultural college.

Object to Land Withdrawal. Minot, N. D., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Active protest against the order of the government by which a large portion of the Fort Berthold reservation lands has been ordered withdrawn from entry is expected to emanate from Ryder, Place and this village, of which are deeply interested in the project. The lands were withdrawn because of the presence of lignite coal.

RAILROADS INSPECTING TERMINALS

Head Officials of Northwestern Road Visit Head of Lakes.

Marvin Hughitt and President
Gardner Pay Flying Visit Here.

Officials of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad and of the Chicago,
St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road, were in the city this morning inspecting the local harbor and the terminals.
The trip was merely one of inspection, being made about once a year and no plans are said to be under way for any improvements.

The party left Chicago a few days ago in a special train of five private cars and a baggage car. The trip was made principally over the Wisconsin division. W. D. Burr, district freight and passenger agent, of this city, met the party at Itasca, Wis., and took them on board a launch. They sailed for Superior, inspected the harbor and the terminals at Superior and Duluth.

Following this inspection the party left on the special train for Ashland where they will stop for a few hours.
The party was made up of Marvin Hughitt, chairman of the board of directors, and who was president of the Northwestern and Omaha roads for four years; W. A. Gardner, president of the Northwestern and Omaha roads;
J. T. Clark, vice president of the Omaha road; H. R. McCullough, vice president of the Northwestern road; L. A. Robinson, comptroller of both roads; J. B.
Sheehan, attorney for the Omaha; F. R.
Pechin, general superintendent of the Omaha; A. W. Trenholm, general manager of the Omaha; F. S. Carroll, purchasing agent for both roads; T. W.
Kennedy, division superintendent of the Omaha; and G. H. MacRae, general passenger agent of the Omaha.

DESPATCHERS WANT UNION

Baltimore, Md., June 20.—With delegates present from all parts of the country, including the Far West, the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Train Despatchers' Association of America began here today. The sessions will continue until Friday evening.

Chief among the subjects to come before the convention is a proposed amendment to the constitution, the effect of which would be to change the association from a benevolent and fraternal to a labor organization. The advocates of the amendment argue that by making the organization effective for protective purposes, more members will be gained, pointing out that only about 20 per cent of the train despatchers of the country are as yet enrolled in the association.

AMONG RAILROAD MEN

W. G. Mitsch, traveling passenger agent for the Chicago, Great Western Railway company, is in the city today.
C. E. Lytle, general superintendent of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad, is in the city on business from Marquette, Mich.

D. J. Caven of Marquette, Mich., traveling agent for the South Shore, is in Duluth today.
J. H. Whittlesey, traveling freight agent for the Pere Marquette road, is here from Minneapolis on business.
David Small, traveling freight agent of the Erie road, is in the city from St. Paul.

R. E. Salter, freight and passenger agent for the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, is in Duluth from Minneapolis on business.

F. G. Gujer of Minneapolis, traveling freight agent for the Rock Island railroad, is here from Minneapolis.

BECOMING FAMOUS.

Lake Vermilion Region Attracting Visitors From All Parts of Country.

The Lake Vermilion region is becoming famous all over the United States as a beautiful summer resort, and letters from all parts are being received by officials of the Duluth & Iron Range Railway company seeking information regarding it.

In the past few years thousands have spent their summer vacations there, and the letters they send to the officials give glowing accounts of the place, expressing the pleasure the writers had while there.

Prominent men from the East and West visited Gold Island and other places about Tower and Lake Vermilion last week and praise that locality as the best place to enjoy an outing. During the past week many parties have gone up there to spend the summer vacation, among them being Jerome Curtis, a well known magazine writer, who will give an account of the region after he has returned to his home in the East.

Freight Agents Meet.

Kansas City, Mo., June 20.—The twenty-fourth annual convention of the American Association of Freight Agents met here today for a four day session. Five hundred delegates from various parts of the United States and Canada attended. C. A. Witzel of Cleveland, president, called the convention to order.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Militiaman Arrested at Camp Appears in Court.

St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charged with the embezzlement of $500.00 from the Western Express company, Benedict J.
Sendner, over whom the state militia and Sheriff Wagner's deputies nearly clashed, entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned in police court here yesterday. He gave $1,000 bail and was released until next Monday when his case will be heard.

Refusal of the First regiment officers to give me up was not at my suggestion," Sendner said. "I was anxious to come back to St. Paul and face the charge. I was at no time under arrest in camp and if I had felt so inclined, I could have escaped."

ALL NIGHT SESSION MAY BE NECESSARY TO END WORK OF AUGUSTANA SYNOD---SENDS MESSAGE TO TAFT

DELEGATES TO THE AUGUSTANA SYNOD.

Washington, June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The clerks at the White House are utterly unable to handle quickly the great mass of mail and telegraphic communications received from delegates to President Taft and his wife. Today, however, a congregation of delegates to the Augustana Synod of Evangelical Lutheran churches of North America, now in session in Duluth, was duly acknowledged.

An all night session may be required to wind up the affairs of Augustana synod. The officers of the synod will try to rush matters so as to close up the affairs of the 1911 meeting soon after midnight, but present indications are that the convention will not be finally adjourned until daylight tomorrow.

This morning, the session was given over to the discussion of missionary reports. Rev. A. W. Edwins of Hunan, China, addressed the delegates on the work in the Far East. He was the first missionary that the synod sent to the Chinese people and he reports that the work has progressed rapidly during the year past. There are now five stations and five Swedish missionaries working for the synod, besides a number of native missionaries.

A school has been instituted and a start has been made in one of the larger cities for a large hospital. Rev.
Edwins urged that the congregations of the synod be appealed to to loyally support this missionary field. This was also the sense of the synod.

Rev. Dr. Hulting, a representative of the Norwegian Lutheran synod now in session in St. Paul brought the report of that body to the delegates of Augustana synod. This was in response to the visit paid the Norwegian synod by Rev. Dr. N. Forsander of Rock Island, representing Augustana synod.

The synod adopted the reports of the Augustana Foreign Missionary and the Ladies Home and Foreign Missions societies. A report was also read of the year work of the Swedish Immigrant Home mission at No. 5 Water street, New York city. This institution is owned by the synod and the property is valued at $50,000. Rev. A.

B. Little is superintendent. He was present and gave a short talk on the immigrant situation.

The synod voted an appropriation of $50 to Rev. J. A. Anderson of Boone, Iowa, who acted as secretary of the synodical council at its meetings a week prior to the opening of the synod.

The following is the resolution which was adopted yesterday with reference to the school and religious question.
"The synod hereby expresses its firm conviction that the educational institutions of the state should confine themselves strictly within the limitations imposed upon them by the state, to the end that they may not, in any manner or degree, counteract the influence of the Christian home and the church, so far as religious instruction and practice is concerned, and that they may not disseminate doctrines subversive to the Christian religion."

A amendment to this resolution may be added today at the final session, concluding the practice of allowing in school buildings to be given by school children.

Rev. J. E. Swanborn of Wahoo, Neb., opened the morning session with a prayer and devotional services. This afternoon, among other things, the synod will consider petitions from the various conferences.

SURVEY ON NORTH SHORE

Government Engineer Leaves to Lay Out Work
There.

Under the direction of Maj. F. R.
Shunk and J. H. Darling, principal engineer, G. A. Taylor, junior engineer, left this afternoon on the U. S. S. Vidette for a two weeks' trip on the south shore of Lake Superior, during which time he will make several inspections and surveys.

At Marquette he will make a survey and take soundings of the area recently dredged by the Northern Dredge & Dock company, and examine the breakwater, work on the extension of which is to be started soon by Francis
L. McDonald of this city. At Grand Marais he will survey the entry of the channel, to ascertain its depth and if there are any.

He will lay out the range for dredging to be done at Ashland by the Zenith Dredge company, which has recently awarded the contract. Dredge No. 1 of the Zenith Dredge company will leave tomorrow for Ashland to start the work there.

At Ontonagon, where considerable dredging is being done, he will take soundings. He will also visit Fort Wing, where the Northern Dredge &
Dock company is doing some work.

The company will remove 20,000 yards there, of which about 15,000 has already been removed. The work will be finished in about ten days.
A temporary red light is to be established on this trip. The light-house department will probably establish a permanent light upon completion of the pierhead.

Four More Arrests.
Four more arrests were made yesterday afternoon by Court Officer Peter McDonald for non-payment of the wheelage tax license, and he served a big batch of warrants to serve. He is taking care of them as fast as he can in connection with the other work of the office. Those arrested yesterday were, S. W. Clarke, R. B. Knox, H. B. Keady and G. W. Martin. All but Mr. Knox entered pleas of guilty and paid fines of $7.50. The Knox trial was set for Thursday afternoon. G. W.

Just Removed Stand.
J. D. Campbell, proprietor of the St.

was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault preferred against him by Andrew Demas, who runs a fruit and flower stand in the same building. He pleaded not guilty and will be tried this afternoon. It appears that Demas had an obstruction in front of the hotel which displeased Campbell and the latter removed it. He claims that he did not strike Demas.

University School Will Be Made First Class Preparatory Institution.

The University school, a Duluth institution, has in the past had such success and done such good work in the educational line, that its patrons believe that it should increase its usefulness and broaden its work. These patrons are so much interested in the good work that is being done that they have decided to follow the plan that has been adopted, with great success

In Eastern preparatory schools. In that connection they have perfected an organization which will greatly add to the strength of this institution.

This organization will consist of a board of five members to be known as an advisory board. They will take an active interest in the school, assist in the development of its work, so that the school will be second to none in the Northwest. The board, as now organized, will consist of: David Williams, vice president of the First National bank, president, Mrs. C. H. Bagley, wife of C. H. Bagley, the jeweler, secretary, Mrs. Corvate S. Wilson, wife of the former city attorney, Henry Turkish, the well known lumberman and E. P. Towne, one of the prominent attorneys of the city. Those people have long been patrons of the school and know well the good work Mr. Hig-bert and his associates have been doing. The school has been established for seven years, during which time the children of some of the most prominent people of Duluth have been enrolled as students. The school has a corps of well selected teachers, nearly all of whom are retained for the ensuing year.

WHOLESALE PLAN PARADE

Display of Work Horses and Auto Trucks Proposed for Carnival Week.

The wholesalers' committee of the Commercial ice is considering a plan to have a parade of work horses and floats during carnival week. The matter was broached at a meeting of the committee today and will be further considered at a later date.
Duluth wholesale houses have some of the finest draft horses in the country.
The hills here put a heavy tax on horses and powerful animals are needed to pull the heavy loads from the wholesale houses. The horses in use are fine specimens and it is believed a parade of them would be appreciated by Duluth people as well as visitors.
There are more auto trucks in Duluth than people generally appreciate and they would make a good showing in the procession.

GIRL TELLS OF HER LIFE IN THE TEMPLE OF "ABSOLUTE LIFE"

Mildred Bridges Defends Alleged Abductor in Court.

Father of Girl Assaults "Divine Agent" in the Corridor.

Witness Says She Believed All Defendant Said to Her.

Chicago, June 21.—Mildred Bridges, for whose alleged abduction Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the Absolute Life cult, is being tried, again took the stand when the trial was resumed today. In answer to questions, she declared that she, See and Mona Rose spent many of their evenings in the See home, reading and playing games, forgetting for the while the study of the absolute life.

She declared she believed See received a divine inspiration for his writings.

Attacked by Girl's Father.

During a recess in the trial, Stephen H. Bridges, father of the girl with whose abduction See is charged, attacked See in the corridor. For the first time since See's arrest, Bridges met him in the open, both being unrestrained. With a curse, Bridges leaped at the apostle of Absolute Life and struck him on the body. Governor Says It Would Only Be an Extra Expense.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—No extra session of the state legislature will be called to enact legislation retaliating against the railroads for returning to the 3-cent fare. This statement has been definitely made by Governor Eberhart.

"Every one with whom I have talked believes that it would be a waste of public funds," the governor said.

TAFT ROASTS FAKE "CURES"

Sends Message to Congress Urging Amendment of Drug Law.

Says Supreme Court Decision Calls for Emergency Action.

Washington, June 21.—In a message prepared in New York and transmitted through the White House today to congress, President Taft scathingly arraigned the manufacturers of what he denounced as "dangerous drug frauds," and urged congress to amend, at this session, the pure food and drug law to strengthen that act in vital points of weakness recently pointed out by decisions of the United States supreme court.

President Taft believes that unless the law is amended forthwith, the country will again be flooded by "injurious nostrums and cure-alls" which were common before the pure food law first was enacted.

Early Action Expected.

The message was transmitted both to the senate and house, and it was said today that the latter body probably would take up the matter at an early date. Representative Sherry of Kentucky already has introduced a bill bearing on the subject.

The president's message follows: "To the Senate and House of Representatives: "Your attention is respectfully called President Van Hise Addresses Graduates on Government and Charity.

Madison, Wis., June 21.—Nearly a thousand graduates of the University of Wisconsin received their sheepskins at the commencement exercises today. Among those who attended the ceremonies was Judge Farlin Q. Ball of Chicago, one of the fire surviving members of the class which graduated fifty years ago.

President Charles R. Van Hise in his commencement address dwelt upon the theme, "Government and Charity." He urged the graduates to judge all men with leniency. Outlining the rise and progress of self-government in Wisconsin university, he said that it was his conviction that "if the several thousands of students in the university can wisely govern themselves, this will be the best possible training for participation in the great governmental problems of the race."

OLYMPIC IS AT HER DOCK

Biggest Liner Afloat Ends Maiden Trip Across Ocean.

Twelve Tugs Warp Her to Berth—Beats Her Schedule.

New York, June 21.—Twelve tugboats strained and pulled on the White Star liner Olympic today on her arrival from England, warping the giant steamship of the seas into her dock. The Olympic was given a noisy welcome as she moved up the Hudson river.

The berthing of the Olympic was no small task, notwithstanding the extension of one pier into the river in order to accommodate her 82½ feet of length. It was, however, successfully accomplished.

The Olympic made an average speed of 21½ knots on her maiden run to New York, covering the course in five days, six hours and 42 minutes.

Ahead of Schedule.

Although it is reported that there was no effort made at great speed as it is inadvisable to over-tax new engines on a first trip, the new liner was several hours ahead of the scheduled time on her arrival here.

The Olympic is so big that at the time she was launched there was no dock in New York long enough to receive her and it was necessary to obtain special permission from the war department to lengthen the piers of the White Star line to 1,000 feet. The boat's length over all is 82½ feet, or 181 feet greater than the highest building in New York, the Metropolitan Tower.

The vessel's gross tonnage is registered at 45,000 tons as against the 22,500 tons of the Lusitania and the

MONUMENT TO CHIEF OSHKOSH

John Hicks Presents Bronze to City Named After Indian.

Oshkosh, Wis., June 21.—A bronze monument to Chief Oshkosh, the Menominee Indian chieftain after whom the city was named, was unveiled in North park this afternoon. It is the gift to the city of Col. John Hicks, publisher of the Northwestern. The monument is ten feet high and stands on a pedestal of Italian marble nine feet, six inches in height. It is the work of Chevalier Gaetano Trentanove of Florence, Italy. Four years ago Col. Hicks presented the city with a $12,000 soldiers' monument, also by Trentanove. He addressed this afternoon was made by E. F. G. Thwaites, secretary of the St. Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Col. Hicks made no actual efforts to get a lineal descendant of Chief Oshkosh to perform the unveiling. Following in this, the pulling of the wire was entrusted to John Hicks III, the little grandson of the donor. Mayor John Bendorph made the address of acceptance on the part of the city.

Following the ceremony, which was attended by thousands, a reception was held at the Oshkosh Yacht club house to the sculptor and his wife, to Dr. Thwaites and wife and to the donor.

Decorations Are Along Lines New to British Metropolis.

London, June 21.—London was taxed to its capacity today. It was Coronation Show day and thousands flocked from the suburbs to the city west end to see the decorations and watch the preparations for tomorrow's great event.

The decorations were practically completed, and afforded a never-ending source of attraction for the crowds. Thousands stood hour after hour on the steps of the new Victoria memorial, and watched movements in the palace yard, where from time to time regiments of infantry arrived and state carriages containing dominion premiers, members of every parliament and legislature of the empire, passed.

This being the day for special intercession for the king and queen, services were held in all churches and meetings at public halls were addressed by the bishop of London, the bishop of Ripon and other leaders of religious thought.

Canadian Troops Reviewed.

Other attractions of the busy day included the drive of the king and queen through the West end to the national horse show at Olympia, where there was a special performance, including a parade of foreign officers; a review of the Canadian troops by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, at the Chelsea barracks; the duke of Connaught's dinner to the king and queen and visiting members of royalty.

WARRANTS FOR MORE ARRESTS IN DUMAS CASE ARE PREPARED

BANKERS ARE IN BEMIDJI

Four Hundred Members of State Association Attend Convention.

Former Senator Young and Former Congressman Tawney Speak.

Bemidji, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Carried in a special train of ten Pullman cars, 190 bankers of Minnesota arrived in Bemidji at 6:45 this morning. The regular train brought in 100 others, so that when the convention was called to order at 9:30 this morning in the armory 400 Minnesota men of money were present.

Former United States Senator Lafe Young, publisher and editor of the Des Moines, Iowa, Daily Capital, and James A. Tawney, former congressman from the First Minnesota district, were among the arrivals.

Mr. Tawney, who has never been in this section of the state before, was guarded in his remarks except so far as they related to the initiative referendum and recall, on which subject he addressed the bankers this morning, condemning these propositions as dangerous to good government. The former congressman said he had just finished his tour of the state.

Postoffice Authorities Are Said to Be Taking an Interest.

Gathering of Evidence Concerning Charges Is Continued.

More About Fire in Superior Told By Informer.

Bemidji, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Postoffice inspectors, Pinkerton detectives and local officers connected with the Dumas case are apparently very active this morning. They admit there are several warrants already issued which may be served at any time, some of which have to do with the "men higher up" to whom the officers have referred so often since the Dumas affair was started.

Asked as to whether Dr. Dumas would be re-arrested on a more serious charge, the officers would neither affirm nor deny a rumor to that effect. It is understood the postoffice authorities are desirous of having Dumas arrested on charges which involve complicity in crimes involving the department.

Warrants Are Issued.

The warrants are all being issued by H. A. Simons, local court commissioner, who filed the bail in the first Dumas charge at $5,000. This amount has caused comment as being very small. If the statements made by Sam F. Fullerton, deputy state fire marshal, and J. C. Fielding, chief of the Pinkerton forces, are true.

A Cass Lake business man who was in Bemidji yesterday said that for the past seven years there have been several fires at that place which were undoubtedly of incendiary origin, and that suspicion was directed towards three or four lawless characters who travel.

ACCUSED OF BEING PROFESSIONAL THUG

MAURICE (MOSS) ENRIGHT.

Chicago, June 21.—Maurice Enright, sometimes known as "Moss," is, according to the police, the boss "labor slinger" in Chicago. Enright has been indicted on the charge of murder. Strong efforts are being made to break up professional thuggery in Chicago.

GERMANS GREET AMERICAN SHIPS

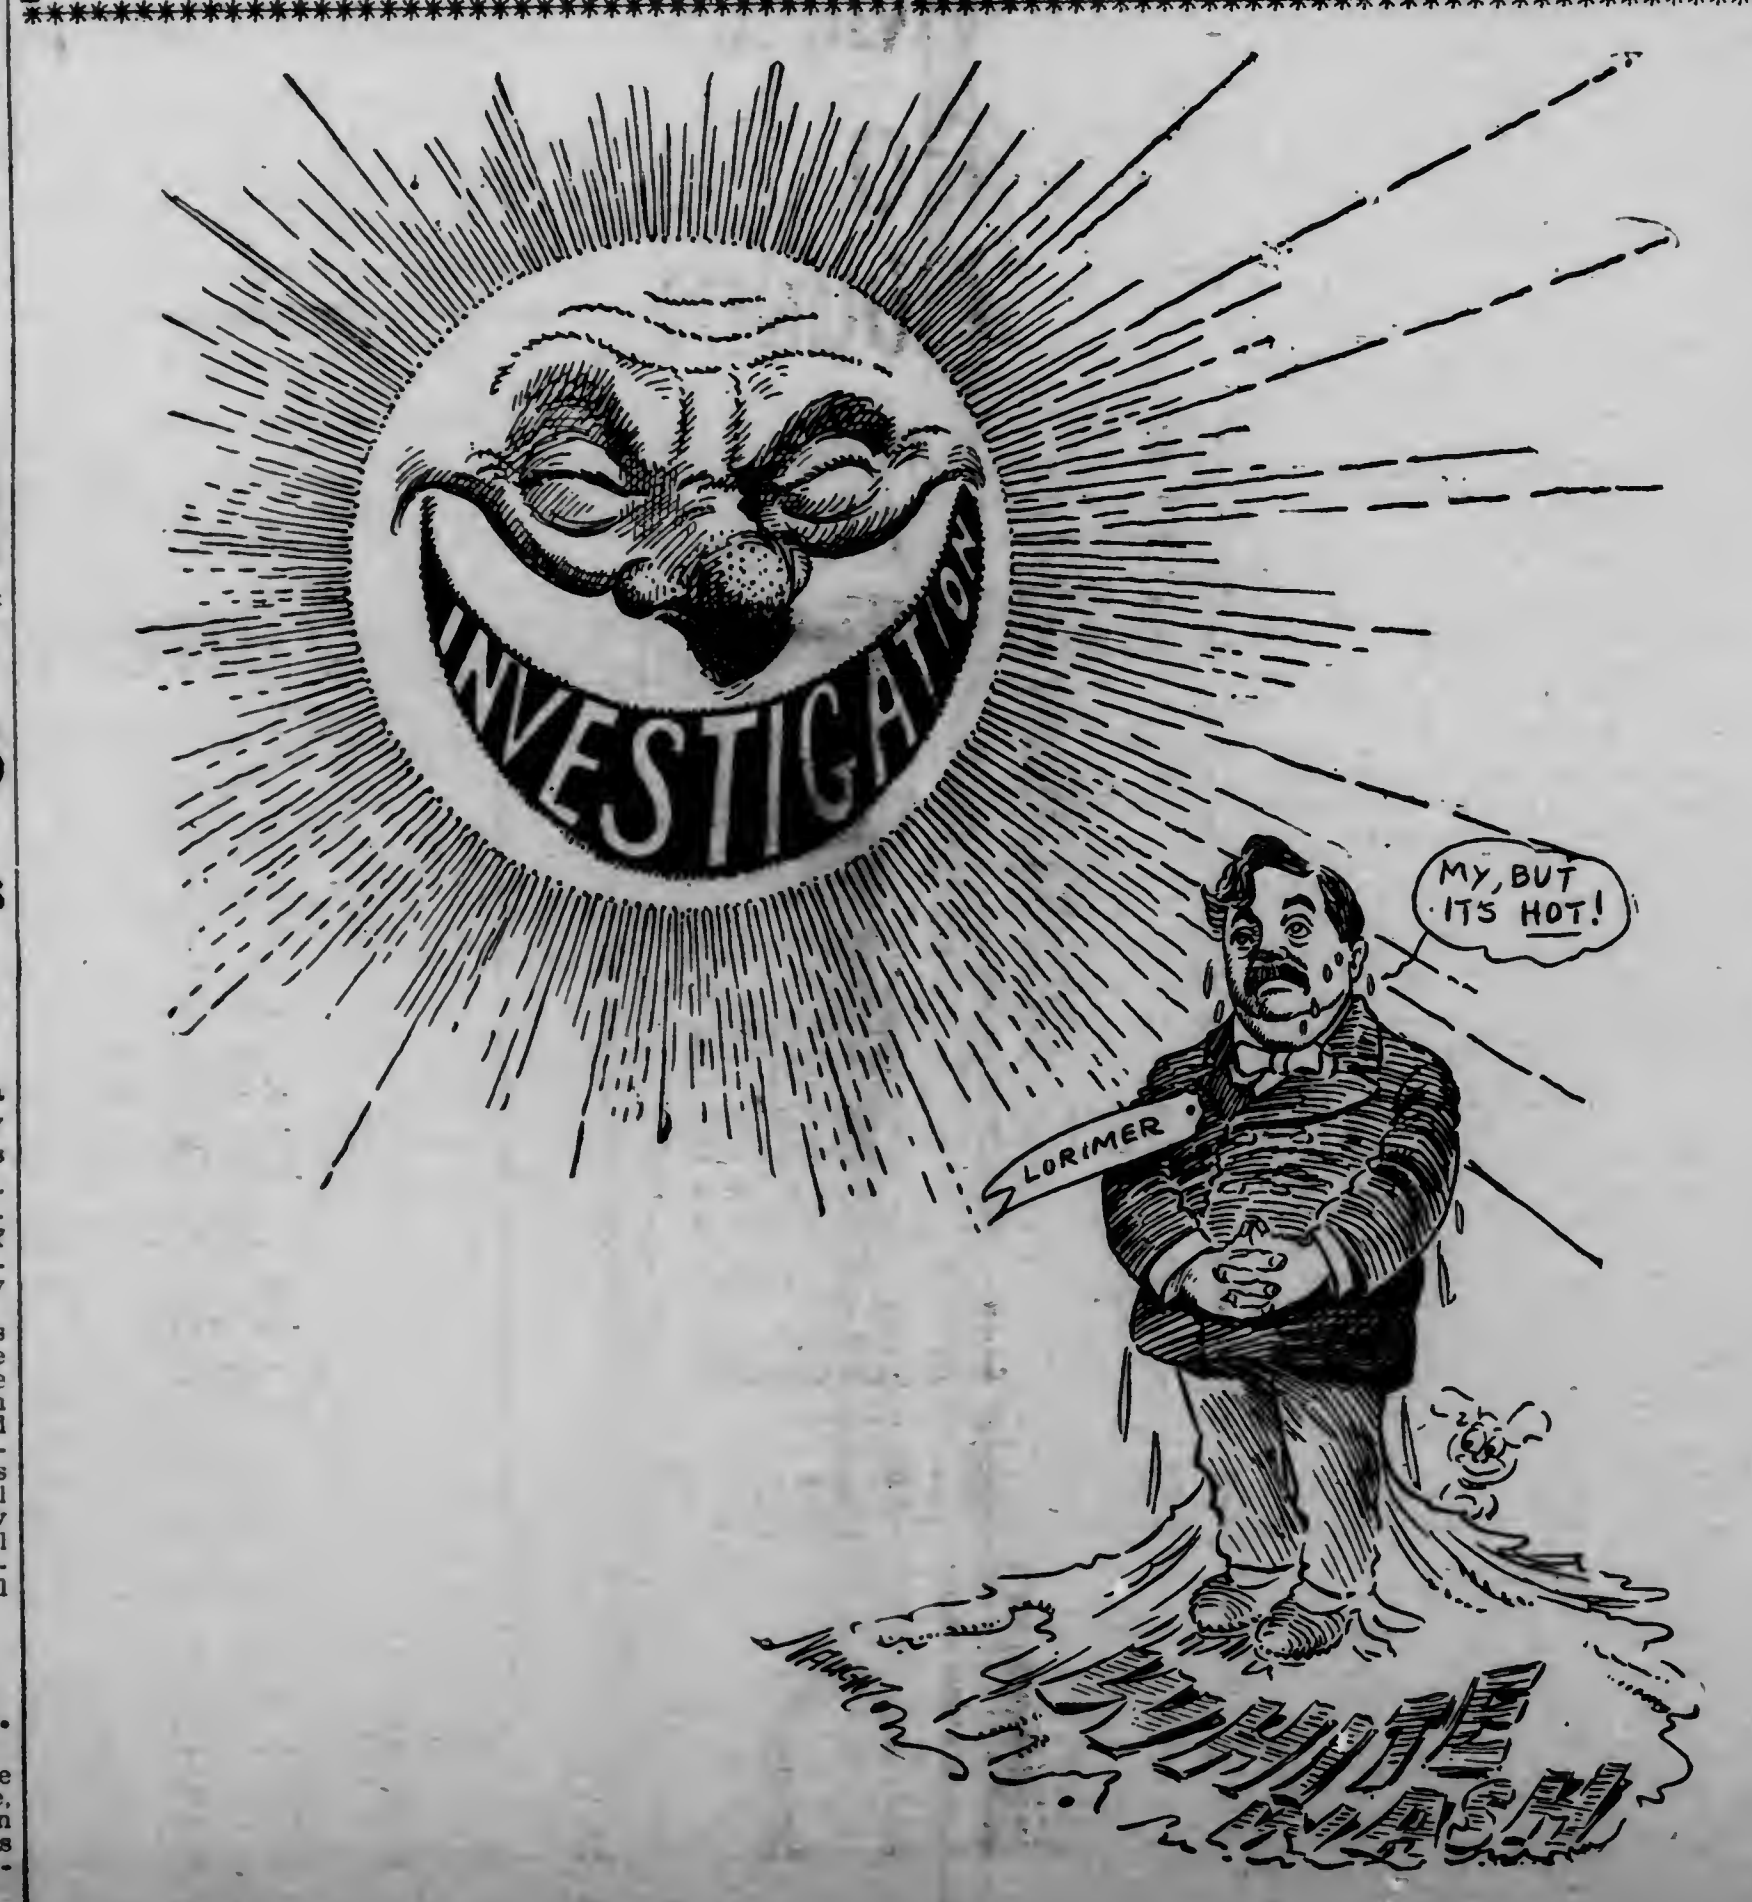

Second Division of Atlantic Fleet Arrives at Kiel.

Kiel, Germany, June 21.—The American warships, second division of the Atlantic fleet, arrived here early this morning and are now moored in the inner harbor before the town, surrounded by the array of battleships and yachts gathered for the emperor's great annual naval review. Practically the entire German navy, including a full division of the new dreadnaughts, is assembled.

The Americans were met at sea by a despatch fleet carrying a commandant E. A. Traut, American naval attaché at Berlin; Paul H. Sartorius, American consular agent at Kiel, and German officers who had been assigned to pilot the visitors to their anchorage.

The arrival of the battleships was timed so they would pass the outer fortifications of Friedrichsort at 3 o'clock in the morning. A 21-gun salute is fired by the fortress and answered from shore.

OPPOSE LIMITS ON TRUNKS' SIZE

St. Paul Business Men Object to Ruling of Railroads.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Protest against the rule which railroads have proposed, effective Jan. 1, 1912, limiting the dimensions of a trunk to be carried free with a railroad ticket, was made by St. Paul business men at a meeting in the rooms of the Association of Commerce yesterday. They will ask that the limit be extended to 46 or 48 inches.

Twin City passenger agents in attendance at the meeting promised to take the matter up for consideration at the conference of the association. The question of the issuance of mileage books after the 3-cent rate goes into effect, July 1, was also discussed.

Duluth C. A. R. Men Will Suggest Plan at National Encampment.

Think It Fitting Way to End All Sectional Feeling.

Plans to bury the last vestige of war talk, and group all Civil war veterans, North and South alike, under one pension bill, are now being discussed by Duluth Civil war veterans, and the Minnesota delegation to the next national encampment at Rochester in August, will introduce a resolution advocating a pension bill which will include Confederate soldiers.

This year is the fiftieth anniversary of the commencement of the Civil war, and it is therefore thought to be a most fitting time to end all sectional feeling and pension the victors and vanquished alike. It would be a step unprecedented in the war history of the world, according to the plan, and would show a generosity to the vanquished which would stand as an example to all future generations.

The Duluth veterans do not believe that they can bring about such a pension bill at once, or even that the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will endorse the plan without some opposition, but at least such a motion will be introduced at the next meeting.

INTERNATIONAL STEEL MEN TO MEET JULY 5.

New York, June 21.—An international federation of iron and steel makers, planned on the lines of the American Steel & Iron Institute, will be advocated by E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, at the coming international steel and iron conference, to be opened in Brussels on July 5. The conference will not attempt to fix prices for the world among producing countries or to regulate the market in non-producing countries.

DR. DUMAS' FATHER VISITS DULUTH

Says He Believes There Is Nothing in Charges Against Son.

The father of Dr. D. F. Dumas of Cass Lake, mayor of the village and accused of some of the most sensational crimes that have ever been known in the criminal history of the West, was in the city yesterday.

A Duluth traveling man who is very well acquainted with the father of the accused official of Cass Lake, held a long conversation with him, during which Dr. Dumas' father expressed the firm opinion that there was nothing in the charges against his son.

According to the statement of the hotel people, Mr. Dumas left for Cloquet. It is not known whether he will join his son, but it is supposed that he will go from Cloquet to Cass Lake.

HUMID HEAT OPPRESSIVE

Thermometer Reading Not Record Breaker, But Duluth Suffers.

Weather Bureau Record Shows 83 Deg.—93 Deg. in Kiosk.

The official thermometer at the weather bureau on the hill registered 83 deg. as a high mark today, while the thermometer in the kiosk in the courthouse square did 93 deg. Take your choice.

Anyway, it was hot for Duluth, and the greater humidity made the 99 deg. of dry heat, which the city experienced Monday, seem cool by comparison. The 99 deg. Monday having been registered at the official thermometer on the hill, the thermometer reading today, both on the hill and in the city, was lower than Monday.

Forecasters Richardson says that the thermometer in the kiosk will naturally register higher than the thermometer on the hill, as the hill is cooler, but that some allowance must be made in the kiosk reading for the fact that the metal of the kiosk retains some of the heat of the sun and communicates it to the thermometer.

Even though no records are broken today, the day is the most uncomfortable of the year and it is a marked change from yesterday's cool weather.

NO ENTHUSIASM AT LAND SALE

State Sells Only 680 Acres and Prices Run Below Average.

At the land sale held at the courthouse today by Theodore Nelson, manager of the state land sales department, 680 acres were sold.

This is said to be one of the smallest sales ever held in Duluth. It is said to be the fact that the big sale was held last month and also to the fact that for the next five months there will be one sale each month under the new law.

The average price paid for land this morning was $3.75 an acre. The highest price paid was $8 an acre. At the last sale 4,000 acres were sold and some of it sold for a much higher price.

Three lots were sold in the village of Cheen. They brought $50, $20 and $15.

There was but a small crowd in attendance at the sale and there did not seem to be a great deal of interest.

WISCONSIN PEOPLE GET MICHIGAN DEGREES.

DULUTHIAN IS WEDDED TO ASHLAND WOMAN.

Ashland, Wis., June 21.—Miss Della Tabbeau of this city and George McLoughlin of Duluth were married at St. Agnes church at 9 o'clock Monday morning, and left for their home in the afternoon, accompanied as far as the depot by a considerable number of their friends. The bride is a graduate of St. Agnes school, and the groom is an old time resident of Ashland. He was formerly employed by the Garnish Hardware company, but is now employed by the Marshall-Weiss company of Duluth.

ALVINA WILL CARRY TAFT

Duluth Man's Yacht Will Be at Disposal of the President.

Will Be Used to Bring Chief Executive Up the Lakes.

The Alvina, Thomas F. Cole's roomy and seaworthy yacht, will bring President Taft to Houghton to attend the quarter centennial celebration of the Michigan College of Mines, this summer, according to information received by The Herald today from Houghton.

Mr. Cole several weeks ago, at the request of the president of the college, Dr. F. W. McNair, tendered the use of his yacht during the visit of the president. The Alvina is the largest and most seaworthy private craft on Lake Superior, and was therefore the most desirable boat for the presidential party.

It was at first intended to use the Alvina merely for a short trip out of Houghton, as stated several weeks ago in The Herald, but with the burning of the North West it will be necessary to bring President Taft up the lakes on the yacht. The president had planned to come on the North West but when that boat was burned the plans had to be changed, and it was decided to use the Alvina for the purpose.

The date of President Taft's visit to Houghton is Aug. 8, and the Alvina will probably leave Duluth about ten days before that date to meet the presidential party.

President McNair of the Michigan college and Mr. Cole went to Washington and called on the president every personally extend to him the invitation to use the yacht. The president and his secretary were shown photographs of the Alvina, and readily agreed to the change of plans made necessary by the burning of the North West.

"I believe no American college other than the Naval Academy has ever had an executive will be as safe and probably more comfortable aboard her than the North West," the Alvina was purchased by Mr. Cole in 1905, and has been used for several years. It is of 512 gross tons, and measures 214 feet over all, and 177 feet on the water line. She has 26 engines, and carries a crew of twenty-four men. Her construction is of steel, and she has triple expansion engines, being the highest rated in Lloyd's register of American yachts.

COLLISION DUE TO BROKEN RULES

Captain's License Revoked for Failure to Give Fog Signals.

The license of Capt. A. J. Green of the tug Alfred W. belonging to the Duluth-Superior Dredge company, was suspended for ten days yesterday by Vessel Inspectors John Monaghan and J. F. Chalk for violation of Rule 13, of the Pilot Rules, which requires captains to sound the whistle every minute during a fog.

On June 9 the tug had in tow a scow, and while outside the harbor, the steamer Amazon collided with the scow. Had the captain given the signal the scow would not have been aware of the presence of the tug, and the collision avoided.

Capt. Green claimed that he had been sounding the whistle up to about four or five minutes before the signal but that the scow had become uncontrollable and that he had to devote his attention to her.

STEPHENSON PROBE RESOLUTION CARRIES.

Madison, Wis., June 21.—The assembly yesterday gave final passage to the resolution calling upon the United States senate to investigate the nomination in the campaign of 1908 of Senator Isaac Stephenson for United States senator and his election by the legislature of 1909. Only the formality of enrolling the resolution now remains before it can be forwarded to Washington.

QUITS MINISTRY TO WORK IN FACTORY.

Fond du Lac, Wis., June 21.—After preaching his farewell sermon on Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, where he has been pastor for the past eleven years, the Rev. Louis P. Peake said he would adhere to his plan, and announced some time ago, and Tuesday morning, June 20, he resigned the employ of the Harrison Postal Rack company to learn the business from the ground up. He will remain in the ministry, but will give up his parish.

BATTLESHIP UTAH ON OFFICIAL TRIALS.

Philadelphia, June 21.—The battleship Utah, the largest warship thus far completed for the United States navy, has left the New York Shipbuilding company's yard at Camden for her official trial off the New England coast. The Utah has a displacement of 21,775 tons. The Delaware, the largest ship in the fleet, now assembled off Portsmouth, Eng., for the coronation of King George, has a displacement of 29,000 tons.

GARDENS ARE INSANITARY

Health Department Officer Says People Use Fertilizer Improperly.

Mrs. German Summons Many Prominent People in Her Defense.

The majority of the people of Duluth who maintain gardens violate the health ordinance, according to Dr. J. J. Murphy, of the health department.

The unexpected statement was made this morning by Dr. Murphy while he was testifying for the city in the action which was brought against Mrs. Jane German of Lakeside, who was arrested on a warrant charging her with maintaining an unsightly pile of dirt and manure upon some of her property in that part of the city.

He said that most of the people who maintain gardens do not know how to properly handle the manure which they use for fertilizing purposes, and that their gardens are insanitary. He asserted that in his opinion each pile of manure should be covered with a couple of inches of soil, and that the breeding places for flies, he said that in his belief the dirt on the premises of Mrs. German was most insanitary and unsightly when he went out to look at it last week.

The health department officials allege that they asked Mrs. German to remove the manure, but that she failed to do so. Dr. Murphy said this morning that he does not think that the premises could be placed in a sanitary condition, unless the manure and dirt were removed.

Many witnesses summoned.

The defense of Mrs. German will evidently be that she planned upon using the place for a garden and that the manure was placed there to be used as a fertilizer. This seems to be indicated by the questions which are being asked by the city attorneys, by her attorney, J. B. Richards. As to Houghton, Dr. Murphy is conducting the prosecution for the city.

Mrs. German has summoned a large number of witnesses to testify in her defense. Among them have been served. Among them are some of the best known people in Duluth and some of the residents of Lakeside. The list includes: Olof G. Olson, president of the board of public works; K. A. Osterberg, former member of the library board; Dr. D. D. Murray, Duluth; J. B. Foster, former health commissioner; A. B. Hostetter, Duluth; Peter Hahn, Duluth; Leslie Hubbell, J. S. Sidel, William Morgan, Capt. Wood, Ed. Hanson, Alex. Jensen, Peter Hahn, H. H. Gassett, Hiram N. Colvin, S. J. Kelley, Fred C. A. Johnson and John Brass. Those summoned by the city are E. B. Gates, W. W. Wood, H. R. Spencer, W. J. Richards, and a general health department inspector.

The trial will be started this afternoon and will last all day, if not longer.

MINNEAPOLIS SHORT MEASURES CONFISCATED.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 21.—Abolishment of bushel and peck measures by the city commission houses and by market gardeners was ordered by E. O. Sather, city sealer of weights and measures, after recovering several short measures, which he confiscated. He said that the city sealers of weights and measures are required to contain the weight required by the government standards.

IRONWOOD NOTES.

Ironwood, Mich., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sunday evening, Rev. W. B. Coumbe delivered a beautiful sermon to the members of the class of 1911 of the Ironwood high school. The class attended in a body, and several members of the faculty were present. The sermon was very timely and was well received by the young people. The class is very glad to have a young woman, who has committed to memory already 2,000 verses for piano and voice, words and music, and accompanies all the singers on the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cady left on Sunday night for Detroit, where they will attend the Grand lodge meetings of the Sons of St. George.

Arthur Bergeson, son of Joe Bergeson, left Tuesday morning for River Falls, Cal., where he will be employed in an automobile factory.

BILL WILL BE RETURNED

Fare of Insane Woman Not Charge Against County, Says Attorney.

Patient Was Sent Back to St. Louis County From Norway.

It is the opinion of Charles E. Adams, special county attorney, that St. Louis county cannot be forced to pay the fare of insane persons, sent back to this county, even though they may be residents of this county. It is up to the other state to send them back at their own expense, he thinks.

The opinion of Mr. Adams was asked for by the county and was the result of a bill from a steamship company which paid the fare and expenses of Mrs. Bertha Clausen, insane, from New York to Duluth. The expense amounted to $115. It is Mr. Adams' opinion that the money will have to be paid out of the governor's contingent fund, as it was at his orders the woman was brought here.

Mrs. Clausen went to Norway to live, but before she had been there long, she was suddenly taken ill with a mental disease and the Norwegian authorities ordered her deported to this country. The steamship company brought her over and at New York placed her in charge of Sister Hilda, a woman who works at Ellis Island, and sent them both to Duluth. The company advanced the money, $115.

The company then tried to collect from the state and the bill was turned over to St. Louis county. At the next meeting of the board of county commissioners, it will probably be turned back to the state. It was a new situation to St. W. Gilpin, judge of the probate court, and he asked Mr. Adams' opinion.

COLUMBIA, REMODELED, IS ENROLLED BY OFFICIALS

Enrollment papers and licenses was this afternoon granted by the custom officials to the remodeled excursion steamer the Columbia, formerly the Mascotte. She is now 133.6 feet long, 30 feet in beam, 8.4 feet deep and has a gross tonnage of 255 and a net tonnage of 142. The Mascotte was remodeled was 103.6 feet long, 23.6 feet wide, 8.6 feet deep, with a gross tonnage of 125 and a net tonnage of 87.

She is owned by the Clow & Nicholson Transportation company, and will probably be in commission on Saturday.

SAYS AUTOMOBILE WAS DAMAGED

John T. Armstead Brings Suit Against George H. Lounsberry.

John T. Armstead is suing George H. Lounsberry for $675.33 for damage alleged to have been done his automobile when it was run into by a car which was being driven by Mr. Lounsberry.

Armstead claims that the car was worth $1,810. He states in his complaint that the car was damaged to the extent of $465.33 and that he was deprived of its use for a period of forty-two days, which was worth $210. He states that he was turning around on London road when run into by Mr. Lounsberry's car.

GRAND FORKS MEN IN KNIFE AFFRAY

Five Wield Steel on Street, One Receiving Long Gash.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five men were mixed up in a cutting affair on the street here, about 1:30 o'clock this morning, as a result of which all were more or less injured. One had nineteen stitches taken in the back of his neck, one of the participants in the fight having given him a long cut. Two of the men had their arms badly gashed, while the other two suffered less severe injuries. Three of the participants were railroad men, while the other two claim to be traveling men.

Three of the men were arrested and will be given a hearing tonight. It has been impossible to gain accurate information as to the identity of the participants.

SMALLPOX AT ARNOLD

Residents Careless in Exposing Duluth Citizens to the Disease.

Health Department Claims Quarantine Regulations Are Not Observed.

Officials at the health department stated this morning that there are a number of smallpox cases at the village of Arnold, several miles from the city limits, and that neither state or village officials are insisting upon quarantine.

The result, they say, is that several persons afflicted with the disease have been going in and out of Duluth, exposing local citizens to the disease.

Dr. Webster, health commissioner, said today that one man who contracted the disease at Arnold is now at the post house near the poor farm, and that he has heard of two other men who have been making daily visits to the city. Efforts are being made to locate them, after which they will either be sent to the pest house until they have recovered, or be required to remain in their homes, or at least out of Duluth. Dr. Webster stated that it is an extremely hard matter with which to deal, and that about the only thing which can be done will be to prevent any one with the disease from coming to the city.

JUDGE FLACK IS DYING

Civil War Veteran Suddenly Stricken—Not Expected to Live.

Served Through Civil War With First Kentucky Light Artillery.

Judge James B. Flack, Civil War veteran, old resident of Duluth and for the past seven years justice of the West Duluth justice court, is dying at his home, 5717 Cody street. Yesterday he was taken with an attack of acute indigestion and today his condition has been critical. This afternoon it was reported that he had a sinking spell from which there was little chance of recovery. His death is said to be only a matter of hours.

News of the sudden illness of Mr. Flack comes as a blow to his many friends at West Duluth. Monday he was at his usual station at the West Duluth police station and tried a case. He was obliged to go home after the trial and he has been very sick since. Attending physicians this afternoon said that his heart action was failing and that there was doubt of his living through the day.

Judge Flack was born at Warsaw, Kentucky, on Oct. 23, 1871. When a young man, he joined the United States army and served in the First Kentucky Light Artillery. He served all during the Civil war and took part in many famous battles. He is a member of the Willis A. Gorman post of the Grand Army of the Republic, and at the celebration on Memorial day marched in the parade with the old soldiers.

Judge Flack was married to Miss Jeanette Barz of Wyoming, Minn., on Oct. 25, 1874, and from that union, there were seven children, two of whom are living. Judge Flack and Mrs. Arthur Bruley of Akeley, Minn., who is also at her father's bedside. Mrs. Flack is living, aged 64.

Judge Flack came to Duluth with his family from Barnum, Minn., in 1891. At that time he was employed by the old St. Paul and Northern Pacific, as a section foreman. He worked for the railroad in this capacity for several years. He was also a flagman at the Central avenue crossing for some time.

Judge Flack was re-elected justice of the peace at the last city election and has just begun his new year of office. He is a deacon in the West Duluth Baptist church, and belongs to the Odd Fellows, having been affiliated with the West Duluth organization for a number of years.

WOMAN SAVES ONEOTA BRIDGE

Extinguishes Fire With Pail of Water at 3 a. m.

A fire which might have been disastrous, particularly to the street car traffic between West Duluth and the city, was nipped in the bud early this morning, when Mrs. A. Anderson of 4024 Oneota street carried two or three pails of water from her home and extinguished a blaze which had caught in the Fortieth avenue bridge on Oneota street.

The fire, which is believed to have started from a cigarette, was noticed by Mrs. Anderson at about 3 a. m. She dressed herself and carried some water over to the bridge from her home. An "owl" street car passed at about the time the blaze was undertaken, passenger on the car reported the matter to the West Duluth police station.

CLAIMED HE HAD PERMISSION TO BEG.

The West Duluth police are looking for the professional "vag," who claims that he has the permission of the authorities to beg.

Mrs. Gibson of Fifty-seventh avenue west and Huntington street notified the police that such a man had called at her place yesterday afternoon and that he showed her a note signed by a Dr. Jackson of this city, recommending him as an object of charity. There is no Dr. Jackson listed in the city directory. The man also claimed that the police gave him permission to beg.

"YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD"

Heiress of Charles T. Yerkes Will Live in London

The activities of the Neighborhood house in the West end are the only interests demanding the attention of the Twentieth Century club this summer.

There the clubs and classes for the boys and girls are bringing out greater attendance than ever before in the history of the house. The boys are especially active, outings and baseball claiming most of their time.

The older boys clubs have formed a baseball league and have their regular games each Saturday and Sunday, the boys who work playing on Sunday. The boys of the Daniel Boone club will go for an all day outing tomorrow starting up through Lincoln park with their knapsacks for a tramp through the woods.

Another feature which though just commenced has proved popular, this is the "penny" providence fund, with Miss Weston in charge. Miss Weston is there every Thursday afternoon for two hours during which time the boys and girls can deposit their pennies with her and receive stamps to put in their little check books and which can be cashed again at any time. This plan was started two weeks ago and during the two banking afternoons thirty-five girls and boys have started savings accounts.

The girls' sewing class is to meet Thursday mornings this summer instead of Saturdays, commencing with tomorrow, when the class will hold from 10 to 12 o'clock.

A new class for young women, most of whom are employed during the day, has been formed to meet Tuesday evenings. Just now these girls are learning to make shirtwaists. They have learned to cut them out and do the seam sewing and in a few more lessons expect to finish them. The members of this club meet at 8 o'clock.

After July 1 the boys club will hold only one meeting a month at the clubrooms for the purpose of discussing general plans in the club work and of keeping together, but the majority of meetings will be in outings and out-of-door games.

The house is making itself interesting to a great number of young folks.

RETURN FROM WEDDING.

easy to send down to the strong room for the night—when Mr. Ball might be in greater safety under lock and key."

After throwing out this suggestion, the butler withdrew, and the ladies were left alone. Mrs. Forbes shivered, and drew closer to the fire. "I wish Douglas could have got back today," she said. "And your maid too. I should not be afraid of anything if they were only here."

"Yes, it is true, they were detained—at the last minute too, as the telegram said. And as Walter's business is that keeping Douglas away. Oh, Hattie, I am sorry."

"Never mind, dear, we will try to be valiant by ourselves. Trench is a host in himself, my dear. He is just my fancy because he guesses his hair. I haven't the ghost of a reason."

"Oh, Trench is all right. He came to us with the highest recommendations from his last place; he was with the late vicar, you know. And there is after his death. He's a very valuable man. Douglas thinks so, too. The late vicar was very particular about his household, and Trench was with him two years."

Hattie spoke warmly, she had her partialities, and Trench was a favorite. "I thought it a good suggestion of his last place; he was with the late vicar, you know. And there is after his death. booty was hidden away. The young footman, his accomplice and dupe, was locked into a dark closet till the police should come, probably he would be more lightly dealt with than the greater villain, but both would alike be charged.

Meanwhile there was discussion and wonderment over the sherry and biscuits, and Mrs. Ball had the last word. "I suppose we are bound to have a butler when Walter gives up soldiering and we settle down. But I tell you what, Hattie, we will not get him from a vicar, and he shall not shine his hair!"

WILL EXPOSE SPIRITUALISTS.

The promised expose of Anna Eva Fay at the Empress theater Friday, by Albini, has aroused much interest in Duluth, and the theater promises to be crowded for all three performances. Albini today made the following statement regarding the work of spiritualists and clairvoyants:

"I will show you and prove to you and the patrons of the Empress theater that so long as they live they will never be foolish enough to throw away their money by going to see such people, for the reason that no such thing as spiritualism or mind-reading, or so-called telepathy is in existence. Why, its absurd and surprising that the present generation would so far forget themselves as to give up their good money to such people. Can you imagine any human being telling you your past, present, and future? They could accomplish what they profess to accomplish, do you think it would be necessary for them to take store rooms or rooms in a hotel and advertise for these people to come and see them? Why, the government would have these people and crowd them the same as emperors, cars and things and the funniest thing is that the cleverest of men and women, and the wisest of men and women are the first to fall for them and give up their good money. I could tell you things that happened through the advice of clairvoyants, palmists and fortune-tellers where hundreds of thousands of dollars have been lost. I could tell you where stocks have been bought, where the clairvoyant advised the 'sucker' as we will call him or her, to go to certain firms to buy these stocks or whatever they may have been, where no such firm existed and the clairvoyant was partner with the party that they sent them to. We have in the city of New York, where one poor old lady lost over $8,000 trying to make more money for her grandchild, but she found herself without a penny one morning and a clairvoyant by the name of Astra was arrested and he, with the gang connected with him, are now awaiting trial. Positively and truthfully the thing is so simple that it is so easily done that any child can do it. I will prove it to you on Friday, because I am going through it in its original way first and immediately follow it up with the exposure. No spiritism will be showing up clairvoyants, how they read your questions, how they find out your name or initials, how they find out the party's name you refer to, how they tell what you have to sell or what you want to buy, the name of your sweetheart, in fact, everything in the way of so-called clairvoyance. As I announce on the stage to the public so I will carry absolutely the legitimate and original copy of the appliances that are used by these people. The appliances are as dear to them as their lives, they look at them at night and watch them more than their own life. You might say to me, how did you find them out? The answer is simply, I pretended to be one of their mediums and being a medium, I would do things that would not look like tricks so that they wanted to know how I commanded the spirits to come and I would do it in a way without the assistance of their appliances, which I shall show on Friday, and they would be spellbound. It was in this way that I got their appliances and had them made exactly as they had them."

MADERO ACCEPTS ZAPATA'S STORY

General Will Be Relieved of His Command, However.

City of Mexico, June 21.—Headless of all rumors that he would be arrested and court martial, Gen. Emiliano Zapata, commander of the revolutionary forces in the state of Morelos, drove a big automobile into the capital and presented himself at the disposal of Madero. After a conference between the two he was ordered to return immediately to Cuernavaca.

In the eyes of the former leader of the revolution, Zapata has succeeded in freeing himself from the stigma of murder, but nevertheless citizens of Morelos who had protested against his retention as commander of the troops against their will. The announcement was made by Madero himself that within two or three days Zapata would return to private life.

TELL BORDEN THEY WANT RECIPROCITY

Canadian Farmers Present Opposition Leader With Petition.

Brandon, Man., June 21.—R. L. Borden and party, members of the conservative opposition, who have started a vigorous campaign in Western Canada against reciprocity with the United States, when they landed in Brandon yesterday met 3,000 grain growers who presented to Mr. Borden a set of resolutions, one of which represented the belief of 28,000 members of the United Growers' association and dealt strongly with the farmers' desire for ratification of the agreement.

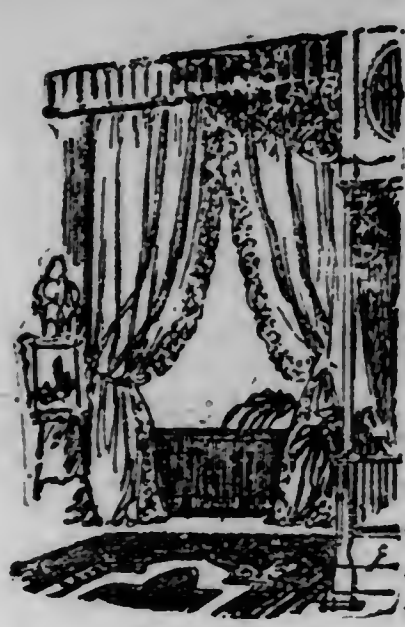

Mr. Borden told the grain growers that if the people were willing to make him prime minister of Canada, he would refuse the honor if reciprocity was a condition.

CLAPP TO QUIT LA FOLLETTE?

Not Pleased With State Progressives Indorsing Wisconsin Man.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—According to a story published in the Dispatch, Senator Clapp is getting ready to pull out from under the La Follette boom. He is tired, it is said, of basking in the shadow of the Little Giant from Wisconsin. Some of his friends have told him that unless he desires to have his political prestige injured in Minnesota he had better separate himself from La Follette.

It is understood that Senator Clapp is not at all pleased with the action of the Minnesota progressives in indorsing La Follette for president at Dayton's tea rooms last Saturday evening. Senator Clapp has presidential aspirations of his own and those close to him say that the junior senator feels that it would have been only good taste to consult him before the Republican league climbed on the La Follette band wagon.

The Clapp men in the city are firm in their belief that La Follette's ambitions and Clapp's are soon to clash as far as the Minnesota progressives are concerned. There are forces at work to secure for Clapp the indorsement of the Minnesota delegation for the presidential nomination. They do not believe that Clapp has any chance, but they do not want La Follette to be starred as the only real progressive in the West.

IN THE DAY'S WORK AT WASHINGTON

Lively Talk in Senate.
Washington, June 21.—Consideration of the Democratic campaign publicity bill, introduced by Senator Cullum of Texas, occasioned a lively debate yesterday, but the measure finally was laid aside without action. The bill, which has passed the house, would provide for the election of campaign funds before election, instead of after election, as required by the existing law. The Democratic majority of the senate, however, of Idaho, denounced it as a "play to the gallery."

"If we pass this now," he said, "we say to the country that we are afraid of ourselves. This class of legislation reflects on the integrity of every member of congress."

Senator Bailey contended that the amendment to extend the publicity requirement to primary elections was an attempt to do something beyond the power of the federal government. Insisting that the amendment is legal, Senator Dillingham, chairman of the committee which reported the measure, said that its only purpose was to protect the election of members of congress in those states where the primary system practically controls the elections and where the greatest influences are exerted. Senators Bacon of Georgia and Borah of Idaho advocated passage of the bill.

Niagara Falls Restrictions.
The senate passed the Burton resolution to extend for two years the restrictions now in force upon the use of the waters of Niagara river and Niagara Falls for power purposes. The regulations were established in 1906 and will expire June 29, unless the resolution is extended. The resolution was passed by a vote of 60 to 30. New York state officials have asked for the continuation of the restrictions pending permanent decision as to the amount of water that shall be diverted on the American side of the falls.

Note From Mrs. Taft.
A letter of thanks was read in the senate from Mrs. Taft, in acknowledgment of the silver wedding present sent by senators. The letter, addressed to Vice President Sherman, follows:

"The beautiful silver tea service which the members of the senate have so kindly sent in remembrance of our twenty-fifth anniversary, has just arrived, and I hasten to express to you, and through you to the senators, our

DANGEROUS PAIR TO GO BEHIND THE BARS.

Washington, June 21.—When secret service officials learned that a new trial had been denied by the United States circuit court of appeals in New York to the notorious counterfeiting gang headed by "Lupo, the Wolf," they declared the last chapter had been written to a tale of crime and adventure which rivals the foremost classics of fiction.

In bringing Lupo, his partner, Morrello, and the other men of the gang to justice, the secret service had to run down some of the most daring and dangerous counterfeiters they ever dealt with. Not only did they discover these men were counterfeiters, but they found they were conspirators in planning the black hand outrages which have been perpetrated in New York during the last ten years.

Lupo will spend thirty years in the Atlanta penitentiary. Morrello will serve twenty years. Antonio Comito, the man who gave the evidence which convicted the famous gang and was held by the government as a witness, will now be released.

CATCH WANTED MAN NEAR STATE BOUNDARY.

Manly, N. D., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a race of 100 miles across country, Sheriff Bang and States Attorney Nelson caught Leonard Hammel at Richardson as he was about to board a train to leave the state. They served their warrant, charging him with assault and battery, and immediately returned him to this city, where he pleaded guilty and was given a fine of $100 and costs, amounting to $150 in all.

The complaint was brought by Herman Marcovitz, a neighbor of Hammel, who was set upon by Hammel and severely beaten with a club by no apparent cause. The accused expected trouble and when the officials reached this place they found their bird laid down, but they were on his track in an instant.

GOVERNOR EBERHART'S OPPORTUNITY.

Governor Eberhart surely must have resented the situation that have come with increasing frequency from the press and people of the state that his administration is really conducted by another than himself, and that its acts are dictated with reference to the wishes of certain special interests rather than with reference to the wishes and needs of the people.

If the governor does resent these imputations, he has a chance now to clear himself of the charge, and to show that his sole purpose in public life is to serve the people and to use his high powers wholly for the common good. Let him lift from the people the burden of humiliation that is upon them because of the related facts that in this state railroad rates are too high and railroad taxes are too low.

Let him call the legislature in special session next winter to submit to the people at the general election of 1912 a law increasing the railroad gross earnings taxes from 4 per cent to 5 per cent.

That the railroad taxes are too low is generally admitted. They pay 4 per cent on their gross earnings in lieu of all other taxes and assessments. Practically all other taxpayers are called upon for much more than that, and besides they pay their share of the cost of local assessments from which they benefit.

That the railroad tax will be increased is a foregone conclusion. It will be raised no later than the regular session of 1913. But if it waits until then it cannot be approved by the people until the election of 1914, and it will not be effective until 1915. If it is submitted to the people at the election of 1912, as it can be if there is a special session of the legislature, two years' additional revenue, amounting to nearly $2,000,000, will be saved. And the cost of a special session would be less than one-twentieth of that sum.

The governor of this state has the power to commit the people to an investment of $50,000 to $100,000 that will bring sure returns of $2,000,000 in two years, not to speak of the additional revenue in each of the years to come. By using this opportunity he can show that the charge that he is influenced by considerations other than the common good of all the people is unfounded. By failing to use it he will go far toward confessing that the charge is true.

Governor Eberhart has done much traveling since he became governor, and of late the greater part of his time has been spent outside the state. He has excused this apparent neglect of his official duties—which was accompanied by a complaint that the governor is a member of too many state boards and has more to do than he can attend to properly—by saying that he has been advertising the state.

There is a matter of state advertisement involved in the situation between the state and the railroads. When the old freight and passenger rates become effective July 1 the country will witness the spectacle of a state that is over-charged by the railroads, and that at the same time under-taxes the railroads. On the increased revenue from the increased rates the railroads will pay taxes on the old, unfairly low basis of 4 per cent. The state is not even taking steps to see that the railroads are properly taxed.

This is advertising, too, of a kind. It will be advertising of another kind, and that quite as objectionable, if in a day when governors like Wilson and Dix and Dineen are making their legislatures come to time and calling them in special session if they are negligent, Minnesota's governor refuses to embrace the splendid opportunity that is now offered him to take a firm stand in the interests of the people and summon the legislature to consider means of relieving the state from the humiliation that is being put upon it.

THE ROOT AMENDMENT.

Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, with his habitual lucidity and incisiveness, made the Root amendment to the reciprocity treaty clear in a speech in the senate Monday.

Explaining that the effect of this innocent looking amendment would be to deny the benefits of the treaty to buyers of paper until every Canadian province removes its export duty on pulpwood, Senator Williams said:

"Those who would continue the present grip of the paper trust will vote for the amendment, while those who wish to remove that strangle hold will vote against it."

Volumes couldn't have made the truth more plain than this.

"THE ZENITH CITY."

Says the Minneapolis Journal: "The late J. Proctor Knott's authorship of the phrase for which he is best known in the Northwest, 'Zenith City of the Unsalted Seas,' is questioned in Minneapolis. Knott may have first applied this appellation to the city of Duluth, but according to Judge L. W. Collins of Minneapolis he did not use it in his famous 'Duluth' speech in congress Jan. 27, 1871, and there is much doubt as to whether he ever used it."

Whether or not J. Proctor Knott ever in all his life used the term "Zenith City of the Unsalted Seas," there is no doubt whatever about the fact that he did not originate it, and that he did not use it in his "Duluth" speech. It was originated by Dr. Thomas Foster, now dead, and first appeared in an editorial in his newspaper published in Duluth in the early '70s, exactly as Judge Collins states in his interview in the Journal.

EVERYBODY CAN HELP.

The Herald last night stated that the local hotel keepers are going to get together and use their joint energies to advertise Duluth as a summer resort; and that's a good thing, too.

Getting people in the habit of coming to Duluth for their summer vacations is simply a matter of getting them to realize that this is the finest place on earth for that purpose; and that can be accomplished by advertising.

In the work of advertising Duluth, as a summer resort no less than as a place to live in and be happy in and make money in all the year around, there is a chance for everybody to help.

A local citizen suggested in The Herald last evening that it would help if everybody put on the letter heads and envelopes they use during the summer months this legend: "It's Cool in Duluth." It would help a great deal. The idea is worth adopting.

GETTING AT THE MEAT OF IT.

When Postmaster General Hitchcock says that $9,000,000 a year can be saved to the postoffice department by readjusting the payments to railroads for carrying mail he is getting down to the real meat of the postoffice problem, and he is justifying all that The Herald and many other newspapers have been saying for years.

"I believe that many of the railroads are being overpaid for transporting the mails," he said the other day, "and that a saving of about $9,000,000 a year can be made without injustice to the carriers by readjusting the pay on a basis of 6 per cent profit to all railroads carrying the mails."

If that is the case, the step proposed should be taken immediately, and congress will be recalcitrant to its duty if it wastes a single day in going about it.

The railroads are entitled to fair pay for carrying the mails, and to not a cent more. In days when the railroad was an experiment and there was need of government subsidy in the form of liberal pay for carrying the mails, the rates paid today might have been justified; but they are justified no longer.

Mr. Hitchcock is entirely wrong, however, when he says that following this step, which will largely increase the surplus of the department, second class mail rates should be raised to allow 1-cent letter postage.

One-cent letter postage is a desirable thing, and some time it is coming, but it is not so important now as several other things. There should be no increase in the second class mail rate—that charged for carrying newspapers and magazines. No increase is proposed in the newspaper rates, so The Herald may be acquitted even by the most suspicious of having selfish reasons for this stand. The proposal is to increase the rates on magazines; and this is an increase that will surely fall on every magazine reader in the country.

Cheap reading matter is more important than penny postage, because it will benefit more people. The benefits from 1-cent letter postage will go chiefly to large business concerns with a large correspondence. The average person not in business probably doesn't average two letters a week, and the gain of such an individual could only be a cent or two a week, or less than a dollar a year.

Magazines are now very cheap. That is why so many of them are read. This country has the best magazines in the world, and with few exceptions they are telling the truth about things and are performing a great service for the enlightenment of the people. They are cheap partly because of the low postal rates—though these rates are higher than those on which the Canadian post-office makes a profit—and partly because the profits are made in the advertising pages. It is on these advertising pages that the department wishes to increase the postal rates, though they add enormously to the letter business of the postoffice department and help make cheap magazines possible.

We cannot help wondering whether, if the magazines were not so persistent in disclosing the truth about the great business interests and their relationship with politics, there would be any talk about increasing the postal charges on magazines.

One-cent letter postage must come; but before it is taken up the country should be sure it is paying its postal employees good wages, and the postoffice department should turn the rural free delivery service from a heavy expense to a profitable branch of the business by establishing a complete parcels post system such as every civilized nation in the world except this has long enjoyed.

THE WOOL BILL PASSED.

By a vote of 221 to 100 the house yesterday afternoon passed the Underwood bill cutting wool tariff schedules by more than half. Twenty-five Republicans voted with the Democrats in passing the bill, among them being all the Minnesota congressmen except Stevens and Nye. With these exceptions the Minnesota representatives judged correctly the needs and desires of their constituents.

If the senate would pass this bill a real advance would be made toward lightening the burden of tariff oppression, for it attacks the very citadel of tariff special privilege by invading the infamous "Schedule K."

However, the senate still is in the hands of the party which perpetrated the outrage this bill seeks to correct, and it is very improbable that anything will be done by that body at this session. This well known fact deprives yesterday's action by the house of some of its impressiveness; but at least it shows that the Democratic majority in the house knows what it wants to do and is able to do it.

THE RIGHT TO LIVE DECENTLY.

Duluth has awakened, in the nick of time, to the importance of considering the housing problem, which is simply the problem of seeing that everybody gets a house to live in that is clean, wholesome, sanitary and well ventilated.

Those who are interested—and everybody should be—will gain useful and interesting knowledge by hearing the expert, Charles B. Ball of Chicago, who is coming here in a few days. He will speak at the Commercial club Monday evening, and the importance of his subject and his well known capacity to speak authoritatively and informally should guarantee him a large and cordial hearing.

Society sins deeply when it permits human beings to live in unwholesome cellars, hovels and dark rooms. The aim of the campaign for better housing is to redeem society from this black sin against its members.

MOTOR BOAT RACING

By the Carnival Publicity Committee.

It's a thrilling spectacle, all right, to see the d'Aumont or the Robert E. Whiz past the finish line with its nose in the air, six feet of keel showing, and the water streaming out from under the hull like a tidal wave. A motor boat race is grand sport for the spectators, every one admits; but that is the question that is put in a hundred different ways wherever there is a crowd gathered to watch the racing.

Why not figure it out on paper and let it go at that? Well, in the first place, a marine engine is one of the most human-made things in the world, especially the big, many-cylindered type that is so commonly installed in racing boats.

Some days they will run like a scared Jackrabbit, and again they will purr like a cat. You never know what they are going to do until they are actually taking a picnic party to Allouez.

The man who runs the boat every day will take the engine home with him at night, and he will be as nervous as a cat on a hot tin roof.

He is the one who knows the thrill and uplift when the motor in his own accord, chucks in some ten or fifteen more revolutions to the minute, and pulls him out a winner by a hair's breadth.

Our whole task is to keep the engine running as fast as it will run all the time, and never give it a chance to make up any lost ground.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Taken From the Columns of The Herald of This Date, 1891.

Thomas C. Atwood, formerly manager for the Booth Packing company at Duluth, has gone to Bayfield, accompanied by his mother.

A. R. Macfarlane, Luther Mendenhall, O. F. Stearns, John A. Willard and one or two others have just purchased the two-fifths interest of A. S. Chase and Thomas F. Wilson in the Duluth Street Railway company. This, with the one-fifth interest of G. G. Hartley, gives a controlling interest in the company to Duluth capitalists. The remaining two-fifths is held by Thomas Lowry and Samuel Hill of Minneapolis, and it is understood that Mr. Hill will probably sell out at an early date to Duluth men.

Frank E. Hall, for the past five years mailing clerk at the Duluth postoffice, has resigned and will leave the position July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Strong have returned to their home in Glenwood after a week's visit with F. Bradley and family at West Duluth.

It appears from a letter written June 10 by H. B. Ayres, lately a civil engineer of this city, but now secretary of the executive committee of the American Forestry association, that three great forest preserves have been proposed and the president has been asked to set apart lands for their preservation. One reserve includes 2,500,000 acres, the boundaries of which run up St. Louis river from Duluth and west to range 21, thence northeast to range 6 and back to the lake and down the north shore to Duluth. The chamber of commerce will call a mass meeting of citizens to protest against the taking of this great area and to memorialize the president relative thereto.

The St. Louis River State Brick company, with a capital of $150,000, has filed articles of incorporation, the following being the incorporators: Charles B. Cox of New York, James McIntire of Eau Claire, D. K. Houta of Chicago, H. H. Lane of Hampton, N. H., Frank E. Kennedy and E. L. Emery of Duluth. Mr. McIntire is president and general manager.

G. F. Piper, formerly of Mankato, but for the past year extensively engaged in flour milling in Detroit, Mich., recently disposed of his interests in the latter city and has arrived with his family in Duluth, where he has large interests and will establish his home.

J. W. Bigger, formerly local manager of the Armour Packing company, has been in town the past few days looking old friends over, and with the same company in Kansas City.

M. J. Sheridan, president of the Chicago Mining exchange, arrived here yesterday and proceeded to the Verduin iron range in company with his brother, Capt. James Sheridan.

Arthur E. Prudden, brother of George H. and A. M. Prudden and son-in-law of Mayor M. J. Davis, is here from Tacoma on a short visit. He left Duluth three years ago for the benefit of his wife's health.

Life: She (telling out the dance in alcove)—Are you fond of travel? He—I think I must be. She—I've sailed the globe six times—a matter of 150,000 miles—think of it! I suppose you have traveled much? He—Yes—New York and Stamford—every week—twenty-three years—matter of 42,300 miles—just think—Great Scott! (Snaps his watch and runs.)

Life: He—I was born on the 2nd of April. She—Late—as usual. Birmingham Age-Herald: "Pa, what is an armistice?" He—I don't know. I'm a sort of lull in warlike proceedings which gives the belligerents a chance to put new ribbons on their typewriters and replace the keys they broke in the thick of the fray.

Buffalo Express: "Does your husband allow you to have things charged at the store?" Oh, I think he would, but—"But the stores wouldn't—that's what you're getting at." "Oh, no, I was going to say—that he gives me plenty of money, with which to pay cash." Does Yours?

Tit-Bits: "I suppose there's none of us better than we should be." "Indeed, no, I was thinking it over last night. Why, only the other day, I was guilty of killing time, murdering a man, and committing a crime of the first class, cutting a creditor and breaking into a perspiration."

Toledo Blade: Mr. Jawback—My dear, I was one of the first to leave Mrs. Jawback—Oh, you always say that. Mr. Jawback—I can prove it this time. Look out in the hall and see the beautiful umbrella I brought home.

Baltimore American: "My pa says he's got an option on our house." "What is that?" "Well, he says he's got the right to live in it as long as he wants to." "Oh, my pa's got a mortgage on ours."

Boston Transcript: "There's one thing I don't like about Brown." "What is that?" "Why, the confounded, low-browed, half-baked idiot is always calling somebody names."

Boston Globe: "I don't like my new gown very well." Said the lady. "The material is awfully pretty, and the style is all right, but it needs a little thing to improve the shape of it." "Did you ever hear of a tailor's friend?" "Don't you let some other girl wear it!"

London Opinion: "Dear Clara," wrote the young man, "I'm sorry, but I'm afraid I've forgotten to tell you last night, but really forgot whether you said yes or no."

"Dear Will," she replied by note, "so glad to hear from you. I know I said 'no' to some one last night, but I had forgotten just who it was."

Poloated Paragraphs. Chicago News: Some men do not believe in their own beliefs. The Aeroplane will have to be used by air caste dwellers.

A girl is anxious to make a name for herself by marrying a millionaire. Second love is like second childhood. A dog isn't a dentist, even if he does occasionally insert teeth.

While the knave took a woman by telling her that she pleased him. Did you ever hear of a man who who dissatisfied with the job? Occasionally a girl points the finger of scorn to show off her rings.

A woman's idea of a model husband is one who does just what she wants. The moon is saddest when he stings—unless he makes a quick get-away.

After writing a love letter it may take a man quite a while to right him. A truly great orator is one who can say the most convincing things in the fewest words.

Reflections of a Bachelor. New York Press: It makes most any man feel nervous not to be in politics. When a man can support his family it is a sign he is no genius. The devil asks no salary, because he likes his work so much and it is so easy.

Suburban life is an awful good training for the next world in case you go to the wrong place. So many men leave wealth behind them in an automobile, to overtake it he must crawl after it on his hands and knees.

Try, Indiana, Memphis. Chicago Tribune: Mr. Bryan's refusal to move his Commemorative to Memphis for $2,000,000 leaves the opportunity open for some other man. Bryan probably would move his Budget do there for much less money than that.

AMUSEMENTS. SULLIVAN-CONSIDINE VAUDEVILLE. Master of the situation. Afternoons at 2:45. Evenings, 8 and 9:30.

MARINE ORE TRADE IMPROVING

Twenty-One Vessels Leave Harbor in Twenty-Four Hours.

Day's Shipments Fully 150,000 Tons—Outlook Much Brighter.

For the twenty-four hours ending at 12 o'clock today, this port sent out probably the largest shipment of ore this season. During this time twenty-one vessels left for the lower lakes loaded with ore. The boats carrying the ore are all of the larger and newer type of ore-carrying vessels, and the amount of ore sent down probably amounted to fully 150,000 tons. There has been marked improvement in the shipments during the month, and even greater increase is expected. Lake men claim that there will be a big improvement made soon, and that the season will close with a much bigger shipment to the lower lakes than has been anticipated since the dull season started in.

MORELAND GOES DOWN ONCE MORE

Tugs Have Narrow Escape From Being Dragged Under.

Calumet, Mich., June 21.—The tugs James Reid and Manistique of the field wrecking company started for Portage Lake with the steamer Moreland last night, but had proceeded only a mile and a half when the pumps broke and the Moreland filled with water and sank again. The boat still is on the rocks of Eagle river reef, about a mile from shore, only her stack and a portion of the upper works appearing above water. She is believed to be a total wreck. The pumps went wrong, the Moreland rapidly filled with water, and the tugs had to be cut loose to save themselves.

STEAMER MILLER BRINGS VISITORS TO DULUTH.

The steamer Leonard B. Miller, owned by the W. C. Richardson company of Cleveland, arrived in the local harbor this morning, light from the north. She had as passengers Mr. and Mrs. Max McMurray, Mr. Farnsworth and the Misses Beardsley, all of Cleveland. Mr. McMurray is the superintendent of the furnace of the M. H. Hanna company. They will visit in Duluth several days. The Miller is now in charge of Capt. Richard Call, who succeeded Capt. Thomas Wilford, who died recently at home in Lorain, following a paralytic stroke. This is the first trip the steamer to Duluth since Capt. Call took charge. Capt. Call is well known at the Head of the Lakes, having sailed the Great Lakes for many years.

TUG GOULDER TAKES TWO TOWS DOWN SOUTH SHORE.

The tug H. D. Goulder left this morning for Washburn, Wis., with the vessel Brightline in tow, where the latter will be loaded with lumber. This evening if the weather permits the tug will leave for Ashland with Dredge No. 2, the Zenith Dredge company, where operations will be started by the Duluth concern on the harbor basin.

LARGEST SHIPMENT OF CEMENT ARRIVES HERE.

The steamer Yale arrived in Duluth this morning from Alpena loaded with 25,000 barrels of cement, the largest single shipment ever made on the Great Lakes. This cargo will load 187 cars, or four big trainloads.

Has Large Passenger List.

The Huronic, of the Northern Navigation company, left last evening with more than 100 passengers, the largest list carried by either of the company's boats this season. Most of the passengers sailed for Sarnia, Ont.

Inspect Columbia.

Local Vessel Inspectors Monaghan and Zimmerman and the remodeled excursion boat, The Columbia, formerly known as the Starke, The Columbia is still in the shipyard at Superior, but will be in commission in a few days. Inspectors will examine the new boat C. W. Cadwell, recently launched at Superior, the Shenandoah and the John J. Albert.

Vessel Has Trial Trip.

The new passenger steamer, Minnesota, of the Chicago & Duluth Transportation company, which will leave the Windy City at 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon for this port, and arrive here on June 27, had her trial trip at Chicago last Saturday, according to information received by the company's officials here. She proved to be in first class shape.

Capt. McCallum Transferred.

Capt. H. C. McCallum, assistant inspector of hulls at Duluth, has been appointed inspector of hulls at Toledo. He is a veteran lake navigator and former vessel owner.

Another Effort Made.

Work was started again on the raising of the sunken steamer W. C. Richardson at Buffalo yesterday, when Capt. Baker began constructing the huge cofferdam which is to be used in raising the steamer. The cofferdam will be constructed near the lighthouse station and will be towed out to the vessel when it is completed.

Telling Age of Fish.

It is easy to tell the age of a fish. The bony structure in the auditory apparatus grows in size every year. A light colored layer is formed in summer and a dark one in winter. By counting the pairs of layers the number of years a fish has lived can be told with accuracy. There is always a test for everything, that for bears being the flavor and cream, or body, so well exemplified in golden grain belt beers which are now advertised as being brewed in Duluth, everywhere. Your dealer or Duluth branch Minneapolis brewing co. will supply you.

CUTWORMS DAMAGE FIELDS.

Storm Also Kills Pigs Near St. Anthony, N. D.

St. Anthony, N. D., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Cutworms have damaged the fields in the vicinity of this city to such an extent that several farmers have plowed over their fields and sowed corn. The damage seems to have all been done at one time and no new territory seems affected, so it is believed that the sowing of corn is further damage from the recent hail storm has just come from Fred Harm's farm, where seven good sized pigs were killed. The hail, three miles from St. Anthony, was very heavy and the fields just after the storm had cleared away.

JACK JOHNSON HAS GOLD-LINED AUTO

"Suffragists a Nuisance," He Says When Parade Halts Motor.

New York, June 21.—A London cablegram to the World says: Jack Johnson told the World correspondent today that in the six days since he arrived in London he has spent $18,000, including $5,000 for a diamond and pearl necklace for his white wife and $10,000 for a motor car with gold interior fittings. The rest of the money has gone for general expenses and knick-knacks. He has taken coronation seats on Piccadilly with the Caucasian fashionables.

REFUSES STATE AID.

Carlton County Man Declines Money for His Services.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—R. I. Moore of Carlton, Carlton county, one of the fire fighters in the Baudette forest fire, gave the clerk in the state treasury office a shock when he sent back a state warrant for $1,200 with the word "refused" written across the face of the warrant and his name signed below. Moore criticized the action of the state in the matter of the forest fire, declaring that "prosecutors should have followed the Baudette fire the blinder line."

WINTER WHEAT GROWN BY NORTH DAKOTAN.

Devils Lake, N. D., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—That winter wheat can be successfully grown in North Dakota has been fully demonstrated on the farm of Frank Pitcher, where he has forty acres which will be ready to harvest in three weeks. Mr. Pitcher is showing samples, all well headed, that are pronounced as the best ever seen anywhere. C. H. Baker, one of the pioneers in winter wheat experiments in this section, also has a splendid field, which he will soon have the blinder line.

DEVILS LAKE.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—R. I. Moore of Carlton, Carlton county, one of the fire fighters in the Baudette forest fire, gave the clerk in the state treasury office a shock when he sent back a state warrant for $1,200 with the word "refused" written across the face of the warrant and his name signed below. Moore criticized the action of the state in the matter of the forest fire, declaring that "prosecutors should have followed the Baudette fire the blinder line."

HOTEL MEN ORGANIZE

New Association Will Get in Front Rank in Boosting Duluth.

Aims to Bring Visitors to City and Help Hotel Business.

At the St. Louis hotel last evening a live and progressive Hotel Men's association was formed among the managers and owners of the five leading hotels of Duluth, and from this time on, according to the statement of the hotel men, they are going to figure in the activities of the city and are going to climb right on to the front rank of the boosters' wagon.

Edwin H. Lee, managing director and also an officer of the company controlling the Spaulding, was elected president of the association, with S. Goldberg of the Hotel Holland as the secretary-treasurer. The members, W. H. McKay and Henry Ribenack, of the St. Louis, McKay and Lenox hotels, respectively, will comprise the board of directors.

It is the object of the new association to advertise the city, which, the hotel men are naturally keen enough to know, will help their business. They intend to spend money and go after things that will benefit the city and in the end help the hotel business of Duluth.

Mr. Lee stated this morning that the organization would be distinctly a live one, and that a campaign of publicity will be started that will reveal to travelers and to those intending to visit Duluth some of the manifold advantages to the summer tourist.

"We are going after conventions and we are going to show the traveling public and the business man who is looking for a place to hold a convention in the summer or winter, that Duluth has hotel accommodations ranking with any city of its size in the entire country," said Mr. Lee today.

Advertise City.
"We are going to be an important factor in the advertising of Duluth. We are going to give its advantages publicity. We are not philanthropists, not at all; but we are business men at the head of important business enterprises here, and we realize that what helps the city helps us. We believe that this is the proper spirit to show, and also believe that it is the kind of spirit that is going to make Duluth a great and prosperous city."

"Money will be spent in advertising and those looking for places to spend a month or more in the most beautiful summer weather region in the country will know that the hotel accommodations are ample and rank with the best in the country."

J. T. McDonald of the St. Louis stated that the forming of the Hotel Men's association would fill a long felt want. He also stated that the traveling public did not know nearly enough about Duluth and that while Duluth should be the greatest convention city in the West during the sultry summer months—that is when it is sultry in the places—nearly every convention had been coming here in the past.

S. Goldberg of the Holland, the newest of the Duluth hotels and one that will be enlarged in the near future, stated today that with five first-class hotels and hotel accommodations to serve the traveler, tourist and the regular customer, Duluth was in a position to go after conventions and also seen to bring to the Head of the Lakes the largest number of tourists to come here at the present time simply because they do not know of the many advantages of Duluth.

Mr. McKay of the Lenox and Mr. McKay of the Spaulding enthusiastically regarding the mission of the newly formed association, and stated that they would be glad to have that it would work generally for the benefit of the city as well as the individual and collective good of its members.

In addition to boosting and seeking new business for the hotels of Duluth, the hotel men's association will be a mutual protective organization. It seeks to protect its members against the unwelcome and unprofitable intrusions of the professional tourist-deadbeat. There are many other round details that will come within the scope of the association, but one of the most important is that the new association is to enter the field of giving the advantages of this city publicity in the outside world.

RAILROADS

TRAVEL ON THE INCREASE

Northwestern Road Forced to Add Another Sleeper to Train.

A notable increase has been made during the past week in the travel over the railroads from all parts to Duluth. Especially has the business been increased on the Chicago & Northwestern line, which has found it necessary to add another sleeper to the trains between Duluth and the Windy City, making now four sleepers in all.

For a while this spring, travel fell off markedly, but it has picked up, until all the roads have found it necessary to enlarge their trains. Every train coming and going is filled to its capacity.

A change in the equipment of the Twilight Limited of the Northwestern line has just been made. One of the old wooden observation cars has been replaced by a modern large, well equipped steel observation car. The company is replacing the wooden cars with steel cars, as they are found to be unfit for further use. It will be but a few years when the traveling public will be riding in only steel cars.

PLAN 3-CENT FARES FOR MINNESOTA LINES.

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Final arrangements of schedules, alterations of fares and other items incident to the restoration of the 3-cent fare in Minnesota will be discussed by the Western Passenger association in Chicago today. J. C. Moore, assistant general manager and agent of the Northern Pacific, left last night to attend the conference.

ADVERTISING STATE AS SUMMER RESORT.

The Duluth & Iron Range road is extensively advertising Northern Minnesota in various ways, and the latest is by small cards which are distributed throughout the hotels and public buildings all over the state. That, calls attention to the excellent opportunities for fishing, canoeing, hunting and other pleasures to be had in the Vermilion region. The card is a neat one, and while it calls the attention of the visitor to the comforts of the Northwest, it is a boost for the road, which is the only one to this section of the country.

Freight Agents Talk.

Kansas City, Mo., June 21.—Subjects covering different phases of the freight agents' work and the relations existing between the railroads and the shippers were discussed at today's session of the annual convention of the American Association of Freight Agents.

AMONG RAILROAD MEN

W. B. Dixon, assistant general passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, is in the city today from St. Paul.

W. H. Snyder, St. Paul, traveling passenger agent for the Burlington road, is one of the railroads visiting Duluth.

H. Johnson, general agent of the Duluth & Iron Range road, returned this morning from New York, where he has been for several days on business.

P. B. Beideman, general manager of the Great Northern road, is here from St. Paul for the day.

H. R. Ballard, general agent for the New York Central lines at St. Paul, is a business caller in the city today.

ERICK MAKI IS FOUND GUILTY

Verdict of Murder in First Degree Returned at Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Culminating in the first degree with the punishment of a life sentence in the state penitentiary, is the finding of the jury in the district court that tried the case of the state vs. Erick Maki, charged for killing 6-year-old Early Reilly by choking him to death here last week. The jury took the case last night at 6 o'clock and returned a verdict this morning.

County Attorney Fleming made an eloquent plea to the jury and detailed the consecutive events of the case, the jury listening to him with the closest attention. In his plea Attorney Fleming charged the jury to find Maki guilty and throw the blame on John Bakula, the aged grandfather, accusing him of doing the act, and that he and cry against Maki to protect himself.

Earl, the attorney claimed, had not been properly taken care of by his grandfather, who had allowed him to sleep in the barn, and that he had been drinking. Maki went to Bakula's house, where there was a fire, and took the child to the barn, and there he choked him to death. Maki was found by the jury, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

During his testimony Maki explained his movements during the day of crime. He had been drinking, he said, with three boys, and he had been afterwards put on the stand. In the evening he was at his neighbor, Andrew Hill's house, where there was a fire, and he went to Bakula's house, where he found the child, and he choked him to death.

Blood From Scratches.
The blood on his hands he claimed came from scratches he had made on the steps and railing by falling on the walls of the hall in Hill's house. With his hands he claimed he had left Hill's house and then walked to the barn, where he found the child, and he choked him to death.

The Judge's Charge.
Judge C. W. Stanton of Bemidji, in his charge to the jury asked them to give their best, most honest and most careful consideration of the case. Circumstantial evidence, said the judge, is entitled to as much consideration as direct evidence. The essential element in this case is the fact that Earl Maki killed Early Reilly. If you are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that he did the killing, you will return a verdict of guilty. A statement that a crime cannot be committed without a motive does not determine whether a crime was committed or not.

LONGEST DAY OF THE YEAR

Today is the longest day in the year. It is longer by one minute than yesterday was and tomorrow will be taking the period of sunlight as indicating the length of the day. Since Dec. 21 last year days have been lengthening by one or two minutes daily.

The sun rose this morning at 4:12 and it will set at 8:06 tomorrow, making fifteen hours and fifty-five minutes of sunlight. Yesterday it rose at 4:12 and set at 8:06, tomorrow it will rise at 4:12 and set at 8:07.

The change in the length of the day but each succeeding day will be a minute or two shorter than the last, and it will not be many weeks before the change will be evident to everyone.

CLUB HOUSE FOR MILITIA

Crew of Gopher Will Have Headquarters on Park Point.

Piling All in and Work About to Be Started on Building.

Work has already been started on the new clubhouse to be erected near the life saving station on Park Point for the Duluth naval militia.

It will cost $5,000 and will be modern in every respect. The property on which it is being erected is described as lots 120, 132 and 134 St. Louis avenue, Upper Duluth.

The money was appropriated by the state legislature in the session of two years ago. The land was purchased by the Park Realty company.

The clubhouse will be 44 by 50 feet. The plans were drawn by Kelly & Lignell. The piling is all in and work on the clubhouse will be begun now.

The house was necessary, as up to this time there has been no place in which to hold the complete state clubhouse will be made a sort of general headquarters of the members of the naval militia.

The clubhouse will be a two-story building. On the first floor there will be lockers, a work room, a store room, a lounge and the quarters of the captain. On the second floor there is a large ball room and a dining hall.

News from St. Paul was received today to the effect that the attorney general's department has approved the plans selected as the site of the clubhouse.

An officer of the naval militia in Duluth said that as a general thing people do not appreciate the great amount of supplies that are needed by the militia, and under what difficulties the officers and men are obliged to procure them. The new clubhouse will be a big convenience, he said.

Taft Roasts Fake "Cures"

to the necessity of passing at this session an amendment to the food and drug act of June 30, 1906, which will suppress existing laws and prevent the shipment in interstate and foreign commerce and the manufacture and sale of the territories and the District of Columbia of worthless nostrums, and with misstatements of facts as to their physiological action, misstatements false and misleading in the knowledge of those who make them.

Law Passed in 1906.
"On June 30, 1906, after an agitation of twenty years, the food and drug act was passed by the Fifty-ninth congress, received the approval of the president and became law. The purpose of the measure was twofold—first, to prevent the adulteration of food and drugs, and second, to prevent any false labeling of foods, drugs and medicines. The purpose of the federal government was to protect the people from the sale of worthless nostrums, and to prevent the shipment in interstate and foreign commerce and the manufacture and sale of the territories and the District of Columbia of worthless nostrums, and with misstatements of facts as to their physiological action, misstatements false and misleading in the knowledge of those who make them."

cures eliminated false and extravagant claims from their labels, either voluntarily or under the compulsion of criminal prosecution.

Some Rank Frauds.
"Nearly 100 criminal prosecutions on this charge were concluded in the federal courts by pleas of guilty and the imposition of fines. More than 150 cases of the same nature, involving some of the rankest frauds by which the American people were ever deceived are pending now, and must be dismissed."

"I fear, if no remedial legislation be enacted at this session, that the good which has already been accomplished in regard to these nostrums will be undone, and the people of the country will be deprived of a powerful safeguard against dangerous frauds. Of course as pointed by the supreme court, any attempt to legislate against mere expressions of opinion would be abortive; nevertheless, if knowingly false misstatements of fact as to the nature of the preparations be provided against, the greater part of the evil will be subject to control."

"The statute can be easily amended to include the evil I have described. I recommend that this be done at once as a matter of emergency."

WOOL BILL IS PASSED

Twenty-Five Republicans Vote
With Democrats in Its Favor.

Six Minnesotans Among Those Who Take That Course.

Washington, June 21.—The house of representatives, by a vote of 221 to 190, passed the Underwood wool tariff revision bill late yesterday providing for a reduction of the duty on wool and manufacturers of wool. Twenty-five Republicans voted with the Democrats for the passage of the measure, and one Democrat, Representative Francis of Ohio, voted against it.

The Republicans who voted for the bill were Representatives Anderson of Minnesota, Anthony, Campbell, Davis of Minnesota, French, Haugen, Helgeson, Kent of California, La Follette, Lindberg of Minnesota, Madison, Miller of Minnesota, Morse, Murdock, Nelson, Norris, Rees, Sloan, Stearnson of Minnesota, Stephens of Woods of Iowa, and Young of Kansas. Many amendments were offered and voted down, the only one adopted being a slight change in phraseology. Almost five hours were spent by the committee under the five-minute rule. Immediately preceding the final vote, a motion offered by Representative Payne of New York that the bill be resubmitted to the ways and means committee with instructions that it await a report from the tariff board on the woolen industry before making final report on the bill, was lost by a vote of 152 to 113.

Democrats Balked.
While some Democrats proposed amendments, with one exception they voted with the party when the bill came to passage.

Representative Gray of Indiana offered an amendment to place raw wool on the free list, but the committee, as the bill provides, and to recommend the bill to the committee with instructions that manufactures of wool be reduced to 20 per cent ad valorem. This was lost.

Representative Murdock, one of the insurgents who finally voted for the bill, proposed several amendments placing certain grades of wool on the free list. His purpose in these amendments, he stated, was to give to the American people protection from the worsted by making free "those articles which enter into the manufacture of trust-controlled woolen products."

Mr. Murdock appealed to Representative Harrison of New York, a Democratic member of the ways and means committee, and to others of the party who had favored placing wool on the free list, to support him. Mr. Harrison replied that he had voted for the bill, although he would have placed raw wool on the free list if his personal desires had prevailed.

After the bill had passed, a message was read from President Taft in response to a request which had been made for certain information from the tariff board in regard to the woolen question. The message stated that the desired information could not be furnished at this time.

Provisions of Bill.
The bill as passed places a duty of 20 per cent ad valorem on raw wool imports as against an average duty of a little more than 44 per cent ad valorem under the present law. On partly manufactured wool and on products manufactured in whole or in part from wool, the average duty under the proposed law would be about 42.5 per cent ad valorem as compared with the present average ad valorem duty of more than 90 per cent. The ways and means committee has reported in the bill would reduce the annual revenue under the woolen schedule of the tariff by a little more than $1,000,000. The bill prescribes that it shall be in effect Jan. 1, but it is not believed the bill will pass the senate at this session.

Declines Montana Offer.
Grand Forks, N. D., June 21.—Dean A. Bruce of the law school recently refused an offer from the University of Montana to become head of the department of law at that institution. The offer was a very attractive one and was a distinct recognition of Dean Bruce's ability as an educator.

WHEAT YIELDS IN UNITED STATES

Government Statisticians Say Improved Methods Bring Bigger Crops.

The recent estimate that the 1911 wheat crop will be the largest ever produced in the United States, as announced by the department of agriculture, lends interest to the records of production in, and movements into and out of the country of wheat and its products as published by the bureau of statistics, department of commerce and labor. Wheat has always been an important factor both in the production and commerce of the United States, and continues to increase in importance in the matter of production, though somewhat decreasing in the quantity exported.

The wheat production in the United States in 1910 was 236,000,000 bu; in 1909, 495,500,000 bu; in 1908, 495,500,000 bu; in 1907, 495,500,000 bu; in 1906, 495,500,000 bu; in 1905, 495,500,000 bu; in 1904, 495,500,000 bu; LEAGUE WILL BE BETTER SHOULD RED WING QUIT

A story on this page tells of the threatened dropping out of the league of Red Wing. It might be perfectly right to say here, that history has a way of repeating itself. The Herald also has the story of the Minny league season, it was pointed out in the columns of The Herald that this league would never be a success and that the fans at the head of the lakes would take interest in the league as towns of the baseball caliber of Red Wing were in the organization. Long season, it true, will occasion no particularly hard feelings in this section of the town and uncut.

STRENUOUS TRAINING STARTS FOR OARSMEN

With but a month before the regatta of the Duluth regatta, the oarsmen of the Duluth Boat club will put in the remainder of their strenuous period of training. The men who will be in the regatta, but no one knows definitely as to a final list of the oarsmen. Under the guiding hand of Ten Eyck, the men seem to be working harder and harder, which counts in the end. The weather the past few days has been very hot and has helped to bring the crew along. While many things have happened in the training, the oarsmen of the crew are confident that the Duluth eight will give a very good account of itself.

HIGHLANDERS WIN BY STRONG FINISH.

New York, June 21.—New York pounded out nine hits and scored seven runs in the last two innings yesterday and nosed out Boston, 9 to 3. Chase drove in the winning run with a hit and the Yankees won the game. The Sox had not sent a man in from third in the eighth, but the Yankees did some brilliant fielding. Ford was hit brisly and lasted only three innings. Score: New York, 9; Boston, 3. Ritzsch, 2b, 4; Ritzsch, 1b, 4; Ritzsch, 3b, 4; Ritzsch, c, 4; Ritzsch, ss, 4; Ritzsch, p, 4. SAY DUMAS IS A SLEUTH

Cass Lake Friends of Accused Man Advance Theory.

City Is Divided Over Accusations Against Its Mayor.

Cass Lake, Minn., June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—There are no new developments here in the Dumas situation. Some people here seem to think the man guilty, judging from the evidence, but others are very much in doubt and think that when the game is over Dumas will turn out to be "King of Heroes" instead of the Crooks.

While it may seem preposterous at this time to make the assertion, a few who have studied the matter over thoroughly and watched different residents and conversed with those who have close relations to the doctor, are inclined to believe that the "King of Crooks" is nothing more than a detective and has been working out a game which promises to outwit anything in the Northwest for the last four years.

The manner in which the doctor takes things would induce one to believe that he is being honored instead of apparently disgraced. He states emphatically and without nervousness that he will be proved absolutely innocent of every charge against him, and that there is no question about it. Dumas laughs and jokes, tells stories and is especially interested in the baseball game. It is confidently believed that he would be Dumas all that is charged and able to pull off games at will. He has been charged with knowledge of his acquaintance with the outlaws, knowledge of their games and quick solution of different criminal acts.

Has Been Criticized.
Ever since the doctor took up his residence in this village his actions have been criticized by the public, but he is a good mixer, popular with boys, a prominent member of the local baseball team, and has been elected to the position of captain of the team. He has been elected to the position of captain of the team.

Argues His Own Case.
J. D. Campbell of the St. James hotel, was found guilty of having assaulted Andrew Dumas, a fruit store owner in the same building. Campbell was fined $5 and costs. He acted as his own attorney. It seems that Campbell had a difficulty over some obstruction on the sidewalk which Campbell declared Dumas was responsible.

Careless Blasting.
Reports of careless blasting near Twentieth avenue east and Sixth street were made to the police department this morning. It is claimed that the blasts were not properly covered and that large stones flew in all directions. No one was injured, but it was stated that there were several narrow escapes.

Peter Sani Dead.
Fred Arnold, district attorney at Eau Claire, Wis., this morning notified Chief Troyer of the police department of the death of Peter Sani at Fairchild, Wis. He was accidentally killed by a train. He was about 40 years old. He resided in this city, where his relatives are trying to locate. The body of Peter Sani will probably be buried this evening.

Saloon Man Bankrupt.
A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed by the clerk of this court with the clerk of the United States circuit court, in which he gives his liabilities as $1,200, while his assets amount to $145. He was a saloon keeper and contractor at Boyer.

Augustana Synod Also Scores Dancing and Dramatic Work in Schools.

Convention Closes After Urging Strict Observance of Sunday Laws.

Taking a stand against Sunday baseball and other amusements on Sunday and scoring the school authorities for allowing the introduction of dancing and theatrical performances in the schools of the country, the Augustana Synod of Evangelical Swedish Lutheran churches of North America closed a week's session at Bethany church at 3:30 o'clock last evening. The convention next year will be held at the Bethany church.

Alley To Be Improved.
It was decided at a meeting held at this time to make the alley between Twentieth and Twenty-third streets, by property owners interested, to improve Fifth alley between Twentieth and Twenty-third streets east. They will ask to have the grade reduced and lay a 10-foot pavement.

Jury Favors Husband.
The jury in the divorce case brought by Mrs. Anna Pestka against her husband, August Pestka, returned a verdict for the defendant, Mrs. Pestka, claiming that the husband had been guilty of adultery. The trial of the case took place before Judge Dibell.

BUYS PANAMA CANAL BONDS

Steenerson Takes 31,000 of New Issue at Over 102.

Other Minnesota Bidders Are Successful in Getting Them.

Washington, June 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Steenerson has subscribed for 31,000 of the Panama canal bonds about to be issued by the secretary of the treasury. The price bid by Mr. Steenerson in this block of bonds ranges from 102 1/2 to 103 1/2. In explaining his bid today Representative Steenerson said: "I have always taken great interest in the Panama canal, and I think every citizen should help to the first government loan offered for government deposits, but $1,000 worth of bonds I should like to keep for myself. I want to make me feel that I am part owner in the canal. The whole amount of cash involved in the transaction is $3,100. The balance, if the parties involved in this bond want them, will be paid in thirty days."

Other successful Minnesota bidders are: J. N. Nervi, Charles J. Sawyer, Elmore M. Sawyer and Grace Nervi, over 100 each, at 102 1/2, 102 3/4, 103, 103 1/4, 103 1/2, 103 3/4, 104, 104 1/4, 104 1/2, 104 3/4, 105, 105 1/4, 105 1/2, 105 3/4, 106, 106 1/4, 106 1/2, 106 3/4, 107, 107
